(collectively, the “Company”), and 1120701 B.C. LTD.

On July 12, 2019 the Company commenced proceedings (the “Proceedings”) in the Supreme Court of British Columbia (the “Court”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”).

On the same day, the Court granted an order (the “Initial Order”), which provides for, among other things, a stay of proceedings against the Company until July 22, 2019 (the “Stay Period”). The Stay Period was subsequently extended to September 16, 2019 by the Court on subsequent applications by the Company. Also, pursuant to the Initial Order, Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc. was appointed pursuant to the CCAA as monitor (the “Monitor”) of the business and financial affairs of the Company.

On August 22, 2019, the Court granted an order adding 1120701 B.C. Ltd (“1120”) a respondent and “Debtor” to the Proceedings.

Copies of the Initial Order and all materials filed in the Proceedings and a list of known creditors as at July 12, 2019 may be obtained at www.alvarezandmarsal.com/minisocanada (the “Monitor’s Website”).

In accordance with the terms of the Initial Order, the Company is continuing to operate in the ordinary course of business while under protection from its creditors.

The Initial Order prohibits the Company from making payment of amounts owing up to and including July 11, 2019, other than under certain conditions as set-out in the Initial Order.

Pursuant to the Initial Order, all persons having oral or written agreements with the Company or mandates under an enactment for the supply of goods and/or services are hereby restrained until further Order of the Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with, or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the Company provided in each case that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the Order Date are paid by the Company in accordance with normal payment practices of the Company or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and the Company and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by the Court.

On July 22, 2019 the Court approved a Claims Process Order allowing any Creditor who wishes to assert a claim against the Company or any Director or Officer shall file a Proof of Claim with the Monitor. Copies of the Claims Package, including the Proof of Claim form, is available on the Monitor’s Website. The Claims Bar Date (September 6, 2019) shall not apply to creditors of 1120 unless or until an amended claims process order is granted by the court.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing or require further information, please consult the Monitor's Website. Should you wish to speak to a representative of the Monitor, please contact minisocanada@alvarezandmarsal.com.

Yours very truly,

Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc.
