Remedy claimed or sought: Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc., in its capacity as the court-appointed receiver (the "Receiver") of all of the exigible property (the "Exigible Property") of Arres Capital Inc. (the "Debtor"), pursuant to the order pronounced by the Honourable Madam Justice Strekof on February 13, 2015 and entered on July 26, 2017 (the "Order"), applies for relief substantially in the form of the order attached as Schedule "A" hereto:

1. Amending and restating the Order, pursuant to paragraph 24 thereof, in the form attached as Schedule "A" to this Application.
2. Such further and other relief as counsel for the Receiver may advise.

Grounds for making this application:

3. The Receiver was appointed as receiver of the Exigible Property pursuant to the Order and Part 9 of the Civil Enforcement Act (Alberta).
4. The Exigible Property consists of all of the property of the Debtor, of any nature or kind whatsoever, that the Receiver determines is not exempt from writ or distress proceedings.
5. The Receiver has determined that the Exigible Property consists of all of the assets, properties and undertakings of the Debtor.
6. The Order does not provide the Receiver with standard rights and powers contained in the model form of receivership order (the "Model Order") that has been drafted by the Alberta Template Orders Committee with assistance from members of the commercial list judiciary.
7. The current terms of the Order do not expressly permit or allow the Receiver to:
  - (a) operate the business of the Debtor company, even though it is contemplated that the Receiver will do so pursuant to paragraph 2 of the Order;
  - (b) acquire or dispose of the Exigible Property, even though this may be required as part of the operation of the business of the Debtor;
  - (c) apply for and obtain vesting orders in respect of the Exigible Property, even though same may be required in order for the Receiver to fulfill its common law duty to maximize the value of the Debtor's estate;
  - (d) commence, advance, settle or compromise litigation claims (other than the claims between the plaintiff and the defendant), even though a significant portion of the Exigible Property consists of either accounts receivable or litigation claims;

- (e) obtain funding to satisfy obligations that will be incurred by the Receiver and its counsel in administering the Debtor's estate; and
  - (f) rely on the benefit of a stay of proceedings pertaining to the Debtor and the Exigible Property as part of the administration of the Debtor's estate.
8. All of the above issues, amongst others, can and will be sufficiently addressed through the Model Order.
  9. The Receiver has determined, after consultation with its legal counsel, based on its conclusion that all of the assets, properties and undertakings constitute the Exigible Property and following engagement with each of the Plaintiff and the Debtor, that the estate of the Debtor cannot be effectively or efficiently administered through the current form of Order and that the Order should be amended based on the Model Order. The Receiver's determination is an exercise of its reasoned and informed business judgment and is entitled to significant deference from this Honourable Court.
  10. Such further and other grounds as counsel for the Receiver may advise.

Material or evidence to be relied on:

11. The First Report of the Receiver, dated October 11, 2017, filed.
12. The transcripts from previous applications in the within proceedings occurring on February 13, 2015 and April 22, 2015.
13. Such further and other material as counsel for the Receiver may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

Applicable rules:

14. Rule 6.3(1) and 11.27 of the Alberta Rules Of Court, Alta. Reg. 124/2010.
15. Such further and other rules as counsel for the Receiver may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

Applicable acts and regulations:

16. Part 9 of the CEA.

17. Such further and other acts and regulations as counsel for the Receiver may advise or this Honourable Court may permit.

Any irregularity complained of or objection relied on:

18. There are no irregularities complained of or objections relied on.

How the application is proposed to be heard or considered:

19. The Receiver proposes that the Application be heard in person with one, some or all of the parties present.

WARNING

If you do not come to Court either in person or by your lawyer, the Court may give the applicant(s) what they want in your absence. You will be bound by any order that the Court makes. If you want to take part in this application, you or your lawyer must attend in Court on the date and at the time shown at the beginning of the form. If you intend to rely on an affidavit or other evidence when the application is heard or considered, you must reply by giving reasonable notice of the material to the applicant.

DUTY TO PROVIDE ACCESS AND CO-OPERATION TO THE RECEIVER

4. (i) The Debtor, (ii) all of its current and former directors, officers, employees, agents, accountants, legal counsel and shareholders, and all other persons acting on its instructions or behalf, and (iii) all other individuals, firms, corporations, governmental bodies or agencies, or other entities having notice of this Order (all of the foregoing, collectively, being "Persons" and each being a "Person") shall forthwith advise the Receiver of the existence of any Exigible Property in such Person's possession or control, shall grant immediate and continued access to the Exigible Property to the Receiver, and shall deliver all such Exigible Property (excluding Exigible Property subject to liens the validity of which is dependant on maintaining possession) to the Receiver upon the Receiver's request.

5. All Persons shall forthwith advise the Receiver of the existence of any books, documents, securities, contracts, orders, corporate and accounting records, and any other papers, records and information of any kind related to the business or affairs of the Debtor, and any computer programs, computer tapes, computer disks, or other data storage media containing any such information (the foregoing, collectively, the "Records") in that Person's possession or control, and shall provide to the Receiver or permit the Receiver to make, retain and take away copies thereof and grant to the Receiver unfettered access to and use of accounting, computer, software and physical facilities relating thereto, provided however that nothing in this paragraph 5 or in paragraph 6 of this Order shall require the delivery of Records, or the granting of access to Records, which may not be disclosed or provided to the Receiver due to the privilege attaching to solicitor-client communication or documents prepared in contemplation of litigation or due to statutory provisions prohibiting such disclosure.

6. If any Records are stored or otherwise contained on a computer or other electronic system of information storage, whether by independent service provider or otherwise, all Persons in possession or control of such Records shall forthwith give unfettered access to the Receiver for the purpose of allowing the Receiver to recover and fully copy all of the information contained therein whether by way of printing the information onto paper or making copies of computer disks or such other manner of retrieving and copying the information as the Receiver in its discretion deems expedient, and shall not alter, erase or destroy any Records without the prior written consent of the Receiver. "Regulatory Body" means a person or body that has powers, duties or functions relating to the enforcement or administration of an Act of Parliament or of the legislature of a province.

NO EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OF REMEDIES

9. All rights and remedies (including, without limitation, set-off rights) against the Debtor, the Receiver, or affecting the Exigible Property, are hereby stayed and suspended except with the written consent of the Receiver or leave of this Court, provided however that this stay and suspension does not apply in respect of any "eligible financial contract" (as defined in the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3 ("BIA")) and further provided that nothing in this paragraph shall (i) empower the Receiver or the Debtor to carry on any business which the Debtor is not lawfully entitled to carry on, (ii) exempt the Receiver or the Debtor from compliance with statutory or regulatory provisions relating to health, safety or the environment, (iii) prevent the filing of any registration to preserve or perfect a security interest, or (iv) prevent the registration of a claim for lien.

RECEIVER TO HOLD FUNDS

12. All funds, monies, cheques, instruments, and other forms of payments received or collected by the Receiver from and after the making of this Order from any source whatsoever, including without limitation the sale of all or any of the Exigible Property and the collection of any accounts receivable in whole or in part, whether in existence on the date of this Order or hereafter coming into existence, shall be deposited into one or more new accounts to be opened by the Receiver (the "Post Receivership Accounts") and the

Subject to employees' rights to terminate their employment, all employees of the Debtor shall remain the employees of the Debtor until such time as the Receiver, on the Debtor's behalf, may terminate the employment of such employees. The Receiver shall not be liable for any employee-related liabilities, including any successor employer liabilities as provided for in section 14.06(1.2) of the BIA, other than such amounts as the Receiver may specifically agree in writing to pay, or in respect of its obligations under sections 81.4(5) or 81.6(3) of the BIA or under the Wage Earner Protection Program Act, S.C. 2005, c.47 ("WEPPA").

14. Pursuant to clause 7(3)(c) of the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act, S.C. 2000, c. 5, the Receiver shall disclose personal information of identifiable individuals to prospective purchasers or bidders for the Exigible Property and to their advisors, but only to the extent desirable or required to negotiate and attempt to complete one or more sales of the Exigible Property (each, a "Sale"). Each prospective purchaser or bidder to whom such personal information is disclosed shall maintain and protect the privacy of such information and limit the use of such information to its evaluation of the Sale, and if it does not complete a Sale, shall return all such information to the Receiver, or in the alternative destroy all such information. The purchaser of any Exigible Property shall be entitled to continue to use the personal information provided to it, and related to the Exigible Property purchased, in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use of such information by the Debtor, and shall return all other personal information to the Receiver, or ensure that all other personal information is destroyed.

LIMITATION ON ENVIRONMENTAL LIABILITIES

15. (a) Notwithstanding anything in any federal or provincial law, the Receiver is not personally liable in that position for any environmental condition that arose or environmental damage that occurred:

- (ii) after the Receiver's appointment unless it is established that the condition arose or the damage occurred as a result of the Receiver's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- (b) Nothing in sub-paragraph 15(a) exempts a Receiver from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by a law referred to in that sub-paragraph.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything in any federal or provincial law, but subject to sub-paragraph (a) hereof, where an order is made which has the effect of requiring the Receiver to remedy any environmental condition or environmental damage affecting the Exigible Property, the Receiver is not personally liable for failure to comply with the order, and is not personally liable for any costs that are or would be incurred by any person in carrying out the terms of the order,
  - (i) if, within such time as is specified in the order, within 10 days after the order is made if no time is so specified, within 10 days after the appointment of the Receiver, if the order is in effect when the Receiver is appointed, or during the period of the stay referred to in clause (ii) below, the Receiver:
    - A. complies with the order, or
    - B. on notice to the person who issued the order, abandons, disposes of or otherwise releases any interest in any real property affected by the condition or damage;
  - (ii) during the period of a stay of the order granted, on application made within the time specified in the order referred to in clause (i) above, within 10 days after the order is made or within 10 days after the appointment of the Receiver, if the order is in effect when the Receiver is appointed, by,
    - A. the court or body having jurisdiction under the law pursuant to which the order was made to enable the Receiver to contest the order; or
    - B. the court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy for the purposes of assessing the economic viability of complying with the order; or

- (iii) if the Receiver had, before the order was made, abandoned or renounced or been divested of any interest in any real property affected by the condition or damage.

LIMITATION ON THE RECEIVER'S LIABILITY

- 16. Except for gross negligence or wilful misconduct, as a result of its appointment or carrying out the provisions of this Order the Receiver shall incur no liability or obligation that exceeds an amount for which it may obtain full indemnity from the Exigible Property. - 18. The Receiver and its legal counsel shall pass their accounts from time to time.
- 19. Prior to the passing of its accounts, the Receiver shall be at liberty from time to time to apply reasonable amounts, out of the monies in its hands, against its fees and disbursements, including the legal fees and disbursements, incurred at the normal rates and charges of the Receiver or its counsel, and such amounts shall constitute advances against its remuneration and disbursements when and as approved by this Court.

The whole of the Exigible Property shall be and is hereby charged by way of a fixed and specific charge (the "Receiver's Borrowings Charge") as security for the payment of the monies borrowed, together with interest and charges thereon, in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subordinate in priority to the Receiver's Charge and the charges set out in sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4) and 81.6(2) and 88 of the BIA.

21. Neither the Receiver's Borrowings Charge nor any other security granted by the Receiver in connection with its borrowings under this Order shall be enforced without leave of this Court.

24. In the event that the Exigible Property, or any proceeds, receipts and disbursements arising out of or from the Exigible Property, are insufficient to pay the Receiver's Charge or the accounts rendered by the Receiver from time to time relating to the performances of its duties and obligations pursuant to this Order, then and only then shall the Applicant and its successors and assigns be liable for payment of such funds to the Receiver.
25. The Applicant and the Receiver are granted leave of this Court to enter into whatever payment arrangements and/or engagement terms are jointly agreeable to each of them in respect of paragraph 24, above, but such payment arrangement or engagement terms shall be producible on the request of any of the parties to this Order.
