Counsel for Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc., solely in its capacity as Monitor of 1000156489 Ontario Inc. (f/k/a DCL Corporation) and not in its personal or

TO: THE SERVICE LIST

PART I - NATURE OF THE MOTION

1. This factum is filed in support of a motion by Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc. (“A&M”) in its capacity as the monitor (in such capacity, the “Monitor”) of 1000156489 Ontario Inc. (f/k/a DCL Corporation) (the “Applicant”) in the within proceedings under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA” and the proceedings, the “CCAA Proceedings”). The CCAA Proceedings were commenced on December 20, 2022, by the issuance of an initial order by this Court (the “Court”).

2. The CCAA Proceedings have nearly run their course. Following approval of a sale transaction, a claims procedure order was granted by the Court and all filed claims in the claims procedure have since been resolved. Further, entitlement to surplus amounts in the Applicant’s registered pension plans has been definitively established pursuant to a settlement agreement that was approved by the Court in the CCAA Proceedings, and distribution of the surplus amounts in accordance with the settlement agreement has received the consent of the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario (“FSRA”). As these surplus amounts have now been received, the Monitor, on behalf of the Applicant, is now in a position to make a distribution to the Applicant’s unsecured creditors with proven claims.

3. In order to implement such a distribution, the Monitor seeks the following orders:

- (a) an order (the “Distribution Order”), which, among other things:
  - (i) authorizes the Monitor to make one or more distributions to each of the Applicant’s unsecured creditors (the “Unsecured Creditors”) that hold a proven claim in the Claims Procedure (a “Proven Claim”) on a pro rata, pari passu basis in accordance with the Proposed Distribution Methodology (as defined below); and

- (ii) approves the activities and fees of the Monitor and its counsel; and
- (b) an Order (the “Stay Extension Order”) which will, among other things, extend the Stay Period (as defined below) to June 30, 2026.

4. The proposed distributions are fair and reasonable in the circumstances and should be approved. The Proposed Distribution Methodology provides for the fair and efficient distribution of funds to the Unsecured Creditors, while also providing for sufficient reserves to fund the remainder of the CCAA Proceedings. The distributions will facilitate the continued orderly wind down of the Applicant, and permit the CCAA Proceedings to move forward to their completion.

PART II - SUMMARY OF FACTS

5. The facts regarding this motion are more fully set out in the Eleventh Report of the Monitor.<sup>1</sup>

A. The CCAA Proceedings and Chapter 11 Proceedings

6. On December 20, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), the Court granted the Initial Order, which, among other things, appointed A&M as the Monitor and granted a stay of proceedings for an initial 10-day period (the “Stay Period”). On December 29, 2022, the Court granted the Amended and <sup>1</sup> Report of the Monitor dated January 26, 2026 (“Eleventh Report”). Unless otherwise specified, capitalized terms in this factum have the same meaning as in the Eleventh Report. Unless otherwise stated, all monetary amounts referred to in this factum are expressed in Canadian dollars.

Restated Initial Order (the “ARIO”), which, among other things, approved the DIP Facility and the Final DIP Credit Agreement (each as defined in the ARIO) and extended the Stay Period.<sup>2</sup>

7. The Applicant is part of the broader DCL Group,<sup>3</sup> and the CCAA Proceedings were commenced as part of a larger coordinated restructuring of the DCL Group. In connection with this broader restructuring, on the Petition Date, HIG Color Holdings and certain of its subsidiaries (“DCL US”) filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Chapter 11 Proceedings,” and together with the CCAA Proceedings, the “Restructuring Proceedings”).<sup>4</sup>

8. As part of the Restructuring Proceedings, DCL Group conducted a sales process that culminated in a transaction (the “Transaction”) with Pigments Services, Inc. (“Pigments”), an affiliate of the pre-petition term loan lenders to the Applicant and DCL US. The Transaction was approved by the Court on March 29, 2023, and closed on April 14, 2023.<sup>5</sup> On closing, the Monitor received the following amounts from Pigments: (i) the Canadian Designated Amount Portion of USD $575,000, which was established to fund fees and costs associated with winding down the CCAA Proceedings; and (ii) the CCAA Cash Pool of USD $750,000, to be available for distribution to the Applicant’s unsecured creditors.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>3</sup> The Applicant is a subsidiary of its U.S. parent, H.I.G. Colors Inc. (“Holdings”), a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the ultimate corporate parent, H.I.G. Colors Holdings, Inc. (“HIG Colors Holdings” and, together with Holdings and its direct and indirect subsidiaries, including the Applicant and its subsidiaries, the “DCL Group”).

9. On May 8, 2023, the Court granted the “Expanded Powers Order”, which, among other things, granted the Monitor expanded powers to, among other things, oversee the wind-down activities of the Applicant.<sup>7</sup>

B. Update on Registered Pension Plans

10. The Applicant is the sponsor of various registered pension plans, including: (i) the Hourly DB Plan; and (ii) the Salaried DB Plan (collectively, the “Plans”). None of the registered pension plans were assumed by Pigments as part of the Transaction.<sup>8</sup>

11. On January 28, 2025, the Court granted the Representative Counsel Order, which appointed Ursel Phillips Fellows Hopkinson LLP as representative counsel (the “Representative Counsel”) for the purpose of representing the interests of all members of the Plans (collectively, the “Represented Parties”). Owing to the inability to obtain the Plans’ original governing documents, the Monitor, pursuant to the authority granted in the Expanded Powers Order, began negotiating with Representative Counsel regarding a consensual split of the surplus assets held by each of the Plans, which culminated in the Surplus Sharing Agreement dated August 18, 2025 (the “Settlement Agreement”).<sup>9</sup>

12. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Net Surplus of each Plan is to be divided between the Represented Parties and the Applicant, with 45% of the Net Surplus being paid to the Represented Parties and 55% being paid to the Monitor on behalf of the Applicant (the “Company

Share").<sup>10</sup> On August 25, 2025, the Court granted the “Settlement Approval Order”, approving the Settlement Agreement, and further declared that the the Applicant is entitled to the surplus in the Plans for the purposes of s. 79(3)(b) of the Pension Benefits Act.<sup>11</sup>

13. Following the granting of the Settlement Approval Order, the Monitor’s counsel has worked with Representative Counsel, the administrator of the Plans, and staff of FSRA in order to seek FSRA’s approval of the contemplated surplus distribution. On January 9, 2026, FRSA served consent orders for each of the Plans, for payment of surplus to the Monitor (i) in respect of the Hourly DB Plan in the amount of $920,505; and (ii) in respect of the Salaried DB Plan in the amount of $1,393,335, each as at September 30, 2025, plus investment earnings and adjusted for expenses to the date of payment.<sup>12</sup> As of the date of this factum, the Monitor has received payment of the Company Share in the amount of $2,286,800 and the Monitor’s portion of the Agreed Expenses.

C. The Proposed Distributions

14. On June 20, 2023, the Court granted the “Claims Procedure Order”, which, among other things, established the Claims Procedure, pursuant to which creditors were able to file claims against the Applicant or against the Applicant’s Directors or Officers, as applicable. All deadlines associated with the Claims Procedure have passed,<sup>13</sup> and all Claims have been resolved. The total amount of resolved Claims totals approximately $31.1 million.<sup>14</sup>

15. As set out above, the CCAA Cash Pool is available for distribution to the Unsecured Creditors. Further, under the terms of the Expanded Powers Order, any surplus amounts in the Plans received by the Applicant are deemed to form part of the CCAA Cash Pool. In light of the Monitor's receipt of the Company Share, the Monitor seeks to make one or more cash distributions from the CCAA Cash Pool to each of the Applicant's Unsecured Creditors holding a Proven Claim, including any tax refunds received by the Applicant in respect of any such distributions and any returned or undeliverable distributions, and from amounts remaining in the Administrative Reserve (as defined below) following payment of all amounts to be satisfied thereby. Approximately $2.2 million (net of accrued unpaid professional fees and fees to complete the remaining wind-down activities) is estimated to be available for this purpose.<sup>15</sup>

16. The proposed distributions will be made on a pro rata, pari passu basis, in accordance with the "Proposed Distribution Methodology," pursuant to which each Unsecured Creditor holding a Proven Claim will receive a pro rata distribution up to the maximum amount of the Proven Claim amount, which is projected to result in a recovery of approximately 7.1% of each Unsecured Creditor's accepted Claim amount.

<sup>13</sup> The Claims Procedure Order established a deadline of August 18, 2023 for Pre-filing Claims and Director / Officer Claims (the "Claims Bar Date") and required Restructuring Period Claims to be filed by the later of: (i) 30 days after the Monitor sent the applicable Claims Package; or (ii) the Claims Bar Date.

<sup>14</sup> Eleventh Report at paras. 1.8, 4.2-4.3.

17. All distributions will be made in Canadian dollars,<sup>16</sup> and each Claimant may transfer or assign its Claim in accordance with the Claims Procedure Order (provided that the Applicant and the Monitor will not be obliged to deal with the transferee unless written notice and satisfactory evidence has been received, and the Monitor has provided written confirmation acknowledgment). The claims of persons who were required to assert a Proven Claim in accordance with the Claims Procedure, but did not do so, will be extinguished.<sup>17</sup>

PART III - THE ISSUES AND THE LAW

18. This factum addresses the following issues:

- (a) the distributions and the Proposed Distribution Methodology should be approved;
- (b) the reports and activities of the Monitor should be approved;
- (c) the fees of the Monitor and its counsel should be approved; and
- (d) the Stay Period should be extended until and including June 30, 2026.

A. The Distributions and the Proposed Distribution Methodology Should be Approved

19. This court has jurisdiction to approve the proposed distributions pursuant to s. 11 of the CCAA, which authorizes the Court to “make any order that it considers appropriate in the circumstances.” This expansive language is intended to recognize a “broad reading of CCAA authority,” and grants the Court a wide-ranging discretion, subject only to baseline considerations of appropriateness, good faith, and due diligence.<sup>18</sup> “Appropriateness” in this context refers to whether the order in question will further “the policy objectives underlying the CCAA”, which include the timely, efficient and impartial resolution of the debtor’s insolvency.<sup>19</sup>

20. Pursuant to this authority, Justice Gascon in AbitibiBowater determined that CCAA courts have the jurisdiction to approve interim distributions to creditors prior to the termination of the CCAA proceedings.<sup>20</sup> While AbitibiBowater dealt with secured creditors, this Court has subsequently held that nothing in the CCAA precludes such a distribution from being made to unsecured creditors during ongoing CCAA proceedings:

I see no difference between an interim distribution, as in the case of AbitibiBowater, or a final distribution, as in the case of Timminco, or a distribution to an unsecured or secured creditor, so far as a jurisdiction to make the order is concerned without any plan of arrangement.<sup>21</sup>

21. Accordingly, CCAA courts have on multiple occasions approved interim distributions to unsecured creditors that have proven their claims in a claims process.<sup>22</sup> While no strict test applies to such distributions, CCAA courts have considered whether the proposed order provides for fair and efficient distributions, and whether the proposed order provides for sufficient reserves to be maintained following the distributions.<sup>23</sup>

22. The proposed distributions satisfy these criteria. The Proposed Distribution Methodology provides for the equal treatment of all Unsecured Creditors, each of whom will receive a pro rata distribution designed to ensure that they receive a fair and proportionate share of the CCAA Cash Pool.<sup>24</sup> A proportionate distribution of this type accords with the pari passu principle, a “governing principle” of Canadian insolvency law which requires assets to be distributed equally among creditors.<sup>25</sup>

23. Further, the Proposed Distribution Methodology authorizes the Monitor, on behalf of the Applicant, to establish a reverse from the funds held by the Monitor on behalf of the Applicant and distributable to Unsecured Creditors (the “Administrative Reserve”). The Administrative Reserve (which is currently estimated to be $500,000) will be used to pay all remaining professional fees and disbursement of counsel to the Applicant, the Monitor and counsel to the Monitor in respect of the CCAA Proceedings and other costs for completion of the wind-down of the CCAA Proceedings.<sup>26</sup>

24. The Monitor submits that the proposed distributions are in the best interest of the Applicant and its stakeholders and should be approved. The proposed distributions provide for a fair and efficient distribution of the CCAA Cash Pool, maintain an appropriately sized Administrative Reserve for future expenses, and will facilitate the timely wind-down of the Applicant’s estate and termination of the CCAA Proceedings.

B. The Reports and Activities of the Monitor Should be Approved

25. The Monitor seeks the approval of the actions, conduct and activities outlined in its Seventh Report, Eighth Report, Ninth Report, Tenth Report, and Eleventh Report (the “Reports”).<sup>27</sup>

26. Requests to approve a monitor’s report and activities are not unusual, and there are good policy and practical reasons for the court to do so, including: (i) allowing the monitor to move forward with the next steps; (ii) allowing the monitor to bring its activities before the Court; (iii) enabling the Court to satisfy itself that a monitor’s activities have been conducted in a prudent and diligent manner; (iv) providing protection for a monitor not otherwise provided by the CCAA; and (v) protecting creditors from delay that may be caused by re-litigation of steps.<sup>28</sup>

27. The Monitor submits that the Reports, and the activities and conduct described within, should be approved. The activities set out in the Reports have been carried out in accordance with the orders of the Court, and the Monitor has acted reasonably and in good faith throughout.

C. The Fees of the Monitor and its Counsel Should be Approved

28. The Monitor additionally seeks the approval of the following fees and disbursements:

(a) fees of the Monitor totalling $950,437.00, and disbursements in the amount of $18,850.55, each incurred from December 7, 2022, to January 17, 2026;<sup>29</sup> and

(b) fees of the Monitor’s counsel, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP (“Osler”) totalling $986,677.50, and disbursements in the amount of $2,720.79, each incurred from December 20, 2022, to December 31, 2025.<sup>30</sup>

29. In considering whether to approve fees and disbursements, the court has regard to the “overriding principle of reasonableness,” and does not engage in a docket-by-docket or line-by-line assessment of the accounts.<sup>31</sup> The following factors assist a court in assessing the reasonableness of the Monitor’s fees under the CCAA: (i) the nature, extent and value of the assets being handled; (ii) the complications and difficulties encountered; (iii) the degree of assistance provided by the company, its officers or its employees; (iv) the time spent; (v) the Monitor’s knowledge, experience and skill; (vi) the diligence and thoroughness displayed; (vii) the responsibilities assumed; (viii) the results achieved; and (ix) the cost of comparable services when performed in a prudent and economical manner.<sup>32</sup>

30. The fees and disbursements should be approved. The Monitor and Osler have acted with diligence throughout the CCAA Proceedings, and the Monitor has reviewed the fees and disbursements of Osler, which the Monitor has confirmed are reasonable in the circumstances.<sup>33</sup>

D. The Stay Period Should be Extended

31. Pursuant to section 11.02 of the CCAA, the Court may grant an extension of a stay of proceedings where: (a) circumstances exist that make the order appropriate; and (b) the debtor company satisfies the Court that it has acted, and is acting, in good faith and with due diligence.

There is no statutory time limit on how long a stay of proceedings can be extended.

32. The Stay Period currently expires on January 31, 2026. The Monitor asks that the Stay Period be extended to and including June 30, 2026. The Monitor submits that extending the Stay Period is warranted for the following reasons:<sup>34</sup>

- (a) the Applicant, with the assistance and oversight of the Monitor, continues to act in good faith and with due diligence;
- (b) the extension of the Stay Period is required to provide the necessary stability and certainty to enable the Monitor to facilitate the wind-down of the CCAA Proceedings;
- (c) the extension of the Stay Period should provide the time necessary for the Monitor to effect the proposed distributions; and
- (d) amounts currently held by the Monitor are expected to provide sufficient liquidity to fund the remaining costs anticipated to be incurred to complete the wind-down of the CCAA Proceedings (and any related wind-down proceedings such as formal bankruptcies).

PART IV - NATURE OF THE ORDER SOUGHT

33. For the reasons set out above, the Monitor requests that this Court grant the proposed Distribution Order and the proposed Stay Extension Order substantially in the form of the draft orders included at Tabs 2 and 3 of the Motion Record.

ALL OF WHICH IS RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 28th day of January, 2026.
