

Alumni Spotlight: Rob Salvatore and Jack Kloster

Published on Alvarez & Marsal (<https://www.alvarezandmarsal.com>)

Another great A&M alumni story – this time spotlighting the true connections that are forged at A&M. Former member of A&M's Restructuring practice, Rob Salvatore, was featured in Forbes for his latest venture, Tongal, an independent digital content company, which Ad Age recently named an "A-List" company. Rob's company is backed by the talent of an extraordinary team including fellow former A&M'er, Jack Kloster, who now runs business development at Tongal. A great example of the many wonderful things that go on to happen, inside and out of A&M! <http://bit.ly/2vacwBT> [2]
