LINDA WASHINGTON, 35 PARK PARKING INC. and EARLSTON MORTGAGE CORP.

RESPONDENTS

AFFIDAVIT

I, Amy Barsha Washington, also known as Fengyun Shao, of 835 Eyremount Drive, West Vancouver, B.C., make oath and say as follows:

1. I am one of the Respondents named in the Petition and am the sole director of the Respondent Washington Properties (QEP) Inc. ("QEP") and a principal of all of the other Respondent corporations and as such I have personal knowledge of the facts and matters hereinafter deposed to except where stated to be on information and belief and in such case I verily believe them to be true.

Background

2. Over the course of approximately the last 14 years, I purchased a number of properties in Vancouver and West Vancouver, British Columbia primarily for the purposes of redevelopment.

- 3. In particular, in or about August 2011, I acquired approximately 10 single-family contiguous lots on Cambie Street in Vancouver between 35th and 37th Avenues. The beneficial interest in those lots was ultimately transferred by me to QEP for the purposes of the development and construction of a residential project comprising three separate buildings, together having 183 number of individual dwelling units. Those buildings were subsequently stratified, creating 183 residential strata lots (the "QEP Project" or the "Project").
- 4. QEP obtained construction financing of $80,000,000 for the QEP Project from Laurentian Bank of Canada ("Laurentian Bank") as the primary lender, with KingSett Capital Corporation ("KingSett") providing mezzanine financing. In addition, a portion of the construction financing for the Project was supplied by utilization of deposits on pre-sale strata lot purchases which deposits were insured by Trisura Guarantee Insurance Company.
- 5. KingSett further provided approximately $23,500,000 in financing for the purchase by the Respondent Prarda of 2 lots at 4361 and 4387 Cambie Street (in the vicinity of the QEP Project lands) and the refinancing of the acquisition loan for the previous purchase of 2 neighbouring lots at 4339 Cambie and 506 West 27th Avenue (these 4 lots are referred to herein as the "Prarda Lands"). That loan from Kingsett was cross collateralized with Kingsett's mezannine financing on the QEP Project and the guarantee to Laurentian of any shortfall.
- 6. Laurentian Bank also provided financing of $15,000,000 in respect of the Prarda Lands which financing was secured against the Prarda Lands in priority to the KingSett security registered against those lands. The Laurentian Prarda loan was also cross-collateralized against the QEP Lands behind its mortgage to secure the QEP construction financing.
- 7. The KingSett security was also cross collateralized and was registered as a charge against both the Prarda Lands and the QEP Lands.
- 8. The original Pro Forma for the cost of the development and construction of the 35 Park West was developed in late 2015 and estimated a total project cost of $121,870,000 with the source of funding as follows:

Cash Equity	$ 19,870,000
Laurentian Loan	$ 80,000,000
Mezzanine Financing	$ 10,000,000
Insured Purchaser Deposits	$ 12,000,000

- Total $121,870,000
- Construction on the QEP Project commenced in October 2015, at which time a related company was completing another project on 41st Avenue between Cambie and Oak, known as "41 West". The 41 West construction financing was also provided by a syndicate of banks led by Laurentian Bank.
- 10. As construction progressed on the QEP Project, costs continued to mount and delays in construction were encountered.

- 11. Both QEP Project and 41 West (together, the "Projects") were successful in that virtually all of the units were sold in presales, that is, to purchasers prior to the commencement of construction of either Project.
- 12. Despite the financing and construction difficulties, my family and I were committed to seeing the Projects through to completion with conveyances to the purchasers of their homes. This required me and my family to contribute additional equity into the Projects that was not covered by the construction financing that had been arranged. The increasing costs of these projects also caused us to have to utilize approximately $6,000,000 in KingSett advanced funds to cover interest due to Laurentian as the QEP Project came to completion and, further, required me and my husband, the Respondent Edison Washington (also known as Qiang Wang), to seek additional funds from third party lenders and, as security for those additional loans, to grant mortgages over other development properties we owned in the Lower Mainland.

PLW financing: Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu

- 13. One of the third party lenders that my husband and I approached was Mr. Tian, from whom we had previously borrowed funds.
- 14. Mr. Tian and Peter Pu, a principal of the Petitioner PLW Investment Ltd. ("PLW"), are, I understand, related through marriage and it is Mr. Tian who is senior to Pu. Although a corporate search of PLW shows that only Mr. Pu is a director and shareholder of PLW, it has consistently been Mr. Tian who has provided the direction with respect to the loans from PLW to me and my related parties, both in the making of those loans and in the process for repayment.
- 15. In 2018, PLW provided refinancing for the Belmont Lands (as defined in the Petition issued by PLW in these proceedings) and there is currently $24,800,000 outstanding in respect of that refinancing. That property consists of 3 large residential lots in the UBC area of Vancouver and has a current assessed value of $58,725,000.
- 16. In or about 2019, I again approached Mr. Tian with regard to a loan to assist in covering equity requirements for the QEP Project which was under construction and nearing completion and for which QEP needed additional funds to complete the project. Mr. Tian agreed to, and PLW did, advance approximately $8,000,000 to QEP, which was injected into the project.
- 17. As QEP continued to experience increased costs and delays in completion, KingSett became concerned as to the status of their loans and commenced foreclosure proceedings as against QEP and other cross-collateralized properties.

May 2020 Loan Meeting; SL's 60 and 163

18. In May of 2020, I approached Mr. Tian again regarding a loan to take out the balance of the KingSett loans and the remaining Laurentian debt from the Prarda Lands. By this time, QEP had repaid the entire $80,000,000 loaned by Laurentian for the QEP Project, plus all interest thereon, from the proceeds of sale of strata units, and there remained only approximately $5.8 million on Laurentian's Prarda loan, to be reduced to $3.8 million upon closings scheduled for June 30th.

- 19. In May 2020, Mr. Tian, Mr. Pu, my husband Edison Washington and I met in my home at 835 Eyremount Dr. in West Vancouver, British Columbia (the "May 2020 Loan Meeting") to discuss our loan requirements. We discussed the value of the various priorities and the state of these Respondents' debts including a large debt due to Canada Revenue Agency for GST arrears (then around $5,000,000) on the QEP Project which we had been unable to pay off.
- 20. Mr. Tian agreed in principle to provide take-out financing (the "Take-Out Loan") by advance of whatever was outstanding under the KingSett loans and Laurentian's outstanding Prarda loan amount, and agreed to refer the matter to PLW's lawyer to prepare a term sheet for the transaction.
- 21. During the May 2020 Loan Meeting, I advised Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu that to inject equity into the QEP Project, I had borrowed money in China, and that QEP had later sold two of the strata units in the QEP project, namely Strata Lots 60 and 163 ("SLs 60 and 163"), being unit numbers 605-4963 Cambie Street and 301 5077 Cambie Street, to raise the funds required to repay those borrowings. I told them that, for this reason, SLs 60 and 163 were not available as security for the Take-Out Loan.
- 22. In particular, during the May 2020 Loan Meeting I advised Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu that SLs 60 and 163 had been sold respectively, to arm's-length buyers, Pei Xia Zhang for $2,100,000 and Jin Qian for $821,649.35. I advised Messrs. Tian and Pu that although SLs 60 and 163 had been sold in China, the purchase price had been paid and the lots had not yet been transferred to the buyers, as I was waiting for either new financing to take out the remaining Laurentian and Kingsett loans or closings of sufficient other lots in the project to repay Laurentian and Kingsett to be able to transfer the two sold lots.
- 23. Now produced and shown to me and marked as exhibits to my affidavit are the following documents relating to the sale of SL 60 to Pei Xia Zhang:
  - (a) Exhibit "A" is a copy of the original handwritten purchase and sale agreement dated October 24, 2019 together with English translation. The agreement was signed by Mr. and Mrs. Sun Shoupu who are the parents-in-law of Ms Zhang;
  - (b) Exhibit "B" is proof of payment of the purchase price in Chinese yuan as set out in the purchase and sale agreement, being RMB12,000,000 made in a series of seven bank transfers from December 12, 2019 to January 13, 2020, together with a handwritten cover reconciliation prepared by my sister under my instruction and which I have personally reviewed and believe to be true and accurate, showing the then current RMB to CAD conversion rate for each payment. The payments were made by Ms Zhang's mother-in-law, Du Hou Rong and from her lenders, Xiao Jing and Sun Cheng Tao; and the funds were wired directly to Qing Dao Chu Peng Enterprises Ltd, being the company of Li Xin, and to Xu Xiao Hai, who were the carlier lenders to the QEP Project; at my instruction in repayment of that loan.

- 24. Now produced and shown to me and marked as Exhibit "C" is the agreement dated March 10, 2020 confirming the sale of SL163 to Jian Qian and the application of the purchase funds to a loan previously made by the purchaser's father, Ye Yin Qian, to our company Chongye Developments Ltd. for injection into the QEP Project, with English translation.
- 25. In the May 2020 Meeting, Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu confirmed to me and my husband that the Take-Out Loan from PLW would not encumber the two sold strata lots, SL 60 and 163, so that once Laurentian and Kingsett were repaid, they could be conveyed by QEP directly to the purchasers of those lots who had already paid for them.

Take-Out Loan Documentation

- 26. After arrangements agreed to in principle with Mr. Pu and Mr. Tian, term sheets for the Take-Out Loan were prepared by PLW's solicitors. At the time of the May 2020 Take-Out Loan, there were 16 units remaining registered in my name as trustee for QEP.
- 27. PLW was not content to rely simply upon the previously registered Laurentian and KingSett mortgages charging the unsold QEP Project strata lots, but requested an actual transfer of those units to a single-purpose company of which Mr. Pu was the sole director. Mr. Pu referred to the large GST arrears as a reason why he wanted a transfer of the properties rather than just taking security; he said he felt this would give him better priority.
- 28. At the time, 13 of the strata lots were unsold; one strata lot (strata lot 59) had been sold to my sister, Lujian Shao, but had not yet been paid for and conveyed to her; and the remaining two units, being SLs 60 and 163, had been sold as described above, with the funds paid but the titles remaining unconveyed pending receipt of discharges of the Laurentian and KingSett security.
- 29. With the agreement of both Mr. Pu and Mr. Tian, once the Take-Out Loan had been advanced, SLs 60 and 163 were to be transferred to Peixia Zhang and Jian Qian, respectively; and strata lot 59 was to be conveyed to my sister upon payment of the purchase price for the lot.
- 30. The Take-Out Loan was ultimately advanced in or about August of 2020. Laurentian and KingSett were paid out and PLW took an assignment of their debt. They required that 13 of 16 remaining QEP strata lots be conveyed to the new single purpose company owned by PLW/Tian/Pu, called 1256306 B.C. Ltd.
- 31. To give effect to this arrangement, upon advance of the Take-Out Loan, the lender did not require a transfer of Strata lots 59, 60 and 163 to 1256306 B.C. Ltd. Instead, the three strata lots were allowed to remain in my name so that they could be dealt with as I had previously agreed with Mr. Tian.
- 32. Furthermore, Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu specifically excluded SL's 59, 60 and 163 from the Net Sale Proceeds Agreement dated August 17, 2020 which was part of the Take-Out Loan closing documentation, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D" to this my affidavit. This document was drafted by PLW's counsel and sent to my counsel for signature.

33. Throughout the period from the granting of the Take-Out Loan to the present I, either personally or through my husband Edison Washington or my sister, Lijian Shao, repeatedly requested that Mr. Tian honour the deal that had been made regarding allowing the transfer of strata lots 60 and 163.

Mr. Tian imposes additional condition

- 34. Following the conclusion of that transaction, I asked Mr. Tian to allow me to transfer strata lots 60 and 163 to the buyers thereof who had paid for them and to provide discharges of the security registered against those lots.
- 35. Mr. Tian did not disagree, but at the last moment he sought to impose a new condition, namely, that he would allow the transfers to occur only once the Prarda Lands were sold.
- 36. I was disappointed that Mr. Tian was unilaterally changing our agreement, but I was confident in our ability to sell the Prarda Lands, and so I did not press the point.
- 37. The Prarda Lands were sold in or about August 2022 for approximately $34,000,000 of which the net proceeds were applied on account of PLW's loan facility.

Respondents' agreement to Receivership

- 38. In September 2022, PLW commenced these proceedings seeking appointment of a Receiver. Since then, my husband and I have spoken many times with Mr. Tian.
- 39. Initially, we were preparing to oppose the Receivership on the basis, among other things, that there was over $26,200,000 equity in the properties over which PLW held security (the "PLW Secured Properties") based on assessed value. These included 11 strata lots within the QEP project, along with properties on Eyremount Drive in West Vancouver, Nicola St, West 3rd Ave and two houses on Cambie Street in Vancouver; and the Belmont Properties.
- 40. At the time of commencement of these proceedings, the Respondents' total outstanding indebtedness to PLW, as set out in paras. 32, 36 and 37 of its Petition, was approximately $71,800,000; whereas PLW had access to approximately $98,000,000 in equity based on assessed value and after considering the indebtedness to other prior lenders and GST due to Canada Revenue Agency. This calculation of equity excludes the values of SL's 60 and 163 as set out below.
- 41. Attached hereto as Exhibit "E" is an email dated October 25, 2022 from Respondents' counsel, Dan Parlow, to PLW's counsel, Kibben Jackson, enclosing the signed by unfiled Response to Petition which sets out our position at that time, for inclusion in the motion materials.
- 42. Mr. Tian told me and my husband that the proceedings were being commenced to allow for an orderly sale of the many properties that were owned by me and my husband and our related companies and my daughter Linda, all of which were charged by PLW security.

- 43. During these discussions, Mr. Tian again assured me and my husband that if we would agree to the Receivership he would finally allow SLs 60 and 163 to be immediately discharged from all security so they could be transferred with clear title to their buyers, Pei Xia Zhang and Jian Qian. He also gave me certain other personal assurances.
- 44. On this basis, I instructed counsel not to oppose the Receivership Order and it was granted on October 27, 2022. An entered copy is attached hereto as Exhibit "F".

New condition attached by Mr. Tian

- 45. After the Receivership Order was granted, I have had many further discussions with Mr. Tian. I again approached Mr. Tian advising that the unilateral condition he had put on the transfer of the two strata lots had now been fulfilled and I asked for a discharge of the registered security to allow me to transfer SL's 60 and 163 to their purchasers Pei Xia Zhang and Jin Qian.
- 46. Mr. Tian then said he would do so, but he added a new condition that he would not provide discharges to allow those transfers to occur until the Belmont Lands had been sold. Again, I protested to Mr. Tian that that was not the agreement that I had made with him. The agreement that was made with him was that he acknowledged that those two strata lots were sold, the monies had already been paid and applied to the prior loans, and he would provide discharges of all PLW security to allow those units to be transferred.
- 47. This was very frustrating to me as the Belmont Lands, although very valuable, are not yet sold and it is impossible to say when they will be sold. Furthermore, even if we were to await the sale of the Belmont Lands I am concerned that Mr. Tian will impose new and further conditions. It is a moving target in which he constantly agrees to allow the transfer free and clear of SLs 60 and 163, I cooperate with his requests, and he then changes his position over and over.
- 48. Furthermore, SLs 60 and 163 are currently occupied by the purchasers thereof, Pei Xia Zhang and Jin Qian, although they cannot obtain title to them because of the position taken by PLW. I am continually being pressured by them to provide clear title of those units to them and they have threatened to commence legal proceedings against me.
- 49. In the absence of the promises of Mr. Tian regarding discharge of security against strata lots 60 and 163, I would have not allowed the appointment of the Receiver without opposing that application.

PLW's frustration of fair market value sales

- 50. I have been working with realtors to sell the PLW Secured Properties. It has been very difficult to sell the properties in a falling market, and we have had to reduce prices to compete with other sellers in the marketplace.
- 51. I have kept PLW apprised at all times and they have had access to information on proposed selling prices, sales techniques and have had full access to speak directly with our realtors as desired.

- 52. Recently, PLW has embarked upon extreme practices to frustrate the Respondents' efforts to sell the PLW Secured Properties at fair market value.
- 53. On or about March 8, 2023, the Petitioner did not complete the sale of Unit B505 in the QEP Project for $1,428,888, under a contract that the Petitioner had entered into as registered owner. I had discussed this contract with Mr. Pu after its execution and he had told me that he had approved and signed the contract. Attached hereto as Exhibit "G" is a copy of the signed contract as provided by our realtor, Mr. Danny Deng. The signatures were affixed by Docusign, and Mr. Pu's signature appears in para. 26 of the contract on behalf of the Seller 1256306 BC Ltd., and by a "P" wherever initials are required.
- 54. The reason for their refusal to complete the sale of Unit B505 was expressed to me directly by Mr. Tian of PLW. On March 6, 2023, Mr. Tian came to my house and asked me to declare bankruptcy so that the GST arrears due to Canada Revenue Agency would fall behind the Petitioner's priority claim. As noted above, I had discussed the large debt to CRA with Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu prior to the Take-Out Loan being advanced in 2020. In response to his request that I declare bankrupcy, I told Mr. Tian that I could not make such a decision on the spot and would have to review it with my professional advisors.
- 55. On March 7, 2023, Mr. Tian called me on the phone and we had a similar discussion. I again told him I was not prepared to agree to declare personal bankruptcy and Mr. Tian's response was that he would not close the sale of B505 the next day. He was very angry at my response and expressed this to me with very strong words on the telephone.
- 56. Shortly after, I was informed by our realtor Mr. Deng that the sale had not been completed and, to the best of my information and belief, this sale still has not been completed.
- 57. PLW has also recently refused to approve transactions with arm's-length buyers of five other strata lots within the QEP Project. I am unaware of any valid reason for the refusal of these transactions. Based on information supplied by our realtors, I verily believe the proposed purchase prices have been at fair market value.
- 58. For the five additional strata lots, I received offers through our realtors which were submitted to Mr. Pu of PLW. Mr. Pu's response to these offers was as set out below.

Unit	Buyer	Price and comments
A504	Wang, Ya Nan	Buyer's initial offer was at $1,378,000. I advised Mr. Pu that I wished to counter at $1,450,000. He refused.
A505	Yifei Li	Buyer made a second offer at $1,388,000. I advised Mr. Pu that I wished to counter at $1,428,000. He refused.

B504	Ma Pei Ling	Buyer's initial offer was at $1,400,000. I advised Mr. Pu that I wished to counter at $1,450,000. He refused.
B604	Ma Pei Ling	Buyer's initial offer was at $1,400,000. I advised Mr. Pu that I wished to counter at $1,600,000. He refused.
C501	ZhangQi Yang	Buyer's initial offer $1,300,000. I advised Mr. Pu that I wished to counter at $1,450,000. Mr. Pu approved and on March 23, 2023 he signed off on the counteroffer. On March 25, 2023 the Buyer countered at $1,330,000. I advised Mr. Pu that I wished to counter at $1,428,000. Mr. Pu refused.

- 59. When I have asked Mr. Tian and Mr. Pu why they were refusing to approve fair market value transactions, they have told me that this is because of Canada Revenue Agency's priority claim arising from outstanding GST remittances which have now risen to approximately $7,000,000. Mr. Pu has also called me twice more in the weeks after March 7, 2023 to discuss the Petitioner's request that I declare personal bankruptcy. I have not made any commitment to them.
- 60. I am advised by my bookkeeper and assistant, Ms Jessie Hung, and do verily believe, that on March 29, 2023, she had a text message exchange with Mr. Pu via WeChat wherein Ms Hung asked why Mr. Pu had refused to approve all these contracts; and Mr. Pu's reply was that the GST arrears have not yet been paid off and he asked for another discussion with me on the subject. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "H" is a copy of this WeChat message exchange with English translation.
- 61. In his previous discussions with both me and Ms Hung, Mr. Pu has raised my possible bankruptcy as a way to overcome the priority afforded to CRA in respect of the GST arrears. I therefore believe that he and Mr. Tian are continuing to refuse to approve contracts as a way to pressure me into declaring personal bankruptcy.
- 62. At no point has either Mr. Tian or Mr. Pu suggested that the proposed sale prices are too low. Based on our continuing discussions, they are well aware that the transactions were recommended by our realtors. As noted above, they have full access to the realtors.
- 63. In addition, PLW has refused to agree to a sale at fair market value of $8,100,000 for a property at 835 Eyremount in West Vancouver, B.C. owned by me and over which they have security. PLW initially agreed to a sale of this property for $8,250,000 inclusive of costly staged furniture which we do not own, but they now refuse to approve the sale at $8,100,000 without furniture.

- 64. Effectively, PLW is blocking a sale at $8.1m in favour of potential sale for $8.25m which is no longer available, and which would include expensive furniture that was supplied by a staging company and which, to complete the sale, we would have to arrange to purchase ourselves.
- 65. The Eyremount property has been listed for sale for some three months and this is by far the best offer received.
- 66. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "I" is an email exchange between my counsel and PLW's counsel regarding PLW's refusal to consent to this proposed sale. At the conclusion of the April 3rd email they say "PLW is not prepared to discharge its CPL and registered mortgages from the Property to facilitate the sale of the Property for a sale price of $8.1M". After my counsel wrote back on April 5th imploring PLW not to allow this deal to be lost, PLW's counsel offers the excuse that the stay of the Receivership is soon ending.
- 67. PLW's refusal to release its security on this basis is frustrating all efforts by the Respondents to deal with their obligations.
- 68. My lawyers have recently sought to search PLW's corporate records available to the public pursuant to the BC Business Corporations Act. Mr. Tian responded with anger to this straightforward request. He called me to demand to know why my lawyers wanted to look at the company records and stating that he would not allow it. I replied that it was a simple request under BC law. His response was that things vis a vis the receivership in these proceedings "would not go forward cooperatively", or words to that effect, if we persisted in making this request.
- 69. PLW's lawyer sent emails to my lawyer, Neil Kornfeld, QC on March 21 and 23, 2023, ultimately enclosing the requested registers but making certain additional demands. A copy of the email string is now shown to me and Exhibit "J" to this my affidavit. In his email of March 23, PLW's counsel advised that as "the deferral of the receiver's appointment expires in early April, creating suspicion and lessening trust between the parties makes it more difficult for the Washington Group and PLW to work through the sale of the Washington Group real properties..."
- 70. Based on the information set out above, I believe that PLW is frustrating fair market value sales in an effort to compel me to declare personal bankruptcy, to take retribution against me, and to support the reinstatement of a Receiver which the Respondents have, through their counsel, advised they oppose.
- 71. I make this affidavit in support of applications for an Order to set aside or further stay the appointment of the Receiver, and ultimately, for an Order discharging all PLW security from SLs 60 and 163; such that the sale and distribution of the remaining PLW Secured Property may proceed in an orderly fashion.

Urgency

- 72. There is urgency for the hearing of this application in that the appointment of the Receiver, Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc. appointed pursuant to the Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Giaschi, has been stayed by consent of the parties with the last Order being that of Justice Riley entered February 8, 2023, having been fixed to expire April 7, 2023 "or such other date as may be specified by further order of this court".
- 73. There will be substantial uncertainty and delay with respect to required sales should there be a lengthy hiatus period between April 7, 2023 and the date of the Receivership is discharged or again stayed.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE CONTRACT OF PURCHASE AND SALE RESIDENTIAL

THIS INFORMATION IS INCLUDED FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF THE PARTIES ONLY. IT DOES NOT FORM PART OF THE CONTRACT AND SHOULD NOT AFFECT THE PROPER INTERPRETATION OF ANY OF ITS TERMS.

1. CONTRACT: This document, when signed by both parties, is a legally binding contract. READ IT CAREFULLY. The parties should ensure that everything that is agreed to is in writing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, under Section 42 of the Property Law Act a purchaser of "residential real property" (as defined in the Home Buyer Rescission Period Regulation) that is not exempt may rescind (cancel) the Contract of Purchase and Sale by serving written notice to the seller within the prescribed period after the date that the acceptance of the offer is signed. If the buyer exercises their right of rescission within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, this Contract of Purchase and Sale will be of no further force and effect, except for provisions relating to payment of the deposits, if any.

2. DEPOSIT(S): In the Real Estate Services Act, under Section 28 it requires that money held by a brokerage in respect of a real estate transaction for which there is an agreement between the parties for the acquisition and disposition of the real estate be held by the brokerage as a stakeholder. The money is held for the real estate transaction and not on behalf of one of the parties. If a party does not remove one or more conditions, the brokerage requires the written agreement of both parties in order to release the deposit. If both parties do not sign the authorization to release the deposit, then the parties will have to apply to court for a determination of the deposit issue.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the buyer exercises their rescission rights under Section 42 of the Property Law Act and a deposit has been paid to the seller or the seller's brokerage or anyone else, the prescribed amount that the buyer is required to pay in connection with the exercise of their rescission right will be paid to the seller from the deposit and the balance, if any, will be paid to the buyer without any further direction or agreement of the parties.

- 3. COMPLETION: (Section 4) Unless the parties are prepared to meet at the Land Title Office and exchange title documents for the purchase price, it is, in every case, advisable for the completion of the sale to take place in the following sequence:
  - (a) The buyer pays the purchase price or down payment in trust to the buyer's lawyer or notary (who should advise the buyer of the exact amount required) several days before the completion date and the buyer signs the documents.
  - (b) The buyer's lawyer or notary prepares the documents and forwards them for signature to the seller's lawyer or notary who returns the documents to the buyer's lawyer or notary.
  - (c) The buyer's lawyer or notary then attends to the deposit of the signed title documents (and any mortgages) in the appropriate Land Title Office.
  - (d) The buyer's lawyer or notary releases the sale proceeds at the buyer's lawyer's or notary's office.

Since the seller is entitled to the seller's proceeds on the completion date, and since the sequence described above takes a day or more, it is strongly recommended that the buyer deposits the money and the signed documents at least two days before the completion date, or at the request of the conveyancer, and that the seller delivers the signed transfer documents no later than the morning of the day before the completion date.

While it is possible to have a Saturday completion date using the Land Title Office's electronic filing system, parties are strongly encouraged not to schedule a Saturday completion date as it will restrict their access to fewer lawyers or notaries who operate on Saturdays; lenders will generally not fund new mortgages on Saturdays; lenders with existing mortgages may not accept payouts on Saturdays; and other offices necessary as part of the closing process may not be open.

- 4. POSSESSION: (Section 5) The buyer should make arrangements through the REALTORS® for obtaining possession. The seller will not generally let the buyer move in before the seller has received the sale proceeds. Where residential tenants are involved, buyers and sellers should consult the Residential Tenancy Act.
- 5. TITLE: (Section 9) It is up to the buyer to satisfy the buyer on matters of zoning or building or use restrictions, toxic or environmental hazards, encroachments on or by the property and any encumbrances which are staying on title before becoming legally bound. It is up to the seller to specify in the contract if there are any encumbrances, other than those listed in section 9, which are staying on title before becoming legally bound. If you as the buyer are taking

What is PLW's position for the offers on the strata lots? Are you going to sign the five offers sent to you last weekend and new offers in the future?

If in the future the properties are sold by the Receiver at prices that are lower than the prices that Danny Deng has received, PLW will be responsible for the accrued interest caused by the delay of completion and related expenses.

EXTERNAL EMAIL

Neil:

Given the receivership order is effective as of tomorrow, any sale for the Eyremount property (or any other property subject to the receivership order) will be completed by the Receiver. The Receiver will have to decide whether or not to affirm the agreement at $8.1 million. If it does so, then the sale can complete with or without my client's cooperation – the Receiver will need an approval and vesting order in any event. As of tomorrow, your client Ms. Washington will have no authority to do anything with the Eyremount property, including removing any subjects. That would have to be done by the Receiver.

In other words, you are talking to the wrong person: you should be communicating with the Receiver regarding this offer and seeking the Receiver's confirmation that it will affirm and complete it. I understand from Kibben Jackson that the Receiver has reached out to you to request certain information, but you have not responded. It would, I think, be a good idea for you to do so.

In relation to the foregoing, I can confirm on behalf of PLW that if the agreement is for a purchase price of $8.1 million, my client will cooperate with the Receiver to complete the sale (if that is the Receiver's decision), including by discharging its mortgage, should that be necessary.

As for the furniture in the house, if it truly does belong to a staging company, I have no doubt the Receiver will arrange for its return. If it belongs to Ms. Washington, then I understand it is subject to the receivership order and the Receiver can decide what to do with it, including sell it to the purchaser of the lands.

Lastly, please note no inference should be drawn from my intentional decision not to reply to your comments about any potential sale of unsold 35 Park West strata lots. Those can be dealt with by the Receiver as well.

Thank you for your email, but the conditions you propose below on behalf of your client are a virtual guarantee that this sale will be lost and my clients will be looking to yours for any losses suffered as a result. In particular and without limiting the foregoing, my client will strenuously oppose any continued interest accrual on your client's debt resulting from your client's refusal to allow an arm's length sale at fair market value to be completed and look to your client for the continued expense accruing under prior charges. Sadly your client's refusal to allow completions of fair market sales is consistent with its past position, having recently rejected, we're advised, 5 offers on strata lots in the Cambie Street QEP project as well as refusing to close the offer that it had previously accepted as Vendor for unit 505 in the project. The current Eyremount offer, does not include furniture and hence the price adjustment from $8.25 Million to the current accepted offer of $8.1 Million. I'm advised that there is no other deal on the furniture; it's simply not included and in fact will be returned to the staging company. Further, PLW's refusal to confirm acceptance of this current offer is also contrary to the representation that was made to my client that PLW would agree to discharge it's security against the property if the purchase price exceeded $8 Million. We would ask that you please discuss the matter with your client and certainly hope it will reconsider its refusal. Ms. Washington has until April 11, 2023 to remove its subject relating to delivery of title clear of financial encumbrances, but we would like to know as soon as possible that this transaction can be completed.

Neil:

Further to our discussion today, in regards to the sale of Eyremount, West Vancouver (the "Property"), PLW Investment Ltd. ("PLW") has advised that it would consent to the sale of the Property on the following conditions:

 the sale price is $8.25M, which was the sale price Amy Washington and the buyer approved in a contract of purchase and sale dated March 25, 2023 (the "Contract") (a copy of which is attached for your reference);

Thank you for your email, but the conditions you propose below on behalf of your client are a virtual guarantee that this sale will be lost and my clients will be looking to yours for any losses suffered as a result. In particular and without limiting the foregoing, my client will strenuously oppose any continued interest accrual on your client's debt resulting from your client's refusal to allow an arm's length sale at fair market value to be completed and look to your client for the continued expense accruing under prior charges. Sadly your client's refusal to allow completions of fair market sales is consistent with its past position, having recently rejected, we're advised, 5 offers on strata lots in the Cambie Street QEP project as well as refusing to close the offer that it had previously accepted as Vendor for unit 505 in the project. The current Evremount offer, does not include furniture and hence the price adjustment from $8.25 Million to the current accepted offer of $8.1 Million. I'm advised that there is no other deal on the furniture; it's simply not included and in fact will be returned to the staging company. Further, PLW's refusal to confirm acceptance of this current offer is also contrary to the representation that was made to my client that PLW would agree to discharge it's security against the property if the purchase price exceeded $8 Million. We would ask that you please discuss the matter with your client and certainly hope it will reconsider its refusal. Ms. Washington has until April 11, 2023 to remove its subject relating to delivery of title clear of financial encumbrances, but we would like to know as soon as possible that this transaction can be completed.

Given the receivership order is effective as of tomorrow, any sale for the Eyremount property (or any other property subject to the receivership order) will be completed by the Receiver. The Receiver will have to decide whether or not to affirm the agreement at $8.1 million. If it does so, then the sale can complete with or without my client's cooperation – the Receiver will need an approval and vesting order in any event. As of tomorrow, your client Ms. Washington will have no authority to do anything with the Eyremount property, including removing any subjects. That would have to be done by the Receiver.

In other words, you are talking to the wrong person: you should be communicating with the Receiver regarding this offer and seeking the Receiver's confirmation that it will affirm and complete it. I understand from Kibben Jackson that the Receiver has reached out to you to request certain information, but you have not responded. It would, I think, be a good idea for you to do so.

In relation to the foregoing, I can confirm on behalf of PLW that if the agreement is for a purchase price of $8.1 million, my client will cooperate with the Receiver to complete the sale (if that is the Receiver's decision), including by discharging its mortgage, should that be necessary.

As for the furniture in the house, if it truly does belong to a staging company, I have no doubt the Receiver will arrange for its return. If it belongs to Ms. Washington, then I understand it is subject to the receivership order and the Receiver can decide what to do with it, including sell it to the purchaser of the lands.

Lastly, please note no inference should be drawn from my intentional decision not to reply to your comments about any potential sale of unsold 35 Park West strata lots. Those can be dealt with by the Receiver as well.

- the completion date is May 25, 2023, which was the completion date under the attached Contract;
- Pacifica Mortgage Investment Corporation ("Pacifica") confirms in writing to PLW the amount to payout Pacifica's registered first and second mortgages and any charge on the personal property on the Property on May 25, 2023 is approximately $4.9M;
- the commissions payable to the realtors will be paid out from the net sale proceeds, which the listing agent has asked PLW to confirm in writing;
- the transaction would be subject to normal course closing adjustments with respect to property taxes and metered utilities, if any; and
- the balance of the net sale proceeds would be paid to PLW and applied against the outstanding amount owing under the Washington Group loan.

If the above conditions are satisfied and approved by Amy Washington, PLW will confirm in writing to Malcolm Hasman, the listing agent, that:

- PLW will discharge its CPL and mortgages registered on title to the Property, subject to receiving satisfactory undertakings from the seller's lawyer that the net sale proceeds from the transaction will be paid to PLW to be applied to the outstanding amount owing under the Washington Group Loan; and
- PLW will consent to the commissions due to the realtors being paid out from the net sale proceeds from the closing of the transaction.

A new contract was recently provided to PLW for the sale of the Property at a sale price of $8.1M ($150K less than the attached Contract). PLW is not prepared to discharge its CPL and registered mortgages from the Property to facilitate the sale of the Property for a sale price of $8.1M.

Please contact me if you have any questions or wish to discuss the proposed closing conditions.

Neil/Fay:

I attach the Register of Directors and Central Securities Register for PLW Investment Ltd., as requested.

If you can, please advise if you are obtaining these documents on behalf of the Washington Group.

If you are requesting the documents on behalf of the Washington Group, can you please advise: (a) for what purpose the documents are required; and (b) why the Washington Group did not contact the PLW principals directly to ask for this information.

PLW has become curious as to why the Washington Group requires such information. As I understand the deferral of the receiver's appointment expires in early April, creating suspicion and lessening trust between the parties makes it more difficult for the Washington Group and PLW to work through the sale of the Washington Group real properties and address the GST lien issue.

Any information you can provide to lessen PLW's concerns as to why the Washington Group (somewhat urgently) needed this information would be appreciated.
