Matti,

Thanks for your email.

As you are aware, we act for the various corporate debtors in the current CCAA proceedings.

With respect to your inquiry below, is it unclear which application you would propose that such a questioning be in respect of, and we seek your advice in that regard,

In any case, given that we do not act for Mr. Klesch personally (and he is not a party to any of the proceedings in which we are acting for the corporate entities) we do not have instructions to accept service on Mr. Klesch's behalf of a Notice of Appointment for Questioning under Rule 6.8.

In addition, please advise when we might anticipate seeing your form of application referenced in your email below.

Go to the end of this document to see what you can do and when you must do it.

Remedy claimed or sought:

1. The applicant, Tamarack Valley Energy Ltd. ("TVE"), respectfully seeks an Order substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule "A":

- a. abridging the time for service of notice of this Application (if necessary), deeming service of notice of this Application to be good and sufficient, and declaring that there is no other person who ought to have been served with notice of this Application;
- b. abridging the time for service of notice of any Notices of Appointment for Questioning served under Rule 6.8 of the Alberta Rules of Court (if necessary), and deeming service of any such Notices of Appointment to be good and sufficient;
- c. directing that pursuant to the doctrine of marshalling, Signal Alpha C4 Limited and Trafigura Canada Ltd. (collectively, the "Lenders"), are required to realize upon the Share Pledge (as defined below) provided by Spicelo Limited ("Spicelo") in satisfaction of the debt owing by Griffon Partners Operation Corp. ("GPOC") in priority to the proceeds from the SISP (as defined below);
- d. declaring that Spicelo is not entitled to subrogate to the Lenders' security position as against GPOC in priority to TVE; and
- e. such further and other relief as counsel may request and this Honourable Court deem just.

Grounds for making this application:

Priority of Secured Interests of the Lenders and TVE

2. On July 21, 2022, Griffon Partners Operation Corp. ("GPOC") purchased certain oil and gas assets located in Alberta and Saskatchewan from TVE for CAD$70 million (the "TVE Transaction").

3. To finance the TVE Transaction, GPOC entered into a Loan Agreement with the Lenders dated July 21, 2022, and amended as of August 31, 2022 (collectively, the "Loan Agreement"), whereby the Lenders agreed to advance USD$35,869,565.21.

DS
Initial1

DS
Initial2

4. Pursuant to the Loan Agreement, the Lenders are GPOC's senior secured creditors with a security interest in all of GPOC's present and future real and personal property.

5. As security for payment of performance of GPOC's obligations under the Loan Agreement, Spicelo and the Lenders entered into a Limited Recourse Guarantee and Securities Pledge Agreement dated July 21, 2022 (the "Share Pledge"), pursuant to which Spicelo pledged all of the common shares it holds in Greenfire Resources Ltd. as collateral (the "Pledged Shares").

6. Under the terms of the Share Pledge, in the event of a default by GPOC of the Loan Agreement, inter alia:

- a. Spicelo is absolutely and unconditionally liable to the Lenders for GPOC's obligations under the Loan Agreement as primary obligor; and
- b. the Lenders are entitled to realize upon the Pledged Shares by sale, transfer, delivery or the appointment of a receiver over the Pledged Shares.

7. The TVE Transaction was also financed by TVE pursuant to a Subordinated Secured Promissory Note in the amount of $20 million plus interest granted by GPOC in favour of TVE (the "Promissory Note"), pursuant to which TVE has a second priority security interest in all of GPOC's present or after-acquired property, subordinate only to the security interests in same granted to the Lenders.

GPOC Insolvency Proceedings

8. Within four months of entering into the Loan Agreement, GPOC defaulted on same.

9. On August 16, 2023, the Lenders issued Demands for Payment and Notices of Intention to Enforce Security pursuant to section 244 of Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, RSC 1985, c B-3 (the "BIA") to GPOC, Spicelo, and all other debtors and guarantors in these proceedings (Griffon Partners Holding Corporation, Griffon Partners Capital Management Ltd., Stellion Limited, 2437801 Alberta Ltd., 2437799 Alberta Ltd., 2437815 Alberta Ltd., collectively with GPOC and Spicelo, the "Debtors"), demanding payment for the full amount owing under the Loan Agreement by GPOC.

10. On August 25, 2023, the Debtors filed Notices of Intention to Make a Proposal under the BIA (the "NOI Proceedings").

DS
Initial1

DS
Initial2

11. On October 18, 2023, an Order was granted by this Honourable Court approving a Sale and Investment Solicitation Process through which GPOC's assets were to be marketed and sold (the "SISP").

12. The SISP was extended on several occasions without a proposal being put to the Lenders and TVE prior to the expiry of the NOI Proceedings.

13. On February 7, 2024, the NOI Proceedings were continued in the within proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985, c C-36, with a view of concluding the SISP and presenting a proposal to the Lenders and TVE.

Marshalling and Subrogation

14. The Lenders are presently owed in excess of CAD$51 million by GPOC and have recourse to recover this debt from two sources: the proceeds from the sale of GPOC's assets under the SISP, and/or by realizing upon Spicelo's Pledged Shares.

15. TVE is owed in excess of CAD$23 million by GPOC under the Promissory Note. TVE is not a party to any share pledge agreement with Spicelo and does not have any recourse for recovery of amounts owing by GPOC against Spicelo or any other of the Debtors.

16. As such, TVE's sole source of recovery of the amount owing by GPOC under the Promissory Note is from the proceeds of the SISP.

17. The SISP is nearing its conclusion and the proceeds from same will be insufficient satisfy the amount owing to the Lenders. As such, it is highly probable that there will be no funds available to TVE in the event the Lenders exercise their first priority security and realize upon all of the proceeds from the SISP.

18. TVE submits that, pursuant to the equitable doctrine of marshalling, the Lenders must first realize upon the Pledged Shares in full under the Share Pledge prior to any outstanding balance owing by GPOC from the SISP, as this would allow TVE to recover some portion of the amount owing by GPOC under the Promissory Note.

19. TVE further submits that under the terms of the Share Pledge and at equity, Spicelo does not have a right to subrogate to the Lenders' security position as against GPOC in priority to TVE.

Dear Mr. Klesch,

We have an order for substitutional service to serve you via email. We also served the conduct money on an address you use in London, England. If you wish to receive the conduct money in another manner, we can make alternate arrangements.

Although the Rules of Court stipulate five days' notice, we can abridge time for service during the hearing of the Application. Should you not attend the Questioning scheduled for tomorrow due to a technical matter such as wanting five days' notice, we can arrange for the court reporter who transcribes the Questioning to be available on March 21 instead. Please advise of your preference to have the Questioning tomorrow or on March 21.

If you do not appear for either time, we will seek instructions to either not proceed with the Application until such time as we can obtain your evidence or we will ask for the Court to draw an adverse inference in respect of your refusal to attend Questioning. This is no fishing expedition.

Thank you,
Matti

Ms. Lemmens,

I am in receipt of the attached Notice of Appointment for Questioning which you emailed to me, for the Questioning you scheduled for 9:00 a.m. (presumably Calgary time) on March 18, 2024.

Please be advised that I will not be attending this Questioning.

I understand that this Notice of Questioning is deficient for a number of reasons, including:

1. It was sent by your office at 4:57 p.m. MDT on March 14, 2024. Even if it was received by me on March 14, 2024 (and it was not) that is only 4 days before the scheduled examination date. As I am sure you are aware, the Rule 6.16(2) of the Alberta Rules of Court says that: "The notice of appointment for questioning must be served 5 days or more before the appointment date." This was not done.
2. This is made worse by the fact that I live and work in Europe and Asia, and accordingly this Notice of Appointment was not actually received by me until March 15, 2024. In fact, when I received this Notice by email I was in Almaty (Kazakhstan), so I did not receive it until March 15, 2024.

3. In addition, I have not received the required conduct money, which you indicated in your letter was being couriered to London, England. I do not reside in London and have not received any conduct money.

In any case, the scope of the Notice makes clear that you are treating this as a discovery exercise, or “fishing expedition”, which is not permitted under R.6.8.

Finally, please note that I do not have counsel acting for me personally. As you know, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP (who I have copied on this email) are representing Spicelo Limited, Stellion Limited, and the Griffon Partners entities, but Osler does not act for me personally.

Accordingly, I wanted to alert you to the deficiencies in your Notice of Questioning and give you the courtesy of letting you know that for these reasons I will not be attending the proposed Questioning on March 18.

Regards,

Jonathan Klesch

Re: ITMO the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985, c C-36 as amended

And ITMO the compromise or arrangement of Griffon Partners Operation Corporation, Griffon Partners Holding Corporation, Griffon Partners Capital Management Ltd., Stellion Limited, 2437801 Alberta Ltd., 2437799 Alberta Ltd., 2437815 Alberta Ltd., and Spicelo Limited (collectively, the "Debtors")

Court of King's Bench File No. 2401-01422
(the "CCAA Proceedings")

Hearing Dates: March 25 and 26, 2024

We are counsel for Tamarack Valley Energy Ltd. ("TVE"), a secured creditor of the debtor, Griffon Partners Operation Corporation ("GPOC"), in the above-referenced CCAA Proceedings.

On March 12, 2024, TVE filed an application in the within CCAA Proceedings returnable on March 26, 2024 (the "TVE Marshalling Application"), seeking a determination on the applicability of the equitable doctrines of marshalling and subrogation in respect of proceeds available from the sale and solicitation investment ("SISP") process of GPOC's assets and certain shares pledged by the debtor, Spicelo Limited ("Spicelo"), to GPOC's senior secured creditors, Signal Alpha C4 Limited and Trafigura Canada Ltd. (the "Lenders").

On March 15, 2024, the Debtors served an unfiled copy of their application in respect of the issues of marshalling and subrogation, returnable March 25, 2024 (together with the TVE Marshalling Application, the "Marshalling Applications").

TVE requires the evidence of Jonathan Klesch, a director and beneficial shareholder of GPOC and the sole beneficial shareholder of Spicelo, in order to fully argue its position in the Marshalling Applications.

On March, 8, 2024, TVE wrote to counsel for GPOC and Spicelo inquiring whether his firm would accept service for Mr. Klesch of a Notice of Appointment for Questioning under Rule 6.8 of the Alberta Rules of Court (the "Notice of Appointment"). Mr. Klesch is a director of those entities, so it seemed that counsel to GPOC and Spicelo would accept service. Nevertheless, on March 11, 2024, counsel for GPOC and Spicelo advised that he was not acting for Mr. Klesch and did not have instructions to accept service of the Notice of Appointment.

Based on the corporate records of Spicelo, and the results of the Alberta Corporation/Non-Profit Search Results for GPOC, so far as TVE is aware, Mr. Klesch maintains an address in London, England.

TVE therefore sought and obtained an ex parte order for service ex juris and substitutional service from this Honourable Court on March 14, 2024, allowing it to serve a Notice of Appointment on Mr. Klesch via registered mail or courier at his London, England address and via email (the “Service Order”).

TVE served a copy of the Service Order and a Notice of Appointment on Mr. Klesch via email on March 14, 2024 and via courier in London on March 15, 2024 with conduct money enclosed. The Notice of Appointment was for Mr. Klesch to be examined on March 18, 2024 beginning at 9:00 am MT.

Although Mr. Klesch responded via email to confirm that he received the Notice of Appointment via email, he only did so late on March 17, 2024, and advised that he would not attend the questioning. Counsel responded to Mr. Klesch and advised that we could proceed with questioning as scheduled on March 18 or March 21, but no response was ever received. Further, Mr. Klesch, in fact, did not attend the questioning. As a result, TVE is unable to file the transcripts from same or its brief of law and argument in support of its position in the Marshalling Applications.

TVE has served an Amended Notice of Appointment for the questioning of Mr. Klesch on March 21, 2024 beginning at 9:00 am via email, and is in the process of arranging courier service of same.

TVE respectfully requests that it be permitted to file the transcripts from Mr. Klesch’s examination under Rule 6.8 of the Rules of Court and its brief of law and argument in respect of the Marshalling Applications pending Mr. Klesch’s attendance at questioning. TVE will provide unfiled copies of Mr. Klesch’s transcripts and its brief of law and argument to the attention of the Commercial Coordinator and on the service list as soon as possible, with confirmation of filing to follow as soon as same is received from the Clerk’s Office. It is possible that Mr. Klesch does not attend questioning, at which point TVE may seek directions of this Court to adjourn the Marshalling Applications to address the evidentiary issues.

Should you have any questions or require anything further from TVE regarding this request, please contact the undersigned.

Yours truly,

STIKEMAN ELLIOT LLP
