To whom it may concern,

RE: 0993006 B.C. Ltd. and 1014669 B.C. Ltd.

On May 25, 2026, the Supreme Court of British Columbia (the “Court”) granted an order (the “Initial Order”) to commence proceedings (the “CCAA Proceedings”) under the provisions of the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”), which appoints Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc. (“A&M” or the “Monitor”) as Monitor with enhanced powers of 0993006 B.C. Ltd., and 1014669 B.C. Ltd. (collectively, the “CCAA Debtors”).

The Initial Order provides, for among other things, a stay of proceedings initially expiring June 4, 2026 (the “Stay Period”). The Stay period may be extended by the Court from time to time. A copy of the Initial Order and other materials filed in these CCAA Proceedings are accessible on the Monitor’s website: www.alvarezandmarsal.com/mortisenova (the “Monitor’s Website”).

Pursuant to the Initial Order, all persons having oral or written agreements with the CCAA Debtors or statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods and/or services are restrained until further Order of the Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the CCAA Debtors, provided that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of the Initial Order are paid by the CCAA Debtors in accordance with normal payment practices of the CCAA Debtors or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the CCAA Debtors and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by the Court.

During the Stay Period, parties are prohibited from commencing or continuing any legal proceeding or enforcement action against the CCAA Debtors and all rights and remedies of any party against or in respect of the CCAA Debtors or their assets are stayed and suspended except in accordance with the Initial Order, or with the written consent of the Company and the Monitor, or with leave of the Court.

To date, no claims procedure has been approved by the Court and creditors are therefore not required to file a proof of claim at this time. A preliminary list of known creditors is available on the Monitor’s Website.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing or require further information, please consult the Monitor’s Website. Should you wish to speak to a representative of the Monitor, please contact Nishant Virmani at nvirmani@alvarezandmarsal.com or 1-604-639-0850.

Yours very truly,

Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc.

in its capacity as Court-appointed Monitor of the CCAA Debtors and not in its personal capacity
