NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the form, terms, and provisions of the DIP Credit Agreements, and the grant of security interests, the borrowings, any guaranties of indebtedness thereunder, and the transactions contemplated thereby be, and hereby are authorized, adopted, and approved, and any Authorized Officer or other officer of each Company is hereby authorized and empowered, in the name of and on behalf of each Company, to take such actions and negotiate or cause to be prepared and negotiated and to execute, deliver, perform, and cause the performance of, each of the transactions contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreements substantially in the form provided to each Governing Body and such other agreements, certificates, instruments, receipts, petitions, motions, or other papers or documents to which each Company is or will be a party or any order entered into in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases (collectively with the DIP Credit Agreements, the “Financing Documents”), incur and pay or cause to be paid all related fees and expenses, with such changes, additions, and modifications thereto as an Authorized Officer executing the same shall approve; and

RESOLVED, that each Company, as debtors and debtors in possession under the Bankruptcy Code be, and hereby are, authorized to incur any and all obligations and to undertake any and all related transactions on substantially the same terms as contemplated under the Financing Documents (collectively, the “Financing Transactions”), including granting liens on its assets to secure such obligations; and

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Officers be, and they hereby are, authorized, directed, and empowered in the name of, and on behalf of, each Company, as debtors and debtors in possession, to take such actions as in their discretion are determined to be necessary, desirable, or appropriate to execute, deliver, and file (a) the Financing Documents and such agreements, certificates, instruments, guaranties, notices, and any and all other documents, including, without limitation, any amendments, supplements, modifications, renewals, replacements, consolidations, substitutions, and extensions of any Financing Documents, necessary, desirable, or appropriate to facilitate the Financing Transactions, (b) all petitions, schedules, lists, and other motions, papers, or documents, which shall in their sole judgment be necessary, proper, or advisable, which determination shall be conclusively evidenced by his or their execution thereof, (c) such other instruments, certificates, notices, assignments, and documents as may be reasonably requested by the DIP Agents, and (d) such forms of deposit account control agreements, officer’s certificates, and compliance certificates as may be required by the Financing Documents; and

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Officers be, and they hereby are, authorized, directed, and empowered in the name of, and on behalf of, each Company to file or to authorize the DIP Agents to file any Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) financing statements, any other equivalent filings, any intellectual property filings and recordation, and any necessary assignments for security or other documents in the name of each Company that either DIP Agent deems necessary or convenient to perfect any lien or security interest granted under the Financing Documents, including any such UCC financing statement containing a generic description of collateral, such as “all assets,” “all property now or hereafter acquired,” and other similar descriptions of like import, and to execute and deliver, and to record or authorize the recording of, such mortgages and deeds of trust in respect of real property of each Company and such other filings in respect of intellectual and other property of each Company, in each case as the DIP Agents may reasonably request to perfect the security interests of the DIP Agents under the Financing Documents; and

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Officers be, and they hereby are, authorized, directed and empowered in the name of, and on behalf of, each Company to take all such further actions, including, without limitation, to pay or approve the payment of all fees and expenses payable in connection with the Financing Transactions and all fees and expenses incurred by or on behalf of each Company in connection with the foregoing resolutions, in accordance with the terms of the Financing Documents, which shall in their reasonable business judgment be necessary, proper, or advisable to perform each Company's obligations under or in connection with the Financing Documents or any of the Financing Transactions and to fully carry out the intent of the foregoing resolutions; and

RESOLVED, that each of the Authorized Officers be, and hereby is, authorized, directed, and empowered in the name of, and on behalf of, each Company, to execute and deliver any amendments, supplements, modifications, renewals, replacements, consolidations, substitutions, and extensions of any of the Financing Documents or to do such other things which shall in their sole judgment be necessary, desirable, proper, or advisable to give effect to the foregoing resolutions, which determination shall be conclusively evidenced by his or their execution thereof.

USE OF CASH COLLATERAL

WHEREAS, in the judgment of each Governing Body, it is desirable and in the best interest of each Company, its interest holders, its creditors, and other parties in interest, to obtain the benefits from the use of cash collateral (as such term is defined in section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code), which is security for certain of each Company's secured lenders under that certain Prepetition Credit Agreement, dated as of October 9, 2012, by and among each Company, and the guarantors party thereto, the lenders party thereto (the "Prepetition Secured Lenders"), and WELLS FARGO BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as administrative agent;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT:

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Officers be, and hereby are, authorized, directed, and empowered in the name of, and on behalf of, each Company to seek approval of the use of cash collateral pursuant to a cash collateral order in interim and final form (a "Cash Collateral Order"), and any Authorized Officer be, and hereby is, authorized, empowered, and directed to negotiate, execute, and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, or documents, by or on behalf of each Company, necessary to implement the Cash Collateral Order, including providing for adequate protection to the Prepetition Secured Lenders in accordance with section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, as well as any additional or further agreements for the use of cash collateral in connection with each Company's Chapter 11 Cases, which agreement(s) may require each Company to grant adequate protection and liens to each Company's Prepetition Secured Lenders and each other agreement, instrument, or document to be executed and delivered in connection therewith, by or on behalf of each Company pursuant thereto or in connection therewith, all with such changes therein and additions thereto as any Authorized Officer approves, such approval to be conclusively evidenced by the taking of such action or by the execution and delivery thereof; and

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Officers be, and hereby are, authorized, directed, and empowered in the name of, and on behalf of, each Company to execute and deliver any amendments, supplements, modifications, renewals, replacements, consolidations, substitutions, and extensions of the Cash Collateral Order or to do such other things which shall in his/her judgement be necessary, desirable, proper, or advisable, to give effect to the foregoing resolutions, which determination shall be conclusively evidenced by his or their execution thereof; and

RESOLVED, that each Company is hereby authorized to authorize, and each Company hereby authorizes, any subsidiary of such Corporation of which such Corporation or any subsidiary of such Corporation is the sole member, general partner, managing member, or equivalent manager, as applicable, to take each of the actions described in these resolutions or any of the actions authorized in this written consent.

GENERAL

RESOLVED, that in addition to the specific authorizations heretofore conferred upon the Authorized Officers, each of the Authorized Officers (and their designees and delegates) be, and hereby is, authorized and empowered, in the name of and on behalf of each Company, to take or cause to be taken any and all such other and further action, and to execute, acknowledge, deliver, and file any and all such agreements, certificates, instruments, and other documents and to pay all expenses, including but not limited to filing fees, in each case as in such Authorized Officer's or Authorized Officers' judgment, shall be necessary, appropriate, or desirable in order to fully carry out the intent and accomplish the purposes of the resolutions adopted herein;

RESOLVED, that each Governing Body has received sufficient notice of the actions and transactions relating to the matters contemplated by the foregoing resolutions, as may be required by the organizational documents of each Company, or hereby waives any right to have received such notice;

RESOLVED, that all acts, actions, and transactions relating to the matters contemplated by the foregoing resolutions done in the name of and on behalf of each Company, which acts would have been approved by the foregoing resolutions except that such acts were taken before the adoption of these resolutions, are hereby in all respects approved, confirmed and ratified as the true acts and deeds of each Company with the same force and effect as if each such act, transaction, agreement, or certificate had been specifically authorized in advance by resolution of each Governing Body; and

RESOLVED, that each of the Authorized Officers (and their designees and delegates) and each other partner, member, or managing member of each direct subsidiary of each Company, be and hereby is authorized and empowered to take all actions or to not take any action in the name of and on behalf of each Company with respect to the transactions contemplated by these resolutions hereunder as the sole shareholder, partner, member, or managing member of each direct subsidiary of each Company, in each case, as such Authorized Officer shall deem necessary, appropriate, or desirable in such Authorized Officer's reasonable business judgment as may be necessary, appropriate, or desirable to effectuate the purposes of the transactions contemplated herein.

MOTION FOR AN ORDER AUTHORIZING PAYLESS HOLDINGS LLC TO SERVE AS FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVE ON BEHALF OF THE DEBTORS' ESTATES

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) move the Court to enter an order authorizing Payless Holdings LLC (“Payless”) to serve as foreign representative on behalf of the Debtors in any foreign country, including Canada (the “Foreign Representative”). In support of this motion, the Debtors respectfully state as follows:

Relief Requested

1. By this motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order: (a) authorizing Payless to act as a Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors’ estates in the Canadian Proceeding (as defined herein); (b) authorizing Payless to seek recognition by the Canadian Court of the Chapter 11 Cases and the orders made by the Court in the Chapter 11 Cases; (c) requesting that the Canadian Court lend assistance to this Court; (d) obtaining any other appropriate relief from the Canadian Court that Payless deems just and proper in the furtherance of the protection of the Debtors' estates; and (e) granting related relief. The statutory and legal predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 105, 363(b), and 364(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 81-9.01(B)(1). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue for this matter is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the "Company") comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, Canada and the United States.

5. On the date hereof, each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these Chapter 11 Cases, and no committees have been appointed or designated.

6. Additional information regarding the Debtors and these cases, including the Debtors’ business, corporate structure, financial condition, and the reasons for and objectives of these cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Michael Schwindle in Support of First Day Pleadings (the “First Day Declaration”), filed contemporaneously herewith and fully incorporated herein by reference.

7. Following the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases, Payless intends to commence an ancillary proceeding (the “Ancillary Proceeding”) under Part IV of the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended, (“CCAA”) in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Canadian Court”). Payless, as the proposed foreign representative for the Debtors in the Ancillary Proceeding, intends to seek recognition of these Chapter 11 Cases and certain orders entered therein.

Appointment of Foreign Representative

8. Payless ShoeSource Canada Inc., Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc., and Payless ShoeSource Canada LP (collectively, the “Canadian Entities”) are indirect, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Payless. The Debtors' Canadian operations are run through the Canadian Entities.

9. Payless, as the proposed Foreign Representative (as defined herein), will shortly seek ancillary relief in Canada on behalf of the Debtors' estates pursuant to the CCAA in the Canadian Court. The purpose of the ancillary proceedings (the "Canadian Proceedings") is to request that the Canadian Court recognize these Chapter 11 Cases as "foreign main proceedings" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA in order to, among other things, protect the Debtors' assets and operations in Canada, facilitate the approval of the DIP Facilities (as defined in the First Day Declaration) to maximize enterprise value, and obtain a stay proceeding with respect to landlords that may have remedies upon the Debtors' filing.

10. To commence the Canadian Proceedings, the Debtors require authority for a Debtor entity to act as the "foreign representative"² on behalf of the Debtors' estates (the "Foreign Representative"). Therefore, the Debtors request authority to appoint Payless as such Foreign Representative.

11. Section 46 of the CCAA provides:

(a) Application for recognition of a foreign proceeding. — A foreign representative may apply to the court for recognition of the foreign proceeding in respect of which he or she is a foreign representative.

(b) Documents that must accompany application. — . . . the application must be accompanied by . . . (b) a certified copy of the instrument, however designated, authorizing the foreign representative to act in that capacity or a certificate from the foreign court affirming the foreign representative's authority to act in that capacity

CCAA, R.S.C., Ch. C-36, § 46 (1985) (Can.).

² A "foreign representative" is defined in section 45(1) of the CCAA to mean "a person or body, including one appointed on an interim basis, who is authorized, in a foreign proceeding respect of a debtor company, to: (a) monitor the debtor company's business and financial affairs for the purpose of reorganization; or (b) act as a representative in respect of the foreign proceeding."

12. Absent a court order, the Debtors may find it difficult to satisfy the requirements set out in the CCAA for an application for recognition of these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, in order for Payless to be recognized as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceedings, and thereby apply to have these Chapter 11 Cases recognized by the Canadian Court, this Court must enter an order authorizing Payless to act as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceedings. If the order is granted, Payless will be able to file the order with the Canadian Court as the instrument authorizing Payless to act as the Foreign Representative pursuant to section 46 of the CCAA.

Basis for Relief Requested

13. Section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code allows a debtor in possession to obtain a court order recognizing the debtor in possession as the foreign representative of the debtor's estate, in order to submit a petition to a foreign court requesting recognition of the debtor's chapter 11 case. Specifically, section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

A trustee or another entity (including an examiner) may be authorized by the court to act in a foreign country on behalf of an estate created under section 541. An entity authorized to act under this section may act in any way permitted by the applicable foreign law.

11 U.S.C. § 1505.

Further, Bankruptcy Code section 1107(a) provides, in relevant part:

Subject to any limitations on a trustee serving in a case under this chapter, and to such limitations or conditions as the court prescribes, a debtor in possession shall have all the rights, other than the right to compensation under section 330 of this title, and powers, and shall perform all the functions and duties ... of a trustee serving in a case under this chapter.

11 U.S.C. § 1107(a).

14. The Debtors respectfully submit that sections 1505 and 1107 of the Bankruptcy Code confer upon Payless, as a debtor in possession, sufficient rights, powers, and duties to act as a Foreign Representative of the Debtors' estates. However, to avoid any possible confusion or doubt regarding this authority and to comply with the requirements of section 46 of the CCAA, the Debtors seek entry of an order, pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code, explicitly authorizing Payless to act as the Foreign Representative of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceedings.

15. Authorizing Payless to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceedings will allow coordination of these Chapter 11 Cases and the Canadian Proceedings, and provide an effective mechanism to protect and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and estates. Courts routinely grant relief similar to that requested herein in other large chapter 11 cases where a debtor has foreign assets or operations requiring a recognition proceeding. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corporation, No. 16-42529 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2016); In re Ultra Petroleum Corp., (Bankr. S.D. Tex. May 3, 2016); In re Horsehead Holding Corp., No. 16-10287 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 4, 2016); In re Xinergy Ltd., No. 15-70444 (PMB) (Bankr. W.D. Va. Apr. 7, 2015); In re Hartford Computer Hardware Inc., No. 11-49744 (PSH) (Bankr. N.D. Ill. Dec. 15, 2011); In re Chemtura Corporation, No. 09-11233 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 9, 2010). Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that there is sufficient statutory basis and ample justification for this Court to grant the relief requested.

Reservation of Rights

16. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

17. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart (Attn: Kevin J. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

18. No prior request for the relief sought herein has been made to this Court or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of an order³ (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

DEBTORS’ MOTION SEEKING ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) DIRECTING JOINT ADMINISTRATION OF CHAPTER 11 CASES AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) respectfully state as follows in support of this motion (this “Motion”):¹

Relief Requested²

1. By this Motion, and pursuant to section 105(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and rule 1015(b) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Local Bankruptcy Rules”), the Debtors seek entry of an order (the “Proposed Order”)³ (a) directing procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases and (b) granting related relief. Specifically, the Debtors request that the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) maintain one file and one docket for all of the jointly administered cases under the case of Payless Holdings LLC, and that the cases be administered under a consolidated caption, as follows:

² Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Motion shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion or in the First Day Declaration, as applicable.

2. The Debtors further request that the Court order that the foregoing caption satisfies the requirements set forth in section 342(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. The Debtors also request that a docket entry, substantially similar to the following, be entered on the docket of each of the Debtors’ cases other than the case of Payless Holdings LLC:

An order has been entered in accordance with Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure directing the joint administration of the chapter 11 cases of: Payless Holdings LLC; Payless Intermediate Holdings LLC; WBG-PSS Holdings LLC; Payless Inc; Payless Finance, Inc.; Collective Brands Services, Inc.; PSS Delaware Company 4, Inc.; Shoe Sourcing, Inc.; Payless ShoeSource, Inc.; Eastborough, Inc.; Payless Purchasing Services, Inc.; Payless ShoeSource Merchandising, Inc.; Payless Gold Value

[4969]; Payless ShoeSource Canada Inc. [4180]; Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc. [4182]; and Payless ShoeSource Canada LP [4179]. The location of Debtor Payless Holdings LLC’s corporate headquarters and the Debtors’ service address is: c/o Payless ShoeSource, Inc., 3231 SE 6th Avenue, Topeka, KS 66607, United States.

CO, Inc.; Payless ShoeSource Distribution, Inc.; Payless ShoeSource Worldwide, Inc.; Payless NYC, Inc.; Payless ShoeSource of Puerto Rico, Inc.; Payless Collective GP, LLC; Collective Licensing, LP; Collective Licensing International, LLC; Clinch, LLC; Collective Brands Franchising Services, LLC; Payless International Franchising, LLC; Collective Brands Logistics, Limited; Dynamic Assets Limited; PSS Canada, Inc.; Payless ShoeSource Canada Inc.; Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc.; and Payless ShoeSource Canada LP. All further pleadings and other papers shall be filed in and all further docket entries shall be made in Case No. 17- 42267 (KAS).

4. The Debtors also seek authority to file their monthly operating reports required by the Operating Guidelines and Reporting Requirements for Debtors in Possession and Trustees, issued by the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “U.S. Trustee”), by consolidating the information required for each Debtor in one report that tracks and breaks out all of the specific information (e.g., receipts, disbursements, etc.) on a debtor-by-debtor basis in each monthly operating report.

Jurisdiction and Venue

5. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 81-9.01(B)(1). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

6. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

7. The Debtors, together with their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the “Company”) comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

8. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no committees have been appointed or designated.

Basis For Relief

9. Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b) provides, in pertinent part, that “[i]f . . . two or more petitions are pending in the same court by or against . . . a debtor and an affiliate, the court may order a joint administration of the estates.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1015. The Debtors are “affiliates” as that term is defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules authorize the Court to grant the relief requested herein.

10. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides the Court with the power to grant the relief requested herein by permitting the Court to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of the [Bankruptcy Code].” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

11. Joint administration is generally non-controversial, and courts in this jurisdiction routinely order joint administration in cases with multiple, related debtors. See, e.g., In re

Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 14, 2016); In re Abengoa Bioenergy US Holding, LLC., No. 16-41161 (MEW) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Mar. 4, 2016); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 9, 2016); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 13, 2016); In re Hazel Invs. LP, No. 13-50282 (KSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Nov. 25, 2013).⁵

12. Given the integrated nature of the Debtors' operations, joint administration of these chapter 11 cases will provide significant administrative convenience without harming the substantive rights of any party in interest. Many of the motions, hearings, and orders in these chapter 11 cases will affect each and every Debtor entity. The entry of the Order directing joint administration of these chapter 11 cases will reduce fees and costs by avoiding duplicative filings and objections. Joint administration also will allow the U.S. Trustee and all parties-in-interest to monitor these chapter 11 cases with greater ease and efficiency.

13. Moreover, joint administration will not adversely affect the Debtors' respective constituencies because this Motion seeks only administrative, not substantive, consolidation of the Debtors' estates. Parties-in-interest will not be harmed by the relief requested; instead, parties-in-interest will benefit from the cost reductions associated with the joint administration of these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the joint administration of these chapter 11 cases is in the best interests of their estates, their creditors, and all other parties in interest.

Notice

14. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured

⁵ Because of the voluminous nature of the orders cited herein, such orders have not been attached to this Motion. Copies of these orders are available upon request to the Debtors' proposed counsel.

The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

15. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Order (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Relief Requested³

1. By this Motion, and pursuant to sections 105(a), 362(d), 363(b), and 507(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Rule 9013-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Local Bankruptcy Rules”) the Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders (the “Proposed Interim Order” and “Proposed Final Order,” respectively),⁴ (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) pay prepetition wages, salaries, other compensation, and reimbursable expenses, and (ii) continue employee benefits programs in the ordinary course of business, including payment of certain prepetition obligations related thereto, subject to the caps and limits set forth herein; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing within approximately 21 days of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this Motion on a final basis.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Rule 81.901(B)(1) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

³ Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined in this Motion shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms elsewhere in this Motion or in the First Day Declaration, as applicable.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the “Company”), comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases, and no committees have been appointed or designated.

The Debtors’ Workforce

6. The Debtors’ employees, temporary workers, and independent contractors perform a wide variety of functions critical to the Debtors’ operations, the administration of these chapter 11 cases, and the Debtors’ successful reorganization. Their skills, knowledge, and understanding of the Debtors’ operations and infrastructure are essential to preserving operational stability and efficiency. In many instances, the Debtors’ employees, temporary workers, and independent contractors include highly trained personnel who are not easily replaced. Without the continued, uninterrupted services of their employees, temporary workers, and independent contractors, the Debtors' reorganization efforts will be jeopardized.

7. The vast majority of the Debtors' employees rely exclusively on their compensation and benefits to pay their daily living expenses and support their families. Thus, the Debtors' employees will be exposed to significant financial constraints if the Debtors are not permitted to continue paying their compensation, providing benefits, and maintaining existing rank-and-file incentive programs. Consequently, the relief requested herein is necessary and appropriate.

8. The Debtors employ: (a) approximately 17,900 individuals in the United States, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Saipan, and Guam (collectively, the "U.S. Employees");⁵ (b) approximately 2,100 individuals in Canada (collectively, the "Canada Employees"); and (c) approximately 25 individuals in Taiwan (collectively, the "Asia Employees," and together with the U.S. Employees and Canada Employees, the "Employees"), serving in a number of capacities supporting the Debtors' operations at either the corporate offices or in the field (the "Corporate Employees"), distribution center (the "DC Employees"), or retail store level (the "Retail Employees"). The Employees are comprised of approximately 8,000 full-time employees (collectively, the "Full-Time Employees") and 12,000 part-time employees (collectively, the "Part-Time Employees"). The overwhelming majority of the Part-Time Employees are employed at one of the Debtors' various retail store locations, with a small number working in either a corporate capacity or at one of the Debtors' distribution centers

(the “Eastern Distribution Center” and “Western Distribution Center,” respectively, and collectively, the “Distribution Centers”). The Full-Time Employees are employed at all levels of the Debtors’ business operations.

9. While the substantial majority of the Debtors’ Employees are not represented by a labor union (the “Non-Represented Employees”), the Debtors are party to two collective bargaining agreements (together, the “CBAs” and each, a “CBA”) with respect to approximately 93 Employees (the “Represented Employees”). Of the Debtors’ Represented Employees, approximately 85 are employed under a CBA with the United Food and Commercial Workers Union, Local No. 655 (the “UFCW Local 655”), and the remaining Represented Employees are covered by a CBA with the United Food and Commercial Workers Union, Local No. 536 (the “UFCW Local 536”). With respect to these Represented Employees, and as discussed in detail below, the Debtors seek authority (but not direction) to continue to provide compensation and benefits to the Represented Employees under the CBAs in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice.⁶

10. In addition to the Employees, the Debtors also retain from time to time specialized individuals as independent contractors (the “Independent Contractors”) to complete discrete projects, as well as temporary workers (the “Temporary Workers”) from approximately 11 different staffing agencies (collectively, the “Temporary Staffing Agencies”). Currently, the Debtors employ approximately 11 Independent Contractors, though this number fluctuates based on the Debtors’ specific needs at any given time. Presently, approximately 150 Temporary Workers provide services to the Debtors. The Independent Contractors, the Temporary Staffing

⁶ By requesting authority to honor obligations relating to any CBA in this Motion, the Debtors are not assuming or affirming any contracts, agreements, programs, or applicability of any law related to the CBAs and the Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect thereto.

Agencies and the Temporary Workers they provide, are a critical supplement to the efforts of the Debtors' Employees.

Employee Compensation and Benefits

11. To minimize the personal hardship the Employees would suffer if employee obligations are not paid when due or as expected, the Debtors seek authority to pay and honor certain prepetition claims relating to, among other things, wages, salaries, expense reimbursements, and other compensation, federal and state withholding taxes and other amounts withheld (including garnishments, Employees' share of insurance premiums, flex spending account contributions, taxes, and 401(k) contributions), health insurance, workers' compensation benefits, paid time-off, other paid leave, unpaid leave, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance, business travel insurance, short- and long-term disability coverage, employee assistance, and other benefits that the Debtors have historically directly or indirectly provided to the Employees in the ordinary course of business (collectively, the "Employee Compensation and Benefits"). In addition, the Debtors also are seeking to pay all costs incident to the Employee Compensation and Benefits.

12. Subject to the Court's approval of the relief requested herein, the Debtors intend to continue their prepetition Employee Compensation and Benefits programs in the ordinary course of business. Out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request the right to modify, change, and discontinue any of their Employee Compensation and Benefits and to implement new programs, policies, and benefits, in the ordinary course of business during these chapter 11 cases and without the need for further Court approval, subject to applicable law.

13. The Debtors estimate that the following prepetition Employee and Compensation Benefit amounts are outstanding as of the Petition Date:

14. The Debtors do not believe there are amounts owed to any individuals on account of the Employee Compensation and Benefits that exceed the $12,850 priority expense compensation and benefit cap set forth by sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors do not seek authority to pay any amounts in excess of $12,850 pursuant to the Proposed Interim Order. The Debtors do, however, seek authority to pay amounts in excess of $12,850, solely pursuant to the Final Order, in the event it is determined that payment of certain prepetition amounts owed on account of the Employee Compensation and Benefits are in excess of $12,850.

I. Employee Compensation, Withholding Obligations, and Additional Compensation Opportunities

A. U.S. Employee Compensation and Withholding Obligations

1. U.S. Employee Compensation

15. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur payroll obligations for base wages, salaries, and other compensation owed to the U.S. Employees (collectively, the “U.S. Employee Compensation”). The Debtors pay their U.S. Employees’ wage and salary obligations (the “U.S. Wages”) on a weekly and biweekly basis, one week in arrears.⁸ The Debtors pay approximately $10 million after U.S. Withholding Obligations (as defined below) on a biweekly basis on account of the U.S. Employee Compensation in the aggregate.

16. Because all U.S. Wages are paid in arrears, certain U.S. Employees may be owed accrued but unpaid U.S. Wages as of the Petition Date. U.S. Wages also may be due and owing as of the Petition Date because of, among other things, potential discrepancies between the amounts paid and the amounts that U.S. Employees believe they should have been paid, which, upon resolution, may reveal that additional amounts are owed to such U.S. Employees.

17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $10 million on account of unpaid U.S. Wages (the “Unpaid U.S. Wages”) (excluding U.S. Withholding Obligations, U.S. Reimbursable Expenses, U.S. Time-Off Benefits, and any payments provided under the U.S. Additional Compensation Opportunities and U.S. Non-Insider Severance Programs), each of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the Unpaid U.S. Wages in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, and to continue paying U.S. Wages on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business.

2. Independent Contractors and Temporary Staff Compensation

18. The Debtors rely on Independent Contractors and Temporary Workers provided by Temporary Staffing Agencies in the ordinary course of their business. Currently, the Debtors employ approximately 11 Independent Contractors and contract with approximately 11

⁸ The Debtors process payroll internally and do not utilize a third-party processor.

Temporary Staffing Agencies to provide the Debtors with the Temporary Workers, though these numbers fluctuate based on current needs. These Independent Contractors and Temporary Workers perform a wide range of services critical to the Debtors' operations, including IT- and marketing-related support and assistance at the Debtors' corporate office and the Distribution Centers. The Debtors' Employees rely on the support of Independent Contractors to complete discrete projects in furtherance of the Debtors' business and the Temporary Workers to fill short-term assignments that are not economically feasible to employ on a full- or part-time basis. The Debtors believe the authority to continue paying their Independent Contractors and Temporary Staffing Agencies is critical to minimizing disruption of the Debtors' continued business operations. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $544,000 per month in compensation to Independent Contractors and to Temporary Staffing Agencies (collectively, the "Independent Contractor and Temporary Staffing Agency Fees").

19. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $3.3 million on account of the Independent Contractor and Temporary Staffing Agency Fees to approximately 11 Independent Contractors and 11 Temporary Staffing Agencies, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Independent Contractor and Temporary Staffing Agency Fees, and to continue paying the Independent Contractor and Temporary Staffing Agency Fees on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

3. U.S. Withholding Obligations

20. During each applicable pay period, the Debtors routinely deduct certain amounts from their U.S. Employees' paychecks for, among other things, garnishments, child support, medical child support, and other pre-tax and after-tax deductions payable pursuant to certain of the U.S. Health and Welfare Programs (as defined below) (collectively, the “U.S. Deductions”). Certain of the U.S. Deductions are forwarded to various third-party recipients. On a biweekly basis, the Debtors deduct approximately $1.5 million in the aggregate from their U.S. Employees’ paychecks on account of the U.S. Deductions.

21. The Debtors are also required by law to withhold from the U.S. Employees’ Compensation amounts related to, among other things, federal, state, and local income taxes as well as Social Security and Medicare taxes (collectively, the “U.S. Employee Payroll Taxes”) for remittance to the appropriate federal, state, and local taxing authorities. The Debtors must then match the U.S. Employee Payroll Taxes from their own funds and pay, based upon a percentage of gross payroll, additional amounts for state and federal unemployment insurance (the “U.S. Employer Payroll Taxes,” and together with the Employee Payroll Taxes, the “U.S. Payroll Taxes”). The U.S. Payroll Taxes are generally processed and forwarded to the appropriate federal, state, or local taxing authority at the same time as the U.S. Employees’ payroll checks are disbursed. On a biweekly basis, the Debtors remit approximately $5.6 million in the aggregate on account of the U.S. Payroll Taxes.

22. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that the aggregate amount of accrued but unpaid U.S. Deductions and U.S. Payroll Taxes (together, the “U.S. Withholding Obligations”) is approximately $3.8 million, substantially all of which will become due and payable within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors seek authority to pay in a manner consistent with historical practice any unpaid U.S. Withholding Obligations and to continue to honor the U.S. Withholding Obligations in the ordinary course of business during the administration of these chapter 11 cases.

B. Canada Employee Compensation and Withholding Obligations

1. Canada Employee Compensation

23. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur payroll obligations for base wages, salaries, and other compensation owed to the Canada Employees (collectively, the “Canada Employee Compensation”). The Debtors pay their Canada Employees’ wage and salary obligations (the “Canada Wages”) on a biweekly basis, one week in arrears. The Debtors pay approximately $810,000 (after Canada Withholding Obligations (as defined below)) on a biweekly basis on account of the Canada Employee Compensation in the aggregate.

24. Because all Canada Wages are paid in arrears, certain Canada Employees may be owed accrued but unpaid U.S. Wages as of the Petition Date. Canada Wages also may be due and owing as of the Petition Date because of, among other things, potential discrepancies between the amounts paid and the amounts that Canada Employees believe they should have been paid, which, upon resolution, may reveal that additional amounts are owed to such Canada Employees.

25. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $710,000 on account of accrued but unpaid Canada Wages (the “Unpaid Canada Wages”) (excluding Canada Withholding Obligations, Canada Reimbursable Expenses, Canada Time-Off Benefits, and any payments provided under the Canada Additional Compensation Opportunities and Canada Severance Program, each as defined below), all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the Unpaid Canada Wages in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, and to continue paying Canada Wages on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business.

2. Canada Withholding Obligations

26. During each applicable pay period, the Debtors routinely deduct certain amounts from their Canada Employees' paychecks for, among other things, garnishments and other required levies and benefit premiums pursuant to certain of the Canada Health and Welfare Programs (as defined below) (collectively, the "Canada Deductions"). Certain of the Canada Deductions are forwarded to various third-party recipients. On a biweekly basis, the Debtors deduct approximately $30,000 in the aggregate from their Canada Employees' paychecks on account of the Canada Deductions.

27. The Debtors are also required by law to withhold from the Canada Employees' Compensation amounts related to, among other things, payroll taxes and government-mandated benefits for remittance to appropriate federal, provincial, and local authorities (collectively, the "Canada Employee Payroll Taxes"). The Debtors are also required to pay, from their own funds, additional amounts mandated by federal and provincial authorities for government-mandated benefits, workers compensation, and employment insurance (the "Canada Employer Payroll Taxes," and together with the Canada Employee Payroll Taxes, the "Canada Payroll Taxes"). The Canada Payroll Taxes are generally processed and forwarded to the appropriate federal, provincial, or local taxing authority at the same time Canada Employees' payroll checks are disbursed. On a biweekly basis, the Debtors remit approximately $210,000 in the aggregate on account of the Canada Payroll Taxes.

28. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that the aggregate amount of accrued but unpaid Canada Deductions and Canada Payroll Taxes (together, the "Canada Withholding Obligations") is approximately $285,000, substantially all of which will become due and payable within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors seek authority to pay in a manner consistent with historical practice any unpaid Canada Withholding Obligations and to continue to honor the U.S. Withholding Obligations in the ordinary course of business during the administration of these chapter 11 cases.

3. Canada Payroll Processing

29. The Debtors contract with Automatic Data Processing, Inc. (“ADP”), a third-party payroll service, to process and administer their payroll and reimbursements in Canada. Each biweekly pay period, the Debtors calculate the Canada Employee Compensation for each Canada Employee and transfer funds sufficient to satisfy such obligations to ADP in advance of each applicable pay period. ADP then distributes the Canada Employee Compensation to the Canada Employees on behalf of the Debtors.

30. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $20,000 per month to ADP for the payroll-related services that it provides to the Debtors and related administrative costs (the “Canada Payroll Fees”). As of the Petition Date, approximately $10,000 has accrued and remains unpaid on account of Canada Payroll Fees. Failure to pay the Canada Payroll Fees in the future could lead to delayed disbursement of Canada Employee Compensation and related benefits to the appropriate Canada Employees to the detriment of the Canada Employees and the Debtors’ operations. As a result, the Debtors seek to pay any unpaid Canada Payroll Fees that have accrued prior to the Petition Date and to continue administering payroll for Canada Employees in the ordinary course of business consistent with the Debtors’ historical practices.

C. Asia Employee Compensation and Withholding Obligations

1. Asia Employee Compensation

31. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur payroll obligations for base wages, salaries, and other compensation owed to the Asia Employees (collectively, the “Asia Employee Compensation”). The Debtors pay their Asia Employees’ wage and salary obligations (the “Asia Wages”) on a monthly basis on the 25th day of each month. The Debtors pay approximately $60,000 (net of Asia Withholding Obligations (as defined below)) on a monthly basis on account of the Asia Employee Compensation in the aggregate.

32. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $7,000 on account of unpaid Asia Wages (the “Unpaid Asia Wages”) (excluding Asia Withholding Obligations, Asia Reimbursable Expenses (as defined below), Asia Time-Off Benefits (as defined below), and any payments provided under the Asia Additional Compensation Opportunities (as defined below) and Asia Severance Programs (as defined below)), none of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the Unpaid Asia Wages in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, and to continue paying Asia Wages on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business.

2. Asia Withholding Obligations

33. During each applicable pay period, the Debtors routinely deduct certain amounts from their Asia Employees’ paychecks for, among other things, government mandated deductions for labor insurance, national health insurance, Labor Pension Act contributions, where applicable, and payroll taxes (collectively, the “Asia Employee Deductions”). Additionally, the Debtors are required by law to pay, from their own funds, additional amounts mandated by federal authorities for government-mandated benefits and pensions with respect to the Asia Employees (the “Asia Employer Contributions,” and, together with the Asia Employee Deductions, the “Asia Withholding Obligations”). On a monthly basis, the Debtors deduct approximately $5,000 with respect to the Asia Employee Deductions and approximately $9,000 with respect to the Asia Employer Contributions, in the aggregate.

34. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $1,500 on account of the Asia Withholding Obligations, none of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts with respect to the Asia Withholding Obligations and to continue paying Asia Withholding Obligations arising in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice.

D. Reimbursement Obligations

1. U.S. Reimbursement Obligations

a. U.S. Reimbursable Expenses

35. The Debtors reimburse U.S. Employees for business expenses and other qualifying expenses incurred in carrying out their employment responsibilities, including, but not limited to, expenses for meals, hotels, flights, car rentals, parking, and fuel costs, and other qualifying expenses (collectively, the “U.S. Reimbursable Expenses”). Except for those U.S. Employees who are issued a Corporate Card (as defined below), U.S. Employees pay for incurred U.S. Reimbursable Expenses by using either a personal credit card or cash (alternatively, some U.S. Employees with Corporate Cards may still incur U.S. Reimbursable Expenses for items such as mileage or charges incurred for vendors who do not accept the Corporate Cards). U.S. Employees then submit paper receipts to request reimbursement, and if approved in accordance with internal policies and procedures, the U.S. Reimbursable Expenses are processed through the Debtors’ accounts payable system. Without continued reimbursement of the U.S. Reimbursable Expenses, U.S. Employees relying on these benefits would be saddled with additional costs, causing personal financial hardship. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $400,000 per month in U.S. Reimbursable Expenses.

36. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $200,000 on account of U.S. Reimbursable Expenses, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. Additionally, although the Debtors ask that reimbursement requests be submitted promptly, sometimes submission delays occur. U.S. Employees may therefore submit reimbursement requests for prepetition U.S. Reimbursable Expenses after the Petition Date. By this Motion, the Debtors request the authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Reimbursable Expenses, including unfiled amounts by U.S. Employees, and to continue paying the U.S. Reimbursable Expenses on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

b. U.S. Relocation Expenses

37. The Debtors pay for certain expenses to U.S. Employees who are transferred in connection with their job (the "U.S. Relocation Expenses"). The majority of U.S. Relocation Expenses are billed directly to the Debtors by the Debtors relocation provider, Altair Global Relocation, including, but not limited to, household goods movement, eligible home sale expenses, temporary living accommodations, and other covered expenses. U.S. Relocation Expenses may also be paid directly to U.S. Employees to cover relocation-related travel and incidental relocation expenses. U.S. Relocation Expenses are generally paid within two weeks of submission. U.S. Relocation Expenses are subject to a repayment agreement that requires repayment of the full relocation amount if the U.S. Employee voluntarily terminates employment prior to the completion of a specified period of service.

38. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $55,000 on account of U.S. Relocation Expenses, all of which may become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of U.S. Relocation Expenses and to continue paying U.S. Relocation Expenses on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

c. U.S. Corporate Card Expenses

39. U.S. Employees pay for the majority of the U.S. Reimbursable Expenses they incur through a combination of commercial credit card accounts and related contractual arrangements with U.S. Bank, N.A. (“US Bank”). The Debtors provide five Debtor-guaranteed US Bank corporate Visa credit cards to U.S. Employees for ordinary course expenses that such U.S. Employees incur in performing their job functions (collectively, the “Corporate Credit Cards”). Corporate Credit Cards are used by U.S. Employees to charge business-related travel and marketing expenses. It is critical to the Debtors’ business operations that the Debtors continue reimbursing, or making direct payments on behalf of, U.S. Employees for such expenses.

40. Additionally, the Debtors require U.S. Employees to use Debtor-guaranteed U.S. Bank-issued purchasing cards to pay for the Debtors’ procurement of items, such as office supplies (the “Corporate Purchasing Cards”), which are used in the ordinary course of the operation of Debtors’ businesses. Currently, the Debtors utilize approximately 11 Corporate Purchasing Cards. The Debtors also utilize two travel cards issued by US Bank, which are used by the Debtors to book travel for U.S. Employees (the “Travel Cards,” and, together with the Corporate Credit Cards and Corporate Purchasing Cards, the “Corporate Cards”)

41. Use of the Corporate Cards is integral to the Debtors’ cash management and account functions, and continuation of the U.S. Employees’ ability to use the Corporate Cards for procurement of office supplies and the like and travel-related purposes is essential to the Debtors’ business operations. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $236,000 per month for amounts incurred on the Corporate Cards.

42. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $200,000 in Reimbursable Expenses charged to Corporate Cards, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on the Corporate Cards, and to continue the Corporate Card programs on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

2. Canada and Asia Reimbursable Expenses

43. The Debtors also reimburse Canada Employees and Asia Employees for business expenses under the same criteria applicable to the U.S. Reimbursable Expenses (the “Canada Reimbursable Expenses” and the “Asia Reimbursable Expenses,” respectively, and collectively, the “Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses”). Canada Employees and Asia Employees pay for incurred Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses by using either a personal credit card or cash. Canada Employees and Asia Employees then submit paper receipts to request reimbursement, and if approved in accordance with internal policies and procedures, the Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses are processed through the Debtors’ accounts payable system. Without continued reimbursement of the Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses, Canada Employees and Asia Employees relying on these benefits would be saddled with additional costs, causing personal financial hardship. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $38,000 per month in Canada Reimbursable Expenses and $1,300 per month in Asia Reimbursable Expenses, respectively.

44. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $31,000 on account of the Canada Reimbursable Expenses and $113 on account of Asia Reimbursable Expenses, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. Additionally, although the Debtors ask that reimbursement requests be submitted promptly, sometimes submission delays occur. Canada Employees and Asia Employees may therefore submit reimbursement requests for prepetition Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses after the Petition Date. By this Motion, the Debtors request the authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses, including unfiled amounts by Canada Employees and Asia Employees, and to continue paying the Canada/Asia Reimbursable Expenses on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

E. U.S. Additional Compensation Opportunities

45. The Debtors have five additional compensation programs for U.S. Employees (the “U.S. Additional Compensation Programs”):

- the U.S. Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan;
- the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program;
- the U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program;
- the U.S. Group Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program; and
- the Distribution Center Incentive Plans.

46. Each of these programs is an integral part of the Debtors’ U.S. Employee Compensation and Benefits. By this Motion, the Debtors are not seeking to make any payments to insiders (“Insiders”)⁹ under any of the U.S. Additional Compensation Programs.¹⁰

1. Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan

47. Historically, the Debtors have offered an annual incentive program that provides eligible non-insider Corporate Employees with an opportunity to receive meaningful awards based on their overall performance and contributions to the Debtors’ business results (the “Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan”). The Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan is tied to ⁹ The term Insiders shall have the meaning set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101(31).

¹⁰ To the extent the Debtors propose to make prepetition payments to any potential Insiders under an Additional Compensation Program, the Debtors will seek separate approval from the Court with respect to such payments or Additional Compensation Programs.

financial metrics, typically annual EBITDA. Any payments under the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan are made after the completion of the fiscal year. The Debtors failed to reach the financial milestones necessary to trigger payments under the Annual Incentive Plan for either of their last two fiscal years.

48. The Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan for Fiscal Year 2017¹¹ remains tied to EBITDA performance, but eligible Corporate Employees now have the opportunity to earn semi-annual payouts (based on spring and fall season EBITDA, respectively) with a year-end true-up based on full-year EBITDA. Presently, there are approximately 439 Corporate Employees who are eligible to participate in the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan. For Fiscal Year 2017, the Debtors project that they will pay out approximately $9.1 million under the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan.

49. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe they owe any amounts on account of the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay obligations under the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business upon entry of the Final Order. To be sure, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan to Insiders.

2. U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program

50. The Debtors offer a quarterly incentive program (the “U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program”) to all U.S. Employees who serve as store managers (“U.S. Store Leaders”). The U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program is tied to gross revenues at individual retail stores and is calculated based on one of two metrics. For established stores (“Established Stores”),¹² rewards are based on a year-over-year comparison of quarterly gross sales. For new or relocated stores (collectively, “New Stores”),¹³ rewards are based on a store’s quarterly gross sales versus an established sale metric. If a store meets a specified threshold level of performance for the quarter, U.S. Store Leaders may qualify for one of three payout levels under the U.S. Store Leader Rewards Program (Bronze, Silver, and Gold). The maximum payment that can be earned under the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program for Established Stores is 15% of a U.S. Store Leader’s quarterly gross earnings. For New Stores, the maximum payment amount is 11% of a U.S. Store Leader’s gross earnings.

51. As of the Petition Date, approximately 2,330 U.S. Store Leaders qualify to participate in the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program. For the Debtors’ 2016 Fiscal Year, 934 stores had sales sufficient to trigger payments under the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Programs in at least one quarter, with such quarterly payments averaging out to approximately $875 per qualifying U.S. Store Leader. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors are unable to quantify amounts due on account of the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program for the first quarter of the Debtors’ 2017 Fiscal Year, as such awards will not be determined until the completion of that quarter (i.e., April 30, 2017). First quarter payments for the 2016 Fiscal Year, however, were approximately $575,000 in the aggregate. No prepetition amounts will become due and owing in the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and to continue paying obligations under the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices, in each case upon entry of the Final Order. To be sure, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program to Insiders.

3. U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program

52. U.S. Store Leaders managing stores that will be closed in conjunction with these chapter 11 cases will become ineligible for U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program, and accordingly, such U.S. Store Leaders will instead be placed in a separate sales-focused incentive program for the duration of the store closing process (the “U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program”). If the U.S. Store Leader position is vacant during the closing period, another Retail Employee at the store may be designated to manage the store, and may also become eligible for the Store Closing Incentive. The U.S. Store Leaders, or designated Retail Employee (as discussed above), will only be eligible for compensation under the U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program if the U.S. Store Leader remains actively employed by the Debtors through the final store closure date and the entire group of closing stores achieves a specified aggregate sales goal. The maximum payment that can be earned by amenable U.S. Store Leader under the Store Closing Incentive Program is $1,000.

53. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors are unable to quantify amounts due on account of the U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program, as such awards will not be determined until the store closing process completes. No prepetition amounts, however, will become due and owing in the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program and to continue paying obligations under the U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices, in each case upon entry of the Final Order. To be sure, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the U.S. Store Closing Incentive Program to Insiders.

4. U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program

54. The Debtors offer a quarterly incentive program (the “U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program”) to multi-store leaders who directly manage 1 store (the “Home Store”) and oversee approximately six other stores (“U.S. Group Leaders”). The U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program is based on the sales performance of each store in the U.S. Group Leader’s group. The Group Leader’s payout is determined by averaging the U.S. Store Leader Extreme Rewards payout earned by each of the Group Leader’s seven stores. The Group Leader is not eligible for an Extreme Rewards payout for the Home Store, but the sales performance of this store is factored into the Group Leader Incentive award calculation. A payout matrix determines the Group Leader’s actual payout, and no award is payable if the combined Extreme Rewards payout average for the Group Leader’s stores is less than 3%. The maximum payment under the U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program is 20% of such U.S. Group Leader’s quarterly gross earnings.

55. As of the Petition Date, approximately 153 U.S. Group Leaders qualify to participate in the U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program. The U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program is newly instituted for the Debtors’ 2017 Fiscal Year, and thus, no metrics from the Debtors’ 2016 Fiscal Year are available. Based on previous years’ performance and year-to-date sales, however, the Debtors expect that the total payments under the U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program are unlikely to exceed $600,000 for Fiscal Year 2017. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors are unable to quantify amounts due on account of the U.S. Group Leader

Incentive Program for the first quarter of the Debtors' 2017 Fiscal Year, as such incentive awards will not be determined until the completion of that quarter (i.e., April 30, 2017). No prepetition amounts, however, will become due and owing in the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to continue paying obligations under the U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices upon entry of the Final Order. To be sure, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the U.S. Group Leader Incentive Program to Insiders.

5. Distribution Center Incentive Plans

56. The Debtors also offer incentive plans for the hourly Full-Time DC Employees at the Debtors' Distribution Centers (the "Eastern DC PRIDE Plan" and "Western DC PRIDE Plan," respectively, and collectively, the "DC PRIDE Plans"), which are tied to the achievement of productivity goals based on established standards at the Distribution Centers (i.e., receiving, shipping, packing). Eligible DC Employees qualify for the DC PRIDE Plans on a weekly basis with such amounts being paid in the following week's paycheck. The maximum amount that an individual hourly DC Employee can accumulate is $3.01 per hour worked under the Eastern DC PRIDE Plan and $3.77 per hour worked under the Western DC PRIDE Plan. In addition, Eastern DC Employees who earn awards under the Eastern DC PRIDE Plan over multiple consecutive weeks, thus achieving "elite" status, earn points that may be redeemed for merchandise; the Debtors incur expense of approximately $750 per month for this supplemental program.

57. As of the Petition Date, approximately 300 hourly DC Employees qualify for the DC PRIDE Plans. The Debtors pay approximately $8,900 in the aggregate per week on account of the DC PRIDE Plans. For the Debtors' 2016 Fiscal Year, they paid approximately $463,000 on account of the DC PRIDE Plans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $13,000 on account of the DC PRIDE Plans, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the DC PRIDE Plans and to continue paying obligations under the DC PRIDE Plans on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices, in each case upon entry of the Final Order. The Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the DC PRIDE Plans to Insiders.

F. Canada Additional Compensation Opportunities

58. The Debtors have three additional compensation programs for Canada Employees (the “Canada Additional Compensation Opportunities”):

- the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan (as defined above) for Canada Employees;
- the Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program (as defined above) for Canada Store Leaders; and
- the Group Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program (as defined above) for Canada Group Leaders.

59. Each of these programs is an integral part of the Debtors’ Canada Employee Compensation and Benefits. By this Motion, the Debtors are not seeking to make any payments to Insiders under any of the Canada Additional Compensation Opportunities.¹⁴

1. Canada Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan

60. Approximately 12 Canada Employees are eligible to participate in the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan (as described above) (the “Canada Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan”). For the Debtor’s 2017 Fiscal Year, the target payout for all eligible Canada

Employees under the Canada Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan is approximately $235,000. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe they owe any amounts on account of the Canada Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan to eligible Canada Employees. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay obligations under the Canada Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business upon entry of the Final Order. As previously indicated, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the Canada Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan to Insiders.

2. Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and Canada Group Leader Incentive Program

61. Store Leaders and Group Leaders employed in Canada (the “Canada Store Leaders,” and “Canada Group Leaders,” respectively) also qualify for the Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program (described above) (the “Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program”) and the Group Leader Incentive Program (described above) (the “Canada Group Leader Incentive Program”). As of the Petition Date, approximately 205 Canada Store Leaders and 15 Canada Group Leaders qualify to participate in the Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and Canada Group Leader Incentive Program, respectively.

62. The Debtors are currently unable to quantify amounts due on account of the Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and the Canada Group Leader Incentive Program for the first quarter of the Debtors’ 2017 Fiscal Year, as such incentive awards will not be determined until the completion of that quarter (i.e., April 30, 2017). Based on the Debtors’ projections, however, awards under the Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and the Canada Group Leader Incentive Program are unlikely to exceed approximately $190,000 and $35,500 on account of the programs, respectively. No prepetition amounts will become due and owing in the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to continue paying obligations under the Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and the Canada Group Leader Incentive Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices upon entry of the Final Order. To be sure, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the Canada Store Leader Extreme Rewards Incentive Program and the Canada Group Leader Incentive Program to Insiders.

G. Asia Additional Compensation Opportunities

63. The Debtors have two additional compensation programs for Asia Employees (the “Asia Additional Compensation Opportunities,” and, collectively with the U.S. Additional Compensation Opportunities and Canada Additional Compensation Opportunities, the “Additional Compensation Opportunities”):

- the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan (as defined above) for Asia Employees; and
- the Asia Holiday Bonuses (as defined below).

64. Each of these programs is an integral part of the Debtors’ Asia Employee Compensation and Benefits. By this Motion, the Debtors are not seeking to make any payments to insiders (“Insiders”)¹⁵ under any of the Asia Additional Compensation Programs.¹⁶

1. Asia Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan

65. All 27 Asia Employees are eligible to participate in the Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan (described above) (the “Asia Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan”). For the ¹⁵ The term Insiders shall have the meaning set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 101(31).

¹⁶ To the extent the Debtors propose to make prepetition payments to any potential Insiders under an Asia Additional Compensation Program, the Debtors will seek separate approval from the Court with respect to such payments or Additional Compensation Programs.

Debtor's 2017 Fiscal Year, the target payout for all Asia Employees under the Asia Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan is approximately $115,000. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe they owe any amounts on account of the Asia Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan to eligible Asia Employees. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay obligations under the Asia Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business upon entry of the Final Order. As previously indicated, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the Asia Non-Insider Annual Incentive Plan to Insiders.

2. Asia Employee Holiday Bonuses

66. All Asia Employees are also eligible for two separate holiday bonuses, one for New Year's ("New Year Bonuses") and the other for the Mid-Autumn Festival ("Mid-Autumn Festival Bonuses," and, together with the New Year Bonuses, the "Asia Employee Holiday Bonuses"). The New Year Bonuses are paid on December 31st of each calendar year to all then-currently employed Asia Employees in an amount equal to one-month's salary, or, if an eligible Asia Employee has not worked for the Debtors for the full calendar year, the applicable New Year's Bonus is prorated. The Mid-Autumn Festival Bonuses are paid each year to all Asia Employees employed by the Debtors at the end of the Mid-Autumn Festival (typically late-September). The Mid-Autumn bonuses generally amount to approximately $33.

67. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $65,000 on account of the Asia Employee Holiday Bonus Opportunities, none of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the Asia Employee Holiday Bonus Opportunities in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, and to continue paying Asia Employee Holiday Bonus Opportunities on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business. To be sure, the Debtors do not propose to make any payment on account of the Asia Employee Holiday Bonus Opportunities to Insiders.

II. Employee Benefits and Supplemental Benefits Programs

A. U.S. Employee Benefits Programs

1. U.S. Health and Welfare Programs

68. The Debtors offer a comprehensive employee benefits package to eligible U.S. Employees for medical, dental, prescription, and vision care coverage and certain other welfare benefits, including Health Savings Accounts, Flexible Spending Accounts, Life and AD&D Insurance Benefits, Disability Benefits, Workers' Compensation Benefits, Business Travel Insurance, and a 401(k) Plan (collectively, the "U.S. Health and Welfare Programs").

69. The Debtors offer Full-Time U.S. Employees the opportunity to participate in a variety of health benefit plans, including the medical plans, dental plans, prescription coverage plans, and the vision plans (collectively, the "U.S. Health Benefits"). The Debtors do not offer the U.S. Health and Welfare Programs for Part-Time U.S. Employees.¹⁷ The U.S. Health Benefits are customary for similarly-sized companies and the Full-Time U.S. Employees and their dependents have come to rely on the U.S. Health Benefits. Without the U.S. Health Benefits, the Full-Time U.S. Employees would be forced to obtain potentially expensive out-of-pocket insurance coverage, which would likely adversely affect Full-Time U.S. Employee morale and retention. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay or remit all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Health Benefits and to continue paying the U.S. Health Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

¹⁷ It is possible that certain of the Debtors' Part-Time Employees have access to the Health Benefits as a result of the lookback provisions of the Affordable Care Act or where required by state law.

a. U.S. Health Insurance Plans

70. The Debtors offer a variety of medical, dental, and vision coverages to both Represented and Non-Represented Full-Time U.S. Employees (collectively, the “U.S. Health Insurance Plans”). The Debtors’ medical plans (the “U.S. Medical Plans”), dental plans (the “U.S. Dental Plans”), and vision plans (the “U.S. Vision Plans”) for U.S. Employees located in the United States are offered through the Aon Active Health Exchange (the “AAHE”), which is an online insurance marketplace where Full-Time U.S. Employees can shop for coverage from multiple insurance carriers. The Debtors’ prescription drug coverage is embedded in the U.S. Medical Plans. Through the AAHE, Full-Time U.S. Employees are given the opportunity to choose from several plan levels, a variety of insurance carriers, and a range of costs. Based on the marketplace nature of the AAHE, coverage options for Full-Time U.S. Employees vary depending on geographical location.

71. All of the Debtors’ U.S. Health Insurance Plans through the AAHE are fully-insured products. Fully-insured health plans for the Debtors’ U.S. Employees in Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Guam, and Saipan are not offered through the AAHE.¹⁸ Instead, health plans for these U.S. Employees are offered by the Debtors through arrangements with individual insurance carriers in those specific geographies with similar premium-sharing arrangements.¹⁹

72. The Debtors and the participating Full-Time U.S. Employees share in the cost of premiums for the U.S. Medical and U.S. Dental Plans, with the Debtors paying a fixed amount based on geographic area and coverage tier (single, family, etc.) and the participating Full-Time U.S. Employee paying (through payroll deduction) the remainder, which amount varies depending on the type of plan selected, geographic area, and coverage tier. U.S. Vision Plan premiums are fully paid by the participating Full-Time U.S. Employee through payroll deduction. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $1.7 million per month on account of the U.S. Health Insurance Plans, in addition to premiums paid on behalf of participating U.S. Employees pursuant to the U.S. Withholding Obligations described above.

¹⁸ Employee benefits programs for the Debtors’ Employees in Asia are discussed separately in this Motion below.

¹⁹ The Debtors also offer fully-insured Health Plans to eligible Full-Time Employees on expatriate assignments outside the U.S. (currently two). Such Employees may elect to participate in a Cigna International plan specifically designed for this purpose.

73. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owed approximately $1.7 million on account of their portion of the premiums with respect to U.S. Health Insurance Plans to cover all premiums for the U.S. Health Insurance Plans, all of which may become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Health Insurance Plans, and to continue paying premiums for the U.S. Health Insurance Plans on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices.

b. Health Savings Accounts

74. Eligible Full-Time U.S. Employees who participate in a high-deductible U.S. Health Plan through the AAHE may also contribute a portion of their U.S. Employee Compensation into a health savings account (the “HSA”), administered by Aon Hewitt and its affiliates (“Aon”) (the “HSA Program”). Part-Time U.S. Employees are not eligible for the HSA Program. Full-Time U.S. Employees may make pre-tax contributions (collectively, the “HSA Deductions”) to their HSA through payroll deductions to cover qualified health expenses up to the maximum amount permitted by the Internal Revenue Service. The Debtors pay Aon a monthly administration fee of approximately $2,500 (the “HSA Administration Fee”) depending on the level of participation by the Debtors’ U.S. Employees. Currently, approximately 470 Full-Time U.S. Employees contribute to a Debtor-sponsored HSA, and on average, the Debtors deduct approximately $71,000 in the aggregate from Full-Time U.S. Employees’ Employee Compensation on account of Full-Time U.S. Employee contributions to their respective HSAs on a monthly basis (the “Employee HSA Deductions”).

75. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $5,000 on account of the HSA Administration Fee, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. Amounts to be paid with respect to the Employee HSA Deductions are contained in the projections for Withholding Obligations discussed above. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to remit any prepetition amounts outstanding under the HSA Program to the extent necessary and continue honoring their obligations under the HSA Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

c. Flexible Spending Accounts

76. To allow Full-Time U.S. Employees to set aside pre-tax income to be used for qualified expenses, the Debtors provide Full-Time U.S. Employees with a number of flexible spending (reimbursement) account options (the “FSA Programs”) through payroll deductions, which include: (a) a flexible spending account for health care (the “Healthcare Flexible Spending Account”) to pay qualified health care expenses; (b) a limited flexible spending account for health care (the “Limited Purpose Flexible Spending Account”) to pay for qualified healthcare expenses; and (c) a flexible spending account to pay for qualified expenses related to care for eligible dependents (the “Dependent-Care Flexible Spending Account,” and together with the Health Care Flexible Spending Account and the Limited Purpose Flexible Spending Account, the “FSAs”). The Debtors do not offer FSAs to Part-Time U.S. Employees. The FSA Programs are administered by Aon for a monthly fee of approximately $4,800, depending on participation rates by eligible U.S. Employees, which is paid by the Debtors (the “FSA Administration Fee”).²⁰ Currently, approximately 850 Full-Time U.S. Employees contribute to the FSAs. On average, the Debtors deduct, in the aggregate, approximately $53,000 from Full-Time U.S. Employees’ Employee Compensation on account of Full-Time U.S. Employee contributions to their respective FSAs on a monthly basis (the “Employee FSA Deductions”).

77. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $10,000 on account of the FSA Administration Fee, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. Amounts to be paid with respect to the Employee FSA Deductions are contained in the projections for Withholding Obligations discussed above. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to remit any prepetition amounts outstanding under the FSA Programs to the extent necessary and continue honoring their obligations under the FSA Programs on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

d. COBRA

78. Pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (“COBRA”), certain former Full-Time U.S. Employees of the Debtors (the “COBRA Participants”) may continue insurance coverage under the Medical Plan, Dental Plan, Vision Plan, and HSA and certain FSA Programs (the “COBRA Benefits”). More specifically, COBRA Participants are entitled by law to continue to receive COBRA Benefits for up to 18 months, and in some instances up to 36 months, following termination of employment. Approximately 15 COBRA Participants per COBRA Benefit elect to continue coverage through COBRA. COBRA Participants are responsible for paying all premium costs associated with the COBRA Benefits.

²⁰ The approximately $4,800 paid to Aon each month is inclusive of administration fees paid in connection with the Commuter Benefits Program described below.

79. The Debtors use COBRAGuard to assist in the administration of the COBRA Benefits, including but not limited to all required notifications, collection of premiums, coordination of enrollment information with the AAHE insurers, and customer service and support for COBRA Participants. On average, the Debtors pay COBRAGuard administrative fees of approximately $2,200 monthly for these services.

80. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $2,200 for prepetition administrative service fees to COBRAGuard. The Debtors request the authority to (a) pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the COBRA Benefits, upon entry of the Final Order, (b) continue to offer the COBRA Benefits, including to those U.S. Employees who may be terminated after the Petition Date, and honor all obligations related thereto on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices, and (c) continue to pay fees related to the COBRA Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

e. U.S. Life and AD&D Insurance

81. The Debtors offer life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance coverage (collectively, the “U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance”) to eligible Full- and Part-Time U.S. Employees, which provides benefits up to one times such U.S. Employees’ covered pay. Full-Time U.S. Employees also have the option to purchase additional life insurance up to an amount equal to four times a Full-Time U.S. Employee’s total annual earnings (the “U.S. Optional Life Insurance”). The maximum coverage for U.S. Employees is $1 million under both the U.S. Basic Life & AD&D Insurance and the U.S. Optional Life Insurance. The U.S. Basic and U.S. Optional Life and AD&D Insurance are fully insured products through Cigna. The Debtors pay approximately $26,000 per month with respect to their portion of the premiums for the U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance.

82. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $52,000 on account of accrued and unpaid premiums for the U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay in a manner consistent with historical practice any unpaid amounts on account of the U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance, and to continue honoring their obligations under the U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

f. U.S. Disability Benefits

83. The Debtors provide Full-Time U.S. Employees with both short-term disability benefits (the “U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits”) and long-term disability benefits (the “U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits,” and together with the U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits, collectively, the “U.S. Disability Benefits”). Under the U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits program, eligible Full-Time U.S. Employees are entitled to, among other things, continuation of 60 percent of their weekly base-wages for the first 13 weeks of their covered disability, including a 14 calendar day elimination period. Full-Time Retail Employee U.S. Short-Term Disability premiums are paid in full by eligible Full-Time Retail Employees. U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits for Full-Time Corporate Employees are self-insured by the Debtors with benefits being fully funded. U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits for Full-Time DC Employees, in turn, are fully-insured, with benefits being paid by Cigna and premiums being fully-funded by the Debtors.

84. Following the period of the U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits, Full-Time U.S. Employees are eligible to receive U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits, which are offered through Cigna. Under the U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits program, eligible Full-Time U.S. Employees are entitled to receive 60 percent of their monthly wages, up to a monthly maximum of $20,000 for exempt U.S. Employees and $3,000 for non-exempt U.S. Employees. The U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits begin after a Full-Time U.S. Employee is absent from work for 90 consecutive days following a covered disability and continue for an initial period of two years, which can be extended if such Full-Time U.S. Employee's disability deems the Full-Time U.S. Employee unable to perform any occupation for which the Full-Time U.S. Employee is qualified by education, training, or experience.

85. If a Full-Time U.S. Employee is eligible, U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits continue indefinitely, but are reduced by other income sources, including Social Security and U.S. Workers' Compensation. U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits are voluntary and fully paid by participating Full-Time U.S. Employees, but the Debtors do partially fund U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits for select Corporate Employees. The Debtors pay Cigna approximately $8,000 per month in premiums with respect to the U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits.

86. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors: (a) believe that they owe approximately $35,000 on account of the U.S. Short-Term Disability Benefits and premiums, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases and (b) believe they owe approximately $16,000 on account of the U.S. Long-Term Disability Benefits and premiums accruing as of the Petition Date, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Disability Benefits, and to continue honoring their obligations on account of the U.S. Disability Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

g. U.S. Workers' Compensation Program²¹

87. The Debtors maintain workers' compensation insurance for U.S. Employees at the levels required by law in the states and territories in which the Debtors operate (the "U.S. Workers' Compensation Program"). Currently, the Debtors maintain coverage under the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in the United States, Guam, and Saipan through Zurich American Insurance Company ("Zurich") and Pacific Indemnity Insurance Company ("Pacific," and together with Zurich, the "U.S. Workers' Compensation Policies"), each of which is administered by Gallagher Basset ("Gallagher Basset").

88. Premiums on account of the U.S. Workers' Compensation Policies are paid in advance on an annual basis and depend substantially on the Debtors' payroll, the Debtors' risk profile (claims history), and the U.S. Employee's workers' compensation classification. The Debtors paid approximately $575,000 in premiums for 2016 on account of the U.S. Workers' Compensation Policies. The U.S. Workers' Compensation Policies are subject to a per-claim deductible in the amount of $1.0 million, and the Debtors paid approximately $6.0 million for 2016 on account of such deductibles. The U.S. Workers' Compensation Premiums are then subject to adjustment following an audit of the Debtors' actual payroll for the applicable policy year.

89. Additionally, the Debtors do business in certain states and territories that require workers' compensation insurance be purchased through their state/territorial workers'

²¹ Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Debtors to (I) Continue Insurance Coverage Entered into Prepetition and Satisfy Prepetition Obligations Related Thereto and (II) Renew, Supplement, or Purchase Insurance Policies (the "Insurance Motion") in which the Debtors are not seeking relief related to workers' compensation.

compensation programs (the “State Coverage Policies”). An overview of the State Coverage Policies follows:

- Wyoming. Specifically, coverage under the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in Wyoming is maintained through the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services, for which the Debtors pay approximately $4,500 each year in the aggregate.
- North Dakota. Coverage under the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in North Dakota is maintained through North Dakota Workforce Safety and Insurance, for which the Debtors pay approximately $6,000 each year in the aggregate.
- Washington. Coverage under the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in Washington is maintained through the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries, for which the Debtors pay approximately $175,000 each year in the aggregate.
- Ohio. Coverage under the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in Ohio is through Ohio Bureau of Workers’ Compensation, for which the Debtors pay approximately $550,000 each year in the aggregate. In Ohio, there is a $10,000 deductible for stores and a $100,000 deductible for the Debtors’ distribution center.
- Virgin Islands. Coverage under the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in the Virgin Islands is maintained through the Virgin Islands Department of Labor, Division of Workers’ Compensation, for which the Debtors pay approximately $8,200 each year in the aggregate.
- Puerto Rico. Coverage under the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program for U.S. Employees in Puerto Rico is maintained through Corporación del Fondo del Seguro del Estado, for which the Debtors pay approximately $132,000 each year in the aggregate.

90. The Debtors make payments on account of State Coverage Policies on a yearly, quarterly, or bi-monthly basis. The Debtors do not yet know the precise amounts that will be owed on account of the State Coverage Policies until such time as the next assessment is received from the applicable state or territory.

91. The Debtors must continue the claim assessment, determination, adjudication, and payment process pursuant to the U.S. Workers’ Compensation Program without regard to whether such liabilities are outstanding before the Petition Date to ensure that the Debtors comply with applicable workers' compensation laws and requirements.²² Currently, there are approximately 260 open claims under the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program that must be addressed in this fashion.

92. For the claims administration process to operate in an efficient manner and to ensure that the Debtors comply with their statutory and contractual obligations, the Debtors must continue to assess, determine, and adjudicate claims brought under the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program during these chapter 11 cases. In addition, to the extent any U.S. Employees assert claims arising under the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program, the Debtors request that the Court modify the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to permit the U.S. Employees to proceed with their claims under the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program.

93. Because the Debtors are statutorily and/or contractually obligated to maintain the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program, their inability to do so may result in adverse legal consequences that could potentially disrupt the reorganization process. Thus, the Debtors request authority to (a) pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program and the State Coverage Policies, (b) maintain the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program and continue to honor their obligations thereunder on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, and (c) modify the automatic stay to allow U.S. Employees to assert claims under the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program to the extent applicable.

²² The Debtors' Workers' Compensation Program may change postpetition in the ordinary course of business due to changes in applicable laws and regulations and the Debtors' ability to meet requirements thereunder. By this Motion, the Debtors request authority to continue the Workers' Compensation Program postpetition, including making any changes to current policy and practices that become necessary.

h. Business Travel Insurance

94. The Debtors provide various benefits to U.S. Employees who are injured or experience a medical emergency while traveling on a company-paid and/or approved business or relocation trip. Specifically, the Debtors contract with Chubb Corporation and International SOS (collectively, the “Business Travel Insurers”) to provide all U.S. Employees with business travel accident insurance (the “Business Travel Insurance”). Business Travel Insurance is provided by the Debtors to U.S. Employees at no cost to the U.S. Employees and provides coverage of up to three times the U.S. Employee’s annual salary, up to a maximum amount of $3 million (and provides coverage of up to $150,000 for a spouse or $10,000 for any child traveling with the U.S. Employee on an approved business trip), as well as related travel accident and medical insurance.

95. The Debtors pay approximately $91,000 per year to the Business Travel Insurers for fees related to the Business Travel Insurance (the “Business Travel Insurance Fees”). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe they owe any Business Travel Insurance Fees. However, out of an abundance of caution, by this Motion, the Debtors request authority to pay any outstanding prepetition Business Travel Insurance Fees upon entry of the Final Order and to continue paying the Business Travel Insurance Fees on a postposition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

i. 401(k) Plan

96. The Debtors provide eligible Part-Time and Full-Time U.S. Employees with the ability to participate in a 401(k) defined contribution plan (the “401(k) Plans”). U.S. Employees become eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan, as a contributor, upon the date of hire subject to certain minimum age requirements. The 401(k) Plan generally provides for deductions of compensation up to limits set by the Internal Revenue Code and consistent with certain plan limit pre- and post-tax contribution deduction percentages. Each U.S. Employee's contributions under the 401(k) Plan are deducted automatically from each paycheck and thereafter transferred by the Debtor to a trust established under the 401(k) Plan (collectively, the "401(k) Deductions"). Amounts to be remitted by the Debtors as of the Petition Date are included in the projections for Withholding Obligations discussed above.

97. The Debtors match the U.S. Employees' 401(k) Plan contributions on a discretionary dollar-for-dollar basis up to 2.5% of the Debtors' net pre-tax profits to the 401(k) Plans on up to 5% of a participating Full-Time U.S. Employee's pay (the "401(k) Matching Contributions"). Due to the Debtors' recent financial hardships, however, the Debtors have not made any 401(k) Matching Contributions for the 2015 and 2016 plan years.

98. The 401(k) Plans are currently administered by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and certain of its affiliates ("Wells Fargo"). The 401(k) Plans also incur annual costs associated with Wells Fargo's administration of the 401(k) Plans (the "401(k) Administrative Fees"), but such costs are borne directly by the U.S. Employees and charged to the U.S. Employee's account through the trust established for the U.S. Employees participating in the 401(k) Plans. The Debtors are not directly responsible for such amounts. The Debtors do pay certain trust fees to Banco Popular with respect to 401(k)'s offered to U.S. Employees in Puerto Rico as well as certain settlor function fees related to the 401(k) Plans, from time to time as incurred.

99. Many U.S. Employees' retirement savings solely consists of their 401(k) Plan. As such, the Debtors believe that continuing the 401(k) Plans and the 401(k) Matching Contributions are essential to maintaining U.S. Employee morale and protecting U.S. Employees expectations. In addition, the Debtors believe that the 401(k) Deductions are generally held in a trust by the Debtors and are not property of their estates. Therefore, the Debtors request the authority to (a) pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the 401(k) Plans, (b) remit any unpaid prepetition 401(k) Deductions, and (c) to continue honoring their obligations related to the 401(k) Plans and 401(k) Matching Contributions, to the extent such obligations arise, on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

2. U.S. Time-Off Benefits

100. The Debtors offer several paid and unpaid time-off benefits for U.S. Full-Time Corporate and Retail Employees, including Vacation Time, Sick Leave, Personal/Community Service Days, Paid Time Off, Leave of Absence Benefits, and Other Paid Leave (each as defined below, and collectively, the “U.S. Time-Off Benefits”), which U.S. Time-Off Benefits increase based on an U.S. Employee’s tenure with the Debtors. DC Employees receive Paid Time Off (“PTO”) benefits in lieu of separate Vacation Time, Sick Leave, and Personal/Community Service Days.

101. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $4.5 million on account of accrued but unpaid U.S. Time-Off Benefits, the majority of which will not become due unless a U.S. Employee eligible for such U.S. Time-Off Benefit is terminated. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the U.S. Time-Off Benefits (each as defined more fully below), and to continue paying the U.S. Time-Off Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

a. U.S. Represented Employee Vacation Time

102. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide Represented Employees with vacation time (“U.S. Represented Employee Vacation Time”). Represented Employees accrue between one and four weeks of U.S. Represented Employee Vacation Time per year depending on their length of service with the Debtors. For those Represented Employees covered under the UFCW Local 655 CBA, unused U.S. Represented Employee Vacation Time is paid out to such Represented Employee no later than 30 days after the conclusion of the Represented Employees anniversary year. For those Represented Employees that have been employed by the Debtors for more than one year and are covered under the UFCW Local 536 CBA, such Represented Employees are entitled to be paid for any accrued, but unused, Vacation Time at the time of the Represented Employee's termination. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate their current cash obligations for U.S. Represented Employee Vacation Time is approximately $25,000 (the "U.S. Represented Employee Accrued Vacation Time").

b. U.S. Represented Employee Sick Leave

103. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide Represented Employees covered under the local UFCW 536 CBA with sick leave ("Sick Leave"). Such Represented Employees accrue three or six days of Sick Leave per year depending on their length of service with the Debtors. Such Represented Employees are entitled to be paid for any accrued, but unused, Sick Leave at the end of each year of employment. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate their current cash obligations for Sick Leave for Represented Employees is approximately $2,000 (the "U.S. Represented Employee Accrued Sick Leave").

c. U.S. Represented Employee Paid Time Off

104. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide Represented Employees covered under the local UFCW 655 CBA with PTO. Such Represented Employees receive three PTO days (for Part-Time Represented Employees) or eight PTO days (for Full-Time Represented Employees) per calendar year. Such Represented Employees are entitled to be paid for a maximum of three days of unused PTO at the end of the calendar year, with any remaining days being forfeited. Upon termination, all unused PTO days are forfeited. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have no current cash obligations for PTO for Represented Employees.

d. DC Full-Time Employee Paid Time Off

105. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide DC Full-time Employees with PTO in lieu of vacation time, sick leave, and personal/community service days. PTO is accrued on a monthly basis, with such amounts of PTO being dependent on the eligible Employee's tenure with the Debtor. Upon termination, all accrued, but unused PTO is paid out to Employees. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate their current cash obligations for PTO for DC Full-time Employees is approximately $470,000.

e. U.S. Non-Represented Employee Vacation Time

106. The Debtors also provide vacation time for Corporate Employees and non-represented Full-Time Retail Employees ("U.S. Non-Represented Employee Vacation Time"). Eligible Employees accrue up to four weeks of U.S. Non-Represented Employee Vacation Time per year depending on the amount of time such U.S. Employees have worked for the Debtors. U.S. Employees who leave the Debtors with accrued, but unused, U.S. Non-Represented Employee Vacation Time are entitled to a cash payment equal to such unused U.S. Non-Represented Employee Vacation Time. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate their current cash obligations for U.S. Non-Represented Employee Vacation Time is approximately $4.0 million (the "U.S. Non-Represented Employee Accrued Vacation Time").

f. U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave

107. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide sick-days ("U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave") to Non-Represented Corporate and Full-Time Retail Employees as a U.S. Time-Off Benefit. Full-time U.S. Employees are allotted up to six days of U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave, and certain Part-Time U.S. Employees

(excluding Part-Time Retail Employees) are allotted U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave of up to three days, with such amounts of U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave being dependent on a U.S. Employee's tenure with the Debtors. U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave is accrued on a monthly basis and may be used for personal illness, wellness and healthcare appointments, and for similar leave for U.S. Employees' immediate family members. Non-Represented Employees who are terminated or resign are not entitled to a cash payment in lieu of the accrued but unused U.S. Non-Represented Employee Sick Leave. If a U.S. Employee is absent for more than one work week as a result of illness, such U.S. Employee must apply for a U.S. Non-Represented Employee Leave of Absence (described more fully below).

g. Non-Represented Employee Personal/Community Service Days

108. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide personal/community service days ("U.S. Non-Represented Personal/Community Service Days") to the U.S. Non-Represented Employees as a U.S. Time-Off Benefit. Full-time Retail Employees are allotted up to thirteen U.S. Non-Represented Employee Personal/Community Service Days, and Full-Time Corporate Employees, are allotted up to seven U.S. Non-Represented Employee Personal/Community Service Days. U.S. Non-Represented Employee Personal/Community Service Days are prorated if a U.S. Employee begins work for the Debtors mid-year. U.S. Non-Represented Employee Personal/Community Service Days can be used for any purpose, including volunteer or community service commitments as well as additional days off. U.S. Employees who are terminated or resign are not entitled to a cash payment in lieu of the accrued but unused U.S. Non-Represented Employee Personal/Community Service Days.

h. Medical Leave of Absence Benefits

109. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide medical leave of absence benefits (“U.S. Medical Leave of Absence Benefits”) to eligible U.S. Employees to cover extended illnesses, injuries, maternity leave, and other family needs. The Debtors also provide eligible U.S. Employees with personal leave of absence benefits (“U.S. Personal Leave of Absence Benefits,” and together with U.S. Medical Leave of Absence Benefits, the “U.S. Leave of Absence Benefits”). Whether a U.S. Employee is entitled to U.S. Leave of Absence Benefits is handled by the Debtors on a case-by-case basis.

i. Other Paid Leave

110. The Debtors also permit all of their Full-Time U.S. Employees to take certain other paid leaves of absence for personal reasons, many of which are required by law. The Debtors pay Full-Time U.S. Employees for certain missed work time in the ordinary course of business for bereavement leave and jury duty or court attendance (the “U.S. Other Paid Leave”). Full-Time U.S. Employees are not entitled to any separate cash payments in addition to their normal compensation for the U.S. Other Paid Leave.

3. Non-Insider U.S. Severance Programs

111. In the ordinary course of business the Debtors maintain a variety of severance programs to non-Insider U.S. Employees²³ in the event of a termination by the Debtors that is not for “cause” (the “Non-Insider U.S. Severance Programs”). Under the Non-Insider U.S.

²³ The Debtors believe that none of the Employees proposed to be paid on account of the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program are Insiders of the Debtors for purposes of section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. To wit, none of the Employees: (a) participate in the management of the Debtors; (b) have decision making authority with respect to policies of the Debtors; (c) report directly to the Debtors’ Board of Directors; (d) were appointed by the Debtors’ Board of Directors; (e) qualify as an Insider pursuant to Rule 16a-1(f) of the Securities Exchange Act; (f) undertake budget control over the Debtors’ business operations; (g) are compensated in the form of equity in the Debtors; and (h) are relatives of any Insider of the Debtors. As with the Additional Compensation Programs, to the extent the Debtors propose to make a severance payment to, or implement a severance program for, any Insiders, the Debtors will seek separate approval from the Court with respect to such payments or programs.

Severance Program, U.S. Employees receive, upon termination, severance in the form of either a lump-sum payment or continuation of salary depending on the former U.S. Employee's salary, seniority, and tenure at the Debtors at the time of termination. A brief breakdown of the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Programs follows:

1. Corporate/Distribution Center Employees

- a. Vice President-level Employees — Severance for U.S. Employees at this level is governed by individual employment agreements. In certain instances, employment agreements call for lump-sum payments. In others, U.S. Employees receive a continuation of salary.
- b. Department Director-level Employees — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of 12 weeks of continuation of salary and a maximum continuation of salary benefit of one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.
- c. Manager-level Employees — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of eight weeks of continuation of salary and a maximum continuation of salary benefit of one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.
- d. Other Exempt-level Employees — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of six weeks of continuation of salary and a maximum continuation of salary benefit of one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.
- e. Nonexempt Employees — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of two weeks of continuation of salary and a maximum continuation of salary benefit of one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.

2. Store Level Employees

- a. Store Leaders — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of eight weeks of continuation of salary if the termination is the result of a reduction in force and six weeks of continuation of salary if their termination is the result of a store closure. The maximum continuation of salary benefit for U.S. Employees at this level is one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.

- b. Full-Time Associates — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of one week regardless of whether their termination is the result of a reduction in force or store closure and a maximum continuation of salary benefit of one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.
- c. Part-Time Associates — U.S. Employees at this level receive a minimum severance benefit of one week regardless of whether their termination is the result of a reduction in force or store closure and a maximum continuation of salary benefit of one week per year of employment if such U.S. Employee's total service exceeds the state minimum severance benefit.

112. Upon the later of the lump-sum severance payment or the end of the salary continuation period, participants in the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program are eligible to enroll in health benefit continuation coverage through the COBRA benefits discussed above. Additionally, the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Programs entitle eligible former Corporate Employees to receive career transition services through Right Management ranging from a single workshop to a six-month program, depending on such eligible Corporate Employees' position. The cost of this service ranges from $400 to $3,500 per eligible former U.S. Employee. While not every eligible former U.S. Employee opts to take advantage of this benefit, the Debtors estimate that they will spend approximately $50,000 on account of career transition services over the next two months.

113. The Debtors believe that the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program has been critical to maintaining U.S. Employee morale and loyalty. Increased instability in the Debtors' workforce will undermine the Debtors' ability to strengthen their financial and operational foundation, to generate growth, and to be positioned for long-term success. Furthermore, as a condition to receiving benefits under the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program, the Debtors typically require that each eligible former U.S. Employee execute a release agreement, whereby the eligible former U.S. Employee releases any claims held against the Debtors. The Debtors believe that the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program will help reduce the time and expense that could arise in the absence of the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program to defend the assertion of claims by any severed U.S. Employees.

114. The Debtors spent approximately $2 million in the aggregate on account of the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program from November 2016 up to the Petition Date. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there is approximately $1.8 million in unpaid obligations under the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program. The Debtors seek to pay any prepetition amounts and to continue the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Programs in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are only seeking authority to continue the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program, and will exercise their discretion as to which U.S. Employees receive benefits under such program.

B. Canada Employee Health and Welfare Benefits

1. Canada Extended Health Insurance Programs

115. The Debtors offer “extended” healthcare coverage (which includes medical, prescription drug, and vision coverage) and dental coverage to Full-Time Canada Employees (collectively, the “Canada Extended Health Plans”) through Sun Life Financial (“Sun Life”). The Canada Extended Health Plans serve as a supplement to the already available national healthcare offered in Canada under the Canada Health Act. The Canada Extended Health Plans are fully-insured products. The Debtors work with a third-party broker, Mercer Canada, to benchmark their offerings under the Canada Extended Health Plans and to evaluate premiums, carriers, and plan designs on an annual basis. Mercer Canada is not paid a direct fee by the Debtors, but instead receives commission from Sun Life.

116. The Debtors and the participating Canada Employees share in the cost of premiums for the Canada Extended Health Plans. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $40,000 per month on account of the Canada Extended Health Plans, in addition to premiums collected from participating Canada Employees pursuant to the Withholding Obligations described above. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $40,000 on account of their portion of the premiums with respect to Canada Extended Health Plans, all of which may become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Canada Extended Health Plans, and to continue paying premiums for the Canada Extended Health Plans on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices.

2. Canada Life and AD&D Insurance

117. The Debtors offer life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance coverage (collectively, the "Canada Basic Life and AD&D Insurance") to eligible Full-Time Canada Employees, which provides benefits up to one times such Canada Employees' covered pay. Part-Time Canada Employees are not eligible for the Canada Basic Life and AD&D Insurance. Full-Time Canada Employees also have the option to purchase additional life insurance up to an amount equal to two times a Full-Time Canada Employee's total annual earnings (the "Canada Optional Life Insurance"). The maximum coverage for Canada Employees is CAD 250,000, or approximately $187,000, under both the Canada Basic Life and the Canada Optional Life Insurance. The maximum coverage does not apply to coverage under the Canada AD&D Insurance. The Canada Basic Life and AD&D Insurance and Canada

Optional Life and AD&D Insurance are fully insured products through Sun Life. The Debtors pay approximately $2,700 per month with respect to their premiums for the Basic Life and AD&D Insurance.

118. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $2,700 on account of accrued and unpaid premiums for the Canada Basic Life and AD&D Insurance, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay in a manner consistent with historical practice any unpaid amounts on account of the Canada Basic Life and AD&D Insurance, and to continue honoring their obligations under the Canada Basic Life and AD&D Insurance on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

3. Canada Disability Benefits

119. The Debtors provide Full-Time Canada Corporate Employees and Canada Store Leaders with short-term disability benefits (the “Canada Short-Term Disability Benefits”) and long-term disability benefits to all Full-Time Canada Employees (the “Canada Long-Term Disability Benefits,” and together with the Short-Term Disability Benefits, collectively, the “Canada Disability Benefits”) through Sun Life. Under the Canada Short-Term Disability Benefits, Full-Time Canada Corporate Employees and Canada Store Leaders are entitled to, among other things, continuation of 60 percent of their weekly base Canada Wages for the first 17 weeks of their covered disability, including a seven calendar day elimination period. Canada Short-Term Disability Benefits are fully-insured, with benefits being paid by Sun Life and premiums (the “Canada Short-Term Disability Premiums”) being fully-funded by the Debtors.

120. Full-Time Canada Employees are eligible to elect Canada Long-Term Disability Benefits, which are also offered through Sun Life. Under the Canada Long-Term Disability

Benefits, eligible Full-Time Canada Employees are entitled to receive 60 percent of their monthly Canada Wages, up to a monthly maximum of CAD 3,500, or approximately $2,600, or CAD 7,500, or approximately $5,600, based on job classification. The Canada Long-Term Disability Benefits begin after a 120-day waiting period. Canada Long-Term Disability Benefits are voluntary and fully paid by participating Full-Time Canada Employees (approximately 400 Canada Employees as of the Petition Date). The Debtors remit approximately $9,000 per month to Sun Life on account of such electing Canada Employees (the “Canada Long-Term Disability Premiums”)

121. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors: (a) believe that they owe approximately $4,500 on account of the Canada Short-Term Disability Premiums, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases and (b) believe they owe approximately $9,000 on account of the Canada Long-Term Disability Premiums as of the Petition Date, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Canada Disability Benefits, and to continue honoring their obligations on account of the Canada Disability Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

4. Canada Workers’ Compensation Program

122. The Debtors maintain workers’ compensation insurance for Canada Employees at the levels required by law in the Canadian provinces in which the Debtors operate (the “Canada Workers’ Compensation Program”). Similar to the jurisdictions covered by the State Coverage Policies described above, the Canadian provinces in which the Debtors operate are also considered “monopolistic” territories. An overview of the Canada Workers’ Compensation Program by province follows:

- Alberta. Coverage under the Canada Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Alberta is maintained through Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, for which the Debtors pay approximately $26,000 each year in the aggregate.
- British Columbia. Coverage under the Canada Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in British Columbia is maintained through Worksafe BC, for which the Debtors pay approximately $52,000 each year in the aggregate.
- Manitoba. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Manitoba is maintained through Workers' Compensation Board of Manitoba, for which the Debtors pay approximately $3,100 each year in the aggregate.
- New Brunswick. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in New Brunswick is maintained through Worksafe NB, for which the Debtors pay approximately $5,700 each year in the aggregate.
- Newfoundland. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Newfoundland is maintained through Workplace Health, Safety & Compensation Commission of Newfoundland and Labrador, for which the Debtors pay approximately $3,600 each year in the aggregate.
- Nova Scotia. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Nova Scotia is maintained through Workers' Compensation Board of Nova Scotia, for which the Debtors pay approximately $14,600 each year in the aggregate.
- Ontario. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Ontario is maintained through Workplace Safety and Insurance Board, for which the Debtors pay approximately $234,800 each year in the aggregate.
- Prince Edward Island. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Prince Edward Island is maintained through Workers' Compensation Board of Prince Edward Island, for which the Debtors pay approximately $3,000 each year in the aggregate.
- Quebec. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Quebec is maintained through Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CNESST), for which the Debtors pay approximately $10,000 each year in the aggregate.

- Saskatchewan. Coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program for Canada Employees in Saskatchewan is maintained through Saskatchewan Workers' Compensation Board, for which the Debtors pay approximately $9,000 each year in the aggregate.

123. Similar to the U.S. Workers' Compensation Program the Debtors must continue the claim assessment, determination, adjudication, and payment process pursuant to the Canada Workers' Compensation Program without regard to whether such liabilities are outstanding before the Petition Date to ensure that the Debtors comply with applicable workers' compensation laws and requirements.²⁴ Indeed, for the claims administration process to operate in an efficient manner, and to ensure that the Debtors comply with their statutory and contractual obligations, the Debtors must continue to assess, determine, and adjudicate claims brought under the Canada Workers' Compensation Program during these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors also request that the Court modify the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to permit the Canada Employees to proceed with the claims under the Canada Workers' Compensation Program.

124. Because the Debtors are statutorily and/or contractually obligated to maintain the Canada Workers' Compensation Program, their inability to do so may result in adverse legal consequences that could potentially disrupt the reorganization process. Thus, the Debtors request authority to (a) pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Canada Workers' Compensation Program, (b) maintain the Canada Workers' Compensation Program and continue to honor their obligations thereunder on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, and (c) modify the automatic stay to allow Canada Employees to assert claims under the Canada Workers' Compensation Program to the extent applicable.

²⁴ The Debtors' Workers' Compensation Program may change postpetition in the ordinary course of business due to changes in applicable laws and regulations and the Debtors' ability to meet requirements thereunder. By this Motion, the Debtors request authority to continue the Workers' Compensation Program postpetition, including making any changes to current policy and practices that become necessary.

5. Canada Business Travel Insurance

125. Canada Employees who are injured or experience a medical emergency while traveling on a company paid and/or approved business or relocation trip are also covered by Business Travel Insurance (described above) (the "Canada Business Travel Insurance"). All obligations with respect to the Canada Business Travel Insurance are included in the description of the benefit for U.S. Employees.

6. Registered Retirement Savings Plan

126. The Debtors provide eligible Part-Time and Full-Time Canada Employees with the ability to participate in a group registered retirement savings plan (the "RRSP Plan"). Canada Employees become eligible to participate in the RRSP Plan, as a contributor, upon completing one year of continuous employment with the Debtors. The RRSP Plan generally provides for deductions of compensation up to limits set by the Income Tax Act (Canada). Each Canada Employee's contributions under the RRSP Plan are deducted automatically from each paycheck and thereafter transferred by the Debtor to a group annuity policy established under the RRSP Plan (collectively, the "RRSP Deductions"). Amounts to be remitted by the Debtors as of the Petition Date are included in the projections for Canada Withholding Obligations discussed above.

127. The Debtors match the Canada Employees' RRSP Plan Deductions at 50% on the first 1% - 5% of a Canada Employees' earnings up to 2.5% of earnings (the "RRSP Matching Contributions"). Contributions are made to eligible Canada Employees' actively employed on December 31 of each calendar year. The RRSP Matching Contributions are typically credited to eligible Canada Employees' accounts in March of the following calendar year. For the 2016 plan year, the Debtors' matching contribution was approximately $100,000.

128. The RRSP Plans are currently administered by Sun Life. The RRSP Plans also incur annual costs associated with Sun Life's administration of the RRSP Plans (the "RRSP Administrative Fees"), with such costs (approximately $6,000) being borne by the Debtors. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $500 in RRSP Administrative Fees to Sun Life, all of which may become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases.

129. Many Canada Employees' retirement savings solely consists of their RRSP Plan. As such, the Debtors believe that continuing the RRSP Plans and the RRSP Matching Contributions are essential to maintaining Canada Employee morale and protecting Canada Employees' expectations. In addition, similar to the 401(k) Plan for U.S. Employees described above, the Debtors believe that the RRSP Deductions are generally held in a trust by the Debtors and are not property of their estates. Therefore, the Debtors request the authority to (a) pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the RRSP Plans, (b) remit any unpaid prepetition RRSP Deductions, and (c) to continue honoring their obligations related to the RRSP Plans and RRSP Matching Contributions, to the extent such obligations arise, on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

7. Canada Time-Off Benefits

130. Canada Employees receive Time-Off Benefits in the form of Vacation Time, Sick Leave, Personal Days, Leaves of Absence and other miscellaneous paid leaves required by law or local custom including marriage, maternity/parental, and funeral leaves (the "Canada Time-Off Benefits"). With the exception of Vacation Time, no Canada Time-Off Benefits are paid out upon termination of a Canada Employee's employment.

131. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $850,000 on account of accrued but unpaid Canada Time-Off Benefits, the majority of which will not become due unless a Canada Employee eligible for such Canada Time-Off Benefit is terminated or leaves the Debtors' employ. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Canada Time-Off Benefits (each as described more fully below), and to continue paying the Canada Time-Off Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

a. Canada Vacation Time

132. As required under Canadian law, Canada Employees receive vacation time of up to four weeks per year depending on the amount of time such Canada Employees have worked for the Debtors (the "Canada Vacation Time"). Canada Employees who leave the Debtors with accrued, but unused, Canada Vacation Time are entitled to a cash payment equal to such unused Canada Vacation Time. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that their current potential cash obligation for Canada Vacation Time is approximately $850,000 (the "Canada Accrued Vacation Time").

b. Canada Sick Leave

133. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide Sick Leave (as defined above) to eligible Full-Time Canada Employees as a Canada Time-Off Benefit. Full-time Canada Employees are allotted up to six days of Sick Leave with such amounts being dependent on tenure. Sick Leave is accrued on a monthly basis and may be used for personal illness, wellness and healthcare appointments, and for similar leave for Canada Employees' immediate family members. Canada Employees who are terminated or resign are not entitled to a cash payment in lieu of the accrued but unused Sick Leave. If a Canada Employee is absent for more than one work week as a result of illness, such Canada Employee must apply for a Leave of Absence (described more fully below).

c. Canada Personal Days

134. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide Personal Days (as defined above) to eligible Full-Time Canada Employees as a Canada Time-Off Benefit. Full-time Canada Employees are eligible for six Personal Days each year. Canada Employee Personal Days are prorated if a Canada Employee begins work for the Debtors mid-year. Personal Days can be used for any purpose, including volunteer or community service commitments, as well as for additional days off. Canada Employees who are terminated or resign are not entitled to a cash payment in lieu of accrued but unused Personal Days.

d. Canada Medical Leave of Absence Benefits

135. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide eligible Canada Employees with Medical Leave of Absence Benefits (defined above) (the “Canada Medical Leave of Absence Benefits”). Whether a Canada Employee is entitled to Canada Medical Leave of Absence Benefits is handled by the Debtors on a case-by-case basis.

e. Canada Other Paid Leave

136. The Debtors also permit all Full-Time Canada Employees to take Other Paid Leave (as defined above) (the “Canada Other Paid Leave”). Full-Time Canada Employees are not entitled to any separate cash payments in addition to their normal compensation for the Canada Other Paid Leave.

f. Non-Insider Canada Severance Program

137. Canada Employees are entitled to statutorily required severance under applicable Canadian federal and provincial law if their employment is “severed” (i.e., terminated without cause) (the “Non-Insider Canada Severance Program”). Non-Insider Canada Severance Program is not payable if a Canada Employee voluntarily resigns or if a Canada Employee is terminated for cause. Additionally, Canada Employees typically have to work for the Debtors for a defined number of years under applicable provincial law before being eligible for the Non-Insider Severance Program. The formula for determining amounts under the Non-Insider Canada Severance Program varies based on how long an eligible Canada Employee has worked for the Debtors.

138. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $26,400 on account of the Non-Insider Canada Severance Program, all of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay any outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Non-Insider Canada Pension Program and to continue honoring amounts under the Non-Insider Canada Pension Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

C. Asia Employee Benefits Programs

1. Asia Health and Welfare Programs

139. The Debtors offer all Full-Time Asia Employees a supplemental, fully-insured group insurance plan (the "Asia Group Insurance Plan"). The Asia Group Insurance Plan provides life, accidental death and dismemberment, critical illness, and medical insurance to all Full-Time Asia Employees and, where applicable, to their eligible dependents. The Asia Group Insurance Plan is provided through Nan Shan Life at a cost to the Debtors of approximately $27,500 per year (the "Asia Group Insurance Plan Premium").

140. The Asia Group Insurance Premium is paid annually in advance. Accordingly, the Debtors do not believe that there are any amounts outstanding in connection with the Asia Group Insurance Plan as of the Petition Date. By this Motion, however, the Debtors request to pay any amounts that may be outstanding under the Asia Group Insurance Plan as of the Petition Date and to continue paying obligations arising under the Asia Group Insurance Plan in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice.

2. Asia Time-Off Benefits

141. Asia Employees receive time-off benefits in the form of annual leave, sick leave, and other miscellaneous paid leaves required by law or local custom including marriage, maternity, paternity, and funeral leaves (the “Asia Time-Off Benefits”). The Asia Time-Off Benefits are granted at the beginning of each calendar year, with the number of days based on tenure with the Debtors. With the exception of unused annual leave, no Asia Time-Off Benefits are paid out upon termination of an Asia Employee’s employment.

142. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors owe approximately $8,000 on account of the Asia Time-Off Benefits, none of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Asia Time-Off Benefits, and to continue honoring their obligations on account of the Asia Time-Off Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

3. Asia Business Travel Insurance

143. Asia Employees who are injured or experience a medical emergency while traveling on a company paid and/or approved business or relocation trip are covered by Business Travel Insurance (described above) (the “Asia Business Travel Insurance”). All obligations with respect to the Asia Business Travel Insurance are included in the description of the benefit for U.S. Employees.

4. Asia Pension Obligations

144. All Asia Employees participate in a pension plan under either the Labor Standards Act (Taiwan) (the “Old Pension Scheme”) or the Labor Pension Act (Taiwan) (the “New Pension Scheme”), depending on their tenure with the company. Asia Employees who joined the Debtors prior to July 1, 2005 (or, who did not choose to join the New Pension Scheme after July 1, 2005) participate in the Old Pension Scheme. Asia Employees who joined the Debtors after July 1, 2005, participate in the New Pension Scheme.

a. Old Pension Scheme

145. Under the Old Pension Scheme, an eligible Asia Employee may retire if he or she has: (a) has worked for at least 15 years and reached the age of 55; (b) has worked for 25 years, or (c) has worked for at least 10 years and reached the age of 60. The Old Pension Scheme is a Debtor-paid, pension plan that generally provides participating Asia Employees with a lump-sum pension payment following retirement as a statutory benefit (the “Old Pension Scheme Payments”). The Old Pension Plan Payments are determined based on a defined formula which factors in a participating Asia Employee’s years of service with the Debtors and the average monthly wage for the participating Asia Employee for the six-month period prior to retirement.

146. Under the Old Pension Scheme, Old Pension Scheme Payments are fixed on the effective date of participating Asia Employees’ retirements, and are generally payable within thirty (30) days of such effective date. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have five participants in the Old Pension Scheme. The Old Pension Scheme also requires the Debtors to establish a monthly appropriation to fund 2% to 15% of the average monthly Asia Wages of participating Asia Employees to a designated reserve fund (the “Old Pension Scheme Reserve Fund”) and for an annual make-up appropriation to address any appropriation gap between the Old Pension Scheme Reserve Fund and the potential Old Pension Scheme Payments payable to participating Asia Employees who are entitled to retire in the following year.

147. As of the Petition Date, the amount of the Old Pension Scheme Reserve Fund for the Old Pension Scheme is approximately $600,000 and the Debtors believe approximately $363,000 will be due and payable within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Old Pension Scheme, including any prepetition amounts owed in connection with the Old Pension Scheme Reserve Fund, and to continue honoring their obligations on account of the Old Pension Scheme on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

b. New Pension Scheme

148. The New Pension Scheme is a pension plan into which participating Asia Employees may make a voluntary contribution of up to 6% of their monthly Asia Wages into an individual retirement account (the "New Pension Scheme Retirement Accounts"), with such contributions being capped at approximately $4,890 per year. The Debtors, in turn, are required to contribute 6% of each participating Asia Employee's monthly Asia Wages into New Pension Scheme Retirement Accounts, which contributions are also capped at approximately $4,920. Benefits under the New Pension Scheme become payable at age 60. In total, the Debtors contribute approximately $3,000 per month into the New Pension Scheme Retirement Accounts of 22 Asia Employees. Currently, the 22 Asia Employees participating in the New Pension Scheme do not deduct any amounts from their Asia Wages to contribute to their New Pension Scheme Retirement Accounts.

149. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they owe approximately $3,000 on account of the New Pension Scheme, none of which will be due and payable within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the New Pension Scheme and to continue honoring their obligations on account of the New Pension Scheme on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

5. Non-Insider Asia Severance Program

150. Asia Employees are entitled to statutorily required severance if they are terminated by prior notice (i.e., without cause) (the “Non-Insider Asia Severance Program,” and, collectively with the Non-Insider U.S. Severance Program and Non-Insider Canada Severance Programs, the “Non-Insider Severance Programs”). Non-Insider Asia Severance Program is not payable if an Asia Employee voluntarily resigns or if an Asia Employee is terminated for cause. The formula for determining amounts under the Non-Insider Asia Severance Program varies based on whether an Asia Employee participates in the Old Pension Scheme or New Pension Scheme, with obligations under Non-Insider Asia Severance Program typically ranging from half a month to one month of salary for each full year of service for Asia Employees.

151. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they do not owe any amounts on account of the Non-Insider Asia Severance Program. By this Motion, however, the Debtors request authorization to pay any de minimis outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Non-Insider Asia Pension Program and to continue honoring amounts under the Non-Insider Asia Pension Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

D. Supplemental Employee Benefits

152. The Debtors offer supplemental employee benefits (collectively, the “Supplemental Benefits”) to substantially all of their Full-Time U.S. Employees, including:

- Employee vehicle leasing;

- auto/home and pet insurance;
- commuter benefits;
- National Merit Scholarship program;
- charitable giving programs
- Employee assistance, counseling, and adoption assistance;
- new hire bonuses; and
- referral bonuses.

Canada Employees are also able to participate in the Choose to Give Program (defined below).

153. The Debtors provide the Supplemental Employee Benefits as an elective benefit. Amounts for the Commuter Program (as defined below) are funded in full through deductions from the individual U.S. Employees' Wages. All other Supplemental Employee Benefits premiums are paid directly by the participating Full-Time U.S. Employee, with the exception of the Vehicle Program (as defined below). The Debtors seek authority to pay any unpaid amounts due under the Supplemental Benefits, which they estimate total $493,100 in the aggregate, and to continue the Supplemental Benefits postpetition in the ordinary course of business.

1. Vehicle Program

154. The Debtors offer certain U.S. Employees the ability to participate in a vehicle lease program whereby the Debtors contract with a third party, Emkay, to lease vehicles for use by U.S. Employees working in the field (the "Vehicle Program"). The vehicles are largely used by eligible U.S. Employees for business, but may also be used for personal purposes. To the extent an eligible U.S. Employee utilizes a vehicle for personal use, personal use charges are assessed to the U.S. Employees for their personal use. In connection with the provision of a leased vehicle to an eligible U.S. Employee, the U.S. Employee is also given a fuel card by Emkay to charge fuel costs for the leased vehicle that are associated with business travel. These costs are a part of the administrative cost Debtor is obligated to pay to Emkay.

155. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts on account of the Vehicle Program. Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors request authority to pay any prepetition outstanding amounts associated with the Vehicle Program and to continue the Vehicle Program in the ordinary course of business consistent with historical practice.

2. Auto/Home & Pet Insurance

156. The Debtors offer Full-Time U.S. Employees automobile, home, and pet insurance (“Additional Insurance Benefits”), under which the Debtors offer U.S. Employees access to coverage from Liberty Mutual, MetLife, and Travelers. The Additional Insurance Benefits are paid entirely by the participating Full-Time U.S. Employee and are not an obligation of the Debtors.

3. Commuter Benefits

157. The Debtors offer both Full- and Part-Time U.S. Employees the ability to utilize a portion of their pre-tax income to purchase a commuter pass, which Full-Time U.S. Employees, in turn, can then utilize to pay for bus, light rail, regional rail, and streetcar passes (the “Commuter Program”). The Commuter Program does not allow participating U.S. Employees to pay for gas, tolls, tickets, and certain other commuting related expenses. The Debtors deduct approximately $1,100 on a monthly basis on account of the Commuter Program from the roughly 10 participating Full-Time U.S. Employees.

158. The Debtors do not believe they owe any prepetition amounts on account of the Commuter Program as of the Petition Date. Moreover, the Debtors believe that the amounts under the Commuter Program generally are held in trust by the Debtors and are not property of their estates. However, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request the authority to remit any outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Commuter Program upon entry of the Final Order and to continue paying the amounts under the Commuter Program on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

4. Charitable Giving Programs

159. The Debtors support, and encourage U.S. Employees and Canada Employees to support, their local communities through various charitable giving programs, including an annual U.S. Employee and Canada Employee giving campaign (the “Choose to Give Program”), and the National Merit Scholar Program (together, the “Charitable Giving Programs”).

a. Choose to Give Program

160. On an annual basis, the Debtors provide all U.S. Employees and Canada Employees an opportunity to make a one-time or recurring donation to a selected group of eligible 501(c)(3) charitable organizations through payroll deduction (the “Choose to Give Program”). The Debtors then disburse these payroll deductions to the designated charitable organizations, generally on a quarterly basis. The Debtors deduct approximately $62,500 per month on account of the Choose to Give Program from approximately 4,900 U.S. Employees and 415 Canada Employees. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have approximately $285,000 of payroll deductions to be disbursed to designated charitable organizations.

b. National Merit Scholar Program

161. The Debtors also fund a number of four-year scholarships for the children of their Full-Time U.S. Employees through the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (the “National Merit Scholarship Program”). Presently, the Debtors offer two National Merit Scholarships for a yearly stipend of $1,000. As part of their agreement with the National Merit Scholar Corporation, the Debtors are also required to fund a yearly grant of $180, as basic support for the National Merit Scholarship Program.

162. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors owe approximately $58,100 on account of the National Merit Scholarship Program, none of which will become due and owing within the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases. However, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request the authority to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the National Merit Scholarship Program upon entry of the Final Order and to continue funding the National Merit Scholarship Program on a postposition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

5. Employee Assistance, Counseling and Adoption Assistance

163. The Debtors also offer their U.S. Employees a confidential counseling service to help address personal issues that U.S. Employees and their dependents may be facing (the “Counseling Program”). Cigna, the current provider of Basic Life, AD&D, and Disability insurance to the Debtors, provides this program at no additional cost to the Debtors, with the exception of critical incident support that is charged on a fee-for-service basis. In addition, the Debtors offer Full-Time U.S. Employees with an adoption assistance program (the “Adoption Program,” and together with the Counseling Program the “Wellness Programs”) under which the Debtors will reimburse certain Qualified Adoption Expenses (as such term is defined in the Internal Revenue Code) for the adoption of a child. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they have no outstanding payment obligations with respect to the Wellness Programs. Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors request authority to pay any prepetition outstanding amounts associated with the Wellness Programs and to continue the Wellness Programs in the ordinary course of business consistent with historical practice.

6. Attraction Awards

164. On a selective basis, the Debtors offer certain attraction awards to Full-Time U.S. Employees when they begin working for the Debtors (the “Attraction Awards”), such as a signing bonus to help offset incentive compensation or other awards that a newly-hired U.S. Employee may forfeit upon resigning his or her current position. Attraction Awards are typically paid within 90 days of the U.S. Employee’s hire date and are subject to claw-back in full if the U.S. Employee voluntarily resigns in the first two years of employment. For Fiscal Year 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $110,000 with respect to Attraction Awards. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that there are any amounts outstanding in connection with the Attraction Awards. By this Motion, however, the Debtors request to pay any de minimis prepetition Attraction Award amounts that may be outstanding and to continue paying Attraction Awards arising in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice.

7. Employee Referral Program

165. The Debtors provide a one-time bonus ranging from $500–$2,500 to eligible non-insider U.S. Employees who refer external candidates to fill specified vacant Full-Time employment positions in the Debtors’ business operations (the “Referral Program”). Bonuses under the Referral Program are paid to the referring U.S. Employee once the referred candidate has completed 30 days of employment with the Debtors. For Fiscal Year 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $3,000 with respect to the Referral Program. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that there are any amounts outstanding in connection with the Referral Program. By this Motion, however, the Debtors request to pay any de minimis prepetition amounts that may be outstanding under the Referral Program and to continue paying amounts arising under the Referral Program in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice.

III. Administrator Fees

166. As part of the effective and efficient administration of the Employee Compensation and Benefits, the Debtors use certain administrators to disburse Employee payments (collectively, the “Administrators”).

A. Benefits Processing Services

167. As discussed above, Aon administers the Debtors’ pre-tax FSA and HSA Programs, and the Debtors pay monthly per-participant fees for these services, which fees are largely recouped through a reduction in Debtors’ FICA obligations on these pre-tax deductions (the “Aon Administration Services”). Additionally as discussed above, the Debtors utilize COBRAGuard to administer the Debtors’ COBRA benefits (the “COBRAGuard Administration Services,” and collectively with the Aon Administration Services, the “Benefits Processing Services”).

B. Benefits Administration Services

168. The Debtors use Cigna Health Insurance (“Cigna”) to administer claims for Disability Benefits and Gallagher Bassett for claims against the Workers’ Compensation Policies (“GB,” and together with Cigna, the “Benefits Administrators”). The Debtors pay the Benefits Administrators certain administration fees in the amount of approximately $22,000 per month (the “Benefits Administration Fees”) to administer claims for Disability Benefits, FMLA claims, and claims against the Workers’ Compensation Policies. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts on account of the Benefits Administration Fees.

169. In addition, the Debtors have contracted with Aon to administer coverage under the Debtors’ Health Plans. The Debtors do not pay Aon directly for these services; rather, these costs are included in the premiums paid to Aon on account of the Health Plan.

Basis for Relief

I. Sufficient Cause Exists to Authorize the Debtors To Honor the Employee Compensation and Benefit Obligations

A. Certain of the Employee Compensation and Benefits Are Entitled To Priority Treatment

170. Sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code entitle the majority of the Employee Compensation and Benefits to priority treatment. As priority claims, the Debtors are required to pay these claims in full to confirm a chapter 11 plan. See U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(B) (requiring payment of certain allowed unsecured claims, given priority under sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, for (a) wages, salaries or commissions, including vacation, severance, and sick leave pay earned by an individual and (b) contributions to an employee benefit plan). To the extent that an Employee receives no more than $12,850 on account of claims entitled to priority, the relief sought with respect to compensation only affects the timing of payments to Employees and does not have any material negative impact on recoveries for general unsecured creditors. Indeed, the Debtors submit that payment of the Employee Compensation and Benefits at this time enhances value for the benefit of all interested parties.

B. Payment of Certain Employee Compensation and Benefits Is Required by Law

171. The Debtors seek authority to pay the Withholding Obligations to the appropriate third-party payees. These amounts principally represent Employee earnings that governments, Employees, and judicial authorities have designated for deduction from Employees' Wages. Indeed, certain Withholding Obligations are not property of the Debtors' estates because the Debtors have withheld such amounts from Employees' Wages on another party's behalf. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 541(b)(1), (d). Further, federal and state laws require the Debtors to withhold certain tax payments from Employees' Wages and to pay such amounts to the appropriate taxing authority. 26 U.S.C. §§ 6672, 7501(a); see also Begier v. I.R.S., 496 U.S. 53, 59 (1990) (holding that “[b]ecause the debtor does not own an equitable interest in property he holds in trust for another, that interest is not ‘property of the estate’”) (citation omitted); City of Farrell v. Sharon Steel Corp., 41 F.3d 92, 95–97 (3d Cir. 1994) (finding that state law requiring a corporate debtor to withhold city income tax from its employees’ wages created a trust relationship between debtor and the city for payment of withheld income taxes); In re DuCharmes & Co., 852 F.2d 194, 196 (6th Cir. 1988) (noting that individual officers of a company may be held personally liable for failure to pay trust fund taxes). Similarly, the Eighth Circuit has established that a debtor does not have an equitable interest in the property held in trust for another, but rather that the trustee “[holds] bare legal title to the trust res subject to a duty to reconvey it to the rightful owner.” See Chiu v. Wong, 16 F.3d 306, 310 (8th Cir. 1994) (allowing plaintiff to impose a constructive trust on former debtor’s estate to recover amount former debtor had previously invested). Because the Withholding Obligations may not be property of the Debtors’ estates, the Debtors request authorization to transmit the Withholding Obligations to the proper parties in the ordinary course of business.

172. Similarly, state laws require the Debtors to maintain the Workers’ Compensation Program. See, e.g. Mo. Stat. § 287.280 (requirement that companies maintain a workers’ compensation program). If the Debtors fail to maintain the Workers’ Compensation Program, state laws may prohibit the Debtors from operating in those states. Payment of all obligations related to the Workers’ Compensation Program is therefore crucial to the Debtors’ continued operations and the success of these chapter 11 cases.

II. Payment of the Employee Compensation and Benefits Is Warranted Under Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Doctrine of Necessity

173. Courts generally acknowledge that it is appropriate to authorize the payment (or other special treatment) of prepetition obligations in appropriate circumstances. See, e.g., Czyzewski v. Jevic Holding Corp., No. 15-649, 2017 WL 1066259, at *12 (U.S. Mar. 22, 2017) (citing favorably to the entry of “first day orders” authorizing the payment of prepetition wages where doing so would, among other things, “enable a successful reorganization”); In re Falcon Prods., Inc., No. 07-01495, 2008 WL 363045, at *10 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 8, 2008) (affirming the bankruptcy court’s decision that the provider of employee health benefits was entitled to administrative priority status); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (granting authority to pay prepetition wages). In authorizing payments of certain prepetition obligations, courts have relied on several legal theories, rooted in sections 105(a), 363(b), 507, 1107(a), and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

174. Pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, debtors in possession are fiduciaries “holding the bankruptcy estate[s] and operating the business[es] for the benefit of [their] creditors and (if the value justifies) equity owners.” In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002); see also In re Brook Valley VII, Joint Venture, 496 F.3d 892, 900 (8th Cir. 2007). Implicit in the fiduciary duties of any debtor in possession is the obligation to “protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business’s going-concern value.” See CoServ at 497. Some courts have noted that there are instances in which a debtor can fulfill this fiduciary duty “only . . . by the preplan satisfaction of a prepetition claim.” Id. The CoServ court specifically noted that satisfaction of prepetition claims would be a valid exercise of the debtor’s fiduciary duty when the payment “is the only means to effect a substantial enhancement of the estate.” Id.

175. Consistent with a debtor's fiduciary duties, courts have also authorized payment of prepetition obligations under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code where a sound business purpose exists for doing so. See, e.g., In re Channel One Commc'ns, Inc., 117 B.R. 493, 496 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1990); see also Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175 (discussing prior order authorizing payment of prepetition wage claims pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and noting that relief is appropriate where payment is needed to "preserve and protect its business and ultimately reorganize, retain its currently working employees and maintain positive employee morale."). Specifically, the business judgment standard requires that a debtor "articulate some business justification, other than mere appeasement of major creditors." Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175.

176. In addition, this Court may authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances based on section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, which codifies the inherent equitable powers of the bankruptcy court, empowers the bankruptcy court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts may permit preplan payments of prepetition obligations when essential to the continued operation of the debtor's business. Specifically, this Court may use its power under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize payment of prepetition obligations pursuant to the "necessity of payment" rule (also referred to as the "doctrine of necessity"). See In re Wehrenberg, Inc., 260 B.R. 468, 469 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2001) ("Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105(a) the Court may authorize the payment of prepetition claims when such payments are necessary to the continued operation of the Debtor."); see also In re NVR L.P., 147 B.R. 126, 127-28 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 1992).

177. Courts also have permitted postpetition payment of prepetition claims pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code in other situations, such as if nonpayment of a prepetition obligation would trigger a withholding of goods or services essential to the debtors' business reorganization plan. See In re UNR Indus., Inc., 143 B.R. 506, 520 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1992) (permitting the debtor to pay prepetition claims of suppliers or employees whose continued cooperation is essential to the debtors' successful reorganization); Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 177 (finding that section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to authorize payment of prepetition debt when such payment is needed to facilitate the rehabilitation of the debtor). In particular, courts have authorized the payment of non-Insider severance obligations to union employees. See In re Sunedison, Inc., Case No. 16-10992 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 20, 2016) (approving Final and Interim Orders permitting Debtors' paying approximately $1.7 million in prepetition and postpetition severance obligations to 70 former non-insider union employees); In re Verso Corporation, Case No. 16-10163 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 24, 2016) (approving Final Order permitting Debtors' paying approximately $3.3 million in prepetition and postpetition severance obligations to former non-insider union employees of the Debtors).

178. This flexible approach is particularly critical where prepetition creditors, here Employees and related third parties, provide vital goods or services to a debtor that would be unavailable if the debtor did not satisfy its prepetition obligations. For example, in In re Structurlite Plastics Corp., 86 B.R. 922, 931 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1988), the bankruptcy court stated that "a bankruptcy court may exercise its equity powers under §105(a) [of the Bankruptcy Code] to authorize payment of pre-petition claims where such payment is necessary 'to permit the greatest likelihood of survival of the debtor and payment of creditors in full or at least proportionately.'" Id. (citation omitted). The court explained that "a per se rule proscribing the payment of pre-petition indebtedness may well be too inflexible to permit the effectuation of the rehabilitative purposes of the Code.” Id. at 932.

179. The Debtors submit that the relief requested represents a sound exercise of the Debtors’ business judgment, is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors’ estates, and is therefore justified under sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 6003. Paying prepetition wages, employee benefits, and similar items will benefit the Debtors’ estates and their creditors by allowing the Debtors’ business operations to continue without interruption. Indeed, the Debtors believe that without the relief requested herein, Employees may seek alternative employment opportunities, perhaps with the Debtors’ competitors. Such a development would deplete the Debtors’ workforce, thereby hindering the Debtors’ ability to operate their businesses and, likely, diminishing stakeholder confidence in the Debtors’ ability to successfully reorganize. The loss of valuable Employees and resulting need to recruit new personnel (and the costs attendant thereto) would be distracting at this crucial time when the Debtors need to focus on stabilizing their business operations. Accordingly, there can be no doubt that the Debtors must do their utmost to retain their workforce by, among other things, continuing to honor all wage, benefits, and related obligations, including the prepetition Employee Compensation and Benefits.

180. In addition, the majority of Employees rely exclusively on the Employee Compensation and Benefits to satisfy their daily living expenses. Consequently, Employees will be exposed to significant financial difficulties if the Debtors are not permitted to honor their obligations related thereto. Moreover, failure to satisfy such obligations will jeopardize Employee morale and loyalty at a time when Employee support is critical to the Debtors’ businesses. Furthermore, if this Court does not authorize the Debtors to honor their various obligations under the insurance programs described herein, Employees will not receive health coverage and, thus, may be obligated to pay certain health care claims that the Debtors have not satisfied. The loss of health care coverage will result in considerable anxiety for Employees (and likely attrition) at a time when the Debtors need such Employees to perform their jobs at peak efficiency. Additionally, as set forth above, Employee attrition would cause the Debtors to incur additional expenses to find appropriate and experienced replacements, severely disrupting the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture.

181. The importance of a debtor's employees to its operations has been repeatedly recognized by courts in this circuit and other jurisdictions, and such courts have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein. See, e.g., In re Total Hockey, Inc., No. 16-44815 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. July 26, 2016) (authorizing debtors to continue employee compensation and benefit programs and pay certain prepetition obligations related thereto on a postpetition basis); In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 14, 2016) (same); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 13, 2016) (same); In re Magnetation, LLC, No. 15-50307 (GFK) (Bankr. D. Minn. May 7, 2015) (same); In re Bakers Footwear Group, Inc., No. 12-49658-705 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Oct. 10, 2012) (same).²⁵ Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the Debtors to pay any prepetition amounts accrued and unpaid on account of the Employee Compensation and Benefits and to continue the Employee Compensation and Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices.

²⁵ Because of the voluminous nature of the orders cited herein, such orders have not been attached to this Motion. Copies of these orders are available upon request to the Debtors' proposed counsel.

III. The Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs Are Reasonable and a Sound Exercise of the Debtors' Business Judgement

A. The Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs are Authorized Under Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

182. The Debtors further request that they be allowed to continue to honor the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs in the ordinary course of business. The Debtors submit that the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs should be reviewed under section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code rather than section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code because the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs are simply preexisting programs that the Debtors have maintained in the ordinary course and seek to continue on a postpetition basis, and no insiders are part of the Additional Compensation Opportunities or Non-Insider Severance Programs. See In re Blitz U.S.A. Inc., 475 B.R. 209, 215 (Bankr. D. Del. 2012).

B. The Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs are Authorized Under Sections 363(b) and 503(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

183. Alternatively, to the extent that the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs are not authorized under section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors submit that payment of the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Obligations is also authorized under sections 363(b) and 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Importantly, because the Debtors do not propose to pay any Insiders on account of the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs, the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs are not subject to the heightened standards of sections 503(c)(1) and 503(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 503(c)(1) and (2) (applying only to insiders).

184. Instead, pursuant to section 503(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs only require a showing that they are “justified by the facts and circumstances of” the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases. See 11 U.S.C. § 503(c)(3). This standard, in turn, is essentially the same as the the business judgment standard that is applied under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Velo Holdings Inc., 472 B.R. 201, 212 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012) (“Courts have held that the ‘facts and circumstances’ language of section 503(c)(3) creates a standard no different than the business judgment standard under section 363(b.)”); In re Global Home Prods. LLC, 369 B.R. 778, 783 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (“If [the proposed plans are] intended to incentivize management, the analysis utilizes the more liberal business judgment review under § 363.”).

185. The Debtors submit that continuing to maintain the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs for non-Insiders is a sound exercise of their business judgment and in the best interests of the estates. Importantly, the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs are a long-standing component of the Debtors’ overall Employee Compensation and Benefits package and are intended to incentivize and protect the Employees in the ordinary operations of the Debtors’ business operations. Moreover, at least with respect to the Non-Insider Canada Severance Program and the Non-Insider Asia Severance Program, the Debtors are required by law to make such payments. The Debtors, therefore, believe that it is necessary to continue these programs for non-insiders on a postpetition basis. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize, but not direct, the Debtors to continue the Additional Compensation Opportunities and Non-Insider Severance Programs in the ordinary course of business, including payment of prepetition obligations related thereto, if any.

IV. A Limited Waiver of the Automatic Stay for Workers' Compensation Claims Is Appropriate in this case

186. Section 362(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code operates to stay:

[T]he commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title[.]

section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, however, permits a debtor or other parties in interest to request a modification or termination of the automatic stay for "cause." 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

187. The Debtors seek authorization, under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, to permit Employees to proceed with their workers' compensation claims in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum. The Debtors believe that cause exists to modify the automatic stay because staying the workers' compensation claims could have a detrimental effect on the financial well-being and Employee morale and lead to the departure of certain Employees who are critical at this juncture. Such departures could cause a severe disruption in the Debtors' businesses to the detriment of all parties in interest.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

188. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay any amounts related to the Employee Compensation and Benefits in the ordinary course of business. Under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors have made arrangements to readily identify checks or wire transfer requests relating to the Employee Compensation and Benefits. The Debtors believe there is minimal risk that checks or wire transfer requests that the Court has not authorized will be inadvertently made. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court authorize, but not direct, all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the Employee Compensation and Benefits; provided that sufficient funds are on deposit and standing in the Debtors' credit in the applicable bank accounts to cover such payments.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 Are Satisfied

189. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6003, this Court may grant relief regarding a motion to pay all or part of a prepetition claim within 21 days after the Petition Date if the relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm. As described above, the Debtors' Employees and Contractors are vital to the Debtors' operations. Failure to satisfy obligations with respect to these persons in the ordinary course of business during the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases will jeopardize their loyalty and trust, causing Employees and the Contractors to leave the Debtors' employ, severely disrupting the Debtors' operations at a critical juncture.

190. Moreover, the Debtors' Employees and Contractors rely on the Employee Compensation and Benefits to pay their living expenses and the Debtors' inability to satisfy such obligations in the ordinary course of business could be financially ruinous to Employees. Accordingly, the Debtors submit they have satisfied the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support immediate payment of the Employee Compensation and Benefits.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

191. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

192. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

193. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn. Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (j) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (k) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; and (q) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

194. No prior motion for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Interim Order and Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Relief Requested³

1. By this Motion, and pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 503, 1107(a), 1108, and 1112(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Rule 2015-3(B) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Local Bankruptcy Rules”), the Debtors seek entry of the proposed interim and final orders (respectively, the “Proposed Interim Order” and “Proposed Final Order”):⁴ (a) authorizing the Debtors to (i) continue insurance coverage entered into prepetition and satisfy prepetition obligations related thereto in the ordinary course of business and (ii) renew, supplement, or purchase insurance coverage in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis; and (b) granting related relief. The Debtors’ Insurance Policies and Related Payment Obligations

6. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain approximately 44 domestic and foreign insurance policies (collectively, the “Insurance Policies”) that are administered by various third-party insurance carriers (collectively, the “Insurance Carriers”). The Insurance Policies provide the Debtors with coverage for, among other things, the Debtors’ property, general liability, automobile liability, marine cargo, travel accident, directors’ and officers’ liability, employment practices liability, fiduciary liability, employed lawyers professional liability, and foreign commercial liability. In addition, the Insurance Policies include several layers of excess liability coverage and an umbrella policy. A schedule of the Insurance Policies is attached hereto as Exhibit A,⁵ which is incorporated herein by reference.

A. Premium Payments

7. In 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $3.1 million in the aggregate in premiums for the Insurance Policies, plus applicable taxes and surcharges, deductibles, broker and consulting fees, and commissions (the “Premiums”). The Insurance Policies are generally one year in length and renew at various times throughout the year. For most of the Insurance Policies, the Debtors prepay the entire Premium on or around the start date of each policy period. The Premium payments for certain of the Insurance policies are made in several installments during the policy period, as set forth in each insurance contract, respectively.

8. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $10,000 in Premiums on account of the Insurance Policies, all of which will become due within 21 days after the Petition Date. The Debtors do not believe that they were in default of any Premiums obligations due under the Insurance Policies as of the Petition Date. As such, the Debtors seek authority to remit up to $10,000 in Premium obligations on account of the Insurance Policies upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and, pursuant to the Final Order, the Debtors seek authority to continue paying Premium obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis to ensure uninterrupted coverage of their Insurance Policies.

9. Certain of the Insurance Policies are subject to regular audits (the “Insurance Policy Audits”), which may result in an adjustment of the Premiums owed on account thereof. Insurance Policy Audits for prepetition Premium payments will not conclude until after the Petition Date. As a result, the aggregate amount of the Debtors’ obligations arising from the Insurance Policy Audits is not known at this time. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority to honor any amounts owed on account of any Insurance Policy Audits in the ordinary course of business.

B. Deductible Fees

10. Some of the Insurance Policies require the Debtors to pay a per incident deductible (a “Deductible”). For instance, the Debtors’ general liability and auto liability policies carry a $500,000 deductible, per claim. Other Insurance Policies with Deductibles have per claim deductibles ranging from $250,000 to $1,000,000. Depending on the type of claim and the applicable Insurance Policy, the Debtors must ultimately pay up to the applicable deductible threshold for each successful or settled claim against these particular Insurance Policies. Any claim amounts due in excess of the deductible threshold for any given claim are the Insurance Carrier’s responsibility. The Debtors’ Insurance Policies do not have any annual deductible thresholds.

11. Generally, if a claim is made against one of the Debtors’ Insurance Policies, the Insurance Administrator (as defined below) or an Insurance Carrier will administer the claim and make any payments in connection therewith. On a weekly basis, the Debtors reimburse,⁶ via a deductible payment to a bank account managed by the Debtors' for this purpose, the Insurance Administrator or the Insurance Carrier for applicable payments made on account of insurance claims (the "Deductible Fees").⁷

12. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $315,000 in Deductible Fees on account of prepetition claims under the Insurance Policies will become due and owing within 21 days of the Petition Date. Additionally, going forward, the Debtors will need to continue paying Deductible Fees on a weekly basis (should they arise) to preserve the coverage provided under certain Insurance Policies. Over the last year, the Deductible Fees averaged approximately $135,000 per week, but such amount varies from week to week and the weekly (or aggregate) liability on account of Deductible Fees during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases (or during the first three weeks of these cases) cannot be ascertained with any degree of certainty as of the Petition Date. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority pursuant to the Interim Order to remit up to $315,000 in Deductible Fees on account of prepetition claims that become due and owing within the 21 days of the Petition Date, and to continue paying Deductible Fees in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis to ensure uninterrupted coverage of the Insurance Policies.

C. Insurance Broker and Administrator Fees

13. The Debtors obtain their Insurance Policies through their insurance brokers, Lockton Companies, LLC ("Lockton"), Marsh USA ("Marsh"), and BFL Canada Risk & Insurance ("BFL"), and their respective affiliates (collectively, the "Insurance Brokers"). The Insurance Brokers assist the Debtors in obtaining comprehensive insurance coverage for their operations in the most cost-effective manner by negotiating policy terms, provisions, and premiums, assisting the Debtors with claims, and providing ongoing support throughout the applicable policy periods. In addition, the Debtors utilize the services of Gallagher Basset to serve as a third-party administrator for automobile and workers' compensation claims (the "Insurance Administrator"), alleviating the substantial burden on the Debtors that would result from needing to administer the claims process for these claims.

⁷ The Debtors cash management processes are more thoroughly described in the Debtors' Motion Seeking Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Continue Using The Cash Management System and (B) Maintain Existing Bank Accounts and Business Forms and Books and Records; (II) Authorizing Continued Intercompany Transactions; (III) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Status to Postpetition Intercompany Payments; and (IV) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith.

14. The Debtors pay the Insurance Brokers on account of their services in various manners (all such payments collectively, the "Brokerage Fees"). The Brokerage Fees on account of services provided by Marsh and BFL are included in the Premiums paid on account of the Insurance Policies. By contrast, Lockton charges the Debtors a flat annual fee of $400,000 for its services, which fee is paid in two installments each year.⁸ As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts to the Insurance Brokers on account of Brokerage Fees or any other prepetition obligations.

15. The Debtors pay the Insurance Administrator $22,500.00 per month on account of its services (the "Insurance Administrator Fees"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts to the Insurance Administrator on account of Insurance Administrator Fees.

16. As such, only out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request authority to pay any prepetition amounts outstanding on account of Brokerage Fees and Insurance Administrator Fees and to continue paying Brokerage Fees and Insurance Administrator Fees in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis in order to ensure uninterrupted coverage and administration of the Insurance Policies.

⁸ The Brokerage Fees for Lockton Companies, LLC also include fees for its services related to procurement of surety bonds, as described more fully in the Debtors' Motion Seeking Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Continue and Renew the Surety Bond Program on an Uninterrupted Basis, and (II) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith.

I. The Bankruptcy Code and U.S. Trustee Guidelines Require the Debtors to Maintain Insurance Coverage and Satisfy Their Insurance Obligations

17. As discussed above, the Debtors' existing Insurance Policies provide a comprehensive range of protection for the Debtors' businesses, properties, and assets. As such, it is essential that the Debtors' insurance coverage continues in full force and effect during the course of these chapter 11 cases. Under section 1112(b)(4)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, "failure [of a debtor] to maintain appropriate insurance [where such failure] poses a risk to the estate or to the public" is "cause" for mandatory conversion or dismissal of a chapter 11 case. 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(4)(C). Similarly, Local Bankruptcy Rule 2015-3(B) requires a debtor in a chapter 11 case to maintain certain types of insurance policies, including many of the Insurance Policies held by the Debtors. In addition, the Chapter 11 Guidelines for Debtors-in-Possession (the "U.S. Trustee Guidelines") require that a debtor "shall maintain" certain types of insurance coverage following the Petition Date, and "make all premium payments thereon when due." See U.S. Trustee Guidelines, § 6. To ensure that the Debtors comply with section 1112(b)(4)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, Local Bankruptcy Rule 2015-3(B), applicable state and federal regulations, and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, the Debtors respectfully request the authority to: (i) pay the prepetition amounts currently due and owing under the Insurance Policies in the ordinary course of business, including those prepetition amounts due in connection with premiums, Deductible Fees, and Brokerage Fees; (ii) continue to honor obligations arising under the Insurance Policies and, if necessary; (iii) renew, supplement, or purchase insurance coverage on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of their businesses.

II. Renewing, Supplementing, Entering into New Policies, and Paying Obligations Under the Insurance Policies in the Ordinary Course of Business are Warranted

18. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code expressly grants the Debtors the authority to “enter into transactions . . . in the ordinary course of business” and “use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing.” Therefore, the Debtors believe they are permitted to pay all postpetition amounts due pursuant to the Insurance Programs and to renew or obtain new insurance programs as such actions are in the ordinary course of the Debtors’ businesses. Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors seek entry of an order granting the relief requested herein to avoid any disruptions to their business operations.

19. The relief requested herein may be granted by the Court pursuant to sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that “[t]he [debtor], after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Under section 363(b), courts require only that the debtor “show that a sound business purpose” justifies the proposed use of property. See In re Wehrenberg, Inc., 260 B.R. 468, 469 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2001) (authorizing debtor to pay prepetition claims of vendors because the vendors are “critical to the Debtor’s reorganization”); In re Channel One Commc’ns, Inc., 117 B.R. 493, 496 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1990) (authorizing sale of assets because there was a “good business reason to grants such an application”); Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1070–71 (2d Cir. 1983) (requiring a “good business reason” to approve a sale pursuant to section 363(b)); In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (under section 363(b), debtor must “show that a sound business purpose” justifies the proposed use of property). Moreover, section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that: “After notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed, administrative expenses[,] including . . . the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A). The Court, therefore, can authorize the Debtors to use estate funds to pay any obligations under the Insurance Policies arising during or relating to the period after the Petition Date.

20. Further, the Court may authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a), which codifies the inherent equitable powers of the bankruptcy court, empowers the bankruptcy court to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts may permit preplan payments of prepetition obligations when essential to the continued operation of a debtor’s business. The bankruptcy court’s power under section 105(a) to authorize payment of prepetition obligations is popularly referred to as the “necessity of payment” rule (also referred to as the “doctrine of necessity”).

21. Courts in this and other districts have long recognized the “doctrine of necessity” or the “necessity of payment” rule, as the rehabilitation of a debtor in reorganization cases is “the paramount policy and goal of Chapter 11.” Ionosphere, 98 B.R. at 175–76; See also In re Wehrenberg, Inc., 260 B.R. 468, 469 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2001) (“Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) the Court may authorize the payment of prepetition claims when such payments are necessary to the continued operation of the Debtor.”); In re United Am., Inc., 327 B.R. 776, 782 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2005) (acknowledging the existence of the doctrine of necessity “because otherwise there will be no reorganization and no creditor will have an opportunity to recoup any part of its prepetition claim”); In re Just For Feet, 242 B.R. 821, 824-25 (D. Del. 1999) (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was “essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization”); In re Quality Interiors, Inc., 127 B.R. 391, 396 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1991) (“[P]ayment by a debtor-in-possession of pre-petition claims outside of a confirmed plan of reorganization is generally prohibited by the Bankruptcy Code,” but “[a] general practice has developed . . . where bankruptcy courts permit the payment of certain pre-petition claims, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105, where the debtor will be unable to reorganize without such payment.”); Burchinal v. Cent. Wash. Bank (In re Adams Apple, Inc.), 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir. 1987) (recognizing that allowance of “unequal treatment of pre-petition debts when necessary for rehabilitation” is appropriate).

22. The Debtors submit that there is sufficient business justification to grant the relief requested herein because failure to pay Premiums and related insurance expenses when due may harm the Debtors’ estates in several ways. Specifically, the Insurance Carriers may refuse to renew the Debtors’ Insurance Policies, which will require the Debtors to obtain replacement policies and possibly reconfigure their risk management program in its entirety. This would require the commitment of significant resources and could result in less favorable coverage or terms from the Debtors’ insurers. Additionally, the Insurance Carriers could attempt to terminate the Debtors’ existing policies, which could threaten the Debtors’ ability to continue operating their businesses given the Debtors’ myriad regulatory and contractual obligations to maintain specific amounts and types of insurance coverage.

23. The Debtors submit further that it is also in the best interests of their estates to have the ability to revise, extend, supplement, or change insurance coverage, as necessary, on a postpetition basis pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, the Debtors’ Insurance Policies are essential to the preservation of the value of the Debtors’ businesses, properties, assets, and the estates, as well as their ability to successfully prosecute these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, in the event any of the Insurance Policies lapse or new coverage is required or necessary, it is imperative that the Debtors be able to renew, supplement, or purchase insurance coverage on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business. The Insurance Policies protect the Debtors and other parties in interest from losses caused by casualty, natural disaster, fraud, or other unforeseen events. Courts in this district have routinely granted relief similar to that requested herein. See, e.g., In re Total Hockey, Inc., No. 16-44815 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. July 8, 2016); In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May 17, 2016); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 11, 2016); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 13, 2016 and Jan. 14, 2016); In re Bakers Footwear Grp. Inc., No. 12-49658 (Bankr. E.D. Mo Oct. 9, 2012 and Oct. 10, 2012).⁹

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

24. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this motion by virtue of expected cash flows during these chapter 11 cases, debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to an authorized payment in respect of the Insurance Policies. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize and direct all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 Are Satisfied

25. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant relief within the first 21 days after the Petition Date “to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). Immediate and irreparable harm exists where the absence of relief would impair a debtor’s ability to reorganize or threaten the debtor’s future as a going concern. For the reasons discussed above, authorizing the Debtors to continue to honor obligations arising under the Insurance Policies and, if necessary, to renew, supplement, or purchase insurance coverage on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business is vital to the Debtors’ operations and the failure to permit such relief can potentially severely disrupt the Debtors’ operations at a critical juncture. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the “immediate and irreparable harm” standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support granting the relief requested herein.

Reservation of Rights

26. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other parties-in-interests’ rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other parties-in-interests’ rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and 6004(h)

27. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Notice

28. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP (Attn: Kevin J. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

29. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the the Proposed Interim Order and Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein, and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Relief Requested³

1. By this Motion, and pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, 507(a), 1107(a), and 1108 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders (the “Proposed Interim Order” and “Proposed Final Order,” respectively):⁴ (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to maintain and administer their Customer Programs and honor certain prepetition obligations to customers in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and in the Debtors’ sound business judgment; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing within approximately 21 days of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this Motion on a final basis.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Rule 81.901(B)(1) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

⁴ A copy of the Proposed Order will be provided to the Notice Parties (as defined below) and made available on the Debtors’ case information website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/payless>.

Background

4. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (collectively, the “Company”) comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases, and no committees have been appointed or designated.

The Customer Programs

6. The Company has a broad geographic footprint, serving more than 60 million customers worldwide, approximately 47 million of which are located in North America. Prior to the Petition Date, both in the ordinary course of the Debtors’ business and as is customary in the industry, the Debtors offered and engaged in certain customer and other programs and practices. The programs include, but are not limited to, the following (as described in detail below): (a) customer gift card programs; (b) returns, exchanges, and refunds; (c) promotional programs; (d) warranty-related programs related to the Debtors’ products; (e) merchant credit card agreements; and (f) all such other similar policies, programs, and practices of the Debtor (collectively, the “Customer Programs”).

7. In order to effectuate a smooth transition into and out of chapter 11, the Debtors must maintain customer loyalty and goodwill by maintaining and honoring the Customer Programs. The Debtors compete in the highly competitive discount shoe industry, where the Debtors must regularly run promotions and discounts to gain new customers and keep existing ones. Indeed, the Debtors implemented the Customer Programs in the ordinary course of business prior to the Petition Date as a means by which to maintain positive, productive, and profitable relationships with their customers, encourage new purchases, enhance customer satisfaction, and ensure that the Debtors remain competitive in their industry. Each of the Customer Programs is designed and implemented to encourage the Debtors' customers to increase their purchasing frequency and volume, resulting in larger net revenues for the Debtors and, in return, greater satisfaction for the customers.

8. Accordingly, the Debtors' ability to honor the Customer Programs in the ordinary course of business is necessary to retain their customer base and reputation within their industry. On account of the Customer Programs, the Debtors may owe certain obligations to their customers as well as other third parties (collectively, the "Customer Obligations"), arising both before and after the Petition Date.

9. The success and viability of the Debtors' business, and ultimately the Debtors' ability to maximize the value of their estates, are dependent upon the patronage and loyalty of their customers. In this regard, the Customer Programs are critical, and any delay in honoring Customer Obligations will severely and irreparably impair customer relations and drive away valuable customers, thereby harming the Debtors' efforts to maximize value for all interested parties.

10. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority to continue, in their discretion, to honor the Customer Programs, including, in their discretion, Customer Obligations arising therefrom, at each of the Debtors' retail locations, including any stores that may be undergoing store liquidations sales.

I. Customer Gift Card Programs

11. Among the Debtors' Customer Programs is a customer gift card program (the "Gift Card Program").⁵ Under the Gift Card Program, gift cards may be purchased at the Debtors' retail stores, online on the Debtors' website, or from various other resellers that are authorized to issue gift cards.⁶ Once purchased, a gift card may be used like cash for purchases at the Debtors' retail stores and online on the Debtors' website, but may not be redeemed for cash or monetary credit except under limited circumstances as required by law. Customers are typically not permitted to purchase (a) more than five gift cards at one time or (b) gift cards that carry a balance of more than $1,000. All outstanding gift cards with balances remain redeemable.

12. As of the Petition Date, approximately $30.6 million of total prepaid liabilities remained outstanding on account of the Gift Card Program. The Debtors seek authority to continue to administer the Gift Card Program in the ordinary course of business and to pay prepetition obligations related thereto.

II. Returns, Exchanges, and Refunds

13. Certain customers hold contingent claims against the Debtors for refunds, returns, exchanges, substitutions, issuance of store credit, price adjustments (including sales price adjustments to billing) and other credit balances relating to goods sold to customers in the ordinary course of business prior to the Petition Date. Under the Debtors' guarantee program (the "Payless Happiness Guarantee Program"), subject to certain restrictions and requirements, customers may return goods purchased for a refund of the purchase price or exchange the item for another of equal value, with no questions asked, so long as the customer has a valid receipt. In addition, the Debtors will accept for refund damaged or faulty goods.

14. The Debtors' ability to continue the Payless Happiness Guarantee Program is vital to the Debtors' ongoing relationship with their customers. The Debtors believe that the increase in customer loyalty generated by the Payless Happiness Guarantee Program far outweighs the costs of the Payless Happiness Guarantee Program. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authorization to continue, in their discretion, issuing refunds and operating the Payless Happiness Guarantee Program in the ordinary course of business, whether related to purchases made before or after the Petition Date.

III. Promotional Programs

15. In the ordinary course of their business, the Debtors have established certain promotional programs designed to generate revenues across the Payless enterprise (collectively, the "Promotional Programs"). The Promotional Programs are typical in the retail industry, including the issuance of coupons which can be presented by customers at the time of purchase of goods at the Debtors' retail stores or online on the Debtors' website. These coupons are not redeemable for cash. The coupons may be distributed through e-mail and text messaging to those customers that have opted in, and through several third-party outlets, including AAA and Entertainment booklets, and "buy one, get one" programs.

16. One Promotional Program is a loyalty program called the "Payless Rewards" program ("Payless Rewards"). As of the Petition Date, there were approximately 35 million customers enrolled as Payless Rewards members in North America. The Payless Rewards Program is not a points-based program whereby customers accumulate rewards based on their purchases; rather, members of Payless Rewards receive discount coupons to incentivize continued and frequent purchasing. Total coupon redemption under the promotional programs, including Payless Rewards, was approximately 9% of total revenue from North American operations in 2016.

17. The Promotional Programs are an important part of the marketing strategy of the Debtors' business, as they engender goodwill and generate revenue by encouraging sales at the Debtors' store locations and targeting captive customers or customers who would otherwise be unlikely to spend from their own wallets. The Debtors seek authority to continue these profitable Promotional Programs and honor associated coupons and discounts in the ordinary course of business, whether issued prepetition or postpetition, consistent with past practices.

IV. Warranty Programs

18. Consistent with industry practices, the Debtors issue product warranties covering certain defects in materials and workmanship related to purchases of SafeTStep shoes (collectively, the "SafeTStep Warranties"). SafeTStep shoes are men's and women's footwear that are slip-resistant and worn by individuals who work in the foodservice industry. SafeTStep Warranties provide reimbursement for any medical expense paid by a participating company that is directly attributable to injuries sustained by an employee of the participating company resulting from a slip-and-fall accident while wearing SafeTStep shoes, subject to certain terms and conditions. As a general matter, the SafeTStep Warranties also cover defects that are not attributable to external factors such as natural disasters or physical damage caused by the user. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have no outstanding obligations under the SafeTStep Warranties. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, by this Motion, the Debtors request authorization to continue the SafeTStep Warranties on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

V. Credit Card Agreements

19. Many of the Debtors' sales are paid with credit or debit cards. To facilitate such transactions, the Debtors entered into certain agreements with credit card companies and processors (collectively, the "Credit Card Agreements"), including agreements with (a) American Express ("AmEx"), (b) Discover Card ("Discover"), and (c) Bank of America (together with AmEx and Discover, the "Credit Card Companies").⁷ The Credit Card Agreements enable the Debtors to accept credit and debit card purchases, subject to customer refunds, returns, exchanges, substitutions, price adjustments, and other credit balances. Under the terms of the Credit Card Agreements, the Debtors are required to pay the Credit Card Companies certain fees associated with each purchase (collectively, the "Credit Card Fees"). The Credit Card Fees vary, but are in the range of $250,000 to $300,000. Although certain credit card fees are incurred at the time the transaction is made, the fees do not become due until two to four days later. Therefore, the Debtors believe that there are approximately $260,000 in accrued and unpaid Credit Card Fees as of the Petition Date.

20. When customers return merchandise to the Debtors following a purchase made using a credit card, or when customers dispute certain charges with their credit card issuer related to a purchase from the Debtors, the Debtors may be obligated to issue a refund to such credit card issuer the purchase price of the returned or disputed merchandise, subject to certain adjustments (collectively, "Chargebacks"). Generally, Chargebacks are satisfied by netting the amount charged against pending payments (the “Credit Card Processor Payments”) owed by a Credit Card Company to the Debtors under the Credit Card Agreements.

21. It is possible that certain Chargebacks incurred by the Debtors immediately prior to the Petition Date may not have been fully netted out against the Credit Card Processor Payments received by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. Moreover, although the Debtors believe that Chargebacks arising after the Petition Date are postpetition obligations of the Debtors, it may be argued that such Chargebacks nevertheless are prepetition obligations where the merchandise returned or disputed was purchased from the Debtors prior to the Petition Date. In such circumstances, to the extent that the netting of the parties’ obligations would not constitute recoupment, the Debtors seek the Court’s approval to allow the Credit Card Companies to setoff Chargebacks against Credit Card Processor Payments pursuant to section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

22. The Debtors’ continued acceptance of credit and debit cards is essential to the operation of the Debtors’ business because the majority of the Debtors’ sales—indeed, the majority of all retail sales—are made using credit and debit cards. Declining to accept credit and debit cards would have a severe negative effect on the Debtors’ ongoing operations, the cost of which would be borne by their estates. To avoid disrupting these vital payment processing services, the Debtors seek authority to continue paying the Credit Card Fees and the Credit Card Processor Payments in the ordinary course of their business, whether arising prepetition or postpetition, pursuant to the terms of the Credit Card Agreements, and request that the Court authorize the Credit Card Companies to continue to set off the Credit Card Processor Payments against amounts remitted to the Debtors, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, in a manner consistent with past practices.

Basis for Relief

I. Prepetition Payments

23. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the payment of prepetition obligations where a sound business reason exists for doing so. 11 U.S.C. § 363(b). Indeed, Courts in this district have authorized payment of prepetition obligations and the continuation of customer programs under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code where a sound business purpose exists for doing so. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2016) (authorizing debtor to honor customer obligations relating to coal delivered prepetition); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (authorizing debtors to honor prepetition customer obligations); see also In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002).

24. Additionally, the Court may authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances based on section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a), which codifies the inherent equitable powers of the bankruptcy court, empowers a bankruptcy court to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, bankruptcy courts may “authorize the payment of prepetition claims if such payment was essential to the continued operation of the debtor.” In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 824 (D. Del. 1999). Specifically, a bankruptcy court may use its power under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize payment of prepetition obligations pursuant to the “necessity of payment” rule (also referred to as the “doctrine of necessity”). See Ionosphere, 98 B.R. at 175 (“The ability of a Bankruptcy Court to authorize the payment of prepetition debt when such payment is needed to facilitate the rehabilitation of the debtor is not a novel concept.”).

25. The “doctrine of necessity” or the “necessity of payment” rule has long been recognized by courts in this Circuit and others. See In re Payless Cashways, Inc., 268 B.R. 543, 546 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2001) (describing the “doctrine of necessity” as the idea “that payment of [pre-petition] claims was necessary to keep the debtor in business, and that keeping the debtor in business, and its employees at wage-paying jobs, was in the best interest of all concerned”); Ionosphere, 98 B.R. at 174-75 at 174-75. Today, the rationale for the necessity of payment rule—the rehabilitation of a debtor’s reorganization case—is “the paramount policy and goal of Chapter 11.” Id. at 176; see also Just For Feet, 242 B.R. at 826 (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was “essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization”); Wehrenberg, Inc., 260 B.R. at 469 (authorizing debtor to pay prepetition claims of vendors because the vendors are “critical to the Debtor’s reorganization”).

26. This flexible approach is particularly critical where prepetition creditors—here, the Debtors’ customers—are vital to the survival of a debtor’s business. See In re Structurlite Plastics Corporation, 86 B.R. 922, 931 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1988) (quoting In re Chateaugay Corp., 80 B.R. 279, 287 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987)) (“a bankruptcy court may exercise its equity powers under Section 105(a) [of the Bankruptcy Code] to authorize payment of prepetition claims where such payment is necessary to ‘permit the greatest likelihood of survival of the debtors and payment of creditors in full or at least proportionately.’”). The Court in In re Structurlite Plastics Corporation explained that “a per se rule proscribing the payment of prepetition indebtedness may well be too inflexible to permit the effectuation of the rehabilitative purposes of the [Bankruptcy] Code.” Id. at 932.

27. Authorizing the Debtors to pay prepetition amounts due on account of, and honor prepetition commitments pursuant to, the Customer Programs will allow the Debtors’ operations to continue without interruption during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. While the Debtors' estates and their creditors will not be harmed by the Debtors' ability to pay prepetition amounts and to honor prepetition commitments under the Customer Programs, the Debtors' failure to do so would likely lead to the loss of customer satisfaction, resulting in reduced future sales, deterioration of goodwill, and irreparable harm to the Debtors' businesses and revenues. See In re Coserv, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002) (recognizing instances where the debtor in possession can only fulfill its fiduciary duty by pre-plan satisfaction of prepetition claims of "customers which, if not honored, could so harm the debtor's good will as to destroy its going concern value"); see also In re Equalnet Commc'ns Corp., 258 B.R. 368, 369-70 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2000) (noting that the continuance of even insignificant customer business transactions can be "critical to the survival of the business," and failure to continue such transactions risks eroding the business' customer base and going concern value).

II. Postpetition Payments

28. In addition, section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor in possession operating its business pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code to use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing. Consequently, the postpetition continuation, renewal, and replacement of obligations under the Customer Programs in the ordinary course of business is permitted by sections 363(c), 1107(a), and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, without further application to the Court. Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors request the relief described herein.

29. Courts in this district and courts in other jurisdictions and others have consistently granted similar relief where retaining the loyalty and patronage of customers is critical to a successful reorganization. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2016) (authorizing debtor to honor customer obligations relating to coal delivered prepetition); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (authorizing debtors to honor prepetition customer obligations); In re Sbarro, LLC, No. 14-10557 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 12, 2014); In re Hawker Beechcraft, Inc., No. 12-11873 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 30, 2012); In re American Apparel, No. 16-12551 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 15, 2016).⁸ The Debtors respectfully submit that similar relief is warranted in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors' ability to successfully reorganize is dependent upon the continued relationship with their Customers. Hence, the Debtors have sought the relief requested herein to assure their customers, and potential future customers, that the Debtors' reorganization will cause minimal, if any, disruption to the Debtors' operations.

III. Gift Card Payments

30. Section 507(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code establishes a priority for "unsecured claims of individuals, to the extent of $2,775 for each such individual, arising from the deposit, before the commencement of the case, of money in connection with the purchase, lease, or rental or property, or the purchase of services, for the personal, family, or household use of such individuals, that were not delivered or provided." 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(7). The Debtors submit that the holders of gift cards under the Gift Card Program cards may be entitled to priority claims under section 507(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code if this Court does not authorize the Debtors to honor such gift cards pursuant to the Motion. See In re WW Warehouse, Inc., 313 B.R. 588, 592-94 (Bankr. D. Del. 2004) (finding that gift certificate holders are entitled to priority status under section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code). As priority claimholders, holders of gift cards issued pursuant to the Gift Card Program would be paid in full before any general unsecured obligations of the Debtors are satisfied. Accordingly, the relief requested herein may affect only the timing of the Debtors' performance of their obligations to honor these Gift Card Program obligations and will not prejudice the rights of general unsecured creditors or other parties-in-interest. In addition, continuing to honor the Gift Card Program without interruption will help preserve the Debtors' valuable customer relationships and goodwill, which will inure to the benefit of all the Debtors' creditors and benefit the estates.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should be Authorized

31. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay any amounts related to the Customer Programs in the ordinary course of business. Under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors have made arrangements to readily identify checks or wire transfer requests relating to the Customer Programs, as applicable. The Debtors believe there is minimal risk that checks or wire transfer requests that the Court has not authorized will be inadvertently made. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court authorize, but not direct, all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the Customer Programs; provided that sufficient funds are on deposit and standing in the Debtors' credit in the applicable bank accounts to cover such payments.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are Satisfied

32. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant relief within the first 21 days after the Petition Date "to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003. For the reasons discussed above, authorizing the Debtors to satisfy obligations with respect to the Customer Programs and granting the other relief requested herein is integral to the Debtors' ability to transition their operations into these chapter 11 cases. Failure to receive such authorization and other relief during the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture. For the reasons discussed herein, the relief requested is necessary in order for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course and preserve the ongoing value of the Debtors' operations and maximize the value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the "immediate and irreparable harm" standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support granting the relief requested herein.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

33. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

34. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be—nor should it be construed as—an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

35. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan

Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn. Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (j) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (k) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; and (p) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

36. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Interim Order and Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Relief Requested³

1. By this Motion, and pursuant to sections 105, 345, 363, 364, 503, and 553 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the Debtors seek the entry of an interim order (the “Proposed Interim Order”)⁴ and a final order (the “Proposed Final Order”):⁵ (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) continue to operate the Debtors’ cash management system as illustrated on Exhibit A annexed hereto (the “Cash Management System”), (ii) honor certain prepetition obligations related thereto, (iii) maintain existing business forms, and (iv) continue to maintain business relationships with each other and with non-Debtor affiliates consistent with historical practice; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing within approximately 21 days of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this Motion on a final basis.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Rule 81.901(B)(1) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the “Company”) comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases, and no committees have been appointed or designated.

The Cash Management System

6. To facilitate the efficient operation of their business, as part of the ordinary course of their business, the Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates use an integrated, centralized cash management system (the “Cash Management System”) to collect, transfer, and disburse funds generated by their operations. The Cash Management System facilitates cash monitoring, forecasting, and reporting, and enables the Debtors to maintain control over the administration of approximately 242 bank accounts (together with any other bank accounts the Debtors may open in the ordinary course of their business, the “Bank Accounts”) and one dormant investment account (that the Debtors will not use during these chapter 11 cases) (the “Investment Account”) owned by the Debtors and maintained with multiple banks (collectively, the “Cash Management Banks”), including those set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto and reflected on the diagram of the Cash Management System set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto. The Debtors’ treasury department maintains daily oversight over the Cash Management System and implements cash management controls for entering, processing, and releasing funds.

7. The Cash Management System is vital to the Debtors’ ability to conduct business throughout the United States and in foreign markets, and is tailored to meet the Debtors’ operating needs. Specifically, the integrated Cash Management System helps control funds, serves as a repository for cash receipts, manages cash disbursements, ensures cash availability for each of the Debtors, and reduces administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds among multiple entities by centralizing cash operations. The Cash Management System is generally similar to those commonly employed by complex businesses comparable in size and scale to the Debtors. Any disruption of the Cash Management System would have an immediate adverse effect on the Debtors’ business and operations to the detriment of their estates and numerous stakeholders, as their business requires prompt access to cash and accurate cash tracking. Accordingly, to minimize disruption caused by these chapter 11 cases and to maximize the value of the Debtors’ estates, the Debtors request authority to continue to utilize their existing Cash Management System during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, subject to the terms described herein.

I. Description of the Cash Management System

A. The Bank Accounts

8. The Debtors' Cash Management System is comprised of Bank Accounts and an Investment Account held by the following Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates: (a) 198 Bank Accounts are held by Payless ShoeSource, Inc. ("Payless ShoeSource"); (b) 12 Bank Accounts and one Investment Account are held by Payless Finance, Inc. ("Payless Finance"); (c) 11 Bank Accounts are held by Payless ShoeSource Canada LP; (d) six Bank Accounts are held by Collective Brands Logistics, Limited ("CBL"); (e) five Bank Accounts are held by Dynamic Assets Limited ("DAL"); (f) one Bank Account is held by Payless ShoeSource Canada, Inc.; (g) one Bank Account is held by Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc.; (h) one Bank Account is held by non-Debtor Collective Franchising, Ltd.; (i) one Bank Account is held by non-Debtor Payless India Franchising, LLC; (j) two Bank Accounts are held by Payless ShoeSource of Puerto Rico, Inc.; (k) two Bank Accounts are held by non-Debtor Payless ShoeSource Saipan, Inc.; (l) one Bank Account is held by Payless Holdings LLC; and (m) one Bank Account is held by Payless ShoeSource Worldwide, Inc. A schedule of the accounts described above is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

9. The Company's primary Cash Management Bank is Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo"), where the Company maintains 17 of the Bank Accounts. The Debtors maintain the Investment Account with Wells Fargo Securities, LLC. The Debtors also maintain Bank Accounts with a number of Cash Management Banks other than Wells Fargo, each of which is identified on the schedule attached hereto as Exhibit B. As discussed more fully below, 38 of the 242 Bank Accounts are maintained with Cash Management Banks designated by the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri (the "U.S. Trustee"), pursuant to the U.S. Trustee's Operating Guidelines and Financial Reporting Requirements for Debtors in Possession and Trustees (the "U.S. Trustee Guidelines").

10. The bulk of the Debtors' cash on hand is comprised of proceeds from the Debtors' ongoing business operations. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have an aggregate amount of approximately $7.4 million in the Bank Accounts.⁶ Generally, the Cash Management System is organized around a central concentration account maintained by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo, as described below. The Cash Management System also includes two groups of Bank Accounts maintained to facilitate the Debtors' operations in Canada and in Asia, respectively, reflecting the Company's globally integrated business. The roles of the Cash Management System's key Bank Accounts are summarized below:

- a. "Master Account":⁷ The Debtors maintain a master or "concentration" Bank Account held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo. The Master Account is the Company's main operating account into which funds are regularly swept from other of the Company's Bank Accounts and from which funds are disbursed to meet the Company's ordinary course obligations.
- b. "Wire/ACH Accounts": The Debtors maintain two Bank Accounts held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo to process outbound and inbound wires and ACH transfers, consisting of one disbursement account (the "Wire/ACH Disbursement Account") and one receipt account (the "Wire/ACH Receipt Account"). Both of these accounts are zero balance accounts. The Wire/ACH Disbursement Account is used to process virtually all outgoing wires and ACH transfers related to accounts payable, excluding payroll disbursement accounts and the specialized disbursement accounts described below. This is the Company's largest disbursement account. The Wire/ACH Receipt Account is used to process inbound wires and ACH transfers from the deposit accounts described below, as well as all domestic credit card and debit card receipts.

c. “Deposit Accounts” include:

- the Wire/ACH Receipt Account described above;
- 33 consolidated store Bank Accounts (the “Consolidated Store Accounts”) established to receive daily deposits of checks and cash funds from approximately 3,100 of the Debtors’ stores located in the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, and Saipan. 29 of these accounts are held by Payless ShoeSource, two are held by Payless ShoeSource of Puerto Rico, Inc., one is held by Payless Shoesource Worldwide, Inc., and one is held by non-Debtor Payless ShoeSource Saipan, Inc. 32 of these Consolidated Store Accounts are swept daily by the Debtors into the Wire/ACH Receipt Account. The Consolidated Store Account held by non-Debtor Payless ShoeSource Saipan, Inc. receives daily deposits from the Debtors’ store located in Saipan. Funds in this account are swept on the 25th calendar day of each month into a concentration account at U.S. Bank N.A., which is also held by non-Debtor Payless ShoeSource Saipan, Inc. These deposits are ultimately funded by the Debtors directly from the U.S. Bank N.A. concentration account into the Wire/ACH Receipt Account on a semi-annual basis;
- 167 non-consolidated store Bank Accounts held by Payless ShoeSource (the “Non-Consolidated Store Accounts”) established to receive daily deposits of checks and cash funds from 167 of the Debtors’ stores. These accounts are functionally equivalent to the Consolidated Store Accounts, but are maintained on an individual store basis rather than on a consolidated basis for stores located in rural areas where choice of bank depositories is extremely limited. Each of these accounts is swept by the Debtors into the Wire/ACH Receipt Account on any day during which the account balance exceeds $3,500;
- two Bank Accounts established to receive miscellaneous non-retail level deposits of checks and cash funds. One is held by Payless ShoeSource at Kaw Valley Bank and receives cash deposits. The other is held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo and receives check deposits. This Bank Account is a zero balance account;
- two Bank Accounts held at Wells Fargo established to receive all franchising-related deposits. One Bank Account is held by non-Debtor Payless India Franchising LLC and receives all deposits related to the Company’s franchising business in India. This Bank Account is a zero balance account with respect to the Master Account. The other Bank Account is held by non-Debtor Collective Franchising, Ltd., and receives all deposits related to the Company's franchising business outside of India. This Bank Account is a zero balance account with respect to the Wire/ACH Receipt Account; and

- one Bank Account held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo established to receive all receipts relating to accounts receivable purchases, including gift card purchases. This Bank Account is a zero balance account.

d. "Disbursement Accounts" include:

- the Wire/ACH Disbursement Account described above;
- one Bank Account held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo established to disburse all payments made by check related to accounts payable. This Bank Account is a zero balance account with respect to the Master Account;
- one Bank Account held by Payless ShoeSource at Lake Region Bank (the "Returned Check Account") established in connection with the Company's returned check processing agent, which account disburses all amounts related to retail customer checks that "bounce" or are returned by the check-writing bank due to insufficient funds. This Bank Account is funded by the Debtors from the Master Account on an as-needed basis;
- three Bank Accounts held by Payless Finance established to disburse domestic payroll by direct deposit, check issuance, and paycard programs. Two of these accounts are held at Wells Fargo and one is held at Bank of the Internet (paycard program). The paycard account is funded by the Master Account on an as-needed basis, while the direct deposit and check issuance accounts are zero balance accounts with respect to the Master Account;
- one Bank Account held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo established to disburse duty payments. This Bank Account is a zero balance account with respect to the Master Account;
- one Bank Account held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo established to process disbursements related to medical provider claims, including disability and life insurance. This Bank Account is a zero balance account with respect to the Master Account; and
- one Bank Account held by Payless Finance at Wells Fargo established to disburse payments related to taxes and postage. This Bank Account is a zero balance account with respect to the Master Account.

- e. “Asia Operations Accounts”: Debtors CBL and DAL hold 11 Bank Accounts (together, the “Asia Operations Accounts”) primarily established to facilitate payments to certain of the Company’s merchandise providers located in Asia and to fund related business operations located in Asia. As such, most of these Bank Accounts are disbursement accounts and are funded by the Master Account through the Wire/ACH Disbursement Account. Specifically, funds are disbursed from the Wire/ACH Disbursement Account into a domestic Bank Account held by CBL at Wells Fargo (the “Asia Intermediary Account”), generally with cash sufficient to cover the Company’s obligations on the same day that such funds are due to be paid out from the various Asia Operations Accounts. Funds are then sent from the Asia Intermediary Account to the various Asia Operations Accounts for payment of the Company’s obligations related to its operations in Asia. The majority of these disbursements consist of payments to the Company’s merchandise providers located in Asia, and are made in local currencies. All other disbursements from these Bank Accounts relate to the Debtors’ business operating costs, such as payroll for employees located in Asia. Finally, one of the overseas Asia Operations Accounts held by DAL receives funds from certain of the Company’s foreign wholesale purchasing partners. This Bank Account is the only Asia Operations Account that receives funds from third parties.
- f. “Canada Operations Accounts”: Debtors Payless ShoeSource Canada, Inc., Payless ShoeSource Canada LP, and Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc. (together, the “Canadian Debtors”) hold 13 Bank Accounts (together, the “Canada Operations Accounts”) primarily established to facilitate the Debtors’ retail operations in Canada. All of the Canada Operations Accounts are held at Canadian Cash Management Banks and together operate largely as a self-contained cash management system within the Company’s overall Cash Management System. The Debtors’ primary Cash Management Bank in Canada is the Royal Bank of Canada (“RBC”). Similar to the organization of the Master Account, the Receipt Accounts, and the Disbursement Accounts described above, the Canadian Debtors maintain a master or “concentration” account at RBC (the “Canada Master Account”). The Debtors’ retail stores in Canada make deposits into five different Bank Accounts, which are functionally equivalent to the Consolidated Store Accounts described above. These funds are then swept into the Canada Master Account. Canadian credit card receipts are deposited by the Canadian Debtors’ credit card processors into a Bank Account held by Payless ShoeSource Canada LP at RBC, and then swept into the Canada Master Account. Ordinary course disbursements that are made by wire or ACH, such as payroll and retail store rental payments for the Debtors’ operations in Canada, are made directly from the Canada Master Account. Disbursements required to be made by check (to certain of the Canadian Debtors’ operating vendors and tax authorities) or in U.S. dollars are funded from the Canada Master Account into three disbursement accounts also held by the Canadian Debtors at RBC, depending on the required form of payment and currency.

11. The Debtors incur periodic service charges and other fees in connection with the maintenance of the Cash Management System (the "Bank Fees"). Generally, the Bank Fees for each month are paid in arrears each month and are automatically deducted from the Debtors' Bank Accounts as Bank Fees for each Bank Account are assessed by the applicable Cash Management Banks. Historically, the Debtors estimate that they pay approximately $250,000 in Bank Fees each month, depending on transaction volume. The Debtors estimate that approximately $250,000 in Bank Fees remain outstanding as of the Petition Date.

B. Description of Funds Processing

12. A diagram setting forth the flow of funds among the Bank Accounts is attached as Exhibit A annexed hereto. The following list describes the manner in which cash generally moves through the Cash Management System:

- Receipts and Revenues. As detailed above, receipts and revenues are deposited into the Deposit Accounts and are ultimately funded into the Master Account, either directly or through the Wire/ACH Receipt Account. Receipts and revenues associated with the Debtors' Canadian retail operations are ultimately funded into the Canada Master Account, as described above.
- Disbursements. With respect to the zero balance Disbursement Accounts, such accounts are funded, as needed, by the Master Account with cash sufficient to satisfy the Debtors' disbursement obligations on a given day. With respect to non-zero-balance Disbursement Accounts, such as the Returned Check Account, such accounts are periodically funded from the Master Account on an as-needed basis. All of the Disbursement Accounts are directly funded by the Master Account. Disbursements made by the Asian Operating Accounts are indirectly funded by the Master Account as detailed above. Disbursements made by the Canada Operating Accounts are funded from the Canada Master Account.
- Excess Cash. Prior to the Petition Date, it was the Debtors' practice to sweep all excess funds over $100,000 in the Master Account into the Debtors' Investment Account on a daily basis. Funds in the Investment Account were accessible for funds transfers on a daily basis. Although the dormant Investment Account remains open, with a zero balance, the Debtors will not use the Investment Account for any purpose during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

II. Intercompany Transactions

13. The Debtors maintain business relationships with each other and with non-Debtor affiliates, and thus engage in intercompany transactions (collectively, the “Intercompany Transactions”) in the ordinary course of business. The Intercompany Transactions cover a number of different categories, including intercompany loans, intercompany accounts receivable and accounts payable under various intercompany agreements, the direct payment of obligations by one affiliate on behalf of another affiliate (with a corresponding adjustment to the Debtors’ books and records), and categories related to other amounts outstanding on account of the Debtors’ Cash Management System. The Debtors’ ability to continue to make and receive payments related to these business operations in the ordinary course is an important and integral part of the Debtors’ business.

A. Background on Foreign Non-Debtor Transactions

14. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors enter into agreements and financing arrangements with and make payments on behalf of foreign non-Debtor affiliates. Although the Debtors are not party to any joint venture or partnership agreements with third parties, certain non-Debtor affiliates are parties to such agreements, and the Debtors conduct certain of their foreign business operations through those agreements. Importantly, the Debtors make payments to many of their merchandise vendors through a joint venture arrangement between non-Debtor affiliate Payless Sourcing, LLC and Debtor CBLI.

15. The Company operates its business in the following countries through joint venture agreements between certain non-Debtor affiliates⁸ and third parties: Antigua, Barbados, ⁸ The following non-Debtor affiliates are parties to joint venture agreements with third parties: Payless CA Management Limited, Payless CO Management Ltd., PSS Latin America Holdings, and Collective Brands Cooperatief U.A.

Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Grenada, Guatemala, Honduras, Jamaica, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, and Trinidad and Tobago. Pursuant to these joint venture agreements, as well as related agreements between the Company and the respective joint venture entities, such as sourcing, licensing, and technology agreements, the Company has ongoing obligations to these entities, including capital funding obligations. The remainder of the Company's business abroad is operated by wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Debtors or by third-parties under franchise agreements.

16. The foreign joint ventures described in the paragraph above each have their own cash management operations and maintain bank accounts separate and apart from the Debtors' Cash Management System. Generally, and other than on account of Intercompany Transactions, these foreign joint ventures only contribute cash to the Debtors' Cash Management System if the Debtors direct the associated non-Debtor affiliates to contribute cash to the Debtors' Bank Accounts. The Debtors do not otherwise regularly repatriate this cash.

B. Non-Debtor Affiliate Transactions

17. At any given time, as a result of ordinary course Intercompany Transactions, there may be claims owing by one Debtor to another Debtor or non-Debtor affiliate. For example, by the operation of the Cash Management System, certain of the Debtors make payments to third parties on behalf of other Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates, resulting in intercompany receivables and payables. The Debtors track all intercompany balances in their accounting system and can ascertain, trace, and account for all Intercompany Transactions. The Debtors will continue to track postpetition intercompany transfers. Each payment from a Debtor and each bookkeeping entry between Debtors and between Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates on account of a postpetition Intercompany Transaction (each, a "Postpetition Intercompany Transaction") is an essential component of the Cash Management System. Discontinuing the Intercompany Transactions postpetition would unnecessarily disrupt the Cash Management System and the Debtors' operations to the detriment of the Debtors and their stakeholders.

18. In certain instances, Intercompany Transactions between Debtors and between Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates are "netted" to allocate outstanding amounts due and owing at the Debtors' discretion. By this Motion, the Debtors respectively request to continue these "netting" practices postpetition on an ordinary course basis. The Debtors additionally request authority to continue entering into ordinary course Intercompany Transactions between Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates. The Debtors have implemented internal mechanisms that will permit them, with the assistance of their advisors, to accurately track the balance of all prepetition and postpetition Intercompany Transactions.

19. Further, to ensure that each Debtor will not fund the operations of another entity at the expense of such Debtors' creditors, the Debtors respectfully request: (a) pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) and 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that all valid postpetition payments from a Debtor to another Debtor or from a non-Debtor affiliate to a Debtor on account of a Postpetition Intercompany Transaction be accorded administrative expense status; and (b) unless prohibited by applicable law, that transfers made by a Debtor to a non-Debtor affiliate pursuant to a Postpetition Intercompany Transaction be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such non-Debtor affiliate (and not a contribution of capital), except to the extent such Postpetition Intercompany Transactions are on account of antecedent debts. This relief will ensure that each entity receiving payments from a Debtor will continue to bear ultimate repayment responsibility for such ordinary course transactions, thereby reducing the risk that these transactions would jeopardize the recoveries available to each Debtor's respective creditors.

III. The Debtors' Existing Business Forms and Books and Records

20. The Debtors use a variety of preprinted and electronic business forms including checks, letterhead, correspondence forms, invoices, purchase orders, and other business forms in the ordinary course of business (collectively, and as they may be modified from time to time, the "Business Forms"). The Debtors also maintain books and records to document their financial results and a wide array of necessary operating information (collectively, the "Books and Records"). Rather than requiring the Debtors to incur the expense and delay of ordering entirely new business forms as required under the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, the Debtors seek authority to continue using all currently existing Business Forms (including, without limitation, printed and/or electronic checks, letterhead, correspondence forms, invoices and purchase orders) as such forms were in existence immediately before the Petition Date, without reference to the Debtors' status as debtors in possession. This will minimize expenses to the Debtors' estates and avoid confusion and the potential for error on the part of employees, customers, vendors, and suppliers during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

Basis for Relief

I. The Court Should Approve the Debtors' Continued Use of the Cash Management System Because It Is Essential to the Debtors' Operations and Restructuring Efforts

21. The Cash Management System constitutes an ordinary course and essential business practice of the Debtors. The Cash Management System provides significant benefits to the Debtors including, among other things, the ability to control corporate funds, ensure the availability of funds when necessary, and reduce costs and administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds and developing timely and accurate account balance information. Thus, to ensure the stable operation of the Debtors' business and realize the benefits of the Cash Management System, the Debtors should be allowed to continue using the Cash Management System and should not be required to open new bank accounts.

22. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines require a debtor to, among other things, establish one debtor in possession account for all estate monies required for the payment of taxes (including payroll taxes), close all existing bank accounts and open new debtor in possession accounts, maintain a separate debtor in possession account for cash collateral, obtain checks that bear the designation “debtor in possession,” and reference the bankruptcy case number and the type of account on such checks. These requirements are designed to provide a clear line of demarcation between prepetition and postpetition claims and payments and help protect against the inadvertent payment of prepetition claims by preventing banks from honoring checks drawn before the petition date.

23. The continuation of the Cash Management System is nevertheless permitted pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, which authorizes debtors in possession to “use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code also allows a debtor in possession to engage in the ordinary course transactions required to operate its business without additional oversight from its creditors or the court. See, e.g., Med. Malpractice Ins. Ass’n v. Hirsch (In re Lavigne), 114 F.3d 379, 384 (2d Cir. 1997); Harbinger, Inc. v. Metropolitan Cosmetic & Reconstructive Surgical Clinic, P.A., 124 B.R. 784, 786 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1990) (citing United States ex rel. Harrison v. Estate of Deutscher, 115 B.R. 592 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. 1990)). Included within the purview of section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is a debtor’s ability to continue the “routine transactions” necessitated by a debtor’s cash management system. See Amdura Nat’l Distrib. Co. v. Amdura Corp. (In re Amdura Corp.), 75 F.3d 1447, 1453 (10th Cir. 1996). Bankruptcy courts within the Eighth Circuit have held that a transaction qualifies as “ordinary course” if it “is of a type that is commonly undertaken within the debtor’s industry,” Peltz v. Gulfcoast Workstation Grp. (In re Bridge Information Systems, Inc.), 293 B.R. 479, 486 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2003).

24. Bankruptcy courts treat requests for authority to continue utilizing existing cash management systems as a relatively “simple matter,” see In re Baldwin-United Corp., 79 B.R. 321, 327 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1987), and have recognized that an integrated cash management system “allows efficient utilization of cash resources and recognizes the impracticalities of maintaining separate cash accounts for the many different purposes that require cash.” In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 136 B.R. 930, 934 (Bankr. D. Del. 1992), aff’d in part and rev’d in part, 997 F.2d 1039 (3d Cir. 1993). As a result, courts have concluded that the requirement to maintain all accounts separately “would be a huge administrative burden and economically inefficient.” Columbia Gas, 997 F.2d at 1061; see also In re Southmark Corp., 49 F.3d 1111, 1114 (5th Cir. 1995) (stating that cash management system allows a debtor “to administer more efficiently and effectively its financial operations and assets”).

25. Here, requiring the Debtors to adopt a new, segmented cash management system at this critical stage of the chapter 11 cases would be expensive, create unnecessary administrative burdens, and be extraordinarily disruptive to the operation of the Debtors’ business. New bank accounts would increase operating costs, and the delays that would result from opening new accounts, revising cash management procedures, and redirecting daily store deposits would negatively impact the Debtors’ ability to operate their business while pursuing these arrangements. Further, the Debtors would be subject to significant administrative burdens and expenses because they would need to execute new signatory cards and depository agreements and create an entirely new manual system for issuing checks and paying postpetition obligations, all as would otherwise be required by the U.S. Trustee Guidelines. See U.S. Trustee Guidelines, at pp. 2–3.

26. By contrast, maintaining the current Cash Management System would greatly facilitate the Debtors' transition into chapter 11 by, among other things, minimizing delays in paying postpetition debts and eliminating administrative inefficiencies. Importantly, the Cash Management System provides the Debtors with the ability to, among other things, quickly create status reports on the location and amount of funds, which allows the Debtors' management team to track and control such funds, ensure cash availability, and reduce administrative costs through a centralized method of coordinating the collection and movement of funds. Finally, maintaining the current Cash Management System would allow the Debtors' treasury and accounting employees to focus on their daily responsibilities.

27. In addition, the Debtors respectfully submit that parties in interest will not be harmed by the Debtors' maintenance of the Cash Management System, including the Bank Accounts, because the Debtors have implemented appropriate mechanisms to ensure that payments will not be made on account of obligations incurred before the Petition Date, other than those authorized by the Court. Specifically, with the assistance of their professional advisors, the Debtors have implemented internal protocols that prohibit payments on account of prepetition debts, including prepetition intercompany debts, without the prior approval of the Debtors' finance department. The Debtors will continue to work closely with the Cash Management Banks to ensure that appropriate procedures are in place to prevent checks that were issued prepetition from being honored without the Court's approval. In light of such protective measures, the Debtors submit that maintaining the Cash Management System is in the best interests of their estates and creditors.

28. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the continued use of the existing Cash Management System to facilitate the Debtors' transition into chapter 11. Specifically, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the Cash Management Banks to maintain, service, and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course of business. The Debtors further respectfully request that the Court authorize and direct the Cash Management Banks to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks, wire transfer, credit card, ACH payments and other instructions, and drafts payable through, or drawn or directed on, such Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by holders, makers, or other parties entitled to issue instructions with respect thereto, irrespective of whether such checks, drafts, wires, credit card, or ACH payments are dated prior to or subsequent to the Petition Date.⁹ The Debtors also respectfully request that, to the extent a Cash Management Bank honors a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Motion, either at the direction of the Debtors or in a good-faith belief that the Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored, such Cash Management Bank will not be deemed to be liable to the Debtors or to their estates on account of such prepetition check or other item honored postpetition. Such relief is reasonable and appropriate because the Cash Management Banks are not in a position to independently verify or audit whether the Debtors may pay a particular item in accordance with a Court order or otherwise.

29. Finally, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the Debtors to continue to pay the Bank Fees, including any prepetition Bank Fees, and further authorize the Cash Management Banks to chargeback returned items to the Bank Accounts, whether such items are dated prior to, on, or subsequent to the Petition Date, in the ordinary course of business.

⁹ The Debtors also request authority for the Cash Management Banks to honor any check, draft, or other notification that the Debtors advised the Cash Management Banks to have been drawn, issued, or otherwise presented prior to the Petition Date only to the extent authorized by order of the Court.

30. In other large, complex, and/or well-publicized chapter 11 cases, such as these, courts in this district and in other jurisdictions regularly waive the U.S. Trustee Guideline requirements and allow the continued use of cash management systems and prepetition bank accounts employed in the ordinary course of a debtor's prepetition business. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May 17, 2016); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 8, 2016); see also In re Sabine Oil & Gas Corp., No. 15-11835 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 10, 2015) (allowing debtors to continue using their cash management system); In re Eagle Bulk Shipping Inc., No. 14-12303 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 19, 2014) (same).¹⁰

II. The Court Should Authorize the Debtors to Continue Using the Existing Business Forms

31. The Debtors submit that the continued use of the Business Forms will not prejudice parties in interest, and that such relief will avoid unnecessary expenses and administrative delays at this critical time. Furthermore, the Debtors' requested relief will not prejudice parties in interest because parties doing business with the Debtors undoubtedly will know of the Debtors' status as debtors in possession. Indeed, courts in this district and in other jurisdictions regularly permit debtors to use their prepetition check forms without the "debtor in possession" label. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May 17, 2016); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 8, 2016); see also In re BCBG Max Azria Glob. Holdings, LLC, No. 17-10466 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 29, 2017); In re Limited Stores Co., No. 17-10124 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 16, 2017).¹¹

III. The Court Should Authorize the Debtors to Continue Engaging in Postpetition Intercompany Transactions in the Ordinary Course and Should Afford Administrative Expense Status to Postpetition Intercompany Transactions Among the Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates

32. Allowing the Debtors to engage in Postpetition Intercompany Transactions is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and their creditors, and the Debtors seek authority to enter into such Postpetition Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course of business. Because the Debtors engage in Intercompany Transactions on a regular basis and such transactions are common among similar enterprises, the Debtors respectfully submit that Postpetition Intercompany Transactions arising in the ordinary course are authorized as a matter of law pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, and thus, do not require the Court's approval.¹² The Debtors will continue to maintain records of Postpetition Intercompany Transactions, including records of all current intercompany accounts receivables and payables, to facilitate parties' access to information where reasonably requested, in accordance with their current Intercompany Transaction tracking system.

33. The Debtors respectfully submit that the relief requested herein fairly balances the Debtors' needs to facilitate the ordinary course operation of their business, minimize disruption, and preserve value, on the one hand, with the interests of their stakeholders in transparency, on the other hand. The requested relief will also ensure that a Debtor's estate will not be unduly burdened by the cost of transfers to Debtor and non-Debtor affiliates. As noted above, the Debtors request authority to continue Postpetition Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course (including with respect to "netting" or setoffs taken in the ordinary course).¹³

34. Additionally, the Debtors respectfully request, pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, that this Court order: (a) that all valid postpetition payments from a Debtor to another Debtor or from a non-Debtor affiliate to a Debtor on account of a Postpetition Intercompany Transaction shall be accorded administrative expense status; and (b) unless prohibited by applicable law, transfers made by a Debtor to a non-Debtor affiliate pursuant to a Postpetition Intercompany Transaction shall be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such non-Debtor affiliate (and not a contribution of capital), in each case except to the extent such Postpetition Intercompany Transactions are on account of antecedent debts. As noted above, the Debtors believe such relief is necessary to ensure that a particular Debtor's estate will not be required to fund the operations of other Debtors and non-Debtor affiliates without adequate recompense.

35. Such relief is consistent with the relief granted by Courts in this jurisdiction and others in similarly situated matters—particularly where, as here, the debtor operates a multi-national enterprise and an integrated cash management system. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May 17, 2016); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc.,

A creditor need only establish two elements before a setoff may be asserted—mutuality and timing. See United States v. Gerth, 991 F.2d 1428, 1431 (8th Cir. 1993); Gulfcoast Workstation Corp. & Relational Fund Corp. v. Peltz (In re Bridge Info. Sys., Inc.), 314 B.R. 421, 428 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2004); Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Mfrs. & Traders Trust Co. (In re Bennett Funding Grp., Inc.), 212 B.R. 206, 212 (B.A.P. 2d Cir. 1997), aff'd 146 F.3d 136 (2d Cir. 1998). Although courts have not uniformly defined the elements of mutuality, most courts require that debts are owed between the same parties and in the same right or capacity. See, e.g., Bank of Cairo & Moberly v. Thurston (In re Thurston), 139 B.R. 14 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 1992); Davidovich v. Welton (In re Davidovich), 901 F.2d 1533, 1537 (10th Cir. 1990). Timing requires that both claims arise prepetition. See, e.g., Gerth, 991 B.R. at 1431; Packaging Indus. Grp., Inc. v. Dennison Mfg. Co. (In re Sentinel Prods. Corp.), 192 B.R. 41, 45 (S.D.N.Y. 1996); Scherling v. Hellman Elec. Corp. (In re Westchester Structures Inc.), 181 B.R. 730, 739 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1995). In addition, courts have allowed the parties to offset claims postpetition in the same manner as a prepetition setoff, as long as the mutuality requirements are met. See, e.g., United States v. Gordon Sel-Way, Inc. (In re Gordon Sel-Way, Inc.), 239 B.R. 741, 751–55 (E.D. Mich. 1999), aff'd, 270 F.3d 280 (6th Cir. 2001); Mohawk Indus., Inc. v. United States (In re Mohawk Indus., Inc.), 82 B.R. 174, 179 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1987). The Cash Management System allows the Debtors to track all obligations owing between related entities and thereby ensures that all setoffs of Postpetition Intercompany Transactions will meet both the mutuality and timing requirements of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, the Debtors respectfully request that the Debtors expressly be authorized to set off postpetition obligations arising on account of Postpetition Intercompany Transactions between a Debtor and another Debtor or between a Debtor and a non-Debtor affiliate.

IV. Cause Exists for Waiving the Deposit Guidelines of Section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code and Certain of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines

36. The majority of the Bank Accounts comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code because such Bank Accounts are maintained at banks insured by federal agencies, such as the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”) and the National Credit Union Insurance Fund (the “NCUSIF”). See 11 U.S.C. § 345(b). As of the Petition Date, all of the Debtors’ 218 domestic Bank Accounts were held at Cash Management Banks insured by the FDIC or the NCUSIF. 38 of the 242 Bank Accounts are maintained with banks designated as authorized depositories by the U.S. Trustee pursuant to the U.S. Trustee Guidelines (each, an “Authorized Depository” and, collectively, the “Authorized Depositories”). The U.S. Trustee has designated the following banks that hold Bank Accounts as Authorized Depositories: Wells Fargo, Bank of America, Bank of the Ozarks, Bank of the West, Capital One, N.A., Citibank, N.A., Citizens Bank & Trust Co., Commerce Bank, Enterprise Bank & Trust, Farmers & Merchants Bank, Fifth Third Bank, First National Bank (Omaha), First Tennessee Bank, Key Bank N.A., PNC Bank, N.A., Regions Bank, N.A., UMB Bank, Union Bank & Trust, and US Bank, N.A. 204 Bank Accounts are held at Cash Management Banks that are not Authorized Depositories under the U.S. Trustee Guidelines. The vast majority of the Bank Accounts held by these Cash Management Banks are (a) foreign bank accounts related to the Debtors' business operations in Canada and Asia and (b) Non-Consolidated Store Accounts, which, as noted above, receive daily deposits from stores located in rural areas in the United States where the choice of bank depositories is limited. Indeed, these Cash Management Banks are typically the only bank located nearby these stores, meaning that if the Debtors are not permitted to maintain these Non-Consolidated Store Accounts, the 167 stores that make daily deposits into such accounts will most likely have to submit their required daily deposits by mail, creating additional operational burdens and expenses to the detriment of the Debtors' business and their estates. Such disruption is particularly unwarranted in this case as the majority of the Debtors' Bank Accounts consist of Non-Consolidated Store Accounts that typically hold less than $3,500 at any given time and which are regularly swept into Bank Accounts held at Wells Fargo, an Authorized Depository. Moreover, all of the Debtors' 167 Non-Consolidated Store Accounts comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code as they are insured by the FDIC or NCUSIF. Thus, these Cash Management Banks are well-capitalized and financially stable institutions, and the Debtors request that the Court waive the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines with respect to authorized depository requirements.

37. The Debtors further respectfully request that cause exists to waive the requirements for section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all Bank Accounts held in foreign jurisdictions. None of the foreign Bank Accounts relate to investment activity. As described above, these foreign Bank Accounts are integral to the Debtors' operations and overall Cash Management System and are used primarily to operate the Debtors' retail business in Canada or facilitate payments to the Debtors' overseas merchandise providers. For example, nearly all of the Debtors' merchandise suppliers receive payment through, and have signed purchase orders with, debtors CBLL and DAL. These merchandise suppliers generally receive payment from foreign Bank Accounts held by CBLL and DAL in local currencies. The risk of such vendors declining to perform at this critical time because of administrative delays and confusion relating to opening new bank accounts compliant with section 345(b) requirements far outweighs any benefit to halting or changing the Debtors' ordinary course flow of funds. If the Debtors are granted a waiver, the Debtors will not be burdened with the significant administrative difficulties and expenses relating to opening new accounts in a manner that ensures all of their funds are fully insured. In addition, the risk of severe disruption of the Debtors' integrated global operations, particularly with respect to ordinary course merchandise flows, will be minimized.

38. Courts in this district and in other jurisdictions have liberally construed the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code that the debtor in possession obtain a bond from any entity with which their money is deposited. In those instances, courts have waived the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and replaced them with alternative procedures. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May 17, 2016); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 13, 2016); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 8, 2016); In re Bakers Footwear Grp. Inc., No. 12-49658 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Nov. 1, 2012); see also In re Horsehead Holding Corp., No. 16-10287 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 3, 2016) (interim order); In re NII Holdings, Inc., Case No. 14-12611 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 21, 2015) (interim order); In re Alpha Natural Res., Inc., No. 15-33896 (KRH) (Bankr. E.D. Va. Oct. 8, 2015).¹⁵ Cause exists for a similar waiver in these cases.

39. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant relief within the first 21 days after the Petition Date “to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.” For the reasons discussed above, authorizing the Debtors to (a) continue using their existing Cash Management System, Bank Accounts, and Business Forms, (b) honor certain prepetition obligations thereto, (c) continue to perform Intercompany Transactions consistent with historical practice, (d) grant administrative expense status to postpetition intercompany claims, and (e) waive deposit requirements is integral to the Debtors’ ability to ensure a smooth transition of their operations into these chapter 11 cases. Failure to receive such authorization and other relief during the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors’ operations at this critical juncture. As further discussed herein, the relief requested is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of the Debtors’ operations, and maximize the value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the “immediate and irreparable harm” standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support granting the relief requested herein.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

40. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

41. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other party-in-interest’s rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be, nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of, any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

42. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) U.S. Trustee; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn: Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (j) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (k) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; (p) the Cash Management Banks; and (q) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

43. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Interim Order and the Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein, and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Rule 81.901(B)(1) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Local Rules”). The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Rule 7008 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105, 361, 362, 363, 364, 503, and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, and 9014.

Preliminary Statement

5. Immediate access to incremental liquidity in the form of postpetition financing and access to Cash Collateral is critical to preserving the value of the Debtors' estates and maximizing the likelihood of a going-concern reorganization. The postpetition financing sends a strong message to customers, vendors, employees, and stakeholders that their restructuring is both well-funded and well-positioned to succeed. Accordingly, by this Motion, the Debtors seek approval of postpetition financing in the form of:

- a. the DIP ABL Credit Facilities, a $305 million (aggregate amount) asset-based lending facility consisting of a $245 Tranche A Credit Facility and a $60 million Tranche A-1 Credit Facility, which facility will roll up the prepetition asset-based lending facility with the net proceeds of the DIP ABL Collateral pursuant to the Interim Order and will roll up the remaining amount of the prepetition asset-based lending facility in full pursuant the Final Order; and
- b. the DIP Term Loan Facility, a term loan facility in an aggregate amount not to exceed $80 million of principal loaned (subject to original issue discount) consisting of (a) a $30 million initial draw that will only be authorized to be drawn pursuant to the Final Order and (b) up to an aggregate of $50 million in additional draws that would be available to be drawn following entry of a disclosure statement order through the Effective Date (subject to the consent of the Required Lenders), including a final draw of remaining availability, if any, under the DIP Term Facility in an amount sufficient to provide the Debtors with no more than $25 million of liquidity upon emergence.

6. As discussed in the First Day Declaration, recent adverse economic trends (including a shift away from brick-and-mortar to online retail channels) and other specific, non-recurring factors discussed further herein resulted in Payless experiencing weaker-than-anticipated financial performance in 2015 and 2016, pressuring the Debtors' capital structure and straining liquidity. To protect the inherent value in the business while addressing the difficulties it faced in 2015 and 2016, Payless has been proactive in developing strategies to maintain its market position and improve performance in a challenging retail environment. In particular, Payless has prioritized near- and long-term initiatives designed to maintain the core value proposition for its customers through its merchandising and procurement strategy, as well as expansion into e-commerce and the omni-channel experience, while also ensuring a sustainable capital structure and rationalized store fleet.

7. Consistent with that strategy, for the past several months, the Debtors have been working with a steering committee of their secured term loan lenders to develop a comprehensive financing, restructuring and recapitalization plan that will be implemented through these chapter 11 cases. Specifically, the Debtors have received support from stakeholders representing approximately 2/3 of their capital structure for a comprehensive restructuring that will provide Payless with (a) a $305 million revolving debtor-in-possession credit facility to finance its business through this process; (b) up to $80 million in new capital from certain existing term lenders to support these cases and help the Debtors emerge with a right-sized balance sheet; (c) a plan framework that will reduce the Debtors' funded debt from $838 million to an estimated $469 million (inclusive of assumed revolving loans) while ensuring fair recoveries to all stakeholders in accordance with their respective priorities; and (d) a framework to enable the Debtors to rationalize their store fleet and profitability..

8. A critical component of the Debtors' transition into chapter 11 in a value-maximizing manner is the Debtors' ability to immediately access the DIP ABL Credit Facilities and Cash Collateral so they can purchase fresh inventory and otherwise make clear to their vendors, customers, and other stakeholders that the Debtors have the liquidity necessary to implement an expeditious restructuring and emerge as a going concern. Importantly, the DIP ABL Facilities provide approximately $40 million of incremental net liquidity compared to the borrowing base under the Prepetition ABL Facility, some of which is due to the addition of the assets of the Canadian Debtors⁵ in the borrowing base. The DIP ABL Lenders are unwilling to make the DIP ABL Credit Facilities available to the Debtors unless the Canadian Debtors provide a secured guarantee of all amounts made available in respect of such DIP ABL Credit Facilities.

9. Significantly, the Debtors are not seeking authority under the Interim Order to draw under the DIP Term Credit Facility or to approve any financing fees under the DIP Term Credit Facility, as the Debtors do not have an immediate need for that liquidity. The Debtors will seek to draw the $30 million under the DIP Term Credit Facility only pursuant to the Final Order. The DIP Term Credit Facility will also provide the Debtors with access to the liquidity they need to emerge from chapter 11, as it provides for $50 million in additional liquidity that would be available to be drawn following entry of a disclosure statement order and through the Effective Date (subject to the consent of the Required Lenders). A final draw of remaining availability under the DIP Term Facility, if any, may be made prior to emergence in an amount sufficient to provide the Debtors with no more than $25 million of liquidity upon emergence. This availability will best position the Debtors to maximize value by minimizing unnecessary borrowings and related fees, while still making available the liquidity that the Debtors need to implement the Restructuring Support Agreement and emerge from chapter 11 as a going concern.

10. As discussed below and in the Suckow Declaration, the provisions of the DIP Agreements and the Interim Order were negotiated at arm's-length and in good faith, and the proposed DIP Facilities provide the best terms presently available to the Debtors. The Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, solicited proposals for debtor-in-possession financing from a variety of potential lenders. While certain parties did offer alternative financing proposals, as explained below, such offers were not viable for the Debtors' estates. In the Debtors' business judgment, the DIP Facilities provided the best comprehensive postpetition financing, all things considered.

11. Thus, the DIP Facilities are the Debtors' best access to the liquidity they need to maintain their operations and increase the value of their estates. Because the Debtors believe that the DIP Facilities are reasonable, appropriate, and provide the best terms presently available to the Debtors, the Debtors respectfully submit that the Court should grant the relief requested herein.

Background

I. The Debtors’ Prepetition Capital Structure

16. The Debtors’ prepetition capital structure includes approximately $838 million in outstanding debt as of the Petition Date, consisting of: (a) approximately $187 million in secured debt under their asset-backed revolving credit facility (the “ABL Credit Facility”); (b) approximately $506 million in secured debt under their first lien credit facility (the “First Lien Term Loan”); and (c) approximately $145 million in secured debt outstanding under their second lien credit facility (the “Second Lien Term Loan”).

17. The chart below summarizes the Debtors’ prepetition indebtedness, including approximate current outstanding amounts as of the Petition Date.

Debt Obligation	Debt Facility Size	Approximate Amount Outstanding as of the Petition Date	Maturity Date	Collateral
ABL Credit Facility	$300 million	$187 million	March 14, 2019	Substantially all tangible and intangible assets; first priority over ABL Priority Collateral
First Lien Term Loan	$520 million	$506 million	March 11, 2021	Substantially all tangible and intangible assets; first priority over Term Priority Collateral
Second Lien Term Loan	$145 million	$145 million	March 11, 2022	Substantially all tangible and intangible assets; second priority over Term Priority Collateral

II. Funded Secured Debt

A. The ABL Credit Facility

18. Payless, Inc., as the lead borrower, the other Debtors party thereto as borrowers and guarantors, and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (“Wells Fargo”), as administrative agent, entered into a revolving credit facility documented by the Credit Agreement dated as of October 9, 2012. Under the ABL Credit Facility, which has two tranches bearing interest at different rates,⁸ the Debtors may draw up to $300 million for general corporate purposes. The ABL Credit Facility is secured by a priority lien over substantially all tangible and intangible assets of the Debtors including, among other things and subject to certain limitations, thresholds and exclusions, accounts, cash, inventory, and real property (such collateral package, the “ABL Priority Collateral”). The ABL Credit Facility is also secured by a junior lien on the remaining assets of the Debtors including, among other things and subject to certain limitations, thresholds and exclusions, equipment, intellectual property, and stock pledges (such collateral package, the “Term Loan Priority Collateral”). As of the Petition Date, an aggregate balance of approximately $187 million remains outstanding under the ABL Credit Facility.

19. Pursuant to the Security Agreement dated October 9, 2012 (the “ABL Security Agreement”), the obligations under the Prepetition Revolver Agreement are secured by substantially all tangible and intangible assets of the Debtors (collectively, the “Collateral”), subject to certain limitations and exclusions.⁹ As noted below, obligations outstanding under the

Prepetition Revolver Agreement are secured by liens on the Collateral with senior priority to the First Lien Term Loans and Second Lien Term Loans with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral (as defined below) and are junior in priority with respect to the Term Priority Collateral (as defined below).

B. The First Lien Term Loan

20. Payless, Inc., Payless Finance, Inc., Payless ShoeSource, Inc., and Payless ShoeSource Distribution, Inc., as borrowers, the other Debtors party thereto as guarantors, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc.,¹⁰ as administrative and collateral agent, and the lenders party thereto are parties to that certain First Lien Term Loan and Guarantee Agreement, dated as of March 11, 2014¹¹ (as amended, restated, modified, and/or supplemented and in effect immediately prior to the Petition Date, the “First Lien Term Loan Agreement”). The First Lien Term Loan Agreement, which matures on March 11, 2021, provides a $520 million first lien term loan secured by a first priority lien in the Term Loan Priority Collateral and a second priority lien in the ABL Priority Collateral. An aggregate amount of $506 million was outstanding as of the Petition Date under the First Lien Term Loan.

21. Pursuant to the First Lien Security Agreement dated March 11, 2014, the obligations under the First Lien Term Loan Agreement are secured by the Collateral. As noted below, obligations outstanding under the First Lien Term Loan Agreement are secured by liens on the Collateral with senior priority to the Prepetition Revolver Agreement with respect to the Debtors. However, the lenders hold priority in different portions of this collateral, as described more fully herein.

Term Priority Collateral (as defined below) and junior priority to the ABL Priority Collateral (as defined below).

C. The Second Lien Term Loan

22. Payless, Inc., Payless Finance, Inc., Payless ShoeSource, Inc., and Payless ShoeSource Distribution, Inc., as borrowers, the other Debtors party thereto as guarantors, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., as administrative and collateral agent, and the lenders party thereto are parties to that certain Second Lien Term Loan and Guarantee Agreement, dated as of March 11, 2014¹² (as amended, restated, modified, and/or supplemented and in effect immediately prior to the Petition Date, the “Second Lien Term Loan Agreement” and together with the First Lien Term Loan Agreement, the “Term Loan Agreements”). The Second Lien Term Loan Agreement, which matures on March 11, 2022, provides a $145 million second lien term loan secured by a second priority lien in the Term Loan Priority Collateral and a third priority lien in the ABL Priority Collateral. An aggregate amount of $145 million was outstanding as of the Petition Date under the Second Lien Term Loan.

23. Pursuant to the Security Agreement dated March 11, 2014, the obligations under the Second Lien Term Loan Agreement are secured by the Collateral. As noted below, obligations outstanding under the Second Lien Term Loan Agreement are secured by liens with senior priority to the Prepetition Revolver Agreement with respect to the Term Priority Collateral (as defined below) and junior priority to the ABL Priority Collateral (as defined below).

D. Swap Transactions

24. Pursuant to the Term Loan Agreements, Payless is permitted to enter into interest rate swap transactions to mitigate certain risks, including in connection with hedging the variable interest rates contemplated thereunder. Presently, Payless is party to three such transactions (the “Swap Transactions”), one with respect to the First Lien Term Loan Agreement and two with respect to the Second Lien Term Loan Agreement, each with Morgan Stanley Capital Services LLC as counterparty. The Swap Transactions are governed by an ISDA 2002 Master Agreement dated as of October 2, 2013.

E. Intercreditor Agreements

25. The Debtors’ prepetition indebtedness is also subject to two different intercreditor agreements, generally referred to as the ABL/Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement¹³ and the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement.¹⁴ The ABL/Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement governs the relative contractual rights of lenders under the ABL Credit Facility, the First Lien Term Loan, and the Second Lien Term Loan. The Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement, in turn, governs the relative contractual rights of lenders under the First Lien Term Loan, on the one hand, and the lenders under the Second Lien Term Loan, on the other hand.

III. The Need to Use Cash Collateral and For Access to Financing

26. The Debtors, in consultation with their proposed financial advisor, Guggenheim Securities, LLC (“Guggenheim Securities”), and their proposed restructuring advisor, Alvarez & Marsal North America, LLC, (“A&M”) reviewed and analyzed the Debtors’ projected cash needs and prepared a 13-week projection (as updated from time to time in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement, the “Budget”)¹⁵ outlining the Debtors’ postpetition cash

¹³ The “ABL/Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement” means that certain Intercreditor Agreement dated as of March 11, 2014 (as amended, restated, modified, and/or supplemented from time to time) by and among Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent for the lenders under the ABL Credit Agreement, the First Lien Agent, and the Second Lien Agent, and acknowledged by the Debtors.

¹⁴ The “Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement” means that certain Intercreditor Agreement dated as of March 11, 2014 (as amended, restated, modified, and/or supplemented from time to time) between the First Lien Term Agent, the Second Lien Term Agent and the Debtors.

¹⁵ A copy of the Budget is attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit 1.

needs in the initial 13 weeks of these cases. The Debtors believe that the Budget and their projections provide an accurate reflection of their funding requirements over the identified period, will allow them to meet their obligations—including the administrative expenses of the chapter 11 cases,—and are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.

27. The Debtors' relied on these forecasts to determine the amount of postpetition financing required to administer these chapter 11 cases. Each of the DIP Facilities are critical to the Debtors' ability to smoothly operate postpetition, including by providing sufficient liquidity to fund the cost of these chapter 11 cases and, importantly, payments to the Debtors' vendors, and other participants in the Debtors' supply chain to ensure the free flow of inventory to the Debtors' stores.

28. With limited cash on hand, the Debtors require interim approval of the DIP ABL Facilities. Absent the immediate relief requested by this Motion, the Debtors face a material risk of substantial, irreparable, and ongoing harm. Access to Cash Collateral and the DIP Facilities will ensure the Debtors have sufficient funds to preserve and maximize the value of their estates, and responsibly administer these chapter 11 cases.

IV. Alternative Sources of Financing Are Not Readily Available

29. The marketing process used to determine the most viable postpetition financing facility for the Debtors included soliciting a wide array of potential lenders and was appropriate in light of the Debtors' condition, timing concerns, and the Debtors' existing capital structure. The Debtors, with the assistance of Guggenheim Securities, solicited indications of interest from twelve parties: (i) the prepetition ABL lenders, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and TPG Specialty Lending Inc. (collectively, the "Prepetition ABL Lenders"); (ii) members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "First Lien Steering Committee"); and (iii) ten potential third-party lenders. The Debtors, in consultation with Guggenheim Securities, identified these potential third-parties based on a number of factors, including their ability to complete diligence in a timely manner, their experience providing debtor-in-possession financing—particularly in retail bankruptcy cases, and their familiarity with the Debtors’ business operations.

30. Of the twelve parties contacted by the Debtors, ten signed confidentiality agreements or were already party to an existing confidentiality agreement with the Debtors, and each of the ten parties was provided customary due diligence. After conducting diligence, five parties provided preliminary proposals for debtor-in-possession financing: (i) the Prepetition ABL Lenders; (ii) the First Lien Steering Committee; and (iii) three other parties. Seven parties chose not to submit proposals due to one or more of the following reasons: such parties (i) had limited desire to participate in retail financings, generally; (ii) were uncomfortable with lending on the Debtors’ collateral; (iii) believed that the existing lenders would provide the financing on more beneficial economic terms than they were willing to provide; and/or (iv) desired to provide financing in an amount or within a structure that would not work under the Debtors’ existing capital structure.

31. The Debtors were unable to develop an alternative source of financing with terms better than those of the DIP Facilities, and, for all of the foregoing reasons, the Debtors believe that the DIP Facilities are reasonable, appropriate, and the best viable options presently available to the Debtors.

Basis for Relief

I. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Obtain Postpetition Financing Through the DIP Documents

A. Entry into the DIP Documents Is an Exercise of the Debtors’ Sound Business Judgment

32. The Court should authorize the Debtors, as an exercise of their sound business judgment, to enter into the DIP Documents, obtain access to the DIP Facilities, and continue using the Cash Collateral. Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to obtain secured or superpriority financing under certain circumstances discussed in detail below. Courts grant a debtor-in-possession considerable deference in acting in accordance with its business judgment in obtaining postpetition secured credit, so long as the agreement to obtain such credit does not run afoul of the provisions of, and policies underlying, the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 886 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (“Business judgments should be left to the board room and not to this Court”); In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 163 B.R. 964, 974 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (approving a postpetition loan and receivables facility because such facility “reflect[ed] sound and prudent business judgment”); In re Ames Dep’t Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) (“[C]ases consistently reflect that the court’s discretion under section 364 is to be utilized on grounds that permit reasonable business judgment to be exercised so long as the financing agreement does not contain terms that leverage the bankruptcy process and powers or its purpose is not so much to benefit the estate as it is to benefit a party-in-interest.”). “More exacting scrutiny would slow the administration of the debtor’s estate and increase its cost, interfere with the Bankruptcy Code’s provision for private control of administration of the estate, and threaten the court’s ability to control a case impartially.” Richmond Leasing Co. v. Capital Bank, N.A., 762 F.2d 1303, 1311 (5th Cir. 1985).

33. Courts emphasize that the business judgment rule is not an onerous standard and may be satisfied “as long as the proposed action appears to enhance the debtor’s estate.” Crystalin, LLC v. Selma Props. Inc. (In re Crystalin, LLC), 293 B.R. 455, 463–64 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003) (citation omitted) (emphasis in original, text modifications removed); see also In re AbitibiBowater, 418 B.R. 815, 831 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009) (the business judgment standard is “not a difficult standard to satisfy”).

34. Specifically, to determine whether the business judgment standard is met, a court need only “examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances.” In re Exide Techs., 340 B.R. 222, 239 (Bankr. D. Del. 2006); see also In re Curlew Valley Assocs., 14 B.R. 506, 513–14 (Bankr. D. Utah 1981) (noting that courts should not second guess a debtor’s business decision when that decision involves “a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [the debtor’s] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code”). Accordingly, management of a corporation’s affairs is placed in the hands of its board of directors and officers, and the Court should interfere with their decisions only if it is made clear that those decisions are, inter alia, clearly erroneous, made arbitrarily, are in breach of the officers’ and directors’ fiduciary duty to the corporation, are made on the basis of inadequate information or study, are made in bad faith, or are in violation of the Bankruptcy Code.” In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. at 881 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (citing In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217, 233 (3d Cir. 2003), Richmond Leasing Co. v. Capital Bank, N.A., 762 F.2d 1303 (5th Cir. 1985), and In re Defender Drug Stores, Inc., 145 B.R. 312, 317 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1992)); see also In re Food Barn Stores, Inc., 107 F.3d 558, 567 n. 16 (8th Cir. 1997) (when the “request is not manifestly unreasonable or made in bad faith, the court should normally grant approval as long as the proposed action appears to enhance the debtor’s estate”).

35. Furthermore, in considering whether the terms of postpetition financing are fair and reasonable, courts consider the terms in light of the relative circumstances of both the debtor and the potential lender. In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. at 886 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003); see also Unsecured Creditors’ Comm. Mobil Oil Corp. v. First Nat’l Bank & Trust Co. (In re Elingsen McLean Oil Co., Inc.), 65 B.R. 358, 365 n.7 (W.D. Mich. 1986) (recognizing a debtor may have to enter into “hard bargains” to acquire funds for its reorganization). The Court may also appropriately take into consideration non-economic benefits to the Debtors offered by a proposed postpetition facility. For example, in In re ION Media Networks, Inc., the bankruptcy court for the Southern District of New York held that:

Although all parties, including the Debtors and the Committee, are naturally motivated to obtain financing on the best possible terms, a business decision to obtain credit from a particular lender is almost never based purely on economic terms. Relevant features of the financing must be evaluated, including non-economic elements such as the timing and certainty of closing, the impact on creditor constituencies and the likelihood of a successful reorganization. This is particularly true in a bankruptcy setting where cooperation and establishing alliances with creditor groups can be a vital part of building support for a restructuring that ultimately may lead to a confirmable reorganization plan. That which helps foster consensus may be preferable to a notionally better transaction that carries the risk of promoting unwanted conflict.

36. No. 09-13125, 2009 WL 2902568, at *4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. July 6, 2009) (emphasis added).

37. The Debtors’ determination to move forward with the DIP Facilities is an exercise of their sound business judgment following an arm’s-length process and careful evaluation of alternatives. Specifically, the Debtors and their advisors determined that postpetition financing will create certainty with respect to cash flows necessary for the administration of these chapter 11 cases through confirmation. The Debtors negotiated the DIP Agreements and other DIP Documents with the DIP Lenders in good faith, at arm’s length, and with the assistance of their respective advisors, and the Debtors believe that they have obtained the best financing available. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the Debtors’ entry into the DIP Documents, as it is a reasonable exercise of the Debtors’ business judgment.

B. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Grant Liens and Superpriority Claims

38. The Debtors propose to obtain financing under the DIP Facilities by providing security interests and liens as set forth in the DIP Documents pursuant to section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, the Debtors propose to provide to the DIP Lenders continuing, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and properly perfected postpetition security interests in and liens on the applicable DIP Collateral (as defined in the Interim Order). The DIP Lenders will have similar “criss cross” first and second priority liens on the applicable DIP Collateral as the Prepetition Lenders have on the Prepetition Collateral (as defined in the Interim Order):

- The DIP Liens securing the DIP ABL Obligations (the “DIP ABL Liens”) are valid, automatically perfected, non-avoidable, senior in priority and superior to any security, mortgage, collateral interest, lien or claim to any of the DIP ABL Collateral, except that the DIP ABL Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and shall otherwise be junior only to:
 - as to the DIP ABL Primary Collateral, Permitted Prior Liens; and
 - as to the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral, (A) Permitted Prior Liens; (B) the DIP Term Loan Liens (as defined herein); (C) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens; and (D) the Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens
- The DIP Liens securing the DIP Term Loan Obligations (the “DIP Term Loan Liens”) are valid, automatically perfected, non-avoidable, senior in priority and superior to any security, mortgage, collateral interest, lien or claim to any of the DIP Term Collateral, except that the DIP Term Loan Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and shall otherwise be junior only to:
 - as to the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral, Permitted Prior Liens; and
 - as to the DIP ABL Primary Collateral, (A) Permitted Prior Liens; (B) the DIP ABL Liens; (C) the Prepetition Revolver Liens; and (D) the Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens.

39. The statutory requirement for obtaining postpetition credit under section 364(c) is a finding, made after notice and hearing, that a debtor is “unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under Section 503(b)(1) of [the Bankruptcy Code].” 11 U.S.C. § 364(c). See In re

Crouse Grp., Inc., 71 B.R. 544, 549 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987) (secured credit under section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is authorized, after notice and hearing, upon showing that unsecured credit cannot be obtained). Courts have articulated a three-part test to determine whether a debtor is entitled to financing under section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, courts look to whether:

- the debtor is unable to obtain unsecured credit under section 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, i.e., by allowing a lender only an administrative claim;
- the credit transaction is necessary to preserve the assets of the estate; and
- the terms of the transaction are fair, reasonable, and adequate, given the circumstances of the debtor-borrower and proposed lenders.

See, e.g. In re Los Angeles Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. 308, 312 (Bankr. D. Del. 2011); In re Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. 34, 37–40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990); see also In re St. Mary Hosp., 86 B.R. 393, 401-02 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1988); Crouse Grp., 71 B.R. at 549.

40. As described above and as set forth in the Suckow Declaration, due to the Debtors' high level of existing secured debt obligations, third-party lenders were unwilling to provide postpetition financing on an unsecured basis. The Debtors, in consultation with their advisors, concluded that any workable financing likely would require the support of, or be provided by, the Debtors' existing lenders. Absent the DIP Facilities, which will provide certainty that the Debtors will have sufficient liquidity to administer these chapter 11 cases, the value of the Debtors' estates would be significantly impaired to the detriment of all stakeholders. Given the Debtors' circumstances, the Debtors believe that the terms of the DIP Facilities, as set forth in the DIP Agreements, are fair, reasonable, and adequate, all as more fully set forth below. For all these reasons, the Debtors submit that they have met the standard for obtaining postpetition financing.

41. In the event that a debtor is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, section 364(c) provides that a court “may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt (1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of [the Bankruptcy Code]; (2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or (3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien.” As described in the Suckow Declaration, each of the other proposals received by the Debtors was not viable for one or more of following reasons: (i) the proposal could not be executed within the Debtors’ timeline; (ii) the proposal did not provide the Debtors with sufficient liquidity; and/or (iii) the proposal could not be implemented without obtaining significant consents or ensuring meaningful participation from the lenders in the Debtors’ existing capital structure. Therefore, approving a superpriority claims in favor of the DIP Lenders is reasonable and appropriate.

42. Further, section 364(d) provides that a debtor may obtain credit secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate already subject to a lien, after notice and a hearing, where the debtor is “unable to obtain such credit otherwise” and “there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.” 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1). Consent by the secured creditors to priming obviates the need to show adequate protection. See Anchor Savs. Bank FSB v. Sky Valley, Inc., 99 B.R. 117, 122 (N.D. Ga. 1989) (“[B]y tacitly consenting to the superpriority lien, those [undersecured] creditors relieved the debtor of having to demonstrate that they were adequately protected.”). Accordingly, the Debtors may incur “priming” liens under the DIP Facilities if either (a) the Prepetition Lenders have consented or (b) Prepetition Lenders’ interests in collateral are adequately protected.

43. Here, the Prepetition Lenders have consented to the DIP Facilities. Therefore, the relief requested pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code is appropriate.

C. No Comparable Alternative to the DIP Facilities Are Reasonably Available

44. A debtor need only demonstrate “by a good faith effort that credit was not available without” the protections afforded to potential lenders by sections 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. In re Snowshoe Co., Inc., 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986); see also In re Plabell Rubber Prods., Inc., 137 B.R. 897, 900 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1992). Moreover, in circumstances where only a few lenders likely can or will extend the necessary credit to a debtor, “it would be unrealistic and unnecessary to require [the debtor] to conduct such an exhaustive search for financing.” In re Sky Valley, Inc., 100 B.R. 107, 113 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988), aff’d sub nom. Anchor Sav. Bank FSB v. Sky Valley, Inc., 99 B.R. 117, 120 n.4 (N.D. Ga. 1989); see also In re Snowshoe Co., 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986) (demonstrating that credit was unavailable absent the senior lien by establishment of unsuccessful contact with other financial institutions in the geographic area); In re Stanley Hotel, Inc., 15 B.R. 660, 663 (D. Colo. 1981) (bankruptcy court’s finding that two national banks refused to grant unsecured loans was sufficient to support conclusion that section 364 requirement was met); In re Ames Dep’t Stores, 115 B.R. at 37–39 (debtor must show that it made reasonable efforts to seek other sources of financing under section 364(a) and (b)).

45. As noted above, the Debtors do not believe that alternative sources of financing are reasonably available given the realities imposed by the Debtors’ existing capital structure and the Debtors’ unsuccessful solicitation of alternative financing proposals. Thus, the Debtors have determined that the DIP Facilities provide the best opportunity available to the Debtors under the circumstances to fund these chapter 11 cases. See Suckow Declaration. Therefore, in addition to evidence to be introduced at the hearing on the Interim Order if necessary, the Debtors submit that the requirement of section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code that alternative credit on more favorable terms be unavailable to the Debtors is satisfied.

II. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Use the Cash Collateral

46. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code generally governs the use of estate property. Section 363(c)(2)(A) permits a debtor in possession to use cash collateral with the consent of the secured party. Here, the Prepetition Lenders consent to the Debtors' use of the Cash Collateral (as well as the Prepetition Collateral), subject to the terms and limitations set forth in the Interim Order.

47. Section 363(e) provides for adequate protection of interests in property when a debtor uses cash collateral. Further, section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for adequate protection of interests in property due to the imposition of the automatic stay. See In re Cont'l Airlines, 91 F.3d 553, 556 (3d Cir. 1996) (en banc). While section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code provides examples of forms of adequate protection, such as granting replacement liens and administrative claims, courts decide what constitutes sufficient adequate protection on a case-by-case basis. In re Martin, 761 F.2d 472, 474 (8th Cir. 1985) (“[S]uch matters ‘are [to be] left to case-by-case interpretation and development.’”); In re Swedeland Dev. Grp., Inc., 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir. 1994); In re Satcon Tech. Corp., No. 12-12869 (KG), 2012 WL 6091160, at *6 (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 7, 2012); In re N.J. Affordable Homes Corp., No. 05-60442 (DHS), 2006 WL 2128624, at *14 (Bankr. D.N.J. June 29, 2006); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., Nos. 91-803, 91-804, 1992 WL 79323, at *2 (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 18, 1992); see also In re Dynaco Corp., 162 B.R. 389, 394 (Bankr. D.N.H. 1993) (citing 2 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 361.01[1] at 361–66 (15th ed. 1993) (explaining that adequate protection can take many forms and “must be determined based upon equitable considerations arising from the particular facts of each proceeding”)).

48. As described more fully above, and as set forth in the Interim Order, the Debtors propose to provide the Prepetition Lenders with a variety of adequate protection to protect against the postpetition diminution in value of the Cash Collateral (as well as the Prepetition Collateral) resulting from the use of the Cash Collateral by the Debtors and the imposition of the automatic stay (collectively, the “Adequate Protection Obligations”):

- continuing valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected postpetition security interests in and liens on the DIP ABL Collateral and the DIP Term Collateral;
- superpriority administrative claims under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;
- the reasonable fees, expenses, and disbursements of the Prepetition Revolver Agent and Prepetition TL First Lien Agent, the Prepetition First Lien TL Ad Hoc Group, each of the foregoing’s respective counsel, counsel retained by any Initial Consenting Lender (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) prior to the Petition Date but subject to the terms and conditions of the Restructuring Support Agreement, and other third-party consultants and vendors, including financial advisors, both prior to and following the Petition Date; and
- with respect to the Prepetition Revolver Parties only, payment of interest, fees, and principal due under the Prepetition Revolver Documents.

49. Therefore, the Debtors submit that the proposed Adequate Protection Obligations are sufficient to protect the Prepetition Lenders from any diminution in value to the Cash Collateral and Prepetition Collateral. In light of the foregoing, the Debtors further submit, and the Prepetition Lenders agree, that the proposed Adequate Protection Obligations to be provided for the benefit of the Prepetition Lenders are appropriate.¹⁶ Thus, the Debtors’ provision of the Adequate Protection Obligations is not only necessary to protect against any diminution in value but is fair and appropriate under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases to ensure the Debtors are able to continue using the Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and limitations set forth in the Interim Order, for the benefit of all parties in interest and their estates.

¹⁶ Pursuant to the DIP Orders, the Prepetition Lenders are permitted to seek additional adequate protection in accordance with the terms thereof.

III. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Pay the Fees Required by the DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders Under the DIP Documents

50. As described above, the Debtors have agreed, subject to Court approval, to pay certain fees to the DIP Lenders in exchange for their providing the DIP Financing. Under the DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors have agreed, subject to Court approval, to pay certain fees to the DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders. In particular, as noted above, the Debtors have agreed to pay:

	ABL DIP Facility	Term DIP Facility
Closing Fees	Tranche A : 1.00% Tranche A-1 : 1.25%	-
Arrangement Fee	Tranche A : 0.25%	-
Commitment Fee	-	2.00%
Unused Commitment Fee	0.375%	-
Backstop Fee	-	3.00%
Exit Fee	-	2.50%
Administration Fee	$150,000	$35,000

51. It is understood and agreed by all parties, including the Debtors that these fees are an integral component of the overall terms of the DIP Facilities, and were required by the applicable DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders as consideration for the extension of postpetition financing. The fees the Debtors have agreed to pay to the DIP Lenders, together with the other provisions of the DIP Documents, represent the most favorable terms to the Debtors on which the DIP Lenders would agree to make the DIP Financing available. The Debtors considered the fees described above when determining, in their sound business judgment, that the DIP

Documents constituted the best terms on which the Debtors could obtain the postpetition financing necessary to continue their operations and prosecute their chapter 11 cases, and that paying these fees in order to obtain the DIP Financing is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, creditors, and other parties in interest. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the Debtors to pay the fees provided under the DIP Documents in connection with entering into those agreements.

IV. The Debtors' Proposed Repayment of Prepetition Indebtedness Should Be Approved

52. As set forth above, the ABL Lenders—as part of the DIP ABL Facilities—have agreed to continue lending on terms similar to those of the Prepetition Revolver Agreement on a postpetition basis. As a condition to this borrowing, the ABL Lenders' required that their prepetition claims are paid (a) pursuant to the Interim Order, with the net proceeds of the DIP ABL Facilities and (b) pursuant to the Final Order, in full. The ABL Lenders made it clear that they were unwilling to continue to lend postpetition without the repayment of their prepetition claims. Further, the Debtors were unable to obtain an offer for debtor-in-possession financing on similar terms that did not provide for such repayment of the Prepetition APL Facility. Thus, after careful consideration of all available alternatives, the Debtors determined that such repayments were necessary to obtain access to the proposed DIP Financing and would benefit their stakeholders. And after accounting for these repayments, the DIP Financing provides the Debtors with $40 million in incremental net liquidity on an interim basis. The Debtors believe that this provision should be approved.

53. Importantly, the Interim Order provides that the Court may unwind, after notice and hearing, any pay down of Prepetition Secured Obligations in the event that there is a timely and successful challenge to the validity, enforceability, extent, perfection, or priority of the applicable Prepetition Secured Party's claims or liens, or a determination that the applicable Prepetition Secured Obligations are under-secured as of the Petition Date, and the pay down of such Prepetition Secured Obligations unduly advantaged the applicable Prepetition Secured Party

54. Recognizing exigent circumstances like those described above, courts in this district, as well as elsewhere, have approved repayments funded by debtor-in-possession financing proceeds in recent chapter 11 cases on an interim basis. See, e.g., In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120-705 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 15, 2016); In re Bakers Footwear Group, Inc., No. 12-49658 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Oct. 5, 2012); In re Avaya Inc., No. 17-10089 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 23, 2017) (approving interim roll-up of $50 million); In re Aéropostale, Inc., No. 16-11275 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 6, 2016) (approving interim roll up of $78 million); In re Chassix Holdings, Inc., No. 15-10578 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 13, 2015) (approving interim roll up of $135 million).¹⁷ Consistent with this authority, the Debtors respectfully submit that the Court should approve the Debtors' decision to enter into the DIP Facilities, including the required repayment of the ABL Facility loans pursuant to the interim order.

55. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code protects a good-faith lender's right to collect on loans extended to a debtor, and its right in any lien securing those loans, even if the authority of the debtor to obtain such loans or grant such liens is later reversed or modified on appeal. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section [364 of the Bankruptcy Code] to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

56. As explained herein, and in the Suckow Declaration, the DIP Documents are the result of: (a) the Debtors' reasonable and informed determination that the DIP Lenders offered the most favorable terms on which to obtain vital postpetition financing, and (b) arms'-length, good-faith negotiations between the Debtors and the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders. The Debtors submit that the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances, and the proceeds of the DIP Facilities will be used only for purposes that are permissible under the Bankruptcy Code. Further, no consideration is being provided to any party to the DIP Documents other than as described herein. Accordingly, the Court should find that the DIP Lenders are "good faith" lenders within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and are entitled to all of the protections afforded by that section.

VI. The Automatic Stay Should Be Modified on a Limited Basis

57. The proposed Interim Order provides that the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code will be modified to allow the DIP Lenders to file any financing statements, security agreements, notices of liens, and other similar instruments and documents in order to validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them under the Interim Order. The proposed Interim Order further provides that the automatic stay is modified as necessary to permit the Debtors to grant the DIP Liens to the DIP Lenders and to incur all liabilities and obligations set forth in the Interim Order. Finally, the proposed Interim Order provides that, following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the automatic stay shall be vacated and modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agents to exercise all rights and remedies in accordance with the DIP Documents, or applicable law.

58. Stay modifications of this kind are ordinary and standard features of debtor-in-possession financing arrangements, and, in the Debtors' business judgment, are reasonable and fair under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Magnum Hunter Res. Corp., No. 15-12533 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 15, 2015) (terminating automatic stay after event of default); In re Peak Broad., LLC, No. 12-10183 (PJW) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 2, 2012) (same); In re Autoseis, Inc., No. 14-20130 (RSS) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Mar. 27, 2014) (modifying automatic stay as necessary to effectuate the terms of the order); In re TMP Directional Mktg., LLC, No. 11-13835 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 17, 2012) (same); In re Broadway 401 LLC, No. 10-10070 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 16, 2010) (same).

VII. Failure to Obtain Immediate Interim Access to the DIP Facilities and Cash Collateral Would Cause Immediate and Irreparable Harm

59. Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and 4001(c) provide that a final hearing on a motion to obtain credit pursuant to section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or to use cash collateral pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code may not be commenced earlier than 14 days after the service of such motion. Upon request, however, the Court may conduct a preliminary, expedited hearing on the motion and authorize the obtaining of credit and use of cash collateral to the extent necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to a debtor's estate.

60. For the reasons noted above, the Debtors have an immediate postpetition need to use Cash Collateral, including making draws under the DIP ABL Facilities. The Debtors cannot maintain the value of their estates during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases without access to cash. The Debtors will use cash to, among other things, fund the administration of these chapter 11 cases, pay prepetition amounts owed under the ABL Facility, and fund the operation of their business. The Debtors believe that substantially all of their available cash constitutes the Prepetition Lenders' Cash Collateral. The Debtors will therefore be unable to operate their business or otherwise fund these chapter 11 cases without access to Cash Collateral, and will suffer immediate and irreparable harm to the detriment of all creditors and other parties in interest. In short, the Debtors' ability to administer these chapter 11 cases through the use of Cash Collateral is vital to preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' estates.

61. The Debtors request that the Court hold and conduct a hearing to consider entry of the Interim Order authorizing the Debtors, from and after entry of the Interim Order until the Final Hearing, to receive initial funding under the DIP Facilities and access to Cash Collateral. The Debtors' believe that this relief will enable the Debtors to preserve and maximize value and, therefore, avoid immediate and irreparable harm and prejudice to their estates and all parties in interest, pending the Final Hearing. See Suckow Declaration.

Request for Final Hearing

62. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and 4001(c)(2), the Debtors request that the Court set a date for the Final Hearing that is as soon as practicable, and in no event after 35 days after the Petition Date, and fix the time and date prior to the Final Hearing for parties to file objections to this Motion.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

63. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Notice

64. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent;

(d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn. Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (j) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (k) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; and (p) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

65. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the DIP Orders, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

If the Lead Borrower fails to make such additional request via the Portal as required pursuant to clause (ii) of the foregoing sentence, then the Borrowers shall be responsible for all amounts due pursuant to Section 3.05 hereof arising on account of such failure. If the Lead Borrower fails to give a timely notice with respect to any continuation of a LIBO Rate Loan, then the applicable Committed Loans shall be converted to Base Rate Loans, effective as of the last day of the Interest Period then in effect with respect to the applicable LIBO Rate Loans.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, from and after the Tranche A-1 Funding Date, the Borrowers shall not request, and the Tranche A Lenders shall be under no obligation to fund, any Tranche A Loan unless the Borrowers have borrowed the full amount available under the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments. If any Tranche A-1 Loan is prepaid in whole or part pursuant to Section 2.05, any Committed Loans to the Borrowers thereafter requested shall automatically be Tranche A-1 Loans until the maximum principal amount of Tranche A-1 Loans outstanding equals the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments and thereafter shall be Tranche A Loans.

(d) The Agent shall promptly notify each Lender of the amount of its Applicable Percentage of the applicable Committed Loans, and if no timely notice of a conversion or continuation is provided by the Lead Borrower, the Agent shall notify each Lender of the details of any automatic conversion to Base Rate Loans described in Section 2.02(b). In the case of a Committed Borrowing, each Lender shall make the amount of its Committed Loan available to the Agent in immediately available funds at the Agent's Office not later than 1:00 p.m. on the Business Day specified in the applicable notice; provided that, in the case of a Base Rate Loan, Agent gives each Lender notice of the making of such Loan no later than 11:00 a.m. of such Business Day. Upon satisfaction of the applicable conditions set forth in Section 4.02 (and, if such Borrowing is the initial Credit Extension, Section 4.01), the Agent shall use reasonable efforts to make all funds so received available to the Borrowers in like funds by no later than 4:00 p.m. on the day of receipt by the Agent either by (i) crediting the account of the Lead Borrower on the books of Wells Fargo with the amount of such funds or (ii) wire transfer of such funds, in each case in accordance with instructions provided to (and reasonably acceptable to) the Agent by the Lead Borrower.

(e) Each Borrowing of Tranche A Loans (other than Swing Line Loans) shall be made by the Tranche A Lenders pro rata in accordance with their respective Tranche A Applicable Percentage and each Borrowing of Tranche A-1 Loans shall be made by the Tranche A-1 Lenders pro rata in accordance with their respective Tranche A-1 Applicable Percentage. The failure of any Lender to make any Loan shall neither relieve any other Lender of its obligation to fund its Loan in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement nor increase the obligation of any such other Lender.

(f) The Agent, without the request of the Lead Borrower, may advance any interest, fee, service charge (including direct wire fees), Credit Party Expenses, or other payment to which any Credit Party is entitled from the Loan Parties pursuant hereto or any other Loan Document and may charge the same to the Loan Account notwithstanding that an Overadvance may result thereby (provided, that after giving effect to such Overadvance, the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Tranche A Loans, Swing Line Loans, and L/C Obligations shall not exceed the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments minus the Tranche A Pre-Petition Reserve). The Agent shall advise in writing the Lead Borrower of any such advance or charge promptly after the making thereof. Such action on the part of the Agent shall not constitute a waiver of the Agent's rights and the Borrowers' obligations under Section 2.05(c). Any amount which is added to the principal balance of the Loan Account as provided in this Section 2.02(f) shall bear interest at the interest rate then and thereafter applicable to Base Rate Loans.

(g) Except as otherwise provided herein, a LIBO Rate Loan may be continued or converted only on the last day of an Interest Period for such LIBO Rate Loan. During the existence of a Default or an Event of Default, no Loans may be requested as, converted to or continued as LIBO Rate Loans without the consent of the Required Lenders.

(h) The Agent shall promptly notify in writing the Lead Borrower and the Lenders of the interest rate applicable to any Interest Period for LIBO Rate Loans upon determination of such interest rate. At any time that Base Rate Loans are outstanding, the Agent shall notify in writing the Lead Borrower and the Lenders of any change in Wells Fargo's prime rate used in determining the Base Rate promptly following the public announcement of such change.

(i) After giving effect to all Committed Borrowings, all conversions of Committed Loans from one Type to the other, and all continuations of Committed Loans as the same Type, there shall not be more than ten (10) Interest Periods in effect with respect to LIBO Rate Loans.

(j) The Agent, the Lenders, the Swing Line Lender and the L/C Issuer shall have no obligation to make any Loan or to provide any Letter of Credit if an Overadvance would result. The Agent may, in its discretion, make Permitted Overadvances without the consent of the Borrowers, the Lenders, the Swing Line Lender and the L/C Issuer and the Borrowers and each Lender and L/C Issuer shall be bound thereby. Any Permitted Overadvance may constitute a Swing Line Loan. A Permitted Overadvance is for the account of the Borrowers and shall constitute a Base Rate Loan and an Obligation and shall be repaid by the Borrowers in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.05(c). The making of any such Permitted Overadvance on any one occasion shall not obligate the Agent or any Lender to make or permit any Permitted Overadvance on any other occasion or to permit such Permitted Overadvances to remain outstanding. The making by the Agent of a Permitted Overadvance shall not modify or abrogate any of the provisions of Section 2.03 regarding the Tranche A Lenders' obligations to purchase participations with respect to Letter of Credits or of Section 2.04 regarding the Tranche A Lenders' obligations to purchase participations with respect to Swing Line Loans. The Agent shall have no liability for, and no Loan Party or Credit Party shall have the right to, or shall, bring any claim of any kind whatsoever against the Agent with respect to Unintentional Overadvances regardless of the amount of any such Overadvance(s).

2.03 Letters of Credit.

(a) The Letter of Credit Commitment.

(i) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, (A) the L/C Issuer agrees, in reliance upon the agreements of the Tranche A Lenders set forth in this Section 2.03, (1) from time to time on any Business Day during the period from the Closing Date until the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, to issue Letters of Credit for the account of the Borrowers, and to amend or extend Letters of Credit previously issued by it, in accordance with Section 2.03(b) below, and (2) to honor drawings under the Letters of Credit; and (B) the Tranche A Lenders severally agree to participate in Letters of Credit issued for the account of the Borrowers and any drawings thereunder; provided that after giving effect to any L/C Credit Extension with respect to any Letter of Credit, (x) the Total Outstandings shall not exceed the sum of the Tranche A Loan Cap plus, from and after the Tranche A-1 Funding Date, the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments, (y) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A Loans of any Tranche A Lender, plus such Lender's Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations, plus such Tranche A Lender's Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of all Swing Line Loans shall not exceed such Tranche A Lender's Commitment minus the Tranche A Pre-Petition Reserve, and (z) the Outstanding Amount of the L/C Obligations shall not exceed the Letter of Credit Sublimit. Each request by the Lead Borrower for the issuance or amendment of a Letter of Credit shall be deemed to be a representation by the Borrowers that the L/C Credit Extension so requested complies with the conditions set forth in the proviso to the preceding sentence. Within the foregoing limits, and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Borrowers' ability to obtain Letters of Credit shall be fully revolving, and accordingly the Borrowers may, during the foregoing period, obtain Letters of Credit to replace Letters of Credit that have expired or that have been drawn upon and reimbursed or Cash Collateralized. Any L/C Issuer (other than Wells Fargo or any of its Affiliates) shall notify the Agent in writing on each Business Day of all Letters of Credit issued on the prior Business Day by such L/C Issuer, provided that until the Agent advises any such L/C Issuer that the provisions of Section 4.02 are not satisfied, such L/C Issuer shall be required to so notify the Agent in writing only once each week of the Letters of Credit issued by such L/C Issuer during the immediately preceding week as well as the daily amounts outstanding for the prior week, such notice to be furnished on such day of the week as the Agent and such L/C Issuer may agree. All Existing Letters of Credit shall be deemed to have been issued pursuant hereto, and from and after the Closing Date shall be subject to and governed by the terms and conditions hereof.

(ii) No Letter of Credit shall be issued if:

(A) subject to Section 2.03(b)(iii), the expiry date of such requested Standby Letter of Credit would occur more than twelve months after the date of issuance or last extension, unless the Required Lenders have approved such expiry date; or

(B) subject to Section 2.03(b)(iii), the expiry date of such requested Commercial Letter of Credit would occur more than 150 days after the date of issuance or last extension, unless the Required Lenders have approved such expiry date; or

(C) the expiry date of such requested Letter of Credit would occur after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, unless either such Letter of Credit is Cash Collateralized on or prior to the date of issuance of such Letter of Credit (or such later date as to which the Agent may agree) or all the Lenders have approved such expiry date.

(iii) No Letter of Credit shall be issued without the prior consent of the Agent if:

(A) any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall by its terms purport to enjoin or restrain the L/C Issuer from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any Law applicable to the L/C Issuer or any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the L/C Issuer shall prohibit, or request that the L/C Issuer refrain from, the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit in particular or shall impose upon the L/C Issuer with respect to such Letter of Credit any restriction, reserve or capital requirement (for which the L/C Issuer is not otherwise compensated hereunder) not in effect on the Closing Date, or shall impose upon the L/C Issuer any unreimbursed loss, cost or expense which was not applicable on the Closing Date and which the L/C Issuer in good faith deems material to it;

(B) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate one or more policies of the L/C Issuer applicable to letters of credit generally;

(C) except as otherwise agreed by the Agent and the L/C Issuer, such Letter of Credit is in an initial Stated Amount less than $100,000;

(D) such Letter of Credit is to be denominated in a currency other than Dollars; provided that if the L/C Issuer, in its discretion, issues a Letter of Credit denominated in a currency other than Dollars, all reimbursements by the Borrowers of the honoring of any drawing under such Letter of Credit shall be paid in Dollars based on the Spot Rate; provided that the aggregate Stated Amount of all Letters of Credit denominated in any currency other than Dollars shall not exceed $15,000,000 at any one time;

(E) such Letter of Credit contains any provisions for automatic reinstatement of the Stated Amount after any drawing thereunder; or

(F) a default of any Tranche A Lender's obligations to fund under Section 2.03(c) exists or any Tranche A Lender is at such time a Defaulting Lender hereunder, unless the Agent or L/C Issuer has entered into satisfactory arrangements with the Borrowers or such Tranche A Lender to eliminate the L/C Issuer's risk with respect to such Tranche A Lender.

(iv) The L/C Issuer shall not amend any Letter of Credit if (A) the L/C Issuer would not be permitted at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its amended form under the terms hereof or (B) the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit does not accept the proposed amendment to such Letter of Credit.

(v) The L/C Issuer shall act on behalf of the Tranche A Lenders with respect to any Letters of Credit issued by it and the documents associated therewith, and the L/C Issuer shall have all of the benefits and immunities (A) provided to the Agent in Article IX with respect to any acts taken or omissions suffered by the L/C Issuer in connection with Letters of Credit issued by it or proposed to be issued by it and Issuer Documents pertaining to such Letters of Credit as fully as if the term "Agent" as used in Article IX. included the L/C Issuer with respect to such acts or omissions, and (B) as additionally provided herein with respect to the L/C Issuer.

(b) Procedures for Issuance and Amendment of Letters of Credit Auto-Extension Letters of Credit.

(i) Each Letter of Credit shall be issued or amended, as the case may be, upon the request of the Lead Borrower delivered to the L/C Issuer (with a copy to the Agent (unless the Agent is the same Person as, or an Affiliate of, the L/C Issuer)) in the form of a Letter of Credit Application, appropriately completed and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Lead Borrower. Such Letter of Credit Application must be received by the L/C Issuer and the Agent not later than 11:00 a.m. at least two Business Days (or such other date and time as the Agent and the L/C Issuer may agree in a particular instance in their sole discretion) prior to the proposed issuance date or date of amendment, as the case may be. In the case of a request for an initial issuance of a Letter of Credit, such Letter of Credit Application shall specify in form and detail reasonably satisfactory to the Agent and the L/C Issuer: (A) the proposed issuance date of the requested Letter of Credit (which shall be a Business Day); (B) the amount thereof; (C) the expiry date thereof; (D) the name and address of the beneficiary thereof; (E) the documents to be presented by such beneficiary in case of any drawing thereunder; (F) the full text of any certificate to be presented by such beneficiary in case of any drawing thereunder; and (G) such other matters as the Agent or L/C Issuer may reasonably require. In the case of a request for an amendment of any outstanding Letter of Credit, such Letter of Credit Application shall specify in form and detail reasonably satisfactory to the Agent and the L/C Issuer (A) the Letter of Credit to be amended; (B) the proposed date of amendment thereof (which shall be a Business Day); (C) the nature of the proposed amendment; and (D) such other matters as the Agent or the L/C Issuer may reasonably require. Additionally, the Lead Borrower shall furnish to the L/C Issuer and the Agent such other documents and information pertaining to such requested Letter of Credit issuance or amendment, and any Issuer Documents (including, if requested by the L/C Issuer, a Standby Letter of Credit Agreement or Commercial Letter of Credit Agreement, as applicable), as the L/C Issuer or the Agent may reasonably require.

(ii) Promptly after receipt of any Letter of Credit Application, the L/C Issuer will confirm with the Agent (by telephone or in writing) that the Agent has received a copy of such Letter of Credit Application from the Lead Borrower and, if not, the L/C Issuer will provide the Agent with a copy thereof. Unless the L/C Issuer has received written notice from any Tranche A Lender, the Agent or any Loan Party, at least one Business Day prior to the requested date of issuance or amendment of the applicable Letter of Credit, that one or more applicable conditions contained in Article IV shall not then be satisfied or unless the L/C Issuer would not be permitted, or would have no obligation, at such time to issue such Letter of Credit under the terms hereof (by reason of the provisions of clause (ii) or (iii) of Section 2.03(a) or otherwise), then, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the L/C Issuer shall, on the requested date, issue a Letter of Credit for the account of the applicable Loan Party or enter into the applicable amendment, as the case may be, in each case in accordance with the L/C Issuer's usual and customary business practices. Immediately upon the issuance or amendment of each Letter of Credit, each Lender shall be deemed to (without any further action), and hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to, purchase from the L/C Issuer, without recourse or warranty, a risk participation in such Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the product of such Tranche A Lender's Tranche A Applicable Percentage times the Stated Amount of such Letter of Credit. Upon any change in the Tranche A Commitments under this Agreement, it is hereby agreed that with respect to all L/C Obligations, there shall be an automatic adjustment to the participations hereby created to reflect the new Tranche A Applicable Percentages of the assigning and assignee Tranche A Lenders.

(iii) If the Lead Borrower so requests in any applicable Letter of Credit Application, the L/C Issuer may, in its sole and absolute discretion, agree to issue a Standby Letter of Credit that has automatic extension provisions (each, an "Auto-Extension Letter of Credit"); provided that any such Auto-Extension Letter of Credit must permit the L/C Issuer to prevent any such extension at least once in each twelve-month period (commencing with the date of issuance of such Standby Letter of Credit) by giving prior written notice to the beneficiary thereof not later than a day (the "Non-Extension Notice Date") in each such twelve-month period to be agreed upon at the time such Standby Letter of Credit is issued. Unless otherwise directed by the Agent or the L/C Issuer, the Lead Borrower shall not be required to make a specific request to the Agent or the L/C Issuer for any such extension. Once an Auto-Extension Letter of Credit has been issued, the Tranche A Lenders shall be deemed to have authorized (but may not require) the L/C Issuer to permit the extension of such Standby Letter of Credit at any time to an expiry date not later than the Letter of Credit Expiration Date; provided, however, that the Agent shall instruct the L/C Issuer not to permit any such extension if (A) the L/C Issuer has determined that it would not be permitted, or would have no obligation, at such time to issue such Standby Letter of Credit in its revised form (as extended) under the terms hereof (by reason of the provisions of clause (ii) or (iii) of Section 2.03(a) or otherwise), or (B) the L/C Issuer has received notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) on or before the day that is five Business Days before the Non-Extension Notice Date (1) from the Agent that the Required Lenders have elected not to permit such extension or (2) from the Agent, any Lender or the Lead Borrower that one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Section 4.02 is not then satisfied, and in each such case directing the L/C Issuer not to permit such extension.

(iv) Promptly after its delivery of any Letter of Credit or any amendment to a Letter of Credit to an advising bank with respect thereto or to the beneficiary thereof, the L/C Issuer will also deliver to the Lead Borrower and the Agent a true and complete copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment.

(c) Drawings and Reimbursements; Funding of Participations.

(i) Upon receipt from the beneficiary of any Letter of Credit of any notice of a drawing under such Letter of Credit, the L/C Issuer shall notify the Lead Borrower and the Agent thereof not less than two (2) Business Days prior to the Honor Date (as defined below); provided, however, that any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve the Borrowers of their obligation to reimburse the L/C Issuer and the Tranche A Lenders with respect to any such payment. On the date of any payment by the L/C Issuer under a Letter of Credit (each such date, an "Honor Date"), the Borrowers shall be deemed to have requested a Borrowing of Tranche A Loans constituting Base Rate Loans to be disbursed on the Honor Date in an amount equal to the amount of such payment, without regard to the minimum and multiples specified in Section 2.02(b) for the principal amount of Base Rate Loans, and without regard to whether the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 have been met. Any notice given by the L/C Issuer or the Agent pursuant to this Section 2.03(c)(i) may be given by telephone if immediately confirmed in writing; provided that the lack of such an immediate confirmation shall not affect the conclusiveness or binding effect of such notice.

(ii) Each Tranche A Lender's obligation to make Committed Loans to reimburse the L/C Issuer for amounts drawn under Letters of Credit, as contemplated by this Section 2.03, shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance, including (A) any setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other right which such Tranche A Lender may have against the L/C Issuer, any Loan Party or any other Person for any reason whatsoever; (B) the occurrence or continuance of a Default or Event of Default, or (C) any other occurrence, event or condition, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, and without regard to whether the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 have been met; provided, however, the Tranche A Lenders shall be under no obligation to make Committed Loans to reimburse the L/C Issuer for amounts drawn under Letters of Credit unless the Borrowers have borrowed the full amount available under the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments.

(d) Repayment of Participations. If any payment received by the L/C Issuer pursuant to Section 2.03(c) is required to be returned under any of the circumstances described in Section 10.05 (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by the L/C Issuer in its discretion), each Tranche A Lender shall pay to the Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer its Tranche A Applicable Percentage thereof on demand of the Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such amount is returned by such Tranche A Lender, at a rate per annum equal to the Federal Funds Rate from time to time in effect. The obligations of the Tranche A Lenders under this clause (d) shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

(e) Obligations Absolute. The obligation of the Borrowers to reimburse the L/C Issuer for each drawing under each Letter of Credit shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be paid strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under all circumstances, including the following:

(i) any lack of validity or enforceability of such Letter of Credit, this Agreement, or any other Loan Document;

(ii) the existence of any claim, counterclaim, setoff, defense or other right that the Borrowers or any Subsidiary may have at any time against any beneficiary or any transferee of such Letter of Credit (or any Person for whom any such beneficiary or any such transferee may be acting), the L/C Issuer or any other Person, whether in connection with this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or by such Letter of Credit or any agreement or instrument relating thereto, or any unrelated transaction;

(iii) any draft, demand, certificate or other document presented under such Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect; or any loss or delay in the transmission or otherwise of any document required in order to make a drawing under such Letter of Credit;

(iv) any payment by the L/C Issuer under such Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or certificate that does not strictly comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit; or any payment made by the L/C Issuer under such Letter of Credit to any Person purporting to be a trustee in bankruptcy, debtor-in-possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors, liquidator, receiver or other representative of or successor to any beneficiary or any transferee of such Letter of Credit, including any arising in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law;

(v) any other circumstance or happening whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, including any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, the Borrowers or any of their Subsidiaries (other than any defense of prior reimbursement of any such drawing under such Letter of Credit); or

(vi) the fact that any Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

The Lead Borrower shall promptly examine a copy of each Letter of Credit and each amendment thereto that is delivered to it and, in the event of any claim of noncompliance with the Lead Borrower's instructions or other irregularity, the Lead Borrower will immediately notify the Agent and the L/C Issuer. The Borrowers shall be conclusively deemed to have waived any such claim against the L/C Issuer and its correspondents unless such notice is given as aforesaid.

(f) Role of L/C Issuer. Each Tranche A Lender and the Borrowers agree that, in paying any drawing under a Letter of Credit, the L/C Issuer shall not have any responsibility to obtain any document (other than any sight draft, certificates and documents expressly required by the Letter of Credit) or to ascertain or inquire as to the validity or accuracy of any such document or the authority of the Person executing or delivering any such document. None of the L/C Issuer, the Agent, any of their respective Related Parties nor any correspondent, participant or assignee of the L/C Issuer shall be liable to any Tranche A Lender for (i) any action taken or omitted in connection herewith at the request or with the approval of the Lenders or the Required Lenders, as applicable; (ii) any action taken or omitted in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct; (iii) any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit or any error in interpretation of technical terms; or (iv) the due execution, effectiveness, validity or enforceability of any document or instrument related to any Letter of Credit or Issuer Document. The Borrowers hereby assume all risks of the acts or omissions of any beneficiary or transferee with respect to its use of any Letter of Credit other than acts determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have directly resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such L/C Issuer or its Related Parties; provided, however, that this assumption is not intended to, and shall not, preclude the Borrowers' pursuing such rights and remedies as it may have against the beneficiary or transferee at law or under any other agreement. None of the L/C Issuer, the Agent, any of their respective Related Parties nor any correspondent, participant or assignee of the L/C Issuer shall be liable or responsible for any of the matters described in clauses (i) through (v) of Section 2.03(e) or for any action, neglect or omission under or in connection with any Letter of Credit or Issuer Documents, including, without limitation, the issuance or any amendment of any Letter of Credit, the failure to issue or amend any Letter of Credit, or the honoring or dishonoring of any demand under any Letter of Credit, and such action or neglect or omission will bind the Borrowers; provided, however, that anything in such clauses to the contrary notwithstanding, the Borrowers may have a claim against the L/C Issuer, and the L/C Issuer may be liable to the Borrowers, to the extent, but only to the extent, of any direct, as opposed to consequential, exemplary or punitive damages suffered by the Borrowers which the Borrowers prove were caused by the L/C Issuer's or its Related Parties' willful misconduct or gross negligence or the L/C Issuer's willful failure to pay under any Letter of Credit after the presentation to it by the beneficiary of a sight draft and certificate(s) strictly complying with the terms and conditions of a Letter of Credit; provided further, however, that any claim against the L/C Issuer by the Borrowers for any loss suffered or incurred by the Borrowers shall be reduced by an amount equal to the sum of (i) the amount (if any) saved by the Borrowers as a result of the breach or other wrongful conduct that allegedly caused such loss, and (ii) the amount (if any) of the loss that would have been avoided had the Borrowers taken all reasonable steps to mitigate such loss, including, without limitation, by enforcing their rights against any beneficiary and, in case of a claim of wrongful dishonor, by specifically and timely authorizing the L/C Issuer to cure such dishonor. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, the L/C Issuer may accept documents that appear on their face to be in order, without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary (or the L/C Issuer may refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit and may disregard any requirement in a Letter of Credit that notice of dishonor be given in a particular manner and any requirement that presentation be made at a particular place or by a particular time of day), and the L/C Issuer shall not be responsible for the validity or sufficiency of any instrument transferring or assigning or purporting to transfer or assign a Letter of Credit or the rights or benefits thereunder or proceeds thereof, in whole or in part, which may prove to be invalid or ineffective for any reason. The L/C Issuer shall not be responsible for the wording of any Letter of Credit (including, without limitation, any drawing conditions or any terms or conditions that are ineffective, ambiguous, inconsistent, unduly complicated or reasonably impossible to satisfy), notwithstanding any assistance the L/C Issuer may provide to the Borrowers with drafting or recommending text for any Letter of Credit Application or with the structuring of any transaction related to any Letter of Credit, and the Borrowers hereby acknowledge and agree that any such assistance will not constitute legal or other advice by the L/C Issuer or any representation or warranty by the L/C Issuer that any such wording or such Letter of Credit will be effective. Without limiting the foregoing, the L/C Issuer may, as it deems appropriate, modify or alter and use in any Letter of Credit the terminology contained on the Letter of Credit Application for such Letter of Credit.

(g) Cash Collateral. Upon the request of the Agent, (i) if the L/C Issuer has honored any full or partial drawing request under any Letter of Credit and such drawing has resulted in an L/C Obligation that remains outstanding, or (ii) if, as of the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, any L/C Obligation for any reason remains outstanding, the Borrowers shall, in each case, immediately Cash Collateralize the then Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations. Sections 2.05(c) and 8.02(a)(iii) set forth certain additional requirements to deliver Cash Collateral hereunder. For purposes of this Section 2.03, Section 2.05(c) and Section 8.02(a)(iii), "Cash Collateralize" means to pledge and deposit with or deliver to the Agent, for the benefit of the L/C Issuer and the Lenders, as collateral for the L/C Obligations, cash or deposit account balances in an amount equal to 103% of the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations (other than L/C Obligations with respect to Letters of Credit denominated in a currency other than Dollars, which L/C Obligations shall be Cash Collateralized in an amount equal to 113% of the Outstanding Amount of such L/C Obligations), pursuant to documentation in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Agent and the L/C Issuer (which documents need not be consented to by any of the Lenders). The Borrowers hereby grant to the Agent a security interest in the Cash Collateral Account and all proceeds of the foregoing (until such time that any Cash Collateral is released by Agent or the L/C Issuer to any Loan Party). Cash Collateral shall be maintained in a Cash Collateral Account, interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. If at any time the Agent determines, in its Permitted Discretion, that any funds held as Cash Collateral are subject to any right or claim of any Person other than the Agent or that the total amount of such funds is less than the aggregate Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations, the Borrowers will, forthwith upon written demand by the Agent, pay to the Agent, as additional funds to be deposited as Cash Collateral, an amount equal to the excess of (x) such aggregate Outstanding Amount over (y) the total amount of funds, if any, then held as Cash Collateral that the Agent reasonably determines to be free and clear of any such right and claim. Upon the drawing of any Letter of Credit for which funds are on deposit as Cash Collateral, such funds shall be applied, to the extent permitted under applicable Laws, to reimburse the L/C Issuer and, to the extent not so applied, shall thereafter be applied to satisfy other Obligations in accordance herewith.

(h) Applicability of ISP and UCP 600. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by the L/C Issuer and the Lead Borrower when a Letter of Credit is issued (including any such agreement applicable to an Existing Letter of Credit), (i) the rules of the ISP and the UCP 600 shall apply to each Standby Letter of Credit, and (ii) the rules of the UCP 600 shall apply to each Commercial Letter of Credit.

(i) Letter of Credit Fees. The Borrowers shall pay to the Agent for the account of each Tranche A Lender in accordance with its Tranche A Applicable Percentage a Letter of Credit fee (the "Letter of Credit Fee") for each Letter of Credit equal to the Applicable Margin times the daily Stated Amount under each such Letter of Credit (whether or not such maximum amount is then in effect under such Letter of Credit). For purposes of computing the daily amount available to be drawn under any Letter of Credit, the amount of the Letter of Credit shall be determined in accordance with Section 1.06. Letter of Credit Fees shall be (i) due and payable on the first day (unless such Letter of Credit Fee is not charged to the Loan Account, in which case, such Letter of Credit Fee shall be payable on the first Business Day) after the end of each Fiscal Quarter commencing with the first such date to occur after the issuance of such Letter of Credit, on the Letter of Credit Expiration Date and thereafter on demand, and (ii) computed on a quarterly basis in arrears. If there is any change in the Applicable Margin during any quarter, the daily amount available to be drawn under of each Letter of Credit shall be computed and multiplied by the Applicable Margin separately for each period during such quarter that such Applicable Margin was in effect. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, while any Event of Default exists, at the election of Agent or the Required Lenders after delivering written notice of such election to the Lead Borrower, all Letter of Credit Fees shall accrue at the Default Rate as provided in Section 2.08(c) hereof.

(j) Fronting Fee and Documentary and Processing Charges Payable to L/C Issuer. The Borrowers shall pay directly to the L/C Issuer, for its own account, a fronting fee (the "Fronting Fee") (i) with respect to each Commercial Letter of Credit, at a rate equal to 0.125% per annum, computed on the amount of such Letter of Credit, and payable upon the issuance or amendment thereof, and (ii) with respect to each Standby Letter of Credit, at a rate equal to 0.125% per annum, computed on the daily amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit and on a quarterly basis in arrears. Such Fronting Fees shall be due and payable on the first day (unless such Fronting Fee is not charged to the Loan Account, in which case, such Fronting Fee shall be payable on the first Business Day) after the end of each Fiscal Quarter, commencing with the first such date to occur after the issuance of such Letter of Credit, on the Letter of Credit Expiration Date and thereafter on demand. For purposes of computing the daily amount available to be drawn under any Letter of Credit, the amount of the Letter of Credit shall be determined in accordance with Section 1.06. In addition, the Borrowers shall pay directly to the L/C Issuer, for its own account, the customary issuance, presentation, amendment and other processing fees, and other standard costs and charges, of the L/C Issuer relating to letters of credit as from time to time in effect. Such customary fees and standard costs and charges are due and payable on demand and are nonrefundable.

(k) Conflict with Issuer Documents. In the event of any conflict between the terms hereof and the terms of any Issuer Document, the terms hereof shall control.

2.04 Swing Line Loans.

(a) The Swing Line. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Swing Line Lender may, in reliance upon the agreements of the Tranche A Lenders set forth in this Section 2.04, make loans (each such loan, a “Swing Line Loan”) to the Borrowers from time to time on any Business Day during the Availability Period in an aggregate amount not to exceed at any time outstanding the amount of the Swing Line Sublimit, notwithstanding the fact that such Swing Line Loans, when aggregated with the Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of Tranche A Loans and L/C Obligations of the Tranche A Lender acting as Swing Line Lender, may exceed the amount of such Tranche A Lender’s Tranche A Commitment minus the Tranche A Pre-Petition Reserve; provided, however, that after giving effect to any Swing Line Loan, (i) the Total Outstandings shall not exceed the sum of the Tranche A Loan Cap plus, from and after the Tranche A-1 Funding Date, the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments, and (ii) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A Loans of any Tranche A Lender at such time, plus such Tranche A Lender’s Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations at such time, plus such Tranche A Lender’s Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of all Swing Line Loans at such time shall not exceed such Tranche A Lender’s Tranche A Commitment minus the Tranche A Pre-Petition Reserve, and provided, further, that the Borrowers shall not use the proceeds of any Swing Line Loan to refinance any outstanding Swing Line Loan, and provided further that the Swing Line Lender shall not be obligated to make any Swing Line Loan at any time when any Lender is at such time a Defaulting Lender hereunder, unless the Swing Line Lender has entered into reasonably satisfactory arrangements with the Borrower or such Lender to eliminate the Swing Line Lender’s risk with respect to such Lender. Within the foregoing limits, and subject to the other terms and conditions hereof, the Borrowers may borrow under this Section 2.04, prepay under Section 2.05(c), and reborrow under this Section 2.04. Each Swing Line Loan shall bear interest only at the rate applicable to Base Rate Loans. Immediately upon the making of a Swing Line Loan, each Lender shall be deemed to, and hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to, purchase from the Swing Line Lender a risk participation in such Swing Line Loan in an amount equal to the product of such Lender’s Applicable Percentage times the amount of such Swing Line Loan. The Swing Line Lender shall have all of the benefits and immunities (A) provided to the Agent in Article IX with respect to any acts taken or omissions suffered by the Swing Line Lender in connection with Swing Line Loans made by it or proposed to be made by it as if the term “Agent” as used in Article IX included the Swing Line Lender with respect to such acts or omissions, and (B) as additionally provided herein with respect to the Swing Line Lender.

(b) Borrowing Procedures. Each Swing Line Borrowing shall be made upon the Lead Borrower’s irrevocable notice to the Swing Line Lender and the Agent, which may be given by telephone. Each such notice must be received by the Swing Line Lender and the Agent not later than 1:00 p.m. on the requested borrowing date, and shall specify (i) the amount to be borrowed, which shall be a minimum of $100,000, and (ii) the requested borrowing date, which shall be a Business Day. Each such telephonic notice must be confirmed promptly by delivery to the Swing Line Lender and the Agent of a written Swing Line Loan Notice, appropriately completed and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Lead Borrower. Promptly after receipt by the Swing Line Lender of any telephonic Swing Line Loan Notice, the Swing Line Lender will confirm with the Agent (by telephone or in writing) that the Agent has also received such Swing Line Loan Notice and, if not, the Swing Line Lender will notify the Agent (by telephone or in writing) of the contents thereof. Unless the Swing Line Lender has received notice (by telephone or in writing) from the Agent at the request of the Required Lenders prior to 2:00 p.m. on the date of the proposed Swing Line Borrowing (A) directing the Swing Line Lender not to make such Swing Line Loan as a result of the limitations set forth in the proviso to the first sentence of Section 2.04(a), or (B) that one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Article IV is not then satisfied, then, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Swing Line Lender may, not later than 3:00 p.m. on the borrowing date specified in such Swing Line Loan Notice, make the amount of its Swing Line Loan available to the Borrowers at its office by crediting the account of the Lead Borrower on the books of the Swing Line Lender in immediately available funds.

(c) Refinancing of Swing Line Loans.

(i) The Swing Line Lender at any time in its sole and absolute discretion may request, on behalf of the Borrowers (which hereby irrevocably authorize the Swing Line Lender to so request on their behalf), that each Tranche A Lender make a Base Rate Loan in an amount equal to such Tranche A Lender's Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the amount of Swing Line Loans then outstanding. Such request shall be made in accordance with the requirements of Section 2.02, without regard to the minimum and multiples specified therein for the principal amount of Base Rate Loans, but subject to the unutilized portion of the Tranche A Loan Cap and the conditions set forth in Section 4.02. Each Tranche A Lender shall make an amount equal to its Tranche A Applicable Percentage of the amount of such outstanding Swing Line Loan available to the Agent in immediately available funds for the account of the Swing Line Lender at the Agent's Office not later than 1:00 p.m. on the date specified by the Swing Line Lender, whereupon, subject to clause (c)(ii) below, each Lender that so makes funds available shall be deemed to have made a Base Rate Loan to the Borrowers in such amount; provided that, the Agent gives each Lender notice of the making of such Base Rate Loan no later than 11:00 a.m. of such Business Day; provided further that, from and after the Tranche A-1 Funding Date, the Tranche A Lenders shall be under no obligation to make such Committed Loans unless the Borrowers have borrowed the full amount available under the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments. The Agent shall remit the funds so received to the Swing Line Lender.

(ii) If for any reason any Swing Line Loan cannot be refinanced by such a Committed Borrowing in accordance with Section 2.04(c)(i), the request for Base Rate Loans submitted by the Swing Line Lender as set forth herein shall be deemed to be a request by the Swing Line Lender that each of the Tranche A Lenders fund its risk participation in the relevant Swing Line Loan and each Tranche A Lender's payment to the Agent for the account of the Swing Line Lender pursuant to Section 2.04(c)(i) shall be deemed payment in respect of such participation.

(iii) If any Tranche A Lender fails to make available to the Agent for the account of the Swing Line Lender any amount required to be paid by such Tranche A Lender pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.04(c) by the time specified in Section 2.04(c)(i), the Swing Line Lender shall be entitled to recover from such Tranche A Lender (acting through the Agent), on demand, such amount with interest thereon for the period from the date such payment is required to the date on which such payment is immediately available to the Swing Line Lender at a rate per annum equal to the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Swing Line Lender in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation plus any administrative, processing or similar fees customarily charged by the Swing Line Lender in connection with the foregoing. If such Tranche A Lender pays such amount (with interest and fees as aforesaid), the amount so paid shall constitute such Tranche A Lender's Committed Loan included in the relevant Committed Borrowing or funded participation in the relevant Swing Line Loan, as the case may be. A certificate of the Swing Line Lender submitted to any Tranche A Lender (through the Agent) with respect to any amounts owing under this clause (iii) shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(iv) Each Tranche A Lender's obligation to make Committed Loans or to purchase and fund risk participations in Swing Line Loans pursuant to this Section 2.04(c) shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance, including (A) any setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other right which such Tranche A Lender may have against the Swing Line Lender, the Loan Parties or any other Person for any reason whatsoever, (B) the occurrence or continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, or (C) any other occurrence, event or condition, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing; provided, however, that each Tranche A Lender's obligation to make Committed Loans pursuant to this Section 2.04(c) is subject to the conditions set forth in Section 4.02. No such funding of risk participations shall relieve or otherwise impair the obligation of the Borrowers to repay outstanding Swing Line Loans, together with interest as provided herein.

(d) Repayment of Participations.

(i) At any time after any Tranche A Lender has purchased and funded a risk participation in a Swing Line Loan, if the Swing Line Lender receives any payment on account of such Swing Line Loan, the Swing Line Lender will distribute to such Tranche A Lender its Applicable Percentage of such payment (appropriately adjusted, in the case of interest payments, to reflect the period of time during which such Tranche A Lender's risk participation was funded) in the same funds as those received by the Swing Line Lender.

(ii) If any payment received by the Swing Line Lender in respect of principal or interest on any Swing Line Loan is required to be returned by the Swing Line Lender under any of the circumstances described in Section 10.05 (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by the Swing Line Lender in its discretion), each Tranche A Lender shall pay to the Swing Line Lender its Applicable Percentage thereof on demand of the Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such amount is returned, at a rate per annum equal to the Federal Funds Rate. The Agent will make such demand upon the request of the Swing Line Lender. The obligations of the Tranche A Lenders under this clause shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

(e) Interest for Account of Swing Line Lender. The Swing Line Lender shall be responsible for invoicing the Borrowers for interest on the Swing Line Loans. Until each Tranche A Lender funds its Base Rate Loan or risk participation pursuant to this Section 2.04 to refinance such Tranche A Lender's Tranche A Applicable Percentage of any Swing Line Loan, interest in respect of such Applicable Percentage shall be solely for the account of the Swing Line Lender.

(f) Payments Directly to Swing Line Lender. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Borrowers shall make all payments of principal and interest in respect of the Swing Line Loans directly to the Swing Line Lender.

2.05 Prepayments.

(a) Except with respect to any fees, premiums or other amounts payable under Section 2.09(b), the Borrowers may, upon irrevocable notice from the Lead Borrower to the Agent, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay Committed Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty; provided that (i) such notice must be received by the Agent not later than 11:00 a.m. (A) three Business Days prior to any date of prepayment of LIBO Rate Loans and (B) on the date of prepayment of Base Rate Loans; (ii) any prepayment of LIBO Rate Loans shall be in a principal amount of $1,000,000 or a whole multiple of $1,000,000 in excess thereof; and (iii) any prepayment of Base Rate Loans shall be in a principal amount of $500,000 or a whole multiple of $100,000 in excess thereof or, in each case, if less, the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding. All payments shall be first applied to Tranche A Loans, and upon payment of Tranche A Loans in full, to Tranche A-1 Loans. Each such notice shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Type(s) of Loans to be prepaid and, if LIBO Rate Loans, the Interest Period(s) of such Loans. The Agent will promptly notify each Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender's Applicable Percentage of such prepayment. If such notice is given by the Lead Borrower and is not later revoked, the Borrowers shall make such prepayment and the payment amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein. Any prepayment of a LIBO Rate Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued interest on the amount prepaid, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 3.05. Each such prepayment shall be applied to the Committed Loans of the Lenders in accordance with their respective Applicable Percentages.

(b) The Borrowers may, upon irrevocable notice from the Lead Borrower to the Swing Line Lender (with a copy to the Agent), at any time or from time to time, voluntarily prepay Swing Line Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty; provided that (i) such notice must be received by the Swing Line Lender and the Agent not later than 1:00 p.m. on the date of the prepayment, and (ii) any such prepayment shall be in a minimum principal amount of $100,000. Each such notice shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment. If such notice is given by the Lead Borrower, the Borrowers shall make such prepayment and the payment amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein.

(c) If for any reason the Total Outstandings at any time exceed the sum of the Tranche A Loan Cap plus, from and after the Tranche A-1 Funding Date, the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments, each as then in effect, the Borrowers shall immediately prepay in an aggregate amount necessary to eliminate such excess: (i) first, the "Tranche A Loans" outstanding under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, (ii) second, the Tranche A Loans, (iii) third, to Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations, (iv) fourth, the "Tranche A-1 Loans" under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, and (v) fifth, the Tranche A-1 Loans.

(d) If for any reason the sum of the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A Loans, plus Swing Line Loans plus the Stated Amount of Letters of Credit at any time exceed the Tranche A Loan Cap as then in effect, the Borrowers shall immediately prepay the (i) the "Tranche A Loans" outstanding under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, (ii) the Tranche A Loans and/or (iii) Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations in an aggregate amount equal to such excess; provided, however, that the Borrowers shall not be required to Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations pursuant to this Section 2.05(d) unless after the prepayment in full of the Tranche A Loans, such Outstanding amounts exceed the Tranche A Loan Cap as then in effect.

(e) If at any time after the Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A Loans, plus Swing Line Loans plus the Stated Amount of Letters of Credit have been paid in full, if for any reason the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A-1 Loans of the Tranche A-1 Lenders at any time exceeds the Tranche A-1 Loan Cap as then in effect, the Borrowers shall, after making any payments required pursuant to Section 2.05(d), immediately prepay the “Tranche A Loans” outstanding under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and the Tranche A-1 Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess (it being understood that there shall be no requirement to repay the Tranche A-1 Loans under this clause (e) unless the Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A Loans, plus Swing Line Loans plus the Stated Amount of Letters of Credit have been paid in full).

(f) (i) The Borrowers shall prepay the Pre-Petition Obligations and Obligations in accordance with Section 6.13 hereof; (ii) the Borrowers shall prepay the “Tranche A Loans” outstanding under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and the Tranche A-1 Loans and Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations in an amount equal to any Extraordinary Receipts received by a Loan Party, and (iii) after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Borrowers shall Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.02 hereof.

(g) Prepayments made pursuant to Section 2.05(c), above, first, shall be applied to the “Tranche A Loans” outstanding under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, second, shall be applied to the Swing Line Loans, third, shall be applied ratably to the outstanding Tranche A Loans, fourth, shall be used to Cash Collateralize the remaining L/C Obligations, fifth, shall be applied to the outstanding “Tranche A-1 Loans” under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement; sixth, shall be applied to the outstanding Tranche A-1 Loans; and, seventh, the amount remaining, if any, after the prepayment in full of all Pre-Petition Obligations, Swing Line Loans and Committed Loans outstanding at such time and the Cash Collateralization of the remaining L/C Obligations in full may be retained by the Borrowers for use in the ordinary course of its business. Upon the drawing of any Letter of Credit that has been Cash Collateralized, the funds held as Cash Collateral shall be applied (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrowers or any other Loan Party) to reimburse the L/C Issuer or the Tranche A Lenders, as applicable.

(h) No later than one (1) Business Day after the Final Order Entry Date, the Borrowers shall pay in full with the proceeds of Loans hereunder, the total outstanding amount of the Pre-Petition Obligations, together with additional amounts due under Section 2.09 of the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement.

2.06 Termination or Reduction of Commitments.

(a) The Borrowers may, upon irrevocable notice (provided that, in the case of an election to permanently reduce or terminate the Commitments, the Letter of Credit Sublimit and the Swing Line Sublimit, to the extent that such notice states that it is conditioned upon the consummation of any other transaction or the occurrence of any event (including an acquisition or a Change of Control), such notice may be revoked by the Lead Borrower (by written notice to Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied) from the Lead Borrower to the Agent, terminate the Tranche A Commitments, the Letter of Credit Sublimit or the Swing Line Sublimit or from time to time permanently reduce the Tranche A Commitments, the Letter of Credit Sublimit or the Swing Line Sublimit; provided that (i) any such notice shall be received by the Agent not later than 11:00 a.m. five Business Days prior to the date of termination or reduction, (ii) any such partial reduction shall be in an aggregate amount of $1,000,000 or any whole multiple of $500,000 in excess thereof, (iii) the Borrowers shall not terminate or reduce (A) the Tranche A Commitments if, after giving effect thereto and to any concurrent prepayments hereunder, the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the “Tranche A Loans” under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, plus Tranche A Loans, plus the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations, plus the Outstanding Amount of all Swing Line Loans would exceed the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments, (B) the Letter of Credit Sublimit if, after giving effect thereto, the Outstanding Amount of L/C Obligations not fully Cash Collateralized hereunder would exceed the Letter of Credit

Sublimit, and (C) the Swing Line Sublimit if, after giving effect thereto, and to any concurrent payments hereunder, the Outstanding Amount of Swing Line Loans hereunder would exceed the Swing Line Sublimit, (iv) with respect to the Tranche A Commitments, any such termination or reduction shall apply proportionately and permanently to reduce the Tranche A Commitments of each of the Lenders (provided that (x) after giving effect to any such reduction and to the repayment of any Committed Loans made on such date, the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Committed Loans of any such Lender, plus such Lender's Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations, plus such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of the Outstanding Amount of all Swing Line Loans does not exceed the lesser of such Lender's Commitment or such Lender's Applicable Percentage of the Borrowing Base, minus, in each case, the Tranche A-Pre Petition Reserve, and (y) for the avoidance of doubt, any such repayment of Committed Loans contemplated by the preceding clause shall be made in compliance with the requirements of Section 2.12 with respect to the ratable allocation of payments hereunder, with such allocation being determined prior to any reduction being made to the Revolving Commitment of any other Lender).

(b) If, after giving effect to any reduction of the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments, the Letter of Credit Sublimit or the Swing Line Sublimit exceeds the amount of the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments, such Letter of Credit Sublimit or Swing Line Sublimit shall be automatically reduced by the amount of such excess.

(c) In the event that the Tranche A Commitments are terminated or are reduced to zero, the Tranche A-1 Commitments shall be automatically terminated.

(d) The Agent will promptly notify the Lenders of any termination or reduction of the Letter of Credit Sublimit, Swing Line Sublimit, or the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments under this Section 2.06. Upon any reduction of the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments, the Tranche A Commitment of each Tranche A Lender shall be reduced by such Tranche A Lender's Applicable Percentage of such reduction amount. All fees (including, without limitation, commitment fees, Letter of Credit Fees and fees payable under Section 2.09(b)) and interest in respect of the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments or Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments, as applicable, accrued until the effective date of any termination of the such Commitments shall be paid on the effective date of such termination

2.07 Repayment of Loans.

(a) The Borrowers shall repay to the Lenders on the Termination Date the aggregate principal amount of Committed Loans outstanding on such date.

(b) To the extent not previously paid, the Borrower shall repay the outstanding balance of the Swing Line Loans on the earlier of the Maturity Date and the applicable Termination Date.

2.08 Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.08(c) below, (i) each Tranche A Loan consisting of a Base Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the applicable borrowing date at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate plus the Applicable Margin; and (ii) each Swing Line Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the applicable borrowing date at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate plus the Applicable Margin.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.08(c) below, each Tranche A-1 Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof for each Interest Period at the Tranche A-1 Interest Rate.

(c) (1) If any amount payable under any Loan Document is not paid when due (after giving effect to any applicable grace periods), whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, then the Agent may and upon the request of the Required Lenders, shall notify in writing the Lead Borrower that such amount shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws.

(i) If any other Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, then (A) the Agent may, and upon the request of the Required Tranche A Lenders shall, notify in writing the Lead Borrower that all outstanding Obligations (other than with respect to the Tranche A-1 Loans) shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws and such Obligations shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate until no Event of Default is continuing, and (B) the Agent shall, upon the request of the Required Tranche A-1 Lenders, notify in writing the Lead Borrower that all outstanding Obligations with respect to the Tranche A-1 Loan shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws and thereafter such Obligations shall bear interest at the Default Rate until no Event of Default is continuing.

(ii) Accrued and unpaid interest on past due amounts (including interest on past due interest) shall be due and payable upon demand.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date applicable thereto and at such other times as may be specified herein. Interest hereunder shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment.

2.09 Fees. In addition to certain fees described in Sections 2.03(i) and 2.03(j):

(a) Commitment Fee.

(i) The Borrowers shall pay to the Agent for the account of each Tranche A Lender in accordance with its Tranche A Applicable Percentage, a commitment fee calculated on a per annum basis equal to the Applicable Commitment Fee Percentage multiplied by the actual daily amount by which the Aggregate Tranche A Commitments exceed the sum of (i) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A Loans and “Tranche A Loans” under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, plus (ii) the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations. The commitment fee shall accrue at all times during the Availability Period, including at any time during which one or more of the conditions in Article IV is not met, and shall be due and payable quarterly in arrears on the first day after the end of each calendar quarter, commencing with the first such date to occur after the Closing Date, and on the last day of the Availability Period.

(ii) The Borrowers shall pay to the Agent for the account of each Tranche A-1 Lender in accordance with its Tranche A-1 Applicable Percentage, a commitment fee equal to the Applicable Commitment Fee Percentage multiplied by the actual daily amount by which the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments exceed the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Tranche A-1 Loans and “Tranche A-1 Loans” under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement. The commitment fee shall accrue at all times during the Availability Period, including at any time during which one or more of the conditions in Article IV is not met, and shall be calculated and due and payable quarterly in arrears on the first day after the end of each calendar Quarter, commencing with the first such date to occur after the Closing Date, and on the last day of the Availability Period.

(b) The Lead Borrower shall pay to the Arranger, the Agent and the Tranche A-1 Agent for their own respective accounts fees in the amounts and at the times specified in the Fee Letter, as applicable. Unless expressly stated otherwise in the Fee Letter, such fees shall be fully earned when paid and shall not be refundable for any reason whatsoever.

2.10 Computation of Interest and Fees. All computations of fees and interest shall be made on the basis of a 360-day year and actual days elapsed. Interest shall accrue on each Loan for the day on which the Loan is made, and shall not accrue on a Loan, or any portion thereof, for the day on which the Loan or such portion is paid, provided that any Loan that is repaid on the same day on which it is made shall, subject to Section 2.12(a), bear interest for one day. For purposes of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the annual rates of interest or fees to which the rates of interest or fees provided in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (and stated herein or therein, as applicable, to be computed on the basis of 360 days or any other period of time less than a calendar year) are equivalent are the rates so determined multiplied by the actual number of days in the applicable calendar year and divided by 360 or such other period of time, respectively. Each determination by the Agent of an interest rate or fee hereunder shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

2.11 Evidence of Debt.

(a) The Credit Extensions made by each Lender shall be evidenced by one or more accounts or records maintained by the Agent (the "Loan Account") in the ordinary course of business and subject to commercially reasonable and customary practices. In addition, each Lender may record in such Lender's internal records, an appropriate notation evidencing the date and amount of each Loan from such Lender, each payment and prepayment of principal of any such Loan, and each payment of interest, fees and other amounts due in connection with the Obligations due to such Lender. The accounts or records maintained by the Agent and each Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Credit Extensions made by the Lenders to the Borrowers and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrowers hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations. In the event of any conflict between the accounts and records maintained by any Lender and the accounts and records of the Agent in respect of such matters, the accounts and records of the Agent shall control in the absence of manifest error. Upon the request of any Lender made through the Agent, the Borrowers shall execute and deliver to such Lender (through the Agent) a Note, which shall evidence such Lender's Loans in addition to such accounts or records. Each Note, if issued, shall only be issued as means to evidence the right, title and interest of a Lender or a registered assignee in and to the related Loan, as set forth in the Register, and in no event shall any Note be considered a bearer instrument or obligation. Each Lender may attach schedules to its Note and endorse thereon the date, Type (if applicable), amount and maturity of its Loans and payments with respect thereto. Upon receipt of an affidavit of a Lender as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of such Lender's Note and upon cancellation of such Note, the Borrowers will issue, in lieu thereof, a replacement Note in favor of such Lender, in the same principal amount thereof and otherwise of like tenor.

(b) In addition to the accounts and records referred to in Section 2.11(a), each Tranche A Lender and the Agent shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice accounts or records evidencing the purchases and sales by such Tranche A Lender of participations in Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans. In the event of any conflict between the accounts and records maintained by the Agent and the accounts and records of any Tranche A Lender in respect of such matters, the accounts and records of the Agent shall control in the absence of manifest error.

(c) Agent shall render monthly statements regarding the Loan Account to the Lead Borrower including principal, interest, fees, and including an itemization of all charges and expenses constituting Credit Party Expenses owing, and such statements, absent manifest error, shall be conclusively presumed to be correct and accurate and constitute an account stated between Borrowers and the Credit Parties unless, within 30 days after receipt thereof by the Lead Borrower, the Lead Borrower shall deliver to Agent written objection thereto describing the error or errors contained in any such statements.

2.12 Payments Generally; Agent's Clawback.

(a) General. All payments to be made by the Loan Parties shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, all payments by the Borrowers hereunder shall be made to the Agent, for the account of the respective Lenders to which such payment is owed, at the Agent's Office in Dollars and in immediately available funds not later than 2:00 p.m. on the date specified herein. The Agent will promptly distribute to each Lender its Applicable Percentage (or other applicable share as provided herein) of such payment in like funds as received by wire transfer to such Lender's Lending Office. All payments received by the Agent after 2:00 p.m., at the option of the Agent, shall be deemed received on the next succeeding Business Day and any applicable interest or fee shall continue to accrue in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. If any payment to be made by the Borrowers shall come due on a day other than a Business Day, payment shall be made on the next following Business Day, and such extension of time shall be reflected in computing interest or fees, as the case may be.

(b) (2) Funding by Lenders; Presumption by Agent. Unless the Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of any Borrowing of LIBO Rate Loans (or in the case of any Borrowing of Base Rate Loans, prior to 12:00 noon on the date of such Borrowing) that such Lender will not make available to the Agent such Lender's share of such Borrowing, the Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with Section 2.02(f) (or in the case of a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans, that such Lender has made such share available in accordance with and at the time required by Section 2.02(f)) and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrowers a corresponding amount. In such event, if a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Committed Borrowing available to the Agent, then the applicable Lender and the Borrowers severally agree to pay to the Agent forthwith on written demand such corresponding amount in immediately available funds with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the Borrowers to but excluding the date of payment to the Agent, at (A) in the case of a payment to be made by such Lender, the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation plus any administrative processing or similar fees customarily charged by the Agent in connection with the foregoing, and (B) in the case of a payment to be made by the Borrowers, the interest rate applicable to Base Rate Loans. If the Borrowers and such Lender shall pay such interest to the Agent for the same or an overlapping period, the Agent shall promptly remit to the Borrowers the amount of such interest paid by the Borrowers for such period. If such Lender pays its share of the applicable Committed Borrowing to the Agent, then the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender's Committed Loan included in such Committed Borrowing. Any payment by the Borrowers shall be without prejudice to any claim the Borrowers may have against a Lender that shall have failed to make such payment to the Agent.

(i) Payments by Borrowers; Presumptions by Agent. Unless the Agent shall have received notice from the Lead Borrower prior to the time at which any payment is due to the Agent for the account of the Lenders or the L/C Issuer hereunder that the Borrowers will not make such payment, the Agent may assume that the Borrowers have made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, the amount due. In such event, if the Borrowers have not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, severally agrees to repay to the Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender or the L/C Issuer, in immediately available funds with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation.

A written notice of the Agent to any Lender or the Lead Borrower with respect to any amount owing under this subsection (b) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(c) Failure to Satisfy Conditions Precedent. If any Lender makes available to the Agent funds for any Loan to be made by such Lender as provided in the foregoing provisions of this Article II, and such funds are not made available to the Borrowers by the Agent because the conditions to the applicable Credit Extension set forth in Section 4.02 (or, if such Credit Extension is made on the Closing Date, Section 4.01) are not satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms hereof (subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 4.02 hereof), the Agent shall return such funds (in like funds as received from such Lender) to such Lender, without interest.

(d) Obligations of Lenders Several. The obligations of the Lenders hereunder to make Committed Loans, and in the case of the Tranche A Lenders to fund participations in Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans and to make payments hereunder are several and not joint. The failure of any Lender to make any Committed Loan, to fund any such participation or to make any payment hereunder on any date required hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender of its corresponding obligation to do so on such date, and no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to so make its Committed Loan, to purchase its participation or to make its payment hereunder.

(e) Funding Source. Nothing herein shall be deemed to obligate any Lender to obtain the funds for any Loan in any particular place or manner or to constitute a representation by any Lender that it has obtained or will obtain the funds for any Loan in any particular place or manner; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, each Lender agrees that it shall not obtain the funds for any Loan or other Credit Extension from any Person that would violate any Foreign Asset Control Regulation, the Executive Order or the Act or from any Person currently subject to U.S. sanctions administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Treasury Department.

2.13 Sharing of Payments by Lenders. If any Credit Party shall, by exercising any right of setoff or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of, interest on, or other amounts with respect to, any of the Obligations resulting in such Lender's receiving payment of a proportion of the aggregate amount of such Obligations greater than its pro rata share thereof as provided herein (including as in contravention of the priorities of payment set forth in Section 8.03), then the Credit Party receiving such greater proportion shall (a) notify the Agent of such fact, and (b) purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Obligations of the other Credit Parties, or make such other adjustments as shall be equitable, so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Credit Parties ratably and in the priorities set forth in Section 8.03, provided that:

(i) if any such participations or subparticipations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations or subparticipations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest; and

(ii) the provisions of this Section shall not be construed to apply to (x) any payment made by the Loan Parties or any of their Subsidiaries pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or (y) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Committed Loans or subparticipations in L/C Obligations or Swing Line Loans to any assignee or participant, other than to the Borrowers or any Subsidiary thereof (as to which the provisions of this Section shall apply).

Each Loan Party consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable Law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against such Loan Party rights of setoff and counterclaim in accordance with this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 10.05 and 10.08) with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of such Loan Party in the amount of such participation.

2.14 Settlement Amongst Lenders.

(a) The amount of each Lender's Applicable Percentage of outstanding Loans (including outstanding Swing Line Loans, shall be computed weekly (or more frequently in the Agent's discretion) and shall be adjusted upward or downward based on all Loans (including Swing Line Loans) and repayments of Loans (including Swing Line Loans) received by the Agent as of 3:00 p.m. on the first Business Day (such date, the "Settlement Date") following the end of the period specified by the Agent.

(b) The Agent shall deliver to each of the Lenders promptly after a Settlement Date a summary statement of the amount of outstanding Committed Loans and Swing Line Loans for the period and the amount of repayments received for the period. As reflected on the summary statement, (i) the Agent shall transfer to each Tranche A Lender its Tranche A Applicable Percentage of repayments of Tranche A Loans and shall transfer to each Tranche A-1 Lender its Tranche A-1 Applicable Percentage of repayments of Tranche A-1 Loans, and (ii) each Lender shall transfer to the Agent (as provided below) or the Agent shall transfer to each Lender, such amounts as are necessary to insure that, after giving effect to all such transfers, the amount of Tranche A Loans and Tranche A-1 Loans, made by each Lender shall be equal to such Lender's Applicable Percentage of all Tranche A Loans and Tranche A-1 Loans, as applicable, outstanding as of such Settlement Date. If the summary statement requires transfers to be made to the Agent by the Lenders and is received prior to 1:00 p.m. on a Business Day, such transfers shall be made in immediately available funds no later than 3:00 p.m. that day; and, if received after 1:00 p.m., then no later than 3:00 p.m. on the next Business Day. The obligation of each Lender to transfer such funds is irrevocable, unconditional and without recourse to or warranty by the Agent. If and to the extent any Lender shall not have so made its transfer to the Agent, such Lender agrees to pay to the Agent, forthwith on demand such amount, together with interest thereon, for each day from such date until the date such amount is paid to the Agent, equal to the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation plus any administrative, processing, or similar fees customarily charged by the Agent in connection with the foregoing.

2.15 Release. Subject to the terms of the Interim Financing Order, the Final Financing Order, or the Canadian Recognition Order, as applicable, each Loan Party hereby acknowledges that no Loan Party has any defense, counterclaim, offset, recoupment, cross-complaint, claim or demand of any kind or nature whatsoever that can be asserted to reduce or eliminate all of any part of the Loan Parties' liability to repay the Credit Parties as provided in this Agreement and the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement or to seek affirmative relief or damages of any kind or nature from any Credit Party or any "Credit Party" (as defined in the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement). Subject to the terms of the Interim Financing Order, the Final Financing Order, or the Canadian Recognition Order, as applicable, each Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its bankruptcy estate, and on behalf of all its successors, assigns, Subsidiaries and any Affiliates and any Person acting for and on behalf of, or claiming through them (collectively, the "Releasing Parties"), hereby fully, finally and forever releases and discharges each Credit Party and their respective Affiliates, and each of their respective past and present officers, directors, servants, agents, attorneys, assigns, heirs, parents, subsidiaries, participants, and each Person acting for or on behalf of any of them (collectively, the “Released Parties”) of and from any and all past, present and future actions, causes of action, demands, suits, claims, liabilities, Liens, lawsuits, adverse consequences, amounts paid in settlement, costs, damages, debts, deficiencies, diminution in value, disbursements, expenses, losses and other obligations of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether in law, equity or otherwise (including, without limitation, those arising under Sections 541 through 550 of the Bankruptcy Code and interest or other carrying costs, penalties, legal, accounting and other professional fees and expenses, and incidental, consequential and punitive damages payable to third parties), whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, direct, indirect, or derivative, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, suspected or unsuspected, now existing, heretofore existing or which may heretofore accrue against any of the Released Parties, whether held in a personal or representative capacity, and which are based on any act, fact, event or omission or other matter, cause or thing occurring at or from any time prior to and including the date hereof in any way, directly or indirectly arising out of, connected with or relating to the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and all other agreements, certificates, instruments and other documents and statements (whether written or oral) related to any of the foregoing, in each case other than the obligations of the Released Parties arising under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

2.16 Waiver of any Priming Rights. Upon the Closing Date, and on behalf of itself and its estate, and for so long as any Obligations or Pre-Petition Obligations shall be outstanding, each Loan Party hereby irrevocably waives any right, pursuant to Sections 364(c) or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other Debtor Relief Laws or otherwise, to grant any Lien of equal or greater priority than the Liens securing the Obligations or Pre-Petition Obligations, or to approve a claim of equal or greater priority than the Obligations or Pre-Petition Obligations, other than as set forth in a Financing Order or the Canadian Recognition Order.

ARTICLE III
TAXES, YIELD PROTECTION AND ILLEGALITY;
APPOINTMENT OF LEAD BORROWER

3.01 Taxes. For purposes of this Section 3.01, the term “Lender” shall include any L/C Issuer and the term “applicable law” includes FATCA.

(a) Payments Free of Taxes. Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of the Loan Parties hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without reduction or withholding for any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes, provided that if a Loan Party shall be required by applicable law to deduct any Indemnified Taxes (including any Other Taxes) from such payments, then (i) the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section) the Agent, Lender or L/C Issuer, as the case may be, receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions been made, (ii) the Loan Party shall make such deductions and (iii) the Loan Party shall timely pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) Payment of Other Taxes by the Borrowers. Without limiting the provisions of subsection (a) above, the Loan Parties shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(c) Indemnification by the Loan Parties. The Loan Parties shall indemnify the Agent, each Lender and the L/C Issuer, within 10 days after demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) paid by the Agent, such Lender or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, and any penalties, interest and reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Lead Borrower by a Lender or the L/C Issuer (with a copy to the Agent), or by the Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of the Agent, a Lender or the L/C Issuer, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by a Loan Party to a Governmental Authority, the Lead Borrower shall deliver to the Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Agent.

(e) Status of Lenders. Any Foreign Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall deliver to the Lead Borrower (with a copy to the Agent), at the time or times prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by the Lead Borrower or the Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable law as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Lender, if requested by the Lead Borrower or the Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by the Lead Borrower or the Agent as will enable the Lead Borrower or the Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that any Borrower is resident for Tax purposes in the United States, (A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person shall deliver to the Lead Borrower and the Agent on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement, executed originals of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax and (B) any Foreign Lender shall deliver to the Lead Borrower and the Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the request of the Lead Borrower or the Agent, but only if such Foreign Lender is legally entitled to do so), whichever of the following is applicable:

(i) duly completed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E claiming eligibility for benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party,

(ii) duly completed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI,

(iii) duly completed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (including any required attachments thereto),

(iv) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate to the effect that such Foreign Lender is not (A) a "bank" within the meaning of section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, (B) a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrowers within the meaning of section 881(c)(3)(B) of the

Code, or (C) a “controlled foreign corporation” described in section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code and (y) duly completed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, or

(v) any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in United States Federal withholding tax duly completed together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit the Lead Borrower to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made (including with respect to FATCA).

(vi) Each Lender shall promptly notify the lead Borrower and the Agent of any change in circumstances that would modify or render invalid any claimed exemption or reduction.

(f) For purposes of determining withholding Taxes imposed under FATCA, from and after the effective date of the Third Amendment, the Borrowers and the Agent shall treat (and the Lenders hereby authorize the Agent to treat) the Credit Agreement (together with any loans or other extensions of credit pursuant thereto) as not qualifying as a “grandfathered obligation” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1471-2(b)(2)(i).

(g) Treatment of Certain Refunds. If any Credit Party determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by any Loan Party or with respect to which any Loan Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section, it shall pay to the applicable Loan Party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Loan Party under this Section with respect to the Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the applicable Credit Party, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund), provided that the applicable Loan Party, upon the request of the Agent, such Lender or the L/C Issuer, agree to repay the amount paid over to the applicable Loan Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the applicable Credit Party in the event any Credit Party is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. This subsection shall not be construed to require the Credit Party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes that it deems confidential) to the Loan Parties or any other Person.

(h) Sale or Transfer. If a Lender or Participant claims exemption from, or reduction of, withholding tax and such Lender or Participant sells, assigns, grants a participation in, or otherwise transfers all or part of the Obligations of Loan Parties to such Lender or Participant, such Lender or Participant agrees to notify Agent (or, in the case of a sale of a participation interest, the Lender granting the participation) of the percentage amount in which it is no longer the beneficial owner of Obligations of Loan Parties to such Lender. To the extent of such percentage amount, Agent will treat such Lender’s or such Participant’s documentation provided pursuant to subsections (d) or (e) of this Section 3.01 as no longer valid. With respect to such percentage amount, such Participant or Assignee shall provide new documentation, pursuant to subsections (d) or (e) of this Section 3.01, as applicable.

3.02 Illegality. If any Lender determines that any Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make, maintain or fund LIBO Rate Loans, or to determine or charge interest rates based upon the LIBO Rate, or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to purchase or sell, or to take deposits of, Dollars in the London interbank market, then, on written notice thereof by such Lender to the Lead Borrower through the Agent, any obligation of such Lender to make or continue LIBO Rate Loans or to convert Base Rate Loans to LIBO Rate Loans shall be suspended until such Lender notifies the Agent and the Lead Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such written notice, the Borrowers shall, upon written demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Agent), prepay or, if applicable, convert all LIBO Rate Loans of such Lender to Base Rate Loans, either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such LIBO Rate Loans to such day, or promptly (or immediately, if possible) upon written demand, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such LIBO Rate Loans, in each case, without any cost, expense or penalty (including no cost, expense or penalty of the type described in Section 3.05) to the Borrowers. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

3.03 Inability to Determine Rates. If the Required Lenders determine in good faith that for any reason in connection with any request for a LIBO Rate Loan or a conversion to or continuation thereof that (a) Dollar deposits are not being offered to banks in the London interbank market for the applicable amount and Interest Period of such LIBO Rate Loan, (b) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining the LIBO Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed LIBO Rate Loan, or (c) the LIBO Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed LIBO Rate Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding such Loan, the Agent will promptly so notify in writing the Lead Borrower and each Lender. Thereafter, the obligation of the Lenders to make or maintain LIBO Rate Loans shall be suspended until the Agent (upon the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice, which such revocation of notice shall be provided at the earliest time that the circumstances in clauses (a), (b) and (c) in the immediately preceding sentence no longer exist. Upon receipt of such written notice, the Lead Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of LIBO Rate Loans or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a Committed Borrowing of Base Rate Loans in the amount specified therein, without any cost, expense or penalty (including no cost, expense or penalty of the type described in Section 3.05) to the Borrowers.

3.04 Increased Costs; Reserves on LIBO Rate Loans.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender (except any reserve requirement reflected in the LIBO Rate) or the L/C Issuer;

(ii) subject any Lender or the L/C Issuer to any tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement, any Letter of Credit, any participation in a Letter of Credit or any LIBO Rate Loan made by it, or change the basis of taxation of payments to such Lender or the L/C Issuer in respect thereof (except for Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes covered by Section 3.01 and the imposition of, or any change in the rate of, any Excluded Tax payable by such Lender or the L/C Issuer); or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the L/C Issuer or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or LIBO Rate Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any LIBO Rate Loan (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan), or to increase the cost to such Lender or the L/C Issuer of participating in, issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit (or of maintaining its obligation to participate in or to issue any Letter of Credit), or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or the L/C Issuer hereunder (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, upon written request of such Lender or the L/C Issuer, the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or the L/C Issuer and upon delivery of the certificate contemplated by Section 3.04(c), as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) Capital Requirements. If any Lender or the L/C Issuer determines in good faith that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or the L/C Issuer or any Lending Office of such Lender or such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's holding company, if any, regarding capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's capital or on the capital of such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitments of such Lender or the Loans made by, or participations in Letters of Credit held by, such Lender, or the Letters of Credit issued by the L/C Issuer, to a level below that which such Lender or the L/C Issuer or such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's policies and the policies of such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time and upon delivery of the certificate contemplated by Section 3.04(c), the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or the L/C Issuer or such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of a Lender or the L/C Issuer setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or the L/C Issuer or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in subsection (a) or (b) of this Section and delivered to the Lead Borrower shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 10 days after receipt thereof.

(d) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or the L/C Issuer to demand compensation pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's right to demand in writing such compensation, provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender or the L/C Issuer pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than two hundred seventy (270) days prior to the date that such Lender or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, notifies in writing the Lead Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's or the L/C Issuer's intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the two hundred seventy (270) day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof).

(e) Reserves on LIBO Rate Loans. The Borrowers shall pay to each Lender, as long as such Lender shall be required to maintain reserves with respect to liabilities or assets consisting of or including Eurocurrency funds or deposits (currently known as "Eurocurrency liabilities"), additional interest on the unpaid principal amount of each LIBO Rate Loan equal to the actual costs of such reserves allocated to such Loan by such Lender (as reasonably determined by such Lender in good faith, which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error), which shall be due and payable on each date on which interest is payable on such Loan, provided the Lead Borrower shall have received at least 10 days' prior written notice (with a copy to the Agent) of such additional interest from such Lender. If a Lender fails to give written notice 10 days prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date, such additional interest shall be due and payable 10 days from receipt of such written notice.

3.05 Compensation for Losses. Upon written demand of any Lender upon the Agent (who shall forward a copy thereof to the Lead Borrower) from time to time, except as expressly set forth in Sections 3.02 and 3.03, the Borrowers shall promptly compensate such Lender for and hold such Lender harmless from any loss, cost or expense incurred by it (other than by reason of such Lender being a Defaulting Lender) as a result of:

(a) any continuation, conversion, payment or prepayment of any Loan other than a Base Rate Loan on a day other than the last day of the Interest Period for such Loan (whether voluntary, mandatory, automatic, by reason of acceleration, or otherwise);

(b) any failure by the Borrowers (for a reason other than the failure of such Lender to make a Loan) to prepay, borrow, continue or convert any Loan other than a Base Rate Loan on the date or in the amount notified by the Lead Borrower; or

(c) any assignment of a LIBO Rate Loan on a day other than the last day of the Interest Period therefor as a result of a request by the Lead Borrower pursuant to Section 10.13;

including any loss of anticipated profits and any loss or expense arising from the liquidation or reemployment of funds obtained by it to maintain such Loan or from fees payable to terminate the deposits from which such funds were obtained. The Borrowers shall also pay any customary administrative fees charged by such Lender in connection with the foregoing.

For purposes of calculating amounts payable by the Borrowers to the Lenders under this Section 3.05, each Lender shall be deemed to have funded each LIBO Rate Loan made by it at the LIBO Rate for such Loan by a matching deposit or other borrowing in the London interbank market for a comparable amount and for a comparable period, whether or not such LIBO Rate Loan was in fact so funded. For the avoidance of doubt, the Borrowers shall have no liability for any breakage costs set forth in this Section 3.05 that may arise by virtue of any Base Rate Loan accruing interest at the Adjusted LIBO Rate pursuant to clause (b) of the definition of “Base Rate”.

3.06 Mitigation Obligations; Replacement of Lenders.

(a) Designation of a Different Lending Office. If any Lender or L/C Issuer requests compensation under Section 3.04, or the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or L/C Issuer or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01, or if any Lender or L/C Issuer gives a notice pursuant to Section 3.02, then such Lender or L/C Issuer shall use reasonable efforts to (y) file any certificate or document reasonably requested in writing by the Lead Borrower or (z) assign its rights and delegate, designate and transfer its obligations hereunder to a different Lending Office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such filing, assignment, delegation, designation or transfer (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 3.01 or 3.04, as the case may be, in the future, or eliminate the need for the notice pursuant to Section 3.02, as applicable, and (ii) in each case, would not subject such Lender or L/C Issuer to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender or L/C Issuer. The Borrowers hereby agree to pay all reasonable out-of-pocket and documented costs and expenses incurred by any Lender or L/C Issuer in connection with any such filing, assignment, delegation, designation or transfer.

(b) Replacement of Lenders. If any Lender or L/C Issuer requests compensation under Section 3.04, or if the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01 or any Lender or L/C

Issuer delivers a notice described in Section 3.02, the Borrowers may replace such Lender or L/C Issuer in accordance with Section 10.13.

3.07 Survival. All of the Borrowers' obligations under this Article III shall survive termination of the Aggregate Commitments and repayment of all Obligations hereunder.

3.08 Designation of Lead Borrower as Borrowers' Agent.

(a) Each Borrower hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Lead Borrower as such Borrower's agent to obtain Credit Extensions, the proceeds of which shall be available to each Borrower for such uses as are permitted under this Agreement. As the disclosed principal for its agent, each Borrower shall be obligated to each Credit Party on account of Credit Extensions so made as if made directly by the applicable Credit Party to such Borrower, notwithstanding the manner by which such Credit Extensions are recorded on the books and records of the Lead Borrower and of any other Borrower. In addition, each Loan Party other than the Borrowers hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Lead Borrower as such Loan Party's agent to represent such Loan Party in all respects under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(b) Each Borrower recognizes that credit available to it hereunder is in excess of and on better terms than it otherwise could obtain on and for its own account and that one of the reasons therefor is its joining in the credit facility contemplated herein with all other Borrowers. Consequently, each Borrower hereby assumes and agrees to discharge all Obligations of each of the other Borrowers.

(c) The Lead Borrower shall act as a conduit for each Borrower (including itself, as a "Borrower") on whose behalf the Lead Borrower has requested a Credit Extension. Neither the Agent nor any other Credit Party shall have any obligation to see to the application of such proceeds therefrom.

ARTICLE IV CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO CREDIT EXTENSIONS

4.01 Conditions of Initial Credit Extension. The obligation of the L/C Issuer and each Lender to make its initial Credit Extension hereunder is subject to satisfaction (or waiver) of the following conditions precedent:

5.19 Security Documents.

(a) Each Security Agreement, when taken together with the Financing Orders and the Canadian Recognition Order, creates in favor of the Agent, for the benefit of the Credit Parties referred to therein, a legal, valid, continuing and enforceable security interest in the Collateral (as defined in the Security Agreement). (c) The Mortgages, when taken together with the Financing Orders, create in favor of the Agent, for the benefit of the Credit Parties referred to therein, a legal, valid, continuing and enforceable Lien in the Mortgaged Property (as defined in the Mortgages). The Agent has a perfected Lien on, and security interest in, to and under all right, title and interest of the grantors thereunder in all Mortgaged Property (including without limitation the proceeds of such Mortgaged Property), in each case prior to all Liens (except those Permitted Encumbrances having priority by operation of Law and Liens described in clause (q) of the definition of Permitted Encumbrances, subject to the Intercreditor Agreement) to any other Person.

Each of the Loan Parties and its Subsidiaries, and to the knowledge of each such Loan Party, each director, officer, employee, agent and Affiliate of each such Loan Party and each such Subsidiary, is in compliance with the Anti-corruption Laws in all material respects. No proceeds of any loan made or Letter of Credit issued hereunder will be used to fund any operations in, finance any investments or activities in, or make any payments to, a Sanctioned Person or a Sanctioned Entity, or otherwise used in any manner that would result in a violation of any applicable sanction by any Person (including any Credit Party or other individual or entity participating in any transaction).

(c) Cause commercial general liability policies (but, for the avoidance of doubt, excluding any public liability or any worker's compensation policies) to be endorsed to name the Agent as an additional insured.

(d) Cause business interruption policies (to the extent separate from the property policies) to name the Agent as a loss payee and to be endorsed or amended to include (i) a provision that, from and after the Closing Date, the insurer shall pay all proceeds otherwise payable to the Loan Parties under the policies directly to the Agent and/or the applicable Term Agent and (ii) such other provisions as the Agent may reasonably require from time to time to protect the interests of the Credit Parties.

(e) Cause each such policy referred to in this Section 6.07 to also provide that it shall not be canceled or not renewed (i) by reason of nonpayment of premium except upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice thereof by the insurer to the Agent (giving the Agent the right to cure defaults in the payment of premiums) or (ii) for any other reason except upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof by the insurer to the Agent.

(f) To the extent received from the applicable insurance company, upon written request by the Agent to the Lead Borrower, deliver to the Agent, after the cancellation or non-renewal of any such policy of insurance, a copy of a renewal or replacement policy (or other evidence of renewal of a policy previously delivered to the Agent, including an insurance binder) together with evidence satisfactory to the Agent in its Permitted Discretion of payment of the premium therefor.

Each Loan Party shall look solely to its insurance companies or any other parties other than the Credit Parties for the recovery of such loss or damage and such insurance companies shall have no rights of subrogation against any Credit Party or its agents or employees. If, however, the insurance policies do not provide waiver of subrogation rights against such parties, as required above, then the Loan Parties hereby agree, to the extent permitted by Law, to waive their right of recovery, if any, against the Credit Parties and their agents and employees. The designation of any form, type or amount of insurance coverage by any Credit Party under this Section 6.07 shall in no event be deemed a representation, warranty or advice by such Credit Party that such insurance is adequate for the purposes of the business of the Loan Parties or the protection of their properties.

6.08 Compliance with Laws. Except to the extent non-compliance is permitted under the Bankruptcy Code and the CCAA, comply in all material respects with the requirements of all Laws and all orders, writs, injunctions and decrees applicable to it or to its business or property, except in such instances in which (i) (a) such requirement of Law or order, writ, injunction or decree is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and with respect to which adequate reserves have been set aside and maintained by the Loan Parties in accordance with GAAP; and (b) such contest effectively suspends enforcement of the contested Laws; or (ii) the failure to comply therewith could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of the Agent with respect to determining Reserves pursuant to this Agreement.

6.09 Books and Records; Accountants.

(a) Maintain, in all material respects, proper books of record and account, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with GAAP consistently applied shall be made of all financial transactions and matters involving the assets and business of the Loan Parties or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be; and (ii) maintain such books of record and account in material conformity with all applicable requirements of any Governmental Authority having regulatory jurisdiction over the Loan Parties or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be.

(a) Notify the Agent within five (5) Business Days after any Person becomes a Subsidiary, and in each case, promptly thereafter (and in any event within fifteen (15) days): cause any such Person that constitutes both a Domestic Subsidiary and Restricted Subsidiary: (1) which is not a CFC or U.S. Foreign HoldCo to (i) become a Loan Party by executing and delivering to the Agent a Joinder to this Agreement or a Joinder to the Facility Guaranty or such other documents as the Agent shall reasonably deem appropriate for such purpose, (ii) grant a Lien to the Agent on such Person's assets of the same type that constitute Collateral to secure the Obligations (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include any Excluded Property, as such term is defined in the Security Agreement), and (iii) deliver to the Agent documents of the types referred to in clauses (iii) and (iv) of Section 4.01(a) and upon the request of the Agent customary opinions of counsel to such Person (which shall cover, among other things, the legality, validity, binding effect and enforceability of the documentation referred to in this clause (1)), and (2) if any Equity Interests or Indebtedness of such Person being joined as a Loan Party hereunder are owned by or on behalf of any Loan Party, to pledge such Equity Interests and promissory notes evidencing such Indebtedness, in each case in form, content and scope reasonably satisfactory to the Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the documentation referred to in this clause (a) shall not require the creation or perfection of, pledges of or security interests in, or the obtaining of title insurance or legal opinions with respect to, any assets located outside the United States (except with respect to Puerto Rico and Canada).

(b) Notify the Agent at the time that the Borrowers desire to join a U.S. Foreign HoldCo, Foreign Subsidiary or CFC as a Loan Party under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and, in each case, cause such U.S. Foreign HoldCo, Foreign Subsidiary, or CFC: (1) to (i) become a Loan Party by executing and delivering to the Agent a Joinder to this Agreement or a Joinder to the Facility Guaranty or such other documents as the Agent shall reasonably deem appropriate for such purpose, (ii) grant a Lien to the Agent on such Person's assets of the same type that constitute Collateral to secure the Obligations (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include any Excluded Property, as such term is defined in the Security Agreement), and (iii) deliver to the Agent documents of the types referred to in clauses (iii) and (iv) of Section 4.01(a) and upon the request of the Agent customary opinions of counsel to such Person (which shall cover, among other things, the legality, validity, binding effect and enforceability of the documentation referred to in this clause (1)); (2) if any Equity Interests or Indebtedness of such Person are owned by or on behalf of any Loan Party, to pledge such Equity Interests and promissory notes evidencing such Indebtedness; and (3) enter into any such amendments, modifications, or other changes to this Agreement and any other Loan Document reasonably requested by Agent in its Permitted Discretion in order to address any matters in connection with, or related to, such Person being a U.S. Foreign Holdco, Foreign Subsidiary, or CFC, if applicable, and/or such Collateral being located outside the continental United States, in each case in form, content and scope reasonably satisfactory to the Agent. Each of the Lenders hereby authorize the Agent to enter into any such amendments, modifications, or other changes to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents in its sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, if any Subsidiary of a U.S. Foreign Holdco is a Loan Party, such U.S. Foreign Holdco must also be a Loan Party.

In no event shall compliance with this Section 6.12 waive or be deemed a waiver or consent to any transaction giving rise to the need to comply with this Section 6.12 if such transaction was not otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement or constitute or be deemed to constitute, with respect to any Subsidiary, an approval of such Person as a Borrower or permit the inclusion of any acquired assets in the computation of the Borrowing Base. Prior to any such assets being included in the Borrowing Base, such assets must comply with all eligibility criteria contained in this Agreement, the Agent shall have received such other due diligence as they may require in their Permitted Discretion and implemented any Reserves with respect thereto, and, to the extent such assets are not of the type then included in the Borrowing Base, the Agent shall have received an appraisal of such assets, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Agent.

6.13 Cash Management.

(a) Each Loan Party shall establish and maintain cash management services of a type and on terms satisfactory to Agent at one or more of the banks set forth on Schedule 5.21(a) (each, a "Cash Management Bank"), and, in connection therewith, establish and maintain at such Cash Management Banks pursuant to the terms hereof one or more accounts designated (either in Schedule 5.21(a) or pursuant to Section 6.13(h)) as concentration accounts (the "Concentration Accounts") and additional accounts designated (either in Schedule 5.21(a) or pursuant to Section 6.13(h)) as (i) consolidated store deposit accounts (the "Consolidated Store Deposit Accounts"), (ii) individual store deposit accounts (the "Individual Store Accounts") and (iii) the home office deposit account (the "Home Office Account” and together with the Concentration Accounts, the Consolidated Store Deposit Accounts and the Individual Store Accounts, the “Cash Management Accounts”).

(b) Except as otherwise specifically permitted in this Section 6.13, each Loan Party shall (1) request in writing and otherwise take such reasonable steps to ensure that all of its Account Debtors forward payment of the amounts owed by them directly to a Cash Management Bank for deposit into a Concentration Account, (2) deposit or cause to be deposited promptly, and in any event no later than the first Business Day after the date of receipt thereof (and subject to Section 6.13(g) with respect to payments from Credit Card Processors), all such available Collections from Account Debtors (including those sent directly to a Cash Management Bank) into a Concentration Account, and (3) deposit or cause to be deposited promptly, and in any event no later than the first Business Day after the date of receipt thereof, all other available Collections (including cash, checks, drafts and all other forms of daily store receipts or other similar items of payment) received by or otherwise under its control into a Cash Management Account. For purposes of clarification, funds that need not be swept to the extent specifically provided in this Section 6.13 (which includes any segregated disbursement account used by the Loan Parties in accordance with this Agreement (it being understood and agreed that any Loans funded to the Borrowers shall be made to a segregated disbursement account unless otherwise requested by the Borrowers)) and after funds are swept pursuant to any provision of this Section 6.13 to the Designated Account, may be used by the Loan Parties for their general corporate purposes.

(c) Each Loan Party further agrees to cause each of its stores which utilize a Consolidated Store Deposit Account to cause all Collections for such store to be deposited into a Consolidated Store Deposit Account, and each Loan Party agrees that with respect to each Consolidated Store Deposit Account, it shall, at all times require each applicable Cash Management Bank to forward, by automatic periodic transfers on a daily basis, if practicable, and otherwise, once every Business Day (absent extraordinary events that are out of the control of the Loan Parties), all available amounts in each such Consolidated Store Deposit Account into a Concentration Account; provided, immediately after giving effect to each such transfer from any Consolidated Store Deposit Account into a Concentration Account, each Loan Party may maintain an amount not to exceed (i) $100,000 of available funds in any such Consolidated Store Deposit Account and (ii) $5,000,000 in available funds in the aggregate in all such Consolidated Store Deposit Accounts. Further, the Loan Parties shall not permit the balance of the account referred to as the “corporate deposit” account on Schedule 6.13 to exceed $10,000 at any time.

(d) Each Loan Party further agrees that with respect to each store which utilizes an Individual Store Account, such store shall cause all Collections for such store to be deposited into such Individual Store Account and each Loan Party agrees that with respect to each Individual Store Account it shall, at all times require each applicable Cash Management Bank to forward, by automatic periodic transfers on a regular basis, but in no event less frequently than once in any ten (10) day period, all available amounts in each such Individual Store Account into a Concentration Account; provided, however, that (i) such automatic transfers of funds therein shall be required only at any time the available balance thereof should exceed $5,000, and (ii) immediately after giving effect to each such transfer from such Individual Store Account into a Concentration Account, the Loan Parties may maintain an available amount not to exceed $5,000 in such Individual Store Account.

(e) Each Loan Party further agrees that with respect to the Home Office Account, it shall, at all times require the applicable Cash Management Bank to forward, by automatic periodic transfers on a regular basis, but in no event less frequently than once in any ten (10) day period, all available amounts in the Home Office Account into (either directly or indirectly) a Concentration Account or another account under the control of Wells Fargo or any of its Affiliates; provided, however, that (x) such automatic transfers of funds therein shall be required only at any time the available balance thereof should exceed $100,000, and (y) immediately after giving effect to each such transfer from the Home Office Account into a Concentration Account or such other account under the control of Wells Fargo or any of its Affiliates, the Loan Parties may maintain an available amount not to exceed $100,000 in such Home Office Account.

(f) Each Loan Party further agrees that with respect to the Group Concentration Account, it shall, at all times require the applicable Cash Management Bank to forward, by automatic periodic transfers on a daily basis, all available amounts in the Group Concentration Account into (either directly or indirectly) a Concentration Account.

(g) With respect to each Concentration Account, each Cash Management Bank shall establish (in the case of the Canadian Loan Parties, within thirty (30) days of the date of Canadian Recognition Order) and maintain Cash Management Agreements with Agent and the applicable Loan Party, in form and substance acceptable to Agent in its Permitted Discretion; provided; however, that, with respect to Consolidated Store Deposit Accounts, Individual Store Accounts and the Home Office Account, no Loan Party shall be obligated to establish a Cash Management Agreement as of the Closing Date. Each Cash Management Agreement shall provide, among other things, that (i) all items of payment deposited in such Concentration Account and proceeds thereof are subject to the control of Agent, (ii) the Cash Management Bank has no rights of setoff or recoupment or any other claim against the applicable Concentration Account other than for payment of its service fees and other charges directly related to the administration of such Concentration Account and for returned checks or other items of payment, and (iii) it will, in accordance with the applicable Control Agreement (as defined in the Security Agreement), (A) with regards to the U.S. Loan Parties, at all times, and (B), with respect to the Canadian Loan Parties, after an Event of Default has occurred and the Agent has provided notice to the Agent that it intends to enforce its rights in accordance with Section 8.02(a)(iv), forward by daily sweep all amounts in the applicable Concentration Account to the Agent's Account or as otherwise directed by Agent to prepay the Obligations in such order as set forth in Section 2.05; provided, that any such prepayments of the Loans pursuant to this Section 6.13(g) may be reborrowed subject to Section 4.02.

(h) At the request of the Agent, each Loan Party shall deliver a Credit Card Notification to Agent with respect to each Credit Card Processor. Each such Credit Card Notification shall provide, among other things, that each such Credit Card Processor shall transfer all proceeds of credit card charges for sales by each Loan Party received by it (or other amounts payable by such Credit Card Processor) into a designated Concentration Account on a daily basis or such other periodic basis as Agent may otherwise direct. No Loan Party shall change any direction or designation set forth in the Credit Card Notification regarding payment of charges without the prior written consent of Agent.

(i) Each Loan Party shall close any of its Concentration Accounts (and establish replacement cash management accounts in accordance with the foregoing sentence) promptly and in any event within forty-five (45) days of written notice from Agent (or such longer period as such Loan Party and Agent may agree) that the creditworthiness of any Cash Management Bank is no longer acceptable in Agent's reasonable judgment, or as promptly as practicable and in any event within sixty (60) days of written notice from Agent (or such longer period as such Loan Party and Agent may agree) that the operating performance, funds transfer, or availability procedures or performance of the Cash Management Bank with respect to Concentration Accounts or Agent's liability under any Cash Management Agreement with such Cash Management Bank is no longer acceptable in Agent's reasonable judgment.

(j) The Cash Management Accounts shall be cash collateral accounts, with all cash, checks and similar items of payment in such accounts securing payment of the Obligations, and in which each Loan Party hereby grants a Lien to Agent.

(k) The Loan Parties acknowledge and agree that the Cash Management Letter shall remain in full force and effect. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.13 or otherwise contained in any of the Loan Documents, the Cash Management Letter shall continue to govern the cash management of the U.S. Loan Parties with respect to this Credit Agreement and the Obligations hereunder. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Cash Management Letter and the other Loan Documents, the terms of the Cash Management Letter shall govern with respect to the U.S. Loan Parties.

Furnish to the Agent at least five (5) Business Days (or shorter time if agreed to by the Agent in its sole discretion) prior written notice of any change in: (i) any Loan Party's legal name; (ii) the location of any Loan Party's registered office, chief executive office, its principal place of business, any office in which it maintains books or records relating to Collateral owned by it or any office or facility at which Collateral owned by it is located (including the establishment of any such new office or facility); (iii) any Loan Party's organizational structure or jurisdiction of incorporation or formation; (iv) any Loan Party's Federal Taxpayer Identification Number or organizational identification number assigned to it by its state or jurisdiction of organization, or (v) the Canadian provinces or territories in which any Loan Party or its Subsidiaries maintains any assets or other property.

6.15 Physical Inventories.

(a) Cause not less than one (1) physical inventory to be undertaken, at the expense of the Loan Parties, in each Fiscal Year and periodic cycle counts, in each case consistent with past practices (it being understood that, as of the Closing Date, (i) the Loan Parties conduct physical inventories throughout the Fiscal Year on a rolling basis and (ii) such rolling physical inventories, collectively, shall constitute one (1) annual physical inventory), conducted by such inventory takers as are reasonably satisfactory to the Agent (it being understood that, as of the Closing Date, employees of the Loan Parties shall be deemed acceptable) and following such methodology as is consistent with the methodology used in the immediately preceding inventory or as otherwise may be satisfactory to the Agent. At the reasonable request of the Agent, the Lead Borrower shall provide the Agent with a reconciliation of the results of any physical inventory and cycle counts, and shall post such results to the Loan Parties' stock ledgers and general ledgers, as applicable.

(b) Permit the Agent to cause additional physical inventories to be taken as the Agent determines in its Permitted Discretion (each, at the expense of the Loan Parties).

Except, in each case, to the extent the failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Environmental Liability, (a) Conduct its operations and keep and maintain its Real Estate in material compliance with all Environmental Laws; (b) obtain and renew all material environmental permits necessary for its operations and the occupation of its properties, including but not limited to a Spill Prevention, Containment and Countermeasures Plan for the Loan Parties' data center located in Topeka, Kansas; and (c) implement any and all investigation, remediation, removal and response actions that are appropriate or necessary to maintain the value and marketability of the Real Estate or to otherwise comply with Environmental Laws pertaining to the presence, generation, treatment, storage, use, disposal, transportation or release of any Hazardous Materials on, at, in, under, above, to, from or about any of its Real Estate, provided, however, that neither a Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to undertake any such cleanup, removal, remedial or other action to the extent that its obligation to do so is being contested in good faith and by proper proceedings and adequate reserves have been set aside and are being maintained by the Loan Parties with respect to such circumstances in accordance with GAAP. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of the Agent with respect to determining Reserves pursuant to this Agreement.

6.17 Further Assurances.

(a) Execute any and all further documents, financing statements, filings, agreements and instruments, and take all such further actions (including the filing and recording of financing statements, amendments to financing statements or other documents), that may be required under any applicable Law, or which the Agent may reasonably request, to effectuate the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents or to grant, preserve, protect or perfect the Liens created or intended to be created by the Security Documents or the validity or priority of any such Lien, all at the expense of the Loan Parties and to the extent required by, and subject to the limitations set forth in the Security Documents and this Agreement.

(b) If any material personal property assets are acquired by any Loan Party after the Closing Date (other than assets constituting Collateral under the Security Documents that become subject to the perfected first-priority Lien (subject only to Permitted Encumbrances having priority by operation of Law, Liens described in clause (q) of the definition of Permitted Encumbrances subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, and Liens described in clause (cc) of the definition of Permitted Encumbrances that secure Permitted Indebtedness) under the Security Documents upon acquisition thereof), notify the Agent thereof, and the Loan Parties will cause such assets that would constitute Collateral to be subjected to a Lien securing the Obligations and will take such actions as shall be reasonably necessary or shall be reasonably requested by the Agent to grant and perfect such Liens in each case to the extent required by, and subject to the limitations set forth in the Security Documents and this Agreement, including actions described in paragraph (a) of this Section 6.17, all at the expense of the Loan Parties. In no event shall compliance with this Section 6.17 waive or be deemed a waiver or consent to any transaction giving rise to the need to comply with this Section 6.17 if such transaction was not otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement or constitute or be deemed to constitute consent to the inclusion of any acquired assets in the computation of the Borrowing Base.

(c) Upon the request of the Agent in its Permitted Discretion, use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each of the Loan Parties' customs brokers, freight forwarders, consolidators and/or carriers to deliver an agreement (including, without limitation, a Customs Broker/Carrier Agreement) to the Agent covering such matters and in such form as the Agent may reasonably require; provided that no such agreements or documents shall be required with respect to "pool points" locations.

(d) Furthermore, in the event that the Agent requests that any Loan Party pledge or grant a mortgage or other security interest to the Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties that covers any real property acquired after the date hereof, the Agent shall provide each Secured Party with at least forty-five days' prior notice thereof, and any such pledge or grant of a mortgage or other security interest shall be subject to the completion of each Secured Party's flood insurance diligence and compliance, as applicable.

of any default by any party with respect to such Leases and cooperate with the Agent in all respects to cure any such default, and (d) cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to do the foregoing, except, in each case, where the failure to do so, either individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

6.19 Material Contracts. Except to the extent non-performance thereof is permitted by the Bankruptcy Code and the CCAA, and other than the filing of the Chapter 11 Case and the Canadian Case, and the Events and Circumstances, perform and observe all the terms and provisions of each Material Contract to be performed or observed by it, maintain each such Material Contract in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, and enforce each such Material Contract in accordance with its terms, take all such action to such end as may be from time to time requested by the Agent and, upon request of the Agent, make to each other party to each such Material Contract such demands and requests for information and reports or for action as any Loan Party or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries is entitled to make under such Material Contract, and cause each of its Restricted Subsidiaries to do so, except, in each case, where the failure to do so, either individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

9.02 Rights as a Lender. Each of the Persons serving as the Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in their capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though they were not the Agent and the term “Lender” or “Lenders” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Loan Parties or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

9.03 Exculpatory Provisions. The Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Agent:

(a) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that the Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents), provided that the Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in their opinion or the opinion of their counsel, may expose the Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law;

(c) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Loan Parties or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity; and

The Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Sections 10.01 and 8.02) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

The Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until notice describing such Default or Event of Default is given to such Person by the Loan Parties, a Lender or the L/C Issuer. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or Event of Default, the Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by the Applicable Lenders. Unless and until the Agent shall have received such direction, the Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to any such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interest of the Credit Parties. In no event shall the Agent be required to comply with any such directions to the extent that the Agent believes that its compliance with such directions would be unlawful.

The Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence or continuance of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Agent.

The Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, or the issuance of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or the L/C Issuer, the Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender or the L/C Issuer unless the Agent shall have received written notice to the contrary from such Lender or the L/C Issuer prior to the making of such Loan or the issuance of such Letter of Credit. The Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for any Loan Party), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts. Notwithstanding the right of the Agent to request information regarding the percentage of the Aggregate Commitments held by Restricted Affiliate Lenders, the Agent shall not be required to request any such additional information in connection with any consent to assignment under Section 10.06 and may rely on any representations and warranties made by the Borrowers and the Restricted Affiliate Lenders with respect to compliance with applicable limitations on assignments to Restricted Affiliate Lenders.

9.05 Delegation of Duties. The Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Loan Document by or through any one or more sub agents appointed by the Agent. The Agent and any such sub agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub agent and to the Related Parties of the Agent and any such sub agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as the Agent.

If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and, if applicable, consented to by the Lead Borrower and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may on behalf of the Lenders and the L/C Issuer, appoint a successor Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above; provided that if the Agent shall notify in writing the Lead Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (1) the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents

(except that in the case of any Collateral held by the Agent on behalf of the Lenders or the L/C Issuer under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Agent is appointed) and (2) all payments and communications provided to be made by, to or through the Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender and the L/C Issuer directly and all determinations to be made by the Agent shall be made by two Lenders (or if only there is only one Lender, then the sole Lender) holding the largest amount of the Aggregate Commitments (or if the Commitments have been terminated, the Loans) (other than, in each case, with respect to Defaulting Lenders in which such payments, communications and determinations are not required or are at the discretion of the Agent, which the Borrowers may retain as if it were the Agent in accordance with this Agreement), until such time as the Required Lenders appoint (and, if applicable, the Lead Borrower consents to) a successor Agent as provided for above in this Section. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section) and the retiring (or retired) Agent agrees to deliver all Collateral in its or its subagents' or its representatives' possession to the successor Agent at the address specified by such successor Agent to the retiring (or retired) Agent in writing. The fees payable by the Borrowers to a successor Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Lead Borrower and such successor Agent. After the retiring Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article and Section 10.04 (subject to the limitations set forth therein) shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its subagents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Agent was acting as Agent hereunder.

Any resignation by Wells Fargo as Agent pursuant to this Section shall also constitute its resignation as Swing Line Lender and the resignation of Wells Fargo as L/C Issuer. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Agent hereunder, (a) such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring L/C Issuer and Swing Line Lender, (b) the retiring L/C Issuer and Swing Line Lender shall, going forward, be discharged from all of their respective duties and obligations and rights hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, and (c) the successor L/C Issuer shall issue letters of credit in substitution for the Letters of Credit, if any, outstanding at the time of such succession or make other arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the retiring L/C Issuer to effectively assume the obligations of the retiring L/C Issuer with respect to such Letters of Credit.

9.07 Non-Reliance on Agent and Other Lenders. Each Lender and the L/C Issuer acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Agent, any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender and the L/C Issuer also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Agent, any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder. Except as provided in Section 9.12, the Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility to provide any Credit Party with any other credit or other information concerning the affairs, financial condition or business of any Loan Party that may come into the possession of any such agent.

9.08 No Other Duties, Etc. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, none of the Bookrunners, Arrangers, Syndication Agent or Documentation Agent listed on the cover page hereof shall have any powers, duties or responsibilities under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, except in its capacity as the Agent, a Lender, the Swing Line Lender or the L/C Issuer hereunder.

9.09 Agent May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan or L/C Obligation shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Agent shall have made any written demand on the Loan Parties) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans, L/C Obligations and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, the L/C Issuer, the Agent and the other Credit Parties (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, the L/C Issuer, the Agent, such Credit Parties and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders, the L/C Issuer the Agent and such Credit Parties under Sections 2.03(i), 2.03(j) and 2.03(k) as applicable, 2.09 and 10.04) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, interim receiver, monitor, administrator, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender, the L/C Issuer and each other Credit Party to make such payments to the Agent and, if the Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, the L/C Issuer and the other Credit Parties, to pay to the Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or the L/C Issuer any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or the L/C Issuer or to authorize the Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or the L/C Issuer in any such proceeding.

9.10 Collateral and Guaranty Matters. The Credit Parties irrevocably authorize the Agent, at its option and in its sole discretion,

(a) to release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Agent under any Loan Document (i) upon termination of the Aggregate Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations for which no claim has been asserted and unasserted expense reimbursement obligations), and the expiration, termination, backstopping or Cash Collateralization of all Letters of Credit required hereunder, (ii) that is Disposed or to be Disposed as part of or in connection with any Disposition permitted hereunder or under any other Loan Document, or (iii) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Applicable Lenders in accordance with Section 10.01;

(b) Reserved; and

(c) to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Facility Guaranty if such Person ceases to be a Subsidiary as a result of a transaction permitted hereunder.

Upon request by the Agent at any time, the Applicable Lenders will confirm in writing the Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Facility Guaranty pursuant to this Section 9.10. In each case as specified in this Section 9.10, the Agent will, at the Loan Parties' reasonable expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment, security interest and Lien granted under the Security Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release such Guarantor from its obligations under the Facility Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this Section 9.10.

9.11 Notice of Transfer. The Agent may deem and treat a Lender party to this Agreement as the owner of such Lender's portion of the Obligations for all purposes, unless and until, and except to the extent, an Assignment and Acceptance shall have become effective as set forth in Section 10.06.

9.12 Reports and Financial Statements. By signing this Agreement, each Lender:

(a) agrees to furnish the Agent, at such times as the Agent may reasonably request, with a summary of all Other Liabilities due or to become due to such Lender. In connection with any distributions to be made hereunder, the Agent shall be entitled to assume that no amounts are due to any Lender on account of Other Liabilities unless the Agent has received written notice thereof from such Lender;

(b) is deemed to have requested that the Agent furnish such Lender, promptly after they become available, copies of all Borrowing Base Certificates and financial statements required to be delivered by the Lead Borrower hereunder and all commercial finance examinations and appraisals of the Collateral received by the Agent (collectively, the "Reports");

(c) expressly agrees and acknowledges that the Agent makes no representation or warranty as to the accuracy of the Reports, and shall not be liable for any information contained in any Report;

(d) expressly agrees and acknowledges that the Reports are not comprehensive audits or examinations, that the Agent or any other party performing any audit or examination will inspect only specific information regarding the Loan Parties and will rely significantly upon the Loan Parties' books and records, as well as on representations of the Loan Parties' personnel;

(e) agrees to keep all Reports confidential in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.07 hereof; and

(f) without limiting the generality of any other indemnification provision contained in this Agreement, agrees: (i) to hold the Agent and any such other Lender preparing a Report harmless from any action the indemnifying Lender may take or conclusion the indemnifying Lender may reach or draw from any Report in connection with any Credit Extensions that the indemnifying Lender has made or may make to the Borrowers, or the indemnifying Lender's participation in, or the indemnifying Lender's purchase of, a Loan or Loans; and (ii) to pay and protect, and indemnify, defend, and hold the Agent and any such other Lender preparing a Report harmless from and against, the claims, actions, proceedings, damages, costs, expenses, and other amounts (including attorney costs) incurred by the Agent and any such other Lender preparing a Report as the direct or indirect result of any third parties who might obtain all or part of any Report through the indemnifying Lender.

9.13 Agency for Perfection. Each Lender hereby appoints each other Lender as agent for the purpose of perfecting Liens for the benefit of the Agent and the Lenders, in assets which, in accordance with Article 9 of the UCC or any other applicable Law of the United States can be perfected only by possession. Should any Lender (other than the Agent) obtain possession of any such Collateral, such Lender shall notify the Agent thereof, and, promptly upon the Agent's request therefor shall deliver such Collateral to the Agent or otherwise deal with such Collateral in accordance with the Agent's instructions.

9.14 Indemnification of Agent. Without limiting the obligations of the Loan Parties hereunder, the Lenders hereby agree to indemnify the Agent, the L/C Issuer and any Related Party, as the case may be, ratably according to their Applicable Percentages, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Agent, the L/C Issuer and their Related Parties in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Agent, the L/C Issuer and their Related Parties in connection therewith; provided, that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Agent's, the L/C Issuer's and their Related Parties' gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

9.15 Relation among Lenders. The Lenders are not partners or co-venturers, and no Lender shall be liable for the acts or omissions of, or (except as otherwise set forth herein in case of the Agent) authorized to act for, any other Lender.

9.16 Defaulting Lenders.

(a) If for any reason any Lender shall become a Defaulting Lender and such failure is not cured within one (1) Business Day after receipt from the Agent of written notice thereof, then, in addition to the rights and remedies that may be available to the other Credit Parties, the Loan Parties', or any other party at law or in equity (and not at limitation thereof): (i) any such Defaulting Lender's right to participate in the administration of, or decision-making rights related to, the Obligations, this Agreement or the other Loan Documents shall be suspended during the pendency of such failure or refusal, (ii) any such Defaulting Lender shall be deemed to have assigned any and all payments due to it from the Loan Parties, whether on account of outstanding Loans, interest, fees or otherwise, to the remaining non-Defaulting Lenders for application to, and reduction of, their proportionate shares of all outstanding Obligations, and (iii) at the option of the Agent, any amount payable to such Defaulting Lender hereunder (whether on account of principal, interest, fees or otherwise) shall, in lieu of being distributed to such Defaulting Lender, be retained by the Agent as cash collateral for future funding obligations of the Defaulting Lender in respect of any Loan or existing or future participating interest in any Swing Line Loan or Letter of Credit. Such Defaulting Lender's decision-making and participation rights and rights to payments as set forth in clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) hereinabove shall be restored only upon the payment by the Defaulting Lender of its Applicable Percentage of any Obligations, any participation obligation, or expenses as to which it is delinquent, together with interest thereon at the rate set forth in Section 2.08(c) hereof from the date when originally due until the date upon which any such amounts are actually paid, or otherwise cure such default or other cause of such Lender becoming a Defaulting Lender.

(b) The non-Defaulting Lenders shall also have the right, but not the obligation, in their respective, sole and absolute discretion, to cause the termination and assignment, without any further action by the Defaulting Lender for no cash consideration (pro rata, based on the respective Commitments of those Lenders electing to exercise such right), of the Defaulting Lender's Commitment to fund future Loans. Upon any such purchase of the Applicable Percentage of any Defaulting Lender, the Defaulting Lender's share in future Credit Extensions and its rights under the Loan Documents with respect thereto shall terminate on the date of purchase, and the or Defaulting Lender shall promptly execute all documents reasonably requested to surrender and transfer such interest, including, if so requested, an Assignment and Acceptance.

(c) Each Defaulting Lender shall indemnify the Agent and each non-Defaulting Lender from and against any and all loss, damage or expenses, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and funds advanced by the Agent or by any non-Defaulting Lender, on account of a Defaulting Lender's failure to timely fund its Applicable Percentage of a Loan or to otherwise perform its obligations under the Loan Documents.

9.17 Syndication Agent; Documentation Agent and Tranche A-1 Agent.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, no Person who is or becomes a Syndication Agent or a Documentation Agent shall have any powers, rights, duties, responsibilities or liabilities with respect to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(b) The Tranche A-1 Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents. The Tranche A-1 Agent shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though they were not the Tranche A-1 Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Tranche A-1 Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Each Lender and the L/C Issuer acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Tranche A-1 Agent or any of its Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender and the L/C Issuer also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Tranche A-1 Agent or any of its Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

9.18 Intercreditor Agreement. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the Agent was authorized to enter into the Intercreditor Agreement, and that such agreement is binding upon them. Each Lender and other Credit Party (a) hereby consents to the subordination of the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations to the extent, and on the terms set forth in, the Intercreditor Agreement, (b) hereby agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement and (c) hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Intercreditor Agreement, together with the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations and Pre-Petition Obligations pursuant thereto, remains in full force and effect. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the Credit Parties to extend credit to the Borrowers, and such Credit Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions and the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement.

9.19 Reserves. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, as long as the Tranche A-1 Loan remains outstanding, the Agent shall maintain Reserves (without limiting the right of the Agent to include additional Reserves or the requirement to include the Tranche A-1 Reserve) of the type existing on the Closing Date; provided that (x) the Agent may eliminate any Reserve concurrent with, or after elimination of, the event or circumstance that gave rise to the establishment of such Reserve, (y) the Agent may change, in its Permitted Discretion, the methodology used to calculate any Reserve if the effect of such change is to increase the amount of such Reserve and (z) the Agent may reduce, eliminate or modify any Reserves to the extent imposed or established after the Closing Date. For clarity, the foregoing shall not limit the right of the Agent (i) to modify the amount of any of the Reserves based upon mathematical calculations (e.g. based on an increase or reduction in Customer Credit Liabilities at the time of calculation) or (ii) without regard to clause (i) hereof, to increase any Reserve from the level in effect at the time of the Closing Date and thereafter to reduce the amount of such Reserve to an amount not less than the amount thereof in effect on the Closing Date, in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii), in a manner otherwise permitted by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt (1) the Tranche A-1 Reserve (if any) shall be automatically applied to the Tranche A-1 Borrowing Base at all times and (2) nothing herein shall limit the Agent's ability to change the Appraised Value of the Eligible Inventory pursuant to the most recent appraisal obtained by the Agent.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS

10.01 Amendments, Etc. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, shall be effective unless in writing (x) in the case of the Intercreditor Agreement, with the consent of the Required Lenders and the Required Tranche A-1 Lenders obtained (or signed by the Agent, with the consent of the Required Lenders and the Required Tranche A-1 Lenders), (y) other than as set forth in clause (x) above, with the consent of the Required Lenders obtained (or signed by the Agent, with the consent of the Required Lenders), and (z) signed by the Lead Borrower or the applicable Loan Party, as the case may be, and each such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided, however, that no such amendment, waiver or consent shall:

(a) increase the Commitment of any Lender (or reinstate any Commitment terminated pursuant to Section 8.02) without the written consent of such Lender;

(b) as to any Lender, postpone any date fixed by this Agreement or any other Loan Document for (i) any scheduled payment (including the Maturity Date) or mandatory prepayment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts due hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents without the written consent of such Lender entitled to such payment, or (ii) any scheduled or mandatory reduction or termination of the Aggregate Commitments hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the written consent of such Lender.

(c) as to any Lender, reduce the principal of, or the rate of interest specified herein on, any Loan held by such Lender, or (subject to clause (iv) of the second proviso to this Section 10.01) any fees or other amounts payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to or for the account of such Lender; provided, however, that only the consent of the Required Lenders shall be necessary to amend the definition of "Default Rate" or to waive any obligation of the Borrowers to pay interest or Letter of Credit Fees at the Default Rate;

(d) as to any Lender, change Section 2.13 or Section 8.03 in a manner that would alter the pro rata sharing of payments required thereby without the written consent of such Lender, and (ii) repayments required upon the Termination Date of the non-extending Commitments);

(e) change any provision of this Section 10.01 (other than clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (i), (j) or (l) of this proviso, which are addressed in clause (f) below) or the definition of "Required Lenders" or any other provision hereof specifying the number or percentage of Lenders required to amend, waive or otherwise modify any rights hereunder or make any determination or grant any consent hereunder, without the written consent of each Lender (other than any Restricted Affiliate Lender);

(f) amend clause (a), (b), (c), (d), (i), (j) or (l) of this proviso without the written consent of each Lender;

(g) except for (i) Permitted Dispositions, (ii) transactions permitted by Section 6.21 or Section 7.04, (iii) as permitted hereunder (including Section 9.10 hereof) or under any other Loan Document and (iv) the payment in full of all Obligations, (y) release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens of the Security Documents, or (z) release any Loan Party from its Obligations under the Loan Documents (including any release of a Guarantor from the Facility Guaranty) or amendment of any Guarantor's obligations from secured to unsecured, or from a full recourse Guarantee to a limited or non-recourse Guarantee), in each case, without the written consent of each Lender other than the Restricted Affiliate Lenders;

(h) increase the Aggregate Commitments without the written consent of each Lender;

(i) increase any advance rate percentage set forth in the definition of "Tranche A Borrowing Base" or otherwise change the definition of the term "Tranche A Borrowing Base" or any component definition thereof if as a result thereof the amounts available to be borrowed by the Borrowers would be increased without the written consent of each Lender, provided that the foregoing shall not limit (i) the discretion of the Agent to change, establish or eliminate any Reserves, or (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, the Agent's ability to change the Appraised Value of the Eligible Inventory and Eligible Real Estate pursuant to the most recent applicable appraisal obtained by the Agent;

(j) modify the definition of Permitted Overadvance so as to increase the amount thereof or, except as provided in such definition, the time period for which a Permitted Overadvance may remain outstanding without the written consent of each Lender;

(k) except as expressly permitted herein or in any other Loan Document, subordinate the Obligations hereunder or the Liens granted hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, to any other Indebtedness or Lien, as the case may be without the written consent of each Lender; provided that the Agent may enter into the Intercreditor Agreement or any amendment, restatement, supplement or other modification thereto without the consent of any Lender; and

(l) change the definition of the term "Tranche A-1 Borrowing Base" or any component definition thereof if as a result thereof the amounts available to be borrowed by the Borrowers would be increased without the written consent of each Tranche A-1 Lender, provided that the foregoing shall not limit (i) the discretion of the Agent to change, establish or eliminate any Reserves, or (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, the Agent's ability to change the Appraised Value of the Eligible Inventory pursuant to the most recent appraisal obtained by the Agent;

and, provided further, that (i) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the L/C Issuer in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of the L/C Issuer under this Agreement or any Issuer Document relating to any Letter of Credit issued or to be issued by it; (ii) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Swing Line Lender in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of the Swing Line Lender under this Agreement; (iii) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Agent in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of the Agent under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; (v) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Tranche A-1 Agent, in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of the Tranche A-1 Agent under this Agreement (except with respect to the automatic deletion of such agent in accordance with the provisions of the definition of "Tranche A-1 Agent" as in effect on the Closing Date), (v) the Fee Letter may be amended, or rights or privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto, and (vi) any extension, increase or renewal of the Commitment of any Lender shall be subject to flood insurance diligence and compliance reasonably satisfactory to such Lender, as applicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder, except that the Commitment of such Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, no provider or holder of any Bank Products or Cash Management Services shall have any voting or approval rights hereunder (or be deemed a Lender) solely by virtue of its status as the provider or holder of such agreements or products or the Obligations owing thereunder, nor shall the consent of any such provider or holder be required (other than in their capacities as Lenders, to the extent applicable) for any matter hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents, including as to any matter relating to the Collateral or the release of Collateral or any Loan Party.

If any Lender does not consent (a “Non-Consenting Lender”) to a proposed amendment, waiver, consent or release with respect to any Loan Document that requires the consent of each Lender that is required to consent (e.g., all Lenders, all affected Lenders, all Tranche A Lenders or all Tranche A-1 Lenders, as applicable) and that has been approved by the Required Lenders, the Lead Borrower may replace such Non-Consenting Lender in accordance with Section 10.13; provided that such amendment, waiver, consent or release can be effected as a result of the assignment contemplated by such Section (together with all other such assignments required by the Lead Borrower to be made pursuant to this paragraph). The Agent may, and is hereby deemed instructed by the Applicable Lenders to, consent to amendments (or amendments and restatements) to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate in the reasonable opinion of the Agent to effect the transactions contemplated by Section 6.12(b)(3) to the extent the applicable Person being joined as a Loan Party is organized under the Laws of Puerto Rico or Canada.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 10.01 or otherwise in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (i) this Agreement and any other Loan Document may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, or any provision thereof waived, with the consent of the Agent and the Borrowers without the need to obtain the consent of any Lender, Swing Line Lender or L/C Issuer, if such amendment, supplement, modification or waiver is delivered in order to (A) to comply with local Law or advice of local counsel, (B) cure ambiguities, omissions, mistakes or defects or (C) cause any Security Document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and (ii) without the consent of any Lender, Swing Line Lender or L/C Issuer, the Borrowers and the Agent or any collateral agent may enter into any amendment, supplement or modification of any Loan Document, or enter into any new agreement or instrument, to effect the granting, perfection, protection, expansion or enhancement of any security interest of the Credit Parties in any Collateral or additional property to become Collateral for the benefit of the Credit Parties or as required by local law to give effect to, or protect any security interests for the benefit of the Credit Parties, in any property or so that the security interests therein comply with applicable Law or this Agreement or in each case to otherwise enhance the rights or benefits of any Lender under any Loan Document. The Agent shall make available to the Lenders copies of each such amendment or other modification to this Agreement.

Further, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in this Section 10.01 to the contrary, for purposes of determining whether the Required Lenders, all directly affected Lenders or all Lenders have (A) consented (or not consented) to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action with respect to any of the terms of any Loan Document or any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, (B) otherwise acted on any matter related to any Loan Document, or (C) directed or required the Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) with respect to or under any Loan Document, the aggregate amount of Commitments held by the Restricted Affiliate Lenders shall, except in the case of any Restricted Affiliate Lender Amendment be disregarded (and treated for all purposes as if not outstanding); provided, however, if the Required Lenders shall have consented to such amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action, then each Restricted Affiliate Lender shall be deemed to have affirmatively consented to such amendment, waiver, modification or other action (notwithstanding that such Restricted Affiliate Lender's Commitments were disregarded (and treated for all purposes as if not outstanding) in the determination of whether Required Lenders had consented to such amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action); provided further, that any amendment, modification, waiver or consent under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (i), (j) and (l) of the first proviso set forth in Section 10.01 shall require the affirmative consent of each Restricted Affiliate Lender (such amendment, modification, waiver or consent being a "Restricted Affiliate Lender Amendment"). In addition, for the avoidance of doubt, the limitations set forth in this Section 10.01 with respect to a Restricted Affiliate Lender shall not be applicable to any Lender which is an assignee of a Restricted Affiliate Lender of a Loan (or a participating interest therein) previously legally or beneficially owned by a Restricted Affiliate Lender as long as such assignee is not a Restricted Affiliate Lender or an Affiliate of the Sponsor.

Each Restricted Affiliate Lender, solely in its capacity as a Lender, hereby agrees, and each Affiliate Lender Assignment Agreement shall provide a confirmation that, (i) such Restricted Affiliate Lender shall not take any step or action in the Chapter 11 Case, the Canadian Case or any other voluntary or involuntary proceeding commenced under any Debtor Relief Law to object to, impede, or delay the exercise of any rights or the taking of any action by the Agent or Tranche A-1 Agent (or the taking of any action by a third party that is supported by the Agent or Tranche A-1 Agent) in relation to such Restricted Affiliate Lender's claim with respect to its Loans (a "Claim") (including, without limitation, objecting to any debtor in possession financing, use of cash collateral, grant of adequate protection, sale or disposition, compromise, or plan of reorganization) so long as such Restricted Affiliate Lender is treated in connection with such exercise or action on the same or better terms as the other Lenders and (ii) with respect to any matter requiring the vote of Lenders during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Case, the Canadian Case or any other voluntary or involuntary proceeding commenced under any Debtor Relief Law (including, without limitation, voting on any plan of reorganization), the Loans held by such Restricted Affiliate Lender (and any Claim with respect thereto) shall be deemed to be voted without discretion in the same proportion as the allocation of voting with respect to such matter by Lenders who are not Restricted Affiliate Lenders, so long as such Restricted Affiliate Lender is treated in connection with the exercise of such right or taking of such action on the same or better terms as the other Lenders. For the avoidance of doubt, the Lenders and each Restricted Affiliate Lender agree and acknowledge that the provisions set forth in this paragraph, and the related provisions set forth in each Affiliate Lender Assignment Agreement, constitute a "subordination agreement" as such term is contemplated by, and utilized in, Section 510(a) of the United States Bankruptcy Code, and, as such, would be enforceable for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Case, the Canadian Case and in any other case where a Loan Party has filed for protection under any Debtor Relief Law applicable to such Loan Party.

The Lead Borrower agrees that, upon request by the Agent, the Lead Borrower shall promptly provide to the Agent a complete list of all Restricted Affiliate Lenders who are holding any Commitments at such time (in each case, so long as the Lead Borrower shall have received notice of any assignment of Commitments to Restricted Affiliate Lenders).

10.02 Notices; Effectiveness; Electronic Communications.

(a) Notices Generally. Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in subsection (b) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by telecopier as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(i) if to the Loan Parties, the Agent, the L/C Issuer or the Swing Line Lender, to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 10.02; and

(ii) if to any other Lender, to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire.

(iii) Notices sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices sent by telecopier shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient). Notices delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in subsection (b) below, shall be effective as provided in such subsection (b).

(b) Electronic Communications. Notices and other communications to the Loan Parties, the Agent, the Lenders, the L/C Issuer and the other Credit Parties hereunder, whether required to be delivered “in writing” or otherwise, may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Agent, provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender or the L/C Issuer pursuant to Article II if such Lender or the L/C Issuer, as applicable, has notified the Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication. The Agent agrees to promptly inform the Lead Borrower if any such Lender or L/C Issuer, as applicable, has notified the Agent that it is incapable of receiving such notices under Article II by electronic communication. The Agent may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it, provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Unless the Agent otherwise prescribes in writing, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender’s receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the “return receipt requested” function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), provided that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient, and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(c) The Platform. THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE.” THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the “Agent Parties”) have any liability to any Loan Party, any Lender, the L/C Issuer or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Loan Parties' or the Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet, except to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent Party; provided, however, that in no event shall any Agent Party have any liability to any Loan Party, any Lender, the L/C Issuer or any other Person for indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages).

(d) Change of Address, Etc. Each of the Loan Parties, the Agent, the L/C Issuer and the Swing Line Lender may change its address, telecopier or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the other parties hereto. Each other Lender may change its address, telecopier or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by written notice to the Lead Borrower, the Agent, the L/C Issuer and the Swing Line Lender. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Agent in writing from time to time to ensure that the Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, telecopier number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender.

(e) Reliance by Agent, L/C Issuer and Lenders. The Agent, the L/C Issuer and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely and act upon any notices in good faith (including telephonic Swing Line Loan Notices) purportedly given by or on behalf of the Loan Parties even if (i) such notices were not made in a manner specified herein, were incomplete or were not preceded or followed by any other form of notice specified herein, or (ii) the terms thereof, as understood by the recipient, varied from any confirmation thereof. The Loan Parties shall indemnify the Agent, the L/C Issuer, each Lender and the Related Parties of each of them from all losses, costs, expenses and liabilities resulting from the reliance in good faith by such Person on each notice purportedly given by or on behalf of the Loan Parties (other than any losses, costs, expenses and liabilities found by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and nonappealable judgment to have directly arisen from such Person's or its Related Parties' gross negligence or willful misconduct). All telephonic notices to and other telephonic communications with the Agent or any Loan Party may be recorded by the Agent or any Loan Party, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to such recording.

(f) Information Provisions Relating to Restricted Affiliate Lenders. No Affiliate of the Sponsor (including any Restricted Affiliate Lender) shall have any right to (A) receive any information, reports or other materials prepared by the Agent or any Lender or any communication by or among the Agent and/or one or more Lenders, except to the extent such information, reports, materials or communications have been made available to the Borrowers, (B) attend (including by telephone or any other method) any meeting or discussions (or portion thereof) among the Agent and any Lender to which representatives of the Borrowers are not invited or (C) access any electronic site established for the Lenders and not the Borrowers, or confidential communications from counsel or financial advisors of the Agent or the Lenders.

10.03 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure by any Credit Party to exercise, and no delay by any such Person in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Loan Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided herein and in the other Loan Documents are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the making of a Loan or issuance of a Letter of Credit shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default or Event of Default, regardless of whether any Credit Party may have had notice or knowledge of such Default or Event of Default at the time.

10.04 Expenses; Indemnity; Damage Waiver.

(a) Costs and Expenses. The Borrowers shall pay all Credit Party Expenses.

(b) Indemnification by the Loan Parties. Other than with respect to Indemnified Taxes and Other Taxes which are addressed in Section 3.01, the Loan Parties shall indemnify the Agent (and any sub-agent thereof), each other Credit Party, and each Related Party of any of the foregoing Persons (each such Person being called an “Indemnitee”) against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless (on an after tax basis) from, any and all losses, claims, causes of action, damages, liabilities, settlement payments, costs, and related expenses (including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of one primary counsel, one local counsel in each reasonably necessary and relevant jurisdiction and one specialty counsel in each reasonably necessary and relevant jurisdiction, if applicable, for each reasonably necessary and relevant specialty and shall include reasonable and documented allocated costs of in-house counsel), incurred by any Indemnitee or asserted against any Indemnitee by any third party or by any Borrower or any other Loan Party arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder or thereunder or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or, in the case of the Agent (and any sub-agents thereof) and their Related Parties only, the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom (including any refusal by the L/C Issuer to honor a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit if the documents presented in connection with such demand do not strictly comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit, any bank advising or confirming a Letter of Credit or any other nominated person with respect to a Letter of Credit seeking to be reimbursed or indemnified or compensated, and any third party seeking to enforce the rights of a Borrower, beneficiary, nominated person, transferee, assignee of Letter of Credit proceeds, or holder of an instrument or document related to any Letter of Credit), (iii) any actual or alleged presence or release of Hazardous Materials on or from any property owned or operated by any Loan Party or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, or any Environmental Liability related in any way to any Loan Party or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, (iv) any claims of, or amounts paid by any Credit Party to, a Blocked Account Bank or other Person which has entered into a control agreement in connection with the requirements hereunder with any Credit Party hereunder, or (v) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by any Borrower or any other Loan Party or any of the Loan Parties’ directors, shareholders or creditors, and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto, in all cases, whether or not caused by or arising, in whole or in part, out of the comparative, contributory or sole negligence of the Indemnitee; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses (v) are determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have directly resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or of any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries or any of the officers, directors, managers, employees or controlling Persons of such Indemnitee or any of such Indemnitee’s Affiliates or Subsidiaries, (w) result from a claim brought by a Borrower or any other Loan Party against an Indemnitee for breach in bad faith of such Indemnitee’s obligations hereunder or under any other Loan Document, if the Borrowers or such Loan Party has obtained a final and nonappealable judgment in its favor on such claim as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction will give prior written notice of any settlements; (y) a material intentional breach of any obligations under any Loan Document by such Indemnitee or of any such Indemnitee’s Related Parties, in each case as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees other than any claims against an Indemnitee in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as an agent or arranger or any similar role under this Agreement or other Loan Documents and other than any claims arising out of any act or omission of the Borrowers or any of their Affiliates, in each case as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, the Agent shall, to the extent practical, endeavor to provide the Lead Borrower with prior notice of any settlements, but failure to provide such notice shall not negate the effectiveness of such settlement, or impose any liability or obligations on the Agent or any other Credit Party.

(c) Reimbursement by Lenders. Without limiting their obligations under Section 9.14 hereof, to the extent that the Loan Parties for any reason fail to pay any amount required under subsection (a) or (b) of this Section to be paid by it, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Agent (or any such sub-agent), the L/C Issuer or such Related Party, as the case may be, such Lender's Applicable Percentage (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount, provided that the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Agent (or any such sub-agent) or the L/C Issuer in its capacity as such, or against any Related Party of any of the foregoing acting for the Agent (or any such sub-agent) or L/C Issuer in connection with such capacity. The obligations of the Lenders under this subsection (c) are subject to the provisions of Section 2.12(d).

(d) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Loan Parties shall not assert, and hereby waive, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof. No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed to such unintended recipients by such Indemnitee through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby other than for direct or actual damages resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee as determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Payments. All amounts due under this Section shall be payable on demand therefor.

(f) Survival. The agreements in this Section shall survive the resignation of the Agent and the L/C Issuer, the assignment of any Commitment or Loan by any Lender, the replacement of any Lender, the termination of the Aggregate Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the other Obligations.

10.05 Payments Set Aside. To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Loan Parties is made to any Credit Party, or any Credit Party exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such Credit Party in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (b) each Lender and the L/C Issuer severally agrees to pay to the Agent upon demand its Applicable Percentage (without duplication) of any amount so recovered from or repaid by the Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the Federal Funds Rate from time to time in effect. The obligations of the Lenders and the L/C Issuer under clause (b) of the preceding sentence shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

10.06 Successors and Assigns.

(a) Successors and Assigns Generally. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that no Loan Party may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of the Agent and each Lender and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder except (i) to an Eligible Assignee in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.06(b), (ii) by way of participation in accordance with the provisions of subsection Section 10.06(d), or (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest subject to the restrictions of Section 10.06(f) (and any other attempted assignment or transfer by any party hereto shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants to the extent provided in subsection (d) of this Section and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Credit Parties) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) Assignments by Lenders. Any Lender may at any time assign to one or more Eligible Assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment(s) and the Loans (including for purposes of this Section 10.06(b), participations in L/C Obligations and in Swing Line Loans) at the time owing to it); provided that any such assignment shall be subject to the following conditions:

(i) Minimum Amounts,

(A) in the case of an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it or in the case of an assignment to a Lender or an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to a Lender, no minimum amount need be assigned; and

(B) in any case not described in subsection (b)(i)(A) of this Section, the aggregate amount of the Commitment (which for this purpose includes Loans outstanding thereunder) or, if the Commitment is not then in effect, the principal outstanding balance of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment, determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Agent or, if "Trade Date" is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date, shall not be less than $5,000,000 unless each of the Agent and, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Lead Borrower otherwise consents (each such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that concurrent assignments to members of an Assignee Group and concurrent assignments from members of an Assignee Group to a single Eligible Assignee (or to an Eligible Assignee and members of its Assignee Group) will be treated as a single assignment for purposes of determining whether such minimum amount has been met;

(ii) Proportionate Amounts. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitment assigned, except that this clause (ii) shall not apply to the Swing Line Lender's rights and obligations in respect of Swing Line Loans;

(iii) Required Consents. No consent shall be required for any assignment except to the extent required by subsection (b)(i)(B) of this Section and, in addition:

(A) Reserved; and

(B) the consent of the Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required for assignments in respect of any Commitment if such assignment is to a Person that is not a Lender, an Affiliate of such Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to such Lender; provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, any assignment to a Restricted Affiliate Lender shall require the prior written consent of the Agent (it being understood that the Agent shall consent to any such assignment so long as such Restricted Affiliate Lender represents that such assignment does not cause Restricted Affiliate Lenders (1) to hold or have participation interests in, collectively, greater than 50% of the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments or (2) at any time there are more than two Tranche A-1 Lenders, to consist of more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the total number of all the Tranche A-1 Lenders); and

(C) the consent of the L/C Issuer (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required for any assignment that increases the obligation of the assignee to participate in exposure under one or more Letters of Credit (whether or not then outstanding); and

(D) the consent of the Swing Line Lender (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required for any assignment in respect of the assignment of any Commitment.

(iv) Assignment and Assumption. The parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Agent an Assignment and Assumption (or in the case of an assignment to a Restricted Affiliate Lender, an Affiliate Lender Assignment Agreement) (on which Assignment and Assumption the Assignee shall include a notice address for such Person), together with a processing and recordation fee of $3,500, provided, however, that (i) the Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment and (ii) such processing and recordation fee shall not be required with respect to any assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund. The assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Agent an Administrative Questionnaire. The Affiliate Lender Assignment Agreement will contain (i) a representation and warranty to the effect that, after giving effect to the assignment thereunder, the assignee (together with all other Restricted Affiliate Lenders who are Lenders or are Participants under Section 10.06(d) of this Agreement) hold directly (or indirectly as participating interests) an aggregate amount of the Tranche A-1 Commitments no greater than 50% of the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments, (ii) a representation and warranty to the effect that, after giving effect to the assignment thereunder, at any time that there are more than two Tranche A-1 Lenders, the Restricted Affiliate Lenders shall not consist of more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the total number of all Tranche A-1 Lenders and (iii) a provision that any assignment to a Restricted Affiliate Lender that would (1) result in such Restricted Affiliate Lender (together with all other Restricted Affiliate Lenders who are Lenders or are Participants under Section 10.06(d) of this Agreement) holding directly (or indirectly as participating interest) an aggregate amount of the Tranche A-1 Commitments in excess of 50% of the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments or (2) at any time there are more than two Tranche A-1 Lenders, result in the Restricted Affiliate Lenders consisting of more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the total number of all Tranche A-1 Lenders is void ab initio.

Subject to acceptance (to the extent Agent's consent is required pursuant to this Section 10.06, otherwise, subject to receiving) and recording thereof by the Agent pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section and delivering the documentation required by Section 3.01(e) to the Lead Borrower and the Agent if the Eligible Assignee would be a Foreign Lender, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption, the Eligible Assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto) but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01, 3.04, 3.05, and 10.04 (including any limitations to and restrictions on such benefits set forth therein and elsewhere in the Loan Documents) with respect to facts and circumstances occurring prior to the effective date of such assignment and shall be subject to the obligations of the immediately succeeding sentence. Upon request, after the Lead Borrower receives either (i) the original Note held by the assigning Lender evidencing the assigned Commitments or Loans or (ii) a lost note affidavit in form and substance satisfactory to the Borrowers executed by the assigning Lender and indemnifying the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties for any and all actions and claims that have arisen or may arise in connection with such lost Note evidencing the assigned Commitments or Loans in a manner that is reasonably acceptable to the Borrowers, the Borrowers (at their reasonable expense) shall issue a new Note in favor of the assignee Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this subsection shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 10.06(d).

(c) Register. The Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Borrowers (and such agency being solely for tax purposes), shall maintain at the Agent's Office a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts of the Loans and L/C Obligations owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Loan Parties, the Agent and the Lenders may treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary, without any liability to the Loan Parties or its Affiliates for any error set forth therein. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Lead Borrower and any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(d) Participations. Any Lender may at any time, without the consent of, or notice to, the Loan Parties or the Agent, sell participations to any Person (other than a natural person or the Loan Parties or any of the Loan Parties' Affiliates or Subsidiaries other than Restricted Affiliate Lenders in conformity with this clause (d)) (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and/or the Loans (including such Lender's participations in L/C Obligations and/or Swing Line Loans) owing to it); provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) the Loan Parties, the Agent, the Lenders and the L/C Issuer shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement; and provided, further, that (x) at no time shall any Lender sell Participations to a Restricted Affiliate Lender such that, after giving effect to such sale, such Participants (together with Restricted Affiliate Lenders) hold directly (or indirectly as participating interests) an aggregate amount of Tranche A-1 Commitments in excess of 50% of the Aggregate Tranche A-1 Commitments, (y) at no time shall any Lender sell Participations to a Restricted Affiliate Lender such that, after giving effect to such sale, at any time that there are more than two Tranche A-1 Lenders, such Participants (together with Restricted Affiliate Lenders), would consist of more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the total number of all Tranche A-1 Lenders and (z) no Participation may be sold to a Restricted Affiliate Lender if any Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. For the avoidance of doubt, no Participation of Tranche A Loans or Tranche A Commitments may be sold to a Restricted Affiliate Lender. Any Participant shall agree in writing to comply with all confidentiality obligations set forth in Section 10.07 as if such Participant was a Lender hereunder, and the Loan Parties shall be, solely with respect to provisions related to confidentiality, beneficiaries of any such agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, waiver or other modification described in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) (with respect to change to the provisions of Section 10.01) or (g) of the first proviso to Section 10.01 that affects such Participant; provided, further, that any consent from any Restricted Affiliate Lender shall be subject to and further limited as set forth in Section 10.01 to the same extent as if it were a Lender. Subject to subsection (e) of this Section, the Loan Parties agree that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01, 3.04, and 3.05 (subject to the limitations and restrictions set forth therein) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 10.06(b). To the extent permitted by Law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 10.08 as though it were a Lender, provided such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.13 as though it were a Lender. Each Lender, acting for this purpose as an agent of the Loan Parties, shall maintain at its offices a record of each agreement or instrument effecting any participation and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of its Participants and their rights with respect to principal amounts and other Obligations from time to time (each a "Participation Register"). The entries in each Participation Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error and the Loan Parties, the Agent, the L/C Issuer and the Lenders may treat each Person whose name is recorded in a Participant Register as a Participant for all purposes of this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of entitlement to benefits under Section 3.01, Section 3.04, Section 3.05 and Section 10.08), without any liability to the Loan Parties or its Affiliates for any error set forth therein. The Participation Register shall be available for inspection by the Lead Borrower, the L/C Issuer and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, each Lender agrees not to enter into any written agreement with any Participant that will permit such Participant to control the voting rights of such Lender with respect to amendments, restatements, modification, waivers and consents under Section 10.01 or other rights of such Lender under the Loan Documents that such Participant does not expressly receive pursuant to this Section 10.06(d).

(e) Limitations upon Participant Rights. A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 3.01, Section 3.04, or Section 3.05 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the Lead Borrower's prior written consent. A Participant that would be a Foreign Lender if it were a Lender shall not be entitled to the benefits of Section 3.01 unless the Lead Borrower is notified in writing of the participation sold to such Participant and such Participant agrees, for the benefit of the Loan Parties, to comply with Section 3.01(e) as though it were a Lender.

(f) Certain Pledges. Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including under its Note, if any) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank; provided that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(g) Electronic Execution of Assignments. The words “execution,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in any Assignment and Assumption shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

(h) Resignation as L/C Issuer or Swing Line Lender after Assignment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if at any time Wells Fargo assigns all of its Commitment and Loans pursuant to subsection (b) above, Wells Fargo may, (i) upon thirty (30) days’ written notice to the Lead Borrower and the Lenders, resign as L/C Issuer and/or (ii) upon thirty (30) days’ written notice to the Lead Borrower, Wells Fargo may resign as Swing Line Lender. In the event of any such resignation as L/C Issuer or Swing Line Lender, the Lead Borrower (in its sole discretion) shall be entitled to appoint from among the Lenders a successor L/C Issuer or Swing Line Lender hereunder (and the Lenders agree to accept such appointment, or if such Lenders reject such appointment in violation of this clause, then the Lead Borrower shall have the opportunity to appoint any other Person that is an Eligible Assignee and Wells Fargo agrees to consent to such appointment as Agent, L/C Issuer and Swing Line Lender); provided, however, that no failure by the Lead Borrower to appoint any such successor shall affect the resignation of Wells Fargo as L/C Issuer or Swing Line Lender, as the case may be. If Wells Fargo resigns as L/C Issuer, it shall retain all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the L/C Issuer hereunder with respect to all Letters of Credit outstanding as of the effective date of its resignation as L/C Issuer and all L/C Obligations with respect thereto (including the right to require the Lenders to make Base Rate Loans pursuant to Section 2.03(c)). If Wells Fargo resigns as Swing Line Lender, it shall retain all the rights of the Swing Line Lender provided for hereunder with respect to Swing Line Loans made by it and outstanding as of the effective date of such resignation, including the right to require the Lenders to make Base Rate Loans or fund risk participations in outstanding Swing Line Loans pursuant to Section 2.04(c). Upon the appointment of a successor L/C Issuer and/or Swing Line Lender, (a) such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring L/C Issuer or Swing Line Lender from and after the date of such appointment, as the case may be, and (b) the successor L/C Issuer shall issue letters of credit in substitution for (or backstop) the Letters of Credit, if any, outstanding at the time of such succession or make other arrangements satisfactory to Wells Fargo to effectively assume the obligations of Wells Fargo with respect to such Letters of Credit or the Borrowers shall have the opportunity to Cash Collateralize any outstanding Letters of Credit issued by Wells Fargo as L/C Issuer.

10.07 Treatment of Certain Information; Confidentiality. Each of the Credit Parties agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below), except that Information may be disclosed (a) to its Affiliates and to its and its Affiliates’ respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, funding sources, attorneys, advisors and representatives (it being understood and agreed that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential pursuant to the provisions of this Section 10.07 and the Loan Parties and its Affiliates shall be beneficiaries to such agreement), (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority purporting to have jurisdiction over it (including any self-regulatory authority, such as the National Association of Insurance Commissioners), (c) to the extent required by applicable Laws or regulations or by any subpoena or similar legal process, (d) to any other party hereto, (e) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under any other Loan Document or any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the enforcement of rights hereunder or thereunder, (f) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those (or more restrictive than those) of this Section, to (i) any assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or (ii) any actual or prospective counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to any Loan Party and its obligations (in the case of both clauses (i) and (ii) above it being understood and agreed that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential pursuant to the provisions of this Section 10.07 and the Loan Parties and its Affiliates shall be beneficiaries to such agreement), (g) with the consent of the Lead Borrower or (h) to the extent such Information (x) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section or (y) becomes available to any Credit Party or any of their respective Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Loan Parties.

For purposes of this Section, “Information” means all information received from the Loan Parties or any Affiliate thereof relating to the Loan Parties or any Affiliate thereof or their respective businesses, other than any such information that is available to any Credit Party on a non-confidential basis prior to disclosure by the Loan Parties or any Subsidiary thereof, provided that, in the case of information received from any Loan Party or any Subsidiary after the Closing Date, such information is clearly identified at the time of delivery as confidential. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord to its own confidential information.

Each of the Credit Parties acknowledges that (a) the Information may include material non-public information concerning the Loan Parties or a Subsidiary, as the case may be, (b) it has developed compliance procedures regarding the use of material non-public information and (c) it will handle such material non-public information in accordance with applicable Law, including Federal and state securities Laws.

10.08 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or if any Lender shall have been served with a trustee process or similar attachment relating to property of a Loan Party, subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, each Lender, the L/C Issuer and each of their respective Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, after obtaining the prior written consent of the Agent or the Required Lenders with prompt written notice thereof delivered to the Lead Borrower, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, in whatever currency) at any time held and other obligations (in whatever currency) at any time owing by such Lender, the L/C Issuer or any such Affiliate to or for the credit or the account of the Borrowers or any other Loan Party against any and all of the Obligations now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document to such Lender or the L/C Issuer, regardless of the adequacy of the Collateral, and irrespective of whether or not such Lender or the L/C Issuer shall have made any written demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such obligations of the Borrowers or such Loan Party may be contingent or unmatured or are owed to a branch or office of such Lender or the L/C Issuer different from the branch or office holding such deposit or obligated on such indebtedness. The rights of each Lender, the L/C Issuer and their respective Affiliates under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that such Lender, the L/C Issuer or their respective Affiliates may have. Each Lender and the L/C Issuer agrees to notify in writing the Lead Borrower and the Agent promptly after any such setoff and application, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

10.09 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable Law (the “Maximum Rate”). If the Agent or any Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrowers. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Agent or a Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

10.10 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each of the parties hereto and when the Agent and the Lead Borrower shall have received counterparts hereof that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by telecopy, pdf., or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

10.11 Survival. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Loan Document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Credit Parties, regardless of any investigation made by any Credit Party or on their behalf and notwithstanding that any Credit Party may have had notice or knowledge of any Default or Event of Default at the time of any Credit Extension, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied or any Letter of Credit shall remain outstanding (other than any Letter of Credit that has been Cash Collateralized or such other collateral has been accepted by the Agent and L/C Issuer). Further, the provisions of Sections 3.01, 3.04, 3.05 and 10.04 and Article IX shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the repayment of the Obligations, the expiration or termination of the Letters of Credit (other than any Letter of Credit that has been Cash Collateralized or such other collateral has been accepted by the Agent and L/C Issuer) and the Commitments or the termination of this Agreement or any provision hereof. In connection with the termination of this Agreement and the release and termination of the security interests in the Collateral, the Agent may require such indemnities and collateral security as they shall reasonably deem necessary or appropriate to protect the Credit Parties against (x) loss on account of credits previously applied to the Obligations that may subsequently be reversed or revoked, (y) any obligations that may thereafter arise with respect to the Other Liabilities and (z) any Obligations that may thereafter arise under Section 10.04.

10.12 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

10.13 Replacement of Lenders. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the other Loan Documents, if any Lender or L/C Issuer requests compensation under Section 3.04, or if the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender, L/C Issuer or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender or L/C Issuer pursuant to Section 3.01, any Lender delivers a notice described in Section 3.02 or if any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or a Non-Consenting Lender, then the Borrowers may, at their sole reasonable expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender or L/C Issuer, as the case may be, and the Agent, require such Lender or L/C Issuer to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in, and consents required by, Section 10.06), all of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement and the related Loan Documents to an assignee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment), provided that:

(a) the Borrowers shall have paid to the Agent the processing and recordation fee specified in Section 10.06(b), unless waived by the Agent in its sole discretion;

(b) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (including any amounts under Section 3.05) from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrowers (in the case of all other amounts) (if such Lender is a Defaulting Lender, excluding any amounts such Lender is not entitled to receive pursuant to Section 9.16(a) after subtracting all amounts such Lender owe to the Loan Parties and their Subsidiaries)

(c) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 3.04 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 3.01, such assignment will result in a reduction (whether now or in the future) in such compensation or payments thereafter; and

(d) such assignment does not conflict with applicable Laws.

A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment or delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrowers to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply. Each Lender and L/C Issuer hereby grants to the Agent an irrevocable power of attorney (which power is coupled with an interest) to execute and deliver, on behalf of such Lender or such L/C Issuer, as the case may be, as assignor, any Assignment and Assumption necessary to effectuate any assignment of such Lender's or such L/C Issuer's interests hereunder in the circumstances contemplated by this Section 10.13.

Each party hereto hereby waives and releases, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any claims that it may have against each other party hereto with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty.

10.17 USA PATRIOT Act Notice and Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Compliance.

(a) Each Lender that is subject to the Act (as hereinafter defined) and the Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Loan Parties that pursuant to the requirements of the USA Patriot Act (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001)) (the "Act"), it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the Act. Each Loan Party is in compliance, in all material respects, with the Act and Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation. No part of the proceeds of the Loans will be used by the Loan Parties, directly or indirectly for any purpose which would contravene or breach the Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation or Canadian Economic Sanctions and Export Control Laws or for any payments to any governmental official or employee, political party, official of a political party, candidate for political office, or anyone else acting in an official capacity, in order to obtain, retain or direct business or obtain any improper advantage, in violation of the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended.

(b) Each Loan Party acknowledges that, pursuant to the provisions of Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation, Agent and Lenders may be required to obtain, verify and record information regarding each Loan Party, its respective directors, authorized signing officers, direct or indirect shareholders or other Persons in control of such Loan Party, and the transactions contemplated hereby. The Loan Parties shall promptly provide all such information, including supporting documentation and other evidence, as may be reasonably requested by any Lender or Agent, or any prospective assign or participant of a Lender or Agent, necessary in order to comply with any applicable Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation, whether now or hereafter in existence. If Agent has ascertained the identity of any Loan Party or any authorized signatories of any Loan Party for the purposes of applicable Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation, then the Agent (i) shall be deemed to have done so as an agent for each Lender, and this Agreement shall constitute a “written agreement” in such regard between each Lender and the Agent within the meaning of applicable Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation and (ii) shall provide to each Lender copies of all information obtained in such regard without any representation or warranty as to its accuracy or completeness.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section and except as may otherwise be agreed in writing, each Lender agrees that Agent has no obligation to ascertain the identity of the Loan Parties or any authorized signatories of the Loan Parties on behalf of any Lender, or to confirm the completeness or accuracy of any information it obtains from the Loan Parties or any such authorized signatory in doing so.

10.18 Foreign Asset Control Regulations; Sanctions. Neither of the advance of the Loans nor the use of the proceeds of any thereof will violate (i) the Trading With the Enemy Act (50 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., as amended) (the “Trading With the Enemy Act”) or any of the foreign assets control regulations of the United States Treasury Department (31 CFR, Subtitle B, Chapter V, as amended) (the “Foreign Assets Control Regulations”) or any enabling legislation or executive order relating thereto (which for the avoidance of doubt shall include, but shall not be limited to (a) Executive Order 13224 of September 21, 2001 Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism (66 Fed. Reg. 49079 (2001)) (the “Executive Order”) and (b) the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-56)) or (ii) the Canadian Anti-Money Laundering & Anti-Terrorism Legislation or the Canadian Economic Sanctions and Export Control Laws. Furthermore, none of the Loan Parties or their Affiliates (a) is or will become a Canadian Blocked Person or a “blocked person” as described in the Executive Order, the Trading With the Enemy Act or the Foreign Assets Control Regulations or (b) engages or will engage in any dealings or transactions, or be otherwise associated, with any such Canadian Blocked Person or “blocked person” or in any manner violative of any such order.

10.19 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence of the Loan Documents.

10.20 Additional Rights of Tranche A-1 Lenders. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary,

(a) With respect to the Default Rate applicable to the Tranche A-1 Loan, the consent of only the Required Tranche A-1 Lenders shall be required to amend the definition of “Default Rate” applicable thereto or to waive any obligation of the Borrowers to pay interest on the Tranche A-1 Loans at the Default Rate;

(b) With respect to the Default Rate applicable to the Tranche A Loans, the consent of the Tranche A-1 Lenders shall not be required to amend the definition of “Default Rate” applicable thereto or to waive any obligation of the Borrowers to pay interest on the Tranche A Loans or Letter of Credit Fees at the Default Rate;

(c) Any change to any provision of this Section 10.20 or the definition of “Required Tranche A-1 Lenders” or any other provision hereof specifying the number or percentage of Tranche A-1 Lenders required to amend, waive or otherwise modify any rights hereunder or make any determination or grant any consent hereunder, shall require the consent of each Lender;

(d) (i) Any change to the definition of the term “Tranche A-1 Borrowing Base” or any component definition thereof (if the effect is adverse in any material respect to the Tranche A-1 Lenders as such component definition is used in such term) if as a result thereof the amounts available to be borrowed by the Borrowers would be increased shall require the written consent of the Agent, each Tranche A-1 Lender and the Required Lenders, or (ii) any modification, reduction, elimination or failure to maintain the Tranche A-1 Reserve shall require the written consent of the Lead Borrower, the Agent and each Tranche A-1 Lender; provided that the Lead Borrower, the Agent and the Tranche A-1 Lenders may agree to reduce or waive such Tranche A-1 Reserve; provided, further, that the foregoing shall not limit the Agent’s ability to change the Appraised Value of the Eligible Inventory pursuant to the most recent appraisal obtained by the Agent;

(e) Any amendment, waiver or consent to any of the following shall, in addition to any other consents required by this Agreement, require the consent of the Required Tranche A-1 Lenders:

(i) any modification to the definitions of Borrowing Base, Change of Control, Eligible Assignee, Tranche A-1 Applicable Percentage, Tranche A-1 Event of Default, Tranche A-1 Reserve, or Tranche A-1 Standstill Period (and any component definition contained in any of the foregoing terms if the effect is adverse in any material respect to the Tranche A-1 Lenders as such component definition is used in such terms);

(ii) any modification of the provisions of Section 2.01(a)(i), Section 2.05(c), (f) and (g), Section 2.13, Section 5.24, Section 6.01(b), Section 6.02, Section 6.10, 6.11, Section 6.13 (and any component definition contained in any of the foregoing sections (A) to the extent used in such section and (B) if the effect is adverse in any material respect to the Tranche A-1 Lenders as such component definition is used in such sections), Sections 6.22 - 6.27, Section 7.06, Section 7.09, Sections 7.14 – 7.18, Section 8.01, Section 8.02, Section 8.03 or Section 9.19 of this Agreement;

(iii) any modification to the definitions of Approved Budget, Approved Budget Variance Report, Approved Liquidator, Carve-Out Reserve, Consultants, Permitted Sale or Restructuring Support Agreement; and

(iv) the increase of the rates of interest set forth in the definition of “Applicable Margin” at any level of the pricing grid applicable thereto, or of the “Default Rate” with respect to the Tranche A Loans or Letter of Credit Fees unless the “Tranche A-1 Interest Rate” and “Default Rate” with respect to the Tranche A-1 Loans is increased by the same percentage (i.e., if the Applicable Margin is increased by 1% per annum then the interest rate applicable to the Tranche A-1 Loans shall be increased by 1% per annum) (it being understood and agreed that any such increase applicable to the Tranche A-1 Loans shall be automatic and effective without the consent of the Tranche A-1 Lenders); provided that the foregoing shall not include any increase occurring because of fluctuations in underlying rate indices or the imposition of the “Default Rate”;

(f) the Fee Letter may be amended, or rights or privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto; and

(g) notwithstanding the foregoing, any amendment, waiver or consent that reduces the rate of interest specified herein on the Tranche A-1 Loan or postpones any date fixed by this Agreement or any other Loan Document for any payment or mandatory prepayment of principal, interest or fees due to the Tranche A-1 Lenders hereunder shall require only the written consent of each Tranche A-1 Lender entitled to such payment and the Borrowers (and the consent of the Required Lenders shall not be required).

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Section 10.20 and any other provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Section 10.20 shall control.

10.21 Press Releases.

(a) Each Credit Party executing this Agreement agrees that neither it nor its Affiliates will in the future issue any press releases or other public disclosure using the name of the Agent or its Affiliates or referring to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents without at least two (2) Business Days’ prior notice to the Agent and without the prior written consent of the Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) unless (and only to the extent that) such Credit Party or Affiliate is required to do so under applicable Law and then, in any event, to the extent reasonably possible under applicable Law, such Credit Party or Affiliate will consult with the Agent before issuing such press release or other public disclosure.

(b) Each Loan Party consents to the publication in the ordinary course by Agent or the Arranger of customary advertising material, including any “tombstone” or comparable advertising, on its website or in other marketing materials of Agent, relating to the financing transactions contemplated by this Agreement using such Loan Party’s name, product photographs, logo, trademark, or other insignia. Such consent shall remain effective until revoked by such Loan Party in writing to the Agent and the Arranger. With respect to the publication of any additional materials not addressed in the first sentence of this clause (b), the Agent or such Lender shall provide a draft reasonably in advance (and in no event less than two (2) Business Days’ prior written notice, with copies thereof attached to such notice) of any such advertising material to the Lead Borrower for review and comment prior to the publication thereof. The Agent reserves the right to provide to industry trade organizations and loan syndication and pricing reporting services information necessary and customary for inclusion in league table measurements.

10.22 Additional Waivers.

(a) The Obligations are the joint and several obligation of each Loan Party. To the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, the obligations of each Loan Party shall not be affected by (i) the failure of any Credit Party to assert any claim or demand or to enforce or exercise any right or remedy against any other Loan Party under the provisions of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or otherwise, (ii) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of, or any release from any of the terms or provisions of, this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or (iii) the failure to perfect any security interest in, or the release of, any of the Collateral or other security held by or on behalf of the Agent or any other Credit Party.

(b) The obligations of each Loan Party shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason (other than the payment in full in cash of the Obligations after the termination of the Commitments), including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise of any of the Obligations, and shall not be subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any of the Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Loan Party hereunder shall not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by the failure of the Agent or any other Credit Party to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, by any waiver or modification of any provision of any thereof, any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, by any Loan Party in the performance of any of the Obligations, or by any other act or omission that may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of any Loan Party or that would otherwise operate as a discharge of any Loan Party as a matter of law or equity (other than the payment in full in cash of all the Obligations after the termination of the Commitments).

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each Loan Party waives any defense based on or arising out of any defense of any other Loan Party or the unenforceability of the Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of any other Loan Party, other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations and the termination of the Commitments. The Agent and the other Credit Parties may, at their election, foreclose on any security held by one or more of them by one or more judicial or non-judicial sales, accept an assignment of any such security in lieu of foreclosure, compromise or adjust any part of the Obligations, make any other accommodation with any other Loan Party, or exercise any other right or remedy available to them against any other Loan Party, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of any Loan Party hereunder except to the extent that all the Obligations have been paid in full in cash and the Commitments have been terminated. Each Loan Party waives any defense arising out of any such election even though such election operates, pursuant to applicable Law, to impair or to extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of such Loan Party against any other Loan Party, as the case may be, or any security.

(d) Each Borrower is obligated to repay the Obligations as joint and several obligors under this Agreement. Upon payment by any Loan Party of any Obligations, all rights of such Loan Party against any other Loan Party arising as a result thereof by way of right of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall in all respects be subordinate and junior in right of payment to the prior payment in full in cash of all the Obligations and the termination of the Commitments. In addition, any indebtedness of any Loan Party now or hereafter held by any other Loan Party is hereby subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of the Obligations and no Loan Party will demand, sue for or otherwise attempt to collect any such indebtedness until such time as the Obligations have been paid in full. If any amount shall erroneously be paid to any Loan Party on account of (i) such subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or similar right or (ii) any such indebtedness of any Loan Party, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Credit Parties and shall forthwith be paid to the Agent to be credited against the payment of the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Subject to the foregoing, to the extent that any Borrower shall, under this Agreement as a joint and several obligor, repay any of the Obligations constituting Loans made to another Borrower hereunder or other Obligations incurred directly and primarily by any other Borrower (an "Accommodation Payment"), then the Borrower making such Accommodation Payment shall be entitled to contribution and indemnification from, and be reimbursed by, each of the other Borrowers in an amount, for each of such other Borrowers, equal to a fraction of such Accommodation Payment, the numerator of which fraction is such other Borrower's Allocable Amount and the denominator of which is the sum of the Allocable Amounts of all of the Borrowers. As of any date of determination, the "Allocable Amount" of each Borrower shall be equal to the maximum amount of liability for Accommodation Payments which could be asserted against such Borrower hereunder without (a) rendering such Borrower "insolvent" within the meaning of Section 101 (31) of the Bankruptcy Code, Section 2 of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act ("UFTA") or Section 2 of the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act ("UFCA"), (b) leaving such Borrower with unreasonably small capital or assets, within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, Section 4 of the UFTA, or Section 5 of the UFCA, or (c) leaving such Borrower unable to pay its debts as they become due within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code or Section 4 of the UFTA, or Section 5 of the UFCA.

10.23 No Strict Construction. The parties hereto have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties hereto and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provisions of this Agreement.

10.24 Attachments. The exhibits and schedules attached to this Agreement are incorporated herein and shall be considered a part of this Agreement for the purposes stated herein, except that in the event of any conflict between any of the provisions of such exhibits and the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

10.25 Conflict. The Loan Parties, the Agent and the Lenders acknowledge that the exercise of certain of the and Agent's rights and remedies hereunder may be subject to, and restricted by, the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement. Except as specified herein, nothing contained in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be deemed to modify any requirement or shall be deemed to modify any of the provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, which, among the Loan Parties, the Agent and the Lenders shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the Intercreditor Agreement, the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control.

10.26 Certain Provisions Regarding Restricted Lender Affiliates. No Restricted Lender Affiliate will (i) benefit from any action initiated by the Lenders against the Agent except in its capacity as a Lender and solely to the extent of its Applicable Percentage, or (ii) move to prevent the Agent from taking any action or compel the Agent to take any action under this Agreement except in connection with any action taken by the Agent or the Lenders in direct contravention of a Restricted Lender Affiliate's express consent rights as a Lender to the extent provided under Section 10.01.

10.27 Judgment Currency. If, for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or obtaining an order enforcing a judgment, it becomes necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement in Dollars or in any other currency (hereinafter in this Section 10.27 called the "first currency") into any other currency (hereinafter in this Section 10.27 called the "second currency"), then the conversion shall be made at the Spot Rate for buying the first currency with the second currency prevailing at the Agent's close of business on the Business Day next preceding the day on which the judgment is given or (as the case may be) the order is made. Any payment made by a Loan Party to the Agent or any other Credit Party pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in the second currency shall constitute a discharge of the obligations of any applicable Loan Parties to pay to such Credit Party any amount originally due to the Credit Party in the first currency under this Agreement or such other Loan Document only to the extent of the amount of the first currency which such Credit Party is able on the date of the receipt by it of such payment in any second currency to purchase in accordance with such Credit Party's normal banking procedures, with the amount of such second currency so received. If the amount of the first currency falls short of the amount originally due to such Credit Party in the first currency under this Agreement, the Loan Parties agree that they will indemnify each Credit Party against and save such Credit Party harmless from any shortfall so arising. This indemnity shall constitute an obligation of each such Loan Party separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Agreement, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum or sums in respect of amounts due to any Credit Party under any Loan Documents or under any such judgment or order. Any such shortfall shall be deemed to constitute a loss suffered by such Credit Party and the Loan Parties shall not be entitled to require any proof or evidence of any actual loss. The covenants contained in this Section 10.27 shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations under this Agreement.

(c) Each member of the Borrower Group further agrees that its agreement under this Section 1.3 constitutes a promise of payment when due (whether or not any bankruptcy or similar proceeding shall have stayed the accrual or collection of any of the Obligations or operated as a discharge thereof) and not of collection, and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Lender or the Administrative Agent to any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of such Lender or the Administrative Agent in favor of any member of the Borrower Group or any other Person.

(d) The obligations of each member of the Borrower Group under this Section 1.3 shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, and shall not be subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever, by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Obligations, any impossibility in the performance of the Obligations or otherwise. (e) Each member of the Borrower Group further agrees that its obligations under this Section 1.3 shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of any Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by the Administrative Agent or any Lender upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of any other member of the Borrower Group or otherwise.

(f) In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have at law or in equity against any member of the Borrower Group by virtue of this Section 1.3, upon the failure of any other member of the Borrower Group to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, after notice of prepayment or otherwise, each member of the Borrower Group hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Administrative Agent, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation.

(g) If by virtue of the provisions set forth herein, any member of the Borrower Group is required to pay and shall pay Obligations of another member of the Borrower Group, all rights of such member of the Borrower Group against such other member of the Borrower Group arising as a result thereof by way of right of subrogation, right of contribution or otherwise shall in all respects be subordinated and junior in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all the Obligations, and any of these rights among members of the Borrower Group shall not be due or paid until all Obligations shall have been paid in full.

SECTION 2. AMOUNT AND TERMS OF CREDIT.

2.1 The Initial Term DIP Commitments.

(a) Subject to and upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, each Lender severally agrees upon entry of the Final Order and satisfaction of the conditions to Borrowing set forth in Section 6.2 (i) to make a Term Loan to the Borrowers in a principal amount not to exceed its pro rata share of $30,000,000 (the “Initial DIP Borrowing”) based on its Term DIP Commitment, (ii) following satisfaction of the conditions to Borrowing in Section 6.3, to make one or more Term Loans to the Borrowers in a principal amount not to exceed its pro rata share of $80,000,000 less the Initial DIP Borrowing (each such Borrowing, a “Subsequent DIP Borrowings”) and except as hereinafter provided, which Term Loans shall, at the option of the Borrowers, be incurred and maintained as, and/or converted into, Base Rate Loans or LIBOR Loans, provided that except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 2.11(b), the Initial DIP Borrowing comprising the same Borrowing shall at all times be of the same Type. Once repaid, Initial DIP Borrowings incurred hereunder may not be reborrowed.

(b) After the Closing Date, subject to and upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, each Lender with a Term DIP Commitment (other than an Initial Term DIP Commitment) severally agrees to make Term Loans to the Borrowing Agent, which Term Loans under such Tranche (i) shall be incurred on the date set forth for such incurrence in the Notice of Borrowing, (ii) shall be denominated in Dollars, (iii) except as hereinafter provided, shall, at the option of the Borrowing Agent, be incurred and maintained as, and/or converted into, Base Rate Loans or LIBOR Loans, provided that except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 2.11(b), all Term Loans under a Tranche comprising the same Borrowing shall at all times be of the same Type, and (iv) shall be made by each such Lender in that aggregate principal amount which does not exceed the Total Term DIP Commitment. Once repaid, Term Loans incurred hereunder may not be reborrowed.

2.2 Minimum Amount of Each Borrowing. The aggregate principal amount of (a) the Initial DIP Borrowing shall not be less than the Initial Term DIP Commitment and (b) the aggregate amount of the Subsequent DIP Borrowings shall not be less than the Final Term DIP Commitment.

2.3 Notice of Borrowing.

(a) Except with respect to the Initial DIP Borrowing, which may be made upon written notice provided on the date three (3) Business Day prior to such Initial DIP Borrowing and Loan, if the Borrowing Agent desires to incur the Term Loans (or portions thereof) as (x) LIBOR Loans hereunder, the Borrowing Agent shall give the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office at least three Business Days' (or such shorter period as shall be acceptable to the Administrative Agent) prior notice of the Term Loans to be incurred hereunder and (y) Base Rate Loans hereunder, the Borrowing Agent shall give the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office at least one Business Day's (or such shorter period as shall be acceptable to the Administrative Agent) prior notice of the Term Loans to be incurred hereunder, provided that any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on a certain day only if given before 11:00 A.M. (New York City time) on such day. Such notice (the "Notice of Borrowing"), except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 2.11, shall be irrevocable and shall be in writing, in the form of Exhibit F, appropriately completed to specify: (i) the aggregate principal amount of the Term Loans to be incurred pursuant to such Borrowing, (ii) the date of such Borrowing (which shall be a Business Day) and the date of the entry of the Final Order, (iii) whether the Term Loans being incurred pursuant to such Borrowing are to be initially maintained as Base Rate Loans or, to the extent permitted hereunder, LIBOR Loans and, if LIBOR Loans, the initial Interest Period to be applicable thereto, and (iv) the wire instructions for the account to which the funds should be sent. The Administrative Agent shall promptly give each Lender which is required to make Term Loans, notice of such proposed Borrowing, of such Lender's proportionate share thereof and of the other matters required by the immediately preceding sentence to be specified in the Notice of Borrowing.

(b) Without in any way limiting the obligation of the Borrowing Agent to confirm in writing any telephonic notice of any Borrowing or prepayment of Term Loans, the Administrative Agent may act without liability upon the basis of telephonic notice of such Borrowing or prepayment, as the case may be, believed by the Administrative Agent in good faith to be from an Authorized Officer of the Borrowing Agent, prior to receipt of written confirmation. In each such case, the Borrowing Agent hereby waives the right to dispute the Administrative Agent's record of the terms of such telephonic notice of such Borrowing or prepayment of Term Loans, as the case may be, absent manifest error.

2.4 Repayment of Term Loans. All Loans shall be due and payable on the DIP Termination Date without further application to or order from the Bankruptcy Court, together with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be paid to but excluding the date of payment.

2.5 Disbursement of Funds. No later than 1:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the date specified in each Notice of Borrowing, each Lender with a Term DIP Commitment of the respective Tranche will make available its pro rata portion (determined in accordance with Section 2.8) of each such Borrowing requested to be made on such date. All such amounts will be made available in Dollars and in immediately available funds at the Payment Office, and upon receipt of all requested Loan funds, the Administrative Agent will make available to the applicable Borrower in accordance with the Notice of Borrowing, the aggregate of the amounts so made available by the Lenders. Unless the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by any Lender prior to the date of Borrowing that such Lender does not intend to make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made on such date, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such amount available to the Administrative Agent on such date of Borrowing and the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to), in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the applicable Borrower a corresponding amount. If such corresponding amount is not in fact made available to the Administrative Agent by such Lender, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such corresponding amount on demand from such Lender. If such Lender does not pay such corresponding amount forthwith upon the Administrative Agent's demand therefor, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrowing Agent and the Borrowing Agent shall immediately pay such corresponding amount to the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent also shall be entitled to recover on demand from such Lender or the Borrowing Agent, as the case may be, interest on such corresponding amount in respect of each day from the date such corresponding amount was made available by the Administrative Agent to the Borrowing Agent until the date such corresponding amount is recovered by the Administrative Agent, at a rate per annum equal to (i) if recovered from such Lender, the overnight Federal Funds Rate for the first three (3) days and at the interest rate otherwise applicable to such Term Loans for each day thereafter and (ii) if recovered from the Borrowing Agent, the rate of interest applicable to the respective Borrowing, as determined pursuant to Section 2.9. Nothing in this Section 2.5 shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to make Term Loans hereunder or to prejudice any rights which any Borrower may have against any Lender as a result of any failure by such Lender to make Term Loans hereunder.

2.6 Term DIP Notes.

(a) The Borrowers' obligation to pay the principal of, and interest on, the Term Loans under a Tranche made by each Lender shall be evidenced in the Register maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 12.15 and shall, if requested by such Lender, also be evidenced by a promissory note duly executed and delivered by the Borrowers substantially in the form of Exhibit G, with blanks appropriately completed in conformity herewith (each, a "Term DIP Note" and, collectively, the "Term DIP Notes").

(b) Each Lender will note on its internal records the amount of each Term Loan under a Tranche made by it and each payment in respect thereof and prior to any transfer of any of its Term DIP Notes with respect to such Term Loans will endorse on the reverse side thereof the outstanding principal amount of such Term Loans evidenced thereby. Failure to make any such notation or any error in such notation shall not affect the Borrowers' obligations in respect of such Term Loans.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Section 2.6 or elsewhere in this Agreement, Term DIP Notes shall only be delivered to Lenders which at any time specifically request the delivery of such Term DIP Notes. No failure of any Lender to request or obtain a Term DIP Note evidencing its Term Loans under a Tranche to the Borrowers shall affect or in any manner impair the obligations of the Borrowers to pay the Term Loans under such Tranche (and all related Obligations) incurred by the Borrowers which would otherwise be evidenced thereby in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, and shall not in any way affect the security or guarantees therefor provided pursuant to the various Loan Documents. Any Lender which does not have a Term DIP Note evidencing its outstanding Term Loans shall in no event be required to make the notations otherwise described in preceding clause (b). At any time when any Lender requests the delivery of a Term DIP Note to evidence any of its Term Loans under a Tranche, the Borrowers shall promptly execute and deliver to the respective Lender the requested Term DIP Note in the appropriate amount or amounts to evidence such Term Loans.

2.7 Conversions. The Borrowers shall have the option to continue, convert, on any Business Day, all or a portion equal to at least the Minimum Borrowing Amount of the outstanding principal amount of Term Loans made pursuant to one or more Borrowings (so long as of the same Tranche) of one or more Types of Term Loans into a Borrowing (of the same Tranche) of another Type of Term Loan, provided that, (i) except as otherwise provided in Section 2.11(b) or unless the Borrowers comply with the provisions of Section 2.12, LIBOR Loans may be converted into Base Rate Loans only on the last day of an Interest Period applicable to the Term Loans being converted and no such partial conversion of LIBOR Loans shall reduce the outstanding principal amount of such LIBOR Loans made pursuant to a single Borrowing to less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount applicable thereto and (ii) no conversion pursuant to this Section 2.7 shall result in a greater number of Borrowings of LIBOR Loans than is permitted under Section 2.2. Each such conversion shall be effected by the Borrowing Agent giving the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office prior to 11:00 A.M. (New York City time) at least (x) in the case of conversions of Base Rate Loans into LIBOR Loans or continuations of LIBOR Loans, three Business Days' prior written notice and (y) in the case of conversions of LIBOR Loans into Base Rate Loans, one Business Day's prior written notice (each, a "Notice of Conversion/Continuation"), in each case in the form of Exhibit H, appropriately completed to specify the Term Loans to be so converted or continued, the Borrowing or Borrowings pursuant to which such Term Loans were incurred and, if to be converted into LIBOR Loans, the Interest Period to be initially applicable thereto. The Administrative Agent shall give each Lender prompt notice of any such proposed conversion affecting any of its Term Loans. If the Borrowing Agent fails to specify a Type of Term Loan in a Notice of Borrowing or if the Borrowing Agent fails to give a timely notice requesting a conversion or continuation, then the Term Loans shall be made as, or converted or continued to, Base Rate Loans.

2.8 Pro Rata Borrowings. All Borrowings of any Tranche of Term Loans under this Agreement shall be incurred from the Lenders pro rata on the basis of their Term DIP Commitments applicable to such Tranche of Term Loans. It is understood that no Lender shall be responsible for any default by any other Lender of its obligation to make Term Loans hereunder and that each Lender shall be obligated to make the Term Loans provided to be made by it hereunder, regardless of the failure of any other Lender to make its Term Loans hereunder.

2.9 Interest.

(a) The Borrowers agree to pay interest in respect of the unpaid principal amount of each Borrowing maintained as a Base Rate Loan from the date of Borrowing thereof until the earlier of (i) the maturity thereof (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and (ii) the conversion of such Base Rate Loan to a LIBOR Loan pursuant to Section 2.7 or 2.10, as applicable, at a rate per annum which shall be equal to the sum of the relevant Applicable Margin plus the Base Rate, each as in effect from time to time.

(b) The Borrowers agree to pay interest in respect of the unpaid principal amount of each Borrowing maintained as a LIBOR Loan from the date of Borrowing thereof until the earlier of (i) the maturity thereof (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and (ii) the conversion of such LIBOR Loan to a Base Rate Loan pursuant to Section 2.7, 2.10 or 2.11, as applicable, at a rate per annum which shall, during each Interest Period applicable thereto, be equal to the sum of the relevant Applicable Margin as in effect from time to time during such Interest Period plus the LIBOR Rate for such Interest Period.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, principal and, to the extent permitted by law, interest in respect of each Term Loan and other amounts shall, in each case, bear interest at a rate per annum equal to (x) in the case of overdue principal, the rate which is 2% in excess of the rate then borne by such Term Loans and (y) in the case of all other amounts (including, to the extent permitted by law, overdue interest) payable hereunder and under any other Loan Document shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the rate which is 2% in excess of the rate applicable to Term Loans that are maintained as Base Rate Loans from time to time. Interest that accrues under this Section 2.9(d) shall be payable on demand.

(e) Accrued (and theretofore unpaid) interest shall be payable (i) in respect of each Base Rate Loan, (x) monthly in arrears on each Monthly Payment Date, (y) on the date of any repayment or prepayment in full of all outstanding Base Rate Loans, and (z) at maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and, after such maturity, on demand, and (ii) in respect of each LIBOR Loan, (x) on the last day of each Interest Period applicable thereto, and (y) on the date of any repayment or prepayment (on the amount repaid or prepaid), at maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and, after such maturity, on demand.

(f) Upon each Interest Determination Date, the Administrative Agent shall determine the LIBOR Rate for each Interest Period applicable to the respective LIBOR Loans and shall promptly notify the Borrowers and the Lenders of such LIBOR Loans thereof. Each such determination shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

2.10 Interest Periods. At the time the Borrowers give any Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation in respect of the making of, continuation of, or conversion into, any LIBOR Loan (in the case of the initial Interest Period applicable thereto) or prior to 11:00 A.M. (New York City time) on the third Business Day prior to the expiration of an Interest Period applicable to such LIBOR Loan (in the case of any subsequent Interest Period), the Borrowers shall have the right to elect the interest period (each, an “Interest Period”) applicable to such LIBOR Loan, which Interest Period shall, at the option of the Borrowers, be a one month period, provided that (in each case):

(a) all LIBOR Loans comprising a Borrowing shall at all times have the same Interest Period;

(b) the initial Interest Period for any LIBOR Loan shall commence on the date of Borrowing of such LIBOR Loan (including the date of any conversion thereto from a Base Rate Loan) and each Interest Period occurring thereafter in respect of such LIBOR Loan shall commence on the day on which the next preceding Interest Period applicable thereto expires;

(c) (i) if any Interest Period for a LIBOR Loan begins on a day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period, such Interest Period shall end on the last Business Day of such calendar month, and (ii) if any Interest Period for LIBOR Loan begins on the last Business Day of a calendar month, such Interest Period shall end on the last Business Day of the last calendar month of such Interest Period;

(d) if any Interest Period for a LIBOR Loan would otherwise expire on a day which is not a Business Day, such Interest Period shall expire on the next succeeding Business Day; provided, however, that if any Interest Period for a LIBOR Loan would otherwise expire on a day which is not a Business Day but is a day of the month after which no further Business Day occurs in such month, such Interest Period shall expire on the next preceding Business Day;

(e) unless the Required Lenders otherwise agree, no Interest Period may be selected at any time when a Default or an Event of Default is then in existence; and

(f) no Interest Period in respect of any Borrowing of any Tranche of Term Loans shall be selected which extends beyond the Maturity Date for such Tranche of Term Loans.

If by 11:00 A.M. (New York City time) on the third Business Day prior to the expiration of any Interest Period applicable to a Borrowing of LIBOR Loans, the Borrowers have failed to elect, or is not permitted to elect, a new Interest Period to be applicable to such LIBOR Loans as provided above, the Borrowers shall be deemed to have elected to continue such LIBOR Loans as LIBOR Loans with an Interest Period of one month effective as of the expiration date of such current Interest Period.

2.11 Increased Costs, Illegality, etc.

(a) In the event that any Lender shall have determined (which determination shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto but, with respect to clause (A) below, may be made only by the Administrative Agent):

(A) on any Interest Determination Date that, by reason of any changes in any Requirement of Law arising after the date of this Agreement affecting the London interbank market, adequate and fair means do not exist for ascertaining the applicable interest rate on the basis provided for in the definition of LIBOR Rate; or

(B) at any time, that such Lender shall incur increased costs, Taxes (other than Excluded Taxes and Indemnified Taxes which are otherwise provided for in Section 4.4) or reductions in the amounts received or receivable hereunder with respect to any LIBOR Loan because of (x) any change since the date of this Agreement in any applicable law or governmental rule, regulation, order, guideline or request (whether or not having the force of law) or in the interpretation or administration thereof and including the introduction of any new law or governmental rule, regulation, order, guideline or request, such as, but not limited to, a change in official reserve requirements, but, in all events, excluding reserves required under Regulation D to the extent included in the computation of the LIBOR Rate and/or (y) other circumstances arising since the date of this Agreement affecting such Lender, the London interbank market or the position of such Lender in such market (including that the LIBOR Rate with respect to such LIBOR Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lender of funding such LIBOR Loan); or

(C) at any time, that the making or continuance of any LIBOR Loan has been made (x) unlawful by any law or governmental rule, regulation or order, (y) impossible by compliance by any Lender in good faith with any governmental request (whether or not having force of law) or (z) impracticable as a result of a contingency occurring after the date of this Agreement which materially and adversely affects the London interbank market;

then, and in any such event, such Lender (or the Administrative Agent, in the case of clause (A) above) shall promptly give notice to the Borrowers and, except in the case of clause (A) above, to the Administrative Agent of such determination (which notice the Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the other Lenders). Thereafter (x) in the case of clause (A) above, LIBOR Loans shall no longer be available until such time as the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrowers and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice by the Administrative Agent no longer exist, and any Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation given by the Borrowers with respect to LIBOR Loans which have not yet been incurred (including by way of conversion) shall be deemed rescinded by the Borrowers, (y) in the case of clause (B) above, the Borrowers agree to pay to such Lender, upon such Lender's written request therefor, such additional amounts (in the form of an increased rate of, or a different method of calculating, interest or otherwise as such Lender shall determine after consultation with the Borrowers) as shall be required to compensate such Lender for such increased costs or reductions in amounts received or receivable hereunder (a written notice as to the additional amounts owed to such Lender, showing in reasonable detail the basis for the calculation thereof, submitted to the Borrowers by such Lender shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all the parties hereto) and (z) in the case of clause (C) above, the Borrowers shall take one of the actions specified in Section 2.11(b) as promptly as possible and, in any event, within the time period required by law.

(b) At any time that any LIBOR Loan is affected by the circumstances described in Section 2.11(a)(B), the Borrowers may, and in the case of a LIBOR Loan affected by the circumstances described in Section 2.11(a)(C), the Borrowers shall, either (x) if the affected LIBOR Loan is then being made initially or pursuant to a conversion, cancel such Borrowing by giving the Administrative Agent written notice on the same date that the Borrowers were notified by the affected Lender or the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 2.11(a)(B) or (C) or (y) if the affected LIBOR Loan is then outstanding, upon at least three Business Days' written notice to the Administrative Agent, require the affected Lender to convert such LIBOR Loan into a Base Rate Loan, provided that, if more than one Lender is affected at any time, then all affected Lenders must be treated the same pursuant to this Section 2.11(b).

(c) If any Lender determines that after the date of this Agreement the introduction of or any change in any applicable law or governmental rule, regulation, order, guideline, directive or request (whether or not having the force of law) concerning capital adequacy, or any change in interpretation or administration thereof by the NAIC or any Governmental Authority, central bank or comparable agency, will have the effect of increasing the amount of capital required or expected to be maintained by such Lender or any corporation controlling such Lender based on the existence of such Lender's Term DIP Commitments hereunder or its obligations hereunder, then the Borrowers agree to pay to such Lender, upon its written demand therefor, such additional amounts as shall be required to compensate such Lender or such other corporation for the increased cost to such Lender or such other corporation or the reduction in the rate of return to such Lender or such other corporation as a result of such increase of capital. In determining such additional amounts, each Lender will act reasonably and in good faith and will use averaging and attribution methods which are reasonable, provided that such Lender's determination of compensation owing under this Section 2.11(c) shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all the parties hereto. Each Lender, upon determining that any additional amounts, will be payable pursuant to this Section 2.11(c), will give prompt written notice thereof to the Borrowers, which notice shall show in reasonable detail the basis for calculation of such additional amounts, although the failure to give any such notice shall not release or diminish a Borrower's obligations to pay additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.11(c) upon the subsequent receipt of such notice.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, (x) the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and all requests, rules, guidelines, requirements and directives thereunder, issued in connection therewith or in implementation thereof and (y) all requests rules, guidelines or directives promulgated by the Bank for International Settlements, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (or any successor or similar authority) or the United States regulatory authorities, in each case pursuant to Basel III, shall be deemed to be a change after the date of this Agreement in a requirement of law or government rule, regulation or order, regardless of the date enacted, adopted, issued or implemented (including for purposes of this Section 2.11).

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 2.11 shall not apply to any Excluded Taxes, or to any Indemnified Taxes, which are otherwise provided for in Section 4.4.

2.12 Compensation.

(a) The Borrowers agree to compensate each Lender, upon its written request (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such compensation), for all actual losses, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses and liabilities (including, without limitation, any actual loss, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expense or liability incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds required by such Lender to fund its LIBOR Loans but excluding loss of anticipated profits) which such Lender may sustain: (i) if for any reason (other than a default by such Lender or the Administrative Agent) a Borrowing of, or conversion from or into, LIBOR Loans does not occur on a date specified therefor in a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation (whether or not withdrawn by the Borrowers or deemed withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.11(a)); (ii) if any prepayment or repayment (including any prepayment or repayment made pursuant to Section 4.1, Section 4.2 or as a result of an acceleration of the Term Loans pursuant to Section 10) or conversion of any of its LIBOR Loans occurs on a date which is not the last day of an Interest Period with respect thereto (other than as a result of any required conversion pursuant to Section 2.11(b)); (iii) if any prepayment of any of its LIBOR Loans is not made on any date specified in a notice of prepayment given by the Borrowers; or (iv) as a consequence of (x) any other default by the Borrowers to repay LIBOR Loans when required by the terms of this Agreement or any Term DIP Note held by such Lender or (y) any election made pursuant to Section 2.11(b).

(b) With respect to any Lender's claim for compensation under Section 2.11 or 2.12, the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate such Lender for any amount incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrowers of the event that gives rise to such claim; provided that, if the circumstance giving rise to such claim is retroactive, then such 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

(c) The Borrowers shall make such compensation under Section 2.11 or 2.12 within thirty (30) days after receipt of written request therefor.

2.13 Change of Lending Office. Each Lender agrees that on the occurrence of any event giving rise to the operation of Section 2.11(a)(B) or (C), Section 2.11(c) or Section 4.4 with respect to such Lender, it will, if requested by the Borrowing Agent, use reasonable efforts (subject to overall policy considerations of such Lender) to designate another lending office for any Term Loans affected by such event, provided that such designation is made on such terms that such Lender and its lending office suffer no legal, regulatory or unreimbursed economic disadvantage, with the object of avoiding the consequence of the event giving rise to the operation of such Section. Nothing in this Section 2.13 shall affect or postpone any of the obligations of the Borrowers or the right of any Lender provided in Sections 2.11 and 4.4.

2.14 [Reserved].

2.15 [Reserved].

2.16 [Reserved].

2.17 [Reserved].

2.18 No Discharge; Survival of Claims. Except as otherwise contemplated by the RSA, until payment in full of the Loans and all other Obligations, each of the Borrowers and the Guarantors agree that (a) the Obligations hereunder shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization or liquidation in any Chapter 11 Case (and each of the Borrowers and the Guarantors, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, hereby waive any such discharge) and (b) the Superpriority DIP Claim and the DIP Liens granted to the Agents pursuant to the Orders and described in this Section 2.18 shall not be affected in any manner by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization or liquidation in any Chapter 11 Case.

2.19 Release. Each of the Borrowers and the Guarantors hereby acknowledge effective upon entry of the Final Order, and subject to the terms thereof, that the Borrowers, the Guarantors and any of their Subsidiaries have no defense, counterclaim, offset, recoupment, claim or demand of any kind or nature whatsoever that can be asserted to reduce or eliminate all of any part of the Borrowers', the Guarantors' or their respective Subsidiaries' liability to repay the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any Lender as provided in this Agreement or to seek affirmative relief or damages of any kind or nature from the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any Lender. Upon entry of the Final Order, the Borrowers and the Guarantors, each in their own right and on behalf of their bankruptcy estates, and on behalf of all their successors, assigns, Subsidiaries and any Affiliates and any Person acting for and on behalf of, or claiming through them, (collectively, the "Releasing Parties"), hereby fully, finally and forever release and discharge the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and Lenders and all of Administrative Agent's, Collateral Agent's and Lenders' officers, directors, servants, agents, attorneys, assigns, heirs, parents, subsidiaries, and each Person acting for or on behalf of any of them (collectively, the "Released DIP Parties") of and from any and all actions, causes of action, demands, suits, claims, liabilities, Liens, lawsuits, adverse consequences, amounts paid in settlement, costs, damages, debts, deficiencies, diminution in value, disbursements, expenses, losses and other obligations of any kind or nature whatsoever, in each case, existing at the time of entry of the Final Order, whether in law, equity or otherwise (including, without limitation, those arising under sections 541 through 550 of the Bankruptcy Code and interest or other carrying costs, penalties, legal, accounting and other professional fees and expenses, and incidental, consequential and punitive damages payable to third parties), directly or indirectly arising out of, connected with or relating to this Agreement, the Interim Order, the Final Order and the transactions (including, for avoidance of doubt, the Transactions) contemplated hereby, and all other agreements, certificates, instruments and other documents and statements (whether written or oral) related to any of the foregoing.

2.20 Waiver of any Priming Rights. On and after the Closing Date, and on behalf of themselves and their estates, and for so long as any Obligations shall be outstanding, the Borrowers and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably waive any right, pursuant to sections 364(c) or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, to grant any Lien of equal or greater priority than the DIP Liens securing the Obligations, or to approve a claim of equal or greater priority than the Obligations, in each case, other than as contemplated by the ABL DIP Credit Agreement Documents.

SECTION 3.
COMMITMENT FEES; FEES; REDUCTIONS OF COMMITMENTS

3.1 Fees.

(a) The Borrowing Agent agrees to pay to the Lenders such fees in the amounts and at the times specified as may be agreed to in writing from time to time by Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries and the Required Lenders (including, without limitation, all amounts owing under the Administrative Agent Fee Letter and the DIP Fee Letter).

(b) The Borrowing Agent agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent such fees in the amounts and at the times specified as may be agreed to in writing from time to time by Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries and the Administrative Agent (including, without limitation, all amounts owing under the Administrative Agent Fee Letter and the DIP Fee Letter).

3.2 Mandatory Reduction of Term DIP Commitments. The Term DIP Commitments shall automatically terminate upon the making of the final Subsequent DIP Borrowing, with the portion thereof applicable to the Initial DIP Borrowing and any Subsequent DIP Borrowings terminating upon the making of the Initial DIP Borrowing or such Subsequent DIP Borrowing, as applicable.

SECTION 4.
PREPAYMENTS; PAYMENTS; TAXES

4.1 Voluntary Prepayments.

(a) The Borrowers may at any time and from time to time prepay the Term Loans, in whole or in part, in each case, without premium or penalty, upon irrevocable written notice (subject to revocation as, and in the circumstances, set forth in clause (II) below) delivered to the Administrative Agent no later than Noon (New York City time) three Business Days prior thereto, in the case of LIBOR Loans, and no later than Noon (New York City time) one Business Day prior to the date of such payment, in the case of Base Rate Loans, which notice shall specify the date and amount of prepayment, identify the Tranche of the prepayment of Term Loans and whether the prepayment is of LIBOR Loans or Base Rate Loans; provided, that if a LIBOR Loan is prepaid on any day other than the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, such Borrower shall also pay any amounts owing pursuant to Section 2.12; and provided, further, that (I) each voluntary prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 4.1(a) shall be applied to each Tranche of Term Loans on a pro rata basis and (II) if such notice of prepayment indicates that such prepayment is conditioned upon the consummation of any other transaction or the occurrence of any event (including an acquisition or a Change of Control), such notice of prepayment may be revoked if such Refinancing is not consummated or such condition is not satisfied, subject to payment of any costs referred to in Section 2.12. Upon receipt of any such notice the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each relevant Lender thereof. If any such notice is given, the amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein, together with accrued interest to such date on the amount prepaid. Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest. Partial prepayments of Term Loans shall be in an aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 and integral multiples of $1,000,000 in excess of that amount.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) All voluntary prepayments of a Tranche of Term Loans in accordance with this Section 4.1 shall be applied toward repayment of the outstanding Term DIP Claims on a pro rata basis.

4.2 Mandatory Repayments.

(a) If any Indebtedness shall be incurred by Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries, not later than two Business Days after the incurrence of such Indebtedness, an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds thereof shall be applied toward the prepayment of the Term Loans as set forth in this Section 4.2.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) If on any date Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries shall receive Net Cash Proceeds from any Asset Sale or any Recovery Event (other than any Net Cash Proceeds received in respect of Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral or assets of the ABL Foreign Loan Parties), then the Applicable Percentage of such Net Cash Proceeds shall be applied within five Business Days of such date to prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with this Section 4.2; provided, that the Borrowers shall have the option, directly or through one or more of their Subsidiaries, to reinvest such Net Cash Proceeds within ninety (90) days of receipt thereof in assets useful in the business of the Borrowers and their Subsidiaries; provided, further, that all such Net Cash Proceeds not so reinvested within such period must be applied in accordance with this Section 4.2(c) without giving effect to the proviso herein;

(d) Amounts to be applied in connection with prepayments made pursuant to this Section 4.2 shall be applied toward repayment of the outstanding Term DIP Claims on a pro rata basis.

(e) [Reserved].

(f) With respect to each repayment of Term Loans required by this Section 4.2, the Borrowing Agent (i) shall provide written notice to the Administrative Agent by 12 pm at least one Business Day in advance of such prepayment and (ii) may designate the Types of Term Loans of the respective Tranche which are to be repaid and, in the case of LIBOR Loans, the specific Borrowing or Borrowings of the respective Tranche pursuant to which such LIBOR Loans were made, provided that: (i) unless the Borrowing Agent complies with the provisions of Section 2.12, repayments of LIBOR Loans pursuant to this Section 4.2 may only be made on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto unless all LIBOR Loans of the respective Tranche with Interest Periods ending on such date of required repayment and all Base

Rate Loans of the respective Tranche have been paid in full; (ii) if any repayment of LIBOR Loans made pursuant to a single Borrowing shall reduce the outstanding LIBOR Loans made pursuant to such Borrowing to an amount less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount applicable thereto, such Borrowing shall be automatically converted into a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans; and (iii) each repayment of any Term Loans made pursuant to a Borrowing shall be applied pro rata among such Term Loans. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the election of the Borrowing Agent, the amount of any prepayment of Term Loans required under this Section 4.2 may be deposited in an escrow account on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and applied to the prepayment of LIBOR Loans upon the expiration of the applicable Interest Period; provided, that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Administrative Agent may, and upon the written direction from the Required Lenders, shall, apply any or all of such amounts then on deposit in such escrow account to the payment of such Term Loans, together with any amounts owing to the Lenders in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.12.

4.3 Method and Place of Payment. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all payments under this Agreement and under any Term DIP Note shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lender or Lenders entitled thereto not later than 1:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the date when due and shall be made in Dollars in immediately available funds at the Payment Office, and any payment received after such time may, in Administrative Agent's discretion, be deemed received on the next succeeding Business Day. Whenever any payment to be made hereunder or under any Term DIP Note shall be stated to be due on a day which is not a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension.

4.4 Net Payments.

(a) Except as provided in this Section 4.4(a), all payments made by or on behalf of the Borrowers hereunder and under any Loan Document will be made without setoff, counterclaim or other defense. All such payments will be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for, any Taxes with respect to such payments, unless required by applicable law. If any Taxes are required to be withheld or deducted, the Borrowers or Guarantor, if applicable, agrees to pay the full amount of such Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority and, if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, such additional amounts to the recipient as may be necessary so that every payment of all amounts due under this Agreement or under any Loan Document will not be less than the amount provided for herein or in such Loan Document after withholding or deduction for or on account of such Indemnified Taxes (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 4.4(a)). As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes, but in no event later than forty-five (45) days after the date of the payment of any Taxes, the Borrowers or Guarantors, if applicable, will furnish to the Administrative Agent certified copies of the receipt issued by the relevant Governmental Authority evidencing such payment by such Borrower or Guarantor. The Borrowers or Guarantors, if applicable, agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and to reimburse such Person for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes so levied or imposed (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 4.4(a)) and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority and paid by such Person, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability and the reasons therefor in reasonable detail delivered to the Borrowers by a Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers or Guarantor, if applicable, shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 4.4(c), each Lender and the Administrative Agent that is a United States person (as such term is defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) for U.S. federal income tax purposes, agrees to deliver to the Borrowing Agent and the Administrative Agent (or in the case of the Administrative Agent, to the Borrowing Agent) on or prior to the date it becomes a party to this Agreement, two accurate, complete and executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 certifying to such Person's entitlement to exemption from United States federal backup withholding, unless such Lender demonstrates that it is treated as an exempt recipient under Treasury Regulation Section 1.6049-4(c)(1)(ii). Each Lender and the Administrative Agent that is not a United States Person (as such term is defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) for U.S. federal income tax purposes (each, a "Foreign Lender") agrees to deliver to the Borrowing Agent and the Administrative Agent (or in the case of the Administrative Agent, to deliver to the Borrowing Agent) on or prior to the date it becomes a party to this Agreement, whichever of the following is applicable:

(i) two accurate, complete and executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI, or any subsequent versions thereof or successors thereto;

(ii) two accurate, complete and executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E or any subsequent versions thereof or successors thereto, certifying to such Person's entitlement as of such date to a complete exemption from, or reduction of, United States withholding tax with respect to payments to be made under this Agreement and under any Term DIP Note;

(iii) two accurate, complete and executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY, or any subsequent versions thereof of successors thereto, and all required supporting documentation; or

(iv) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code: (A) two executed certificates providing that such Foreign Lender is not (1) a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code; (2) a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrowers within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code; or (3) a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code, which certificates shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit I (any such certificate, a "Non-Bank Certificate") and (B) two accurate, complete and executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (with respect to the portfolio interest exemption) (or any subsequent versions thereof or successors thereto) certifying to such Lender's entitlement

as of such date to a complete exemption from United States withholding tax with respect to payments of interest to be made under this Agreement and under any Term DIP Note.

In addition, the Administrative Agent and each Lender agrees that from time to time after the Closing Date, when a change in circumstances renders the previous certification inaccurate in any material respect, it will deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent two new accurate and complete original signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI, Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (with respect to the benefits of any income tax treaty), Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (with respect to the portfolio interest exemption) and a Non-Bank Certificate, or Form W-9, as the case may be (or any subsequent versions thereof or successors thereto), in order to confirm or establish its continued entitlement to a complete exemption from United State withholding tax or backup withholding with respect to payments under this Agreement and any Term DIP Note, or it shall promptly notify the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent (if applicable) of its inability to deliver any such form or certificate pursuant to this Section 4.4 (b).

(c) If any Lender or the Administrative Agent is entitled to an exemption from or reduction in withholding Tax with respect to payments under this Agreement and any Term DIP Note, then such Lender and the Administrative Agent agree to deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent upon request such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable law as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit the Borrowers to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made (including with respect to FATCA), provided, however, that the Administrative Agent or any Lender shall not be required to provide any such additional documentation that is required by any taxing authority outside of the United States if in the reasonable judgment of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, the provision of such documentation would subject it to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice its legal or commercial position.

(d) If a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrowing Agent and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrowing Agent or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrowing Agent or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrowing Agent and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this Section 4.4(d), FATCA shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(e) If a Borrower or Guarantor pays any additional amount or makes any indemnity payment under this Section 4.4 to a Lender or the Administrative Agent and such Lender or the Administrative Agent determines in its sole discretion exercised in good faith that it has received any refund of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by such Borrower or any Guarantor (a “Refund”), such Lender or the Administrative Agent shall pay to a Borrower or Guarantor, as the case may be, such Refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section 4.4 with respect to Indemnified Taxes and Other Taxes giving rise to such Refund) net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including Taxes) in respect of such Refund and without interest; provided, however, that (i) any Lender or the Administrative Agent may determine, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith consistent with its policies, whether to seek a Refund; (ii) any Taxes, costs, penalties, interest or other charges that are imposed on a Lender or the Administrative Agent as a result of a disallowance or reduction of any Refund with respect to which such Lender or the Administrative Agent has made a payment to a Borrower or the Guarantor pursuant to this Section 4.4(e) (and any interest or penalties imposed thereon) shall be treated as a Tax for which a Borrower or Guarantor, as the case may be, is obligated to indemnify such Lender or the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 4.4 without any exclusions or defenses; (iii) nothing in this Section 4.4(e) shall require any Lender or the Administrative Agent to disclose any confidential information to the Borrowers or the Guarantor (including, without limitation, its tax returns); and (iv) no Lender or the Administrative Agent shall be required to pay any amounts pursuant to this Section 4.4(e) at any time which an Event of Default exists (provided that such amounts shall be credited against amounts otherwise owed under this Agreement by a Borrower or Guarantor); and (v) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.4(e), in no event will the Lender or Administrative Agent be required to pay any amount to the Borrowers or Guarantor the payment of which would place the Lender or Administrative Agent in a less favorable net after-tax position than the Lender or Administrative Agent would have been in if the indemnification payments or additional amounts giving rise to such refund had never been paid.

SECTION 5. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

To induce the Administrative Agent and the Lenders to enter into this Agreement and to make the Term DIP Loans, each of the Loan Parties hereby jointly and severally represents and warrants, (a) on the Closing Date, that the following representations are true and correct in all material respects (without duplication of any materiality qualifiers set forth therein):

5.1 Financial Condition; Budget.

(a) [Reserved].

(b) The audited consolidated balance sheets of the Company and its Subsidiaries as at January 30, 2015 and January 30, 2016, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders’ equity and cash flows for the fiscal years ended on January 30, 2015 and January 30, 2016, reported on by and accompanied by an unqualified report as to going concern or scope of audit from Deloitte & Touche LLP, copies of which have heretofore been furnished to each Lender, present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries as at such date, and the consolidated results of its operations and its consolidated cash flows for the respective fiscal years then ended. The unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its Subsidiaries at December 31, 2016 and the related consolidated statements of income and cash flows and changes in shareholders’ equity of the Company and its Subsidiaries for the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2016, copies of which have heretofore been furnished to each Lender, present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries at the date of such financial statements and the results for the period covered thereby, subject to year-end adjustments and the absence of footnotes. All such financial statements, including the related schedules and notes thereto, have been prepared in accordance with GAAP (without giving effect to the parenthetical set forth in the definition thereof) applied consistently throughout the periods involved (except for the lack of footnotes and being subject to year-end adjustments). To the knowledge of the Loan Parties none of Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries has, as of the Closing Date after giving effect to the Transaction and excluding obligations under the Loan Documents, the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Documents, the Prepetition First Lien Term Credit Agreement Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Agreement Documents, any material liabilities or obligations of any nature whatsoever (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise and whether or not due) which are not reflected in the most recent financial statements referred to in this paragraph as a result of any change, event, development, circumstance, condition or effect during the period from January 30, 2016 to and including the Closing Date.

(c) The Initial Budget delivered pursuant to Section 6.1(g) and each DIP Budget delivered thereafter pursuant to Section 7.2(g) hereof are based on good faith estimates and assumptions believed by management of the Borrowers to be reasonable and fair in light of current conditions and facts known to the Borrowers at the time delivered (it being understood that such Budgets and the assumptions on which they were based, may or may not prove to be correct).

5.2 No Change. Since the Petition Date, there has been no change in the financial condition, business, operations, or properties of Holdings and/or its Subsidiaries that has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

5.3 Existence; Compliance with Law. SECTION 9.
GUARANTEE

9.1 The Guarantee. Each Guarantor hereby jointly and severally guarantees, as a primary obligor and not as a surety, to each Secured Party and their respective successors and permitted assigns, the prompt payment in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, demand, by acceleration or otherwise) of (1) the principal of and interest (including any interest, fees, costs or charges that would accrue but for the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code after any bankruptcy or insolvency petition under the Bankruptcy Code or any similar law of any other jurisdiction) on (i) the Term Loans made by the Lenders to the Borrowers, and (ii) the Term DIP Notes held by each Lender of the Borrowers and (2) all other Obligations from time to time owing to the Secured Parties by the Loan Parties (such obligations being herein called the “Guaranteed Obligations”). Each Guarantor hereby jointly and severally agrees that, if the Borrowers shall fail to pay in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) any of the Guaranteed Obligations, such Guarantor will promptly pay the same in cash, without any demand or notice whatsoever, and that in the case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, the same will be promptly paid in full when due (whether at extended maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal.

9.2 Obligations Unconditional. The obligations of the Guarantors under Section 9.1, respectively, shall constitute a guarantee of payment (and not of collection) and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Requirements of Law, are absolute, irrevocable and unconditional, joint and several, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations of the Borrowers under this Agreement, the Term DIP Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or any substitution, release or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety by any Guarantor, as applicable (except for payment in full). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that the occurrence of any one or more of the following shall not alter or impair the liability of any Guarantor hereunder, which shall, in each case, remain absolute, irrevocable and unconditional under any and all circumstances as described above: at any time or from time to time, without notice to any Guarantor, the time for any performance of or compliance with any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be extended, or such performance or compliance shall be waived;

(b) any of the acts mentioned in any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Term DIP Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be done or omitted;

(c) the maturity of any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be accelerated, or any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be amended in any respect, or any right under the Loan Documents or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be amended or waived in any respect or any other guarantee of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any security therefor shall be released or exchanged in whole or in part or otherwise dealt with;

(d) any Lien or security interest granted to, or in favor of any Lender or the Administrative Agent as security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall fail to be perfected; or

(e) the release of any other Guarantor pursuant to Section 9.8, or otherwise.

Each of the Guarantors hereby expressly waives diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest and all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that any Secured Party exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against the Borrowers or any Guarantor under this Agreement or the Term DIP Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or against any other person under any other guarantee of, or security for, any of the Guaranteed Obligations. Each of the Guarantors waives any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension, waiver, termination or accrual of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and notice of or proof of reliance by any Secured Party upon this guarantee made under this Section 9 (this “Guarantee”) or acceptance of this Guarantee, and the Guaranteed Obligations, and any of them, shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon this Guarantee, and all dealings between the Borrowers and the Secured Parties shall likewise be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guarantee. This Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to any right of offset with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations at any time or from time to time held by the Secured Parties and the obligations and liabilities of the Guarantors hereunder shall not be conditioned or contingent upon the pursuit by the Secured Parties or any other person at any time of any right or remedy against the Borrowers or against any other person which may be or become liable in respect of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or against any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto. This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon the Guarantors and the successors and assigns thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of the applicable Lenders, and their respective successors and permitted assigns, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of this Agreement there may be no Guaranteed Obligations outstanding.

9.3 Reinstatement. The obligations of the Guarantors under this Section 9 shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of the Borrowers or any Loan Party in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise.

9.4 No Subrogation. Each Guarantor hereby agrees that until the payment and satisfaction in full in cash of all Guaranteed Obligations (other than contingent indemnification and reimbursement obligations for which no claim has been made) and the expiration and termination of the Term DIP Commitments under this Agreement it shall subordinate any claim and shall not exercise any right or remedy, direct or indirect, arising by reason of any performance by it of its guarantee in Section 9.1, whether by subrogation, right of contribution or otherwise, against any Borrower or any other Guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations.

9.5 Remedies. Each Guarantor jointly and severally agrees that, as between the Guarantors and the Lenders, the obligations of the Borrowers under this Agreement and the Term DIP Notes, if any, may be declared to be forthwith due and payable as provided in Section 10 (and shall be deemed to have become automatically due and payable in the circumstances provided in Section 10) for purposes of Section 9.1, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such declaration (or such obligations from becoming automatically due and payable) as against any Borrower or any Guarantor and that, in the event of such declaration (or such obligations being deemed to have become automatically due and payable, or the circumstances occurring where Section 10 provides that such obligations shall become due and payable), such obligations (whether or not due and payable by the Borrower) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guarantors for purposes of Section 9.1.

9.6 Continuing Guarantee. The Guarantee made by the Guarantors in this Section 9 is a continuing guarantee of payment, and shall apply to all Guaranteed Obligations whenever arising.

9.7 General Limitation on Guaranteed Obligations. In any action or proceeding involving any federal, state, provincial or territorial, corporate, limited partnership or limited liability company law, or any applicable state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other law affecting the rights of creditors generally, if the obligations of any Guarantor under Section 9.1 would otherwise be held or determined to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable, or subordinated to the claims of any other creditors, on account of the amount of its liability under Section 9.1, then, notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the amount of such liability of such Guarantor shall, without any further action by such Guarantor, any Loan Party or any other Person, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount (after giving effect to the right of contribution established in Section 9.9) that is valid and enforceable and not subordinated to the claims of other creditors as determined in such action or proceeding and would not constitute fraudulent conveyance.

The Guarantors confirm that it is the intention that this Guarantee not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of Debtor Relief Laws, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar federal, state or foreign law to the extent applicable to the obligations set forth herein.

9.8 Release of Subsidiary Guarantors and Pledges.

(a) A Subsidiary Guarantor shall be automatically released from its obligations hereunder in the event that (i) all the Capital Stock of such Subsidiary Guarantor shall be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of to a Person other than Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries in a transaction permitted by Section 8. In connection with any such release of a Guarantor, the Administrative Agent shall promptly execute and deliver to such Guarantor, at such Guarantor's expense, all UCC termination statements and other documents that such Guarantor shall reasonably request to evidence such release.

(b) If (x) any voting Capital Stock issued by any Excluded Foreign Subsidiary described in clause (i) of the definition of Excluded Foreign Subsidiary is redeemed by such Excluded Foreign Subsidiary, (y) the Borrowers provide written notice to the Administrative Agent that the Borrowers have determined in accordance with clause (i) of the definition of Excluded Foreign Subsidiary that a Subsidiary has become an Excluded Foreign Subsidiary described in such clause (i), or (z) the Borrowers provide written notice to the Administrative Agent that a Foreign Subsidiary or a FSHCO has ceased to be an Excluded Foreign Subsidiary described in clause (i) of the definition of Excluded Foreign Subsidiary and has become an Excluded Foreign Subsidiary described in clause (ii) or (iii) of the definition of Excluded Foreign Subsidiary, then such shares of the relevant issuer shall be automatically and without further action released from the security interests created by this Agreement so that the shares of voting Capital Stock of such Subsidiary subject to the security interests created by this Agreement shall not include more than 65% of the total outstanding voting Capital Stock of any Excluded Foreign Subsidiary described in clause (i) of the definition of Excluded Foreign Subsidiary or at any time include any shares of Capital Stock of any Excluded Foreign Subsidiary described in clause (ii) or clause (iii) of the definition of Excluded Foreign Subsidiary and any certificates representing such released Capital Stock shall be returned to the applicable grantor.

9.9 Right of Contribution. At any time a payment in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is made under this Guarantee, the right of contribution of each Subsidiary Guarantor against each other Subsidiary Guarantor shall be determined as provided in the immediately following sentence, with the right of contribution of each Subsidiary Guarantor to be revised and restated as of each date on which a payment (a “Relevant Payment”) is made on the Guaranteed Obligations under this Guarantee. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby agrees that to the extent that a Subsidiary Guarantor shall have made payments in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations that, in the aggregate, exceed such Subsidiary Guarantor’s Contribution Percentage (as defined below) of the aggregate payments made by all Subsidiary Guarantors (such excess, the “Aggregate Excess Amount”), each such Subsidiary Guarantor shall be entitled to seek and receive contribution from and against any other Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder which has not paid its Contribution Percentage of the aggregate payments made by all Subsidiary Guarantors (the “Aggregate Deficit Amount”) on the date of such payment, in an amount equal to (x) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Aggregate Excess Amount paid by such Subsidiary Guarantor and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Excess Amount paid by all Subsidiary Guarantors, multiplied by (y) the Aggregate Deficit Amount. Each Subsidiary Guarantor’s right of contribution shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 9.4. The provisions of this Section 9.9 shall in no respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Subsidiary Guarantor to the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties, and each Subsidiary Guarantor shall remain liable to the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties for the full amount guaranteed by such Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder; provided, that no Subsidiary Guarantor may take any action to enforce such right until the Guaranteed Obligations have been irrevocably paid in full in cash and the Total Term DIP Commitment has been terminated, it being expressly recognized and agreed by all parties hereto that any Subsidiary Guarantor’s right of contribution arising under this Section 9.9 against any other Subsidiary Guarantor shall be expressly junior and subordinate to such other Subsidiary Guarantor’s obligations and liabilities in respect of the Obligations and any other obligations owing under this Guarantee. As used in this Section 9.9: (i) each Subsidiary Guarantor’s “Contribution Percentage” shall mean the percentage obtained by dividing (x) Adjusted Net Worth (as defined below) of such Subsidiary Guarantor by (y) the aggregate Adjusted Net Worth of all Subsidiary Guarantors; (ii) the “Adjusted Net Worth” of each Subsidiary Guarantor shall mean the greater of (x) the Net Worth (as defined below) of such Subsidiary Guarantor and (y) zero; and (iii) the “Net Worth” of each Subsidiary Guarantor shall mean the amount by which the fair saleable value of such Subsidiary Guarantor's assets on the date of any payment by such Subsidiary Guarantor exceeds its existing debts and other liabilities (including contingent liabilities, but without giving effect to any Guaranteed Obligations arising under this Guarantee) on such date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above, any Subsidiary Guarantor that is released from this Guarantee pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof shall thereafter have no contribution obligations, or rights, pursuant to this Section 9.9, and at the time of any such release, if the released Subsidiary Guarantor had an Aggregate Excess Amount or an Aggregate Deficit Amount, same shall be deemed reduced to $0, and the contribution rights and obligations of the remaining Subsidiary Guarantors shall be recalculated on the respective date of releases (as otherwise provided above) based on the payments made hereunder by the remaining Subsidiary Guarantors.

9.10 [Reserved].

SECTION 11. ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

11.1 Appointment. The Lenders hereby irrevocably designate and appoint Cortland as Administrative Agent (for purposes of Sections 11 and 12.1, the term "Administrative Agent" also shall include Cortland in its capacity as Collateral Agent pursuant to the Term DIP Security Documents) to act as specified herein and in the other Loan Documents. Each Lender hereby irrevocably authorizes, and each holder of any Term DIP Note by the acceptance of such Term

DIP Note shall be deemed irrevocably to authorize, the Administrative Agent to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents and any other instruments and agreements referred to herein or therein and to exercise such powers and to perform such duties hereunder and thereunder as are specifically delegated to or required of the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof and thereof and such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The Administrative Agent may perform any of its respective duties hereunder by or through its officers, directors, agents, employees or affiliates. The provisions of this Section 11 are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, and the Borrowers shall not have any rights as third party beneficiaries of any such provisions (except as provided in Section 11.9).

11.2 Nature of Duties.

(a) The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the other Loan Documents. Neither the Administrative Agent nor any of its officers, directors, agents, employees or affiliates shall be liable for any action taken or omitted by it or them hereunder or under any other Loan Document or in connection herewith or therewith (i) if such action or omission was taken at the direction of the Required Lenders, or (ii) unless caused by its or their gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision). The duties of the Administrative Agent shall be mechanical and administrative in nature; the Administrative Agent shall not have by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Document a fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender or the holder of any Term DIP Note; and nothing in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, expressed or implied, is intended to or shall be so construed as to impose upon the Administrative Agent any obligations in respect of this Agreement or any other Loan Document except as expressly set forth herein or therein.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent:

(i) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing;

(ii) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents); provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the Automatic Stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law; and

(iii) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to any Borrower or any of their respective Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

11.3 Lack of Reliance on the Administrative Agent. Independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the holder of each Term DIP Note, to the extent it deems appropriate, acknowledges that it has made and shall continue to make (i) its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of Holdings and its Subsidiaries in connection with the making and the continuance of the Term Loans and the taking or not taking of any action in connection herewith and (ii) its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of Holdings and its Subsidiaries and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility, either initially or on a continuing basis, to provide any Lender or the holder of any Term DIP Note with any credit or other information with respect thereto, whether coming into its possession before the making of the Term Loans or at any time or times thereafter. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible to any Lender or the holder of any Term DIP Note for any recitals, statements, information, representations or warranties herein or in any document, certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or for the execution, effectiveness, genuineness, validity, enforceability, perfection, collectability, priority or sufficiency of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the financial condition of Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries or be required to make any inquiry concerning either the performance or observance of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or the financial condition of Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries or the existence or possible existence of any Default or Event of Default.

11.4 Certain Rights of the Administrative Agent. If the Administrative Agent requests instructions from the Required Lenders with respect to any act or action (including failure to act) in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to refrain from such act or taking such action unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received instructions from the Required Lenders and shall be entitled to rely and shall be protected in relying on opinions and judgments of attorneys, accountants, experts and other professional advisors selected by it; and the Administrative Agent shall not incur liability to any party by reason of so refraining. Without limiting the foregoing, neither any Lender nor the holder of any Term DIP Note shall have any right of action whatsoever against the Administrative Agent as a result of the Administrative Agent acting or refraining from acting hereunder or under any other Loan Document in accordance with the instructions of the Required Lenders. The Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action under any Loan Document, unless it is indemnified hereunder to its satisfaction.

11.5 Reliance. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any note, writing, resolution, notice, statement, certificate, telex, teletype or telecopier message (or other electronic communication), cablegram, radiogram, order or other document or telephone message signed, sent or made by any Person that the Administrative Agent believed to be the proper Person, and, with respect to all legal matters pertaining to this Agreement and any other Loan Document and its duties hereunder and thereunder, upon advice of counsel selected by the Administrative Agent.

11.6 Indemnification. (a) To the extent the Administrative Agent (or any affiliate thereof) is not timely reimbursed and indemnified by the Borrowing Agent or any Loan Party, the Lenders will reimburse and indemnify the Administrative Agent (and any affiliate thereof), including without limitation in its capacity as Collateral Agent under the Loan Documents, in proportion to their respective “percentage” as used in determining the Required Lenders (determined as if there were no Defaulting Lenders) for and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, costs, expenses or disbursements of whatsoever kind or nature which may be imposed on, asserted against or incurred by the Administrative Agent (or any affiliate thereof) in performing its duties hereunder or under any other Loan Document or in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent’s (or such affiliate’s) gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision).

(b) To the extent that the Loan Parties fail to pay any amount required to be paid by them to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under Section 12.1, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, such Lender’s pro rata share (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount; provided that the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent in its capacity as such. For purposes hereof, a Lender’s “pro rata share” shall be determined based upon its outstanding Term Loans and unused Commitments at the time (in each case, determined as if no Lender were a Defaulting Lender).

(c) To the extent permitted by applicable law, no party hereto shall assert, and each hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

(d) The provisions of this Section 11.6 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 11.6 shall be payable on written demand therefor.

11.7 The Administrative Agent in its Individual Capacity. With respect to its obligation to make Term Loans under this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have the rights and powers specified herein for a “Lender” and may exercise the same rights and powers as though it were not performing the duties specified herein; and the term “Lender,” “Required Lenders,” “Majority Lender,” “Additional Lender” or any similar terms shall, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, include the Administrative Agent in its respective individual capacities. The Administrative Agent and its affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of banking, investment banking, trust or other business with, or provide debt financing, equity capital or other services (including financial advisory services) to any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party (or any Person engaged in a similar business with any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof) as if they were not performing the duties specified herein, and may accept fees and other consideration from any Loan Party or any Affiliate of any Loan Party for services in connection with this Agreement and otherwise without having to account for the same to the Lenders.

11.8 Holders. The Administrative Agent may deem and treat the payee of any Term DIP Note as the owner thereof for all purposes hereof unless and until a written notice of the assignment, transfer or endorsement thereof, as the case may be, shall have been filed with the Administrative Agent and recorded in the Register. Any request, authority or consent of any Person who, at the time of making such request or giving such authority or consent, is the holder of any Term DIP Note shall be conclusive and binding on any subsequent holder, transferee, assignee or endorsee, as the case may be, of such Term DIP Note or of any Term DIP Note or Term DIP Notes issued in exchange therefor.

11.9 Resignation by the Administrative Agent.

(a) The Administrative Agent may resign from the performance of all its respective functions and duties hereunder and/or under the other Loan Documents at any time by giving 15 Business Days' prior written notice to the Lenders and the Borrowing Agent. Such resignation shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Administrative Agent pursuant to clauses (b) and (c) below or as otherwise provided below.

(b) Upon any such notice of resignation by the Administrative Agent, the Required Lenders shall, in consultation with the Borrowing Agent, appoint a successor Administrative Agent hereunder or thereunder who shall be a commercial bank or trust company.

(c) If a successor Administrative Agent shall not have been so appointed within such 15 Business Day period, the Administrative Agent, in consultation with the Borrowing Agent, shall then appoint a successor Administrative Agent who shall serve as Administrative Agent hereunder or thereunder until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent in accordance with clause (b) above.

(d) If no successor Administrative Agent has been appointed pursuant to clause (b) or (c) above by the 20th Business Day after the date such notice of resignation was given by the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent's resignation shall become effective and all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, and the Required Lenders shall thereafter perform all the duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder and/or under any other Loan Document until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent in accordance with clause (b) above; provided that in the case of any original Collateral held by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Administrative Agent shall continue to hold such original Collateral until such time as a successor Administrative Agent is appointed pursuant to this Section 11.9.

(e) Upon a resignation of the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 11.9, the Administrative Agent shall remain indemnified to the extent provided in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and the provisions of this Section 11 (and the analogous provisions of the other Loan Documents) shall continue in effect for the benefit of the Administrative Agent for all of its actions and inactions while serving as the Administrative Agent.

11.10 Collateral Matters.

(a) Each Lender authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into (x) the Term DIP Security Documents for the benefit of the Lenders and the other Secured Parties and (y) any amendments, amendments and restatements, restatements or waivers of or supplements to or other modifications to the Term DIP Security Documents or to permit such Indebtedness to be secured by a valid, perfected lien (with such priority as may be designated by the Borrowing Agent or relevant Subsidiary, to the extent such priority is permitted by Section 8.1(b)). Each Lender hereby agrees, and each holder of any Term DIP Note by the acceptance thereof will be deemed to agree, that, except as otherwise set forth herein, any action taken by the Required Lenders in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the Term DIP Security Documents, and the exercise by the Required Lenders of the powers set forth herein or therein, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, shall be authorized and binding upon all of the Lenders. The Collateral Agent is hereby authorized on behalf of all of the Lenders, without the necessity of any notice to or further consent from any Lender, from time to time prior to an Event of Default, to take any action with respect to any Collateral or Term DIP Security Documents which may be necessary to perfect and maintain perfected the security interest in and liens upon the Collateral granted pursuant to the Term DIP Security Documents and in the case of the ABL/DIP Loan Intercreditor, or any other Intercreditor Agreement to take all actions (and execute all documents) required or deemed advisable by it in accordance with the terms thereof.

(b) The Lenders hereby authorize the Collateral Agent, at its option and in its discretion, to release any Lien granted to or held by the Collateral Agent upon any Collateral (i) upon the occurrence of the Termination Date, (ii) constituting property being sold or otherwise disposed of (to Persons other than Holdings and its Subsidiaries) upon the sale or other disposition thereof in compliance with Section 8.4, (iii) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders (or all of the Lenders hereunder, to the extent required by Section 12.12) or (iv) as otherwise may be expressly provided in the relevant Term DIP Security Documents. Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent's authority to release particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 11.10.

(c) The Collateral Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to the Lenders or to any other Person to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by any Loan Party or is cared for, protected or insured or that the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent herein or pursuant hereto have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to exercise or to continue exercising at all or in any manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Collateral Agent in this Section 11.10 or in any of the Term DIP Security Documents, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission or event related thereto, the Collateral Agent may act in any manner it may deem appropriate, in its reasonable discretion, given the Collateral Agent's own interest in the Collateral as one of the Lenders and that the Collateral Agent shall have no duty or liability whatsoever to the Lenders, except for its gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision).

(d) Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty pursuant to this Section 11.10. In each case as specified in this Section 11.10, the Administrative Agent will, at the Borrowing Agent's expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the security interest granted under the Term DIP Security Agreement and the other Loan Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release such Subsidiary Loan Party from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this Section 11.10.

11.11 Delivery of Information. The Administrative Agent shall not be required to deliver to any Lender originals or copies of any documents, instruments, notices, communications or other information received by the Administrative Agent from any Loan Party, any Subsidiary, the Required Lenders, any Lender or any other Person under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document except (i) as specifically provided in this Agreement or any other Loan Document and (ii) as specifically requested from time to time in writing by any Lender with respect to a specific document, instrument, notice or other written communication received by and in the possession of the Administrative Agent at the time of receipt of such request and then only in accordance with such specific request.

11.12 Withholding. To the extent required by any applicable law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any withholding tax applicable to such payment. If the IRS or any other Governmental Authority asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any other reason, or the Administrative Agent has paid over to the IRS applicable withholding tax relating to a payment to a Lender but no deduction has been made from such payment, such Lender shall indemnify the Administrative Agent fully for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as tax or otherwise, including any penalties or interest and together with any and all expenses incurred, unless such amounts have been indemnified by any Borrower, Guarantor or the relevant Lender.

11.13 [Reserved].

SECTION 12.
MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Payment of Expenses, etc.

(a) Subject to entry of the Interim Order, the Borrowers, Holdings, and each Guarantor agree, jointly and severally, to pay all reasonable and documented (in summary form) out-of-pocket fees, costs, disbursements and expenses (i) incurred by (A) the Administrative Agent (including (and limited, in the case of counsel, to) all reasonable fees, costs, disbursements and expenses of the Agents' outside counsel, NRF, and (B) the Lenders (limited, in the case of counsel, financial advisors and other outside professional advisors to all reasonable fees, costs, disbursements and expenses of the Lender's counsel, K&S and Houlihan, as financial advisor to the Lenders, and (C) any other professional advisors retained by the Administrative Agent, or the Lenders or their respective counsel in connection with the negotiations, preparation, execution and delivery of the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, all due diligence, transportation, computer, duplication, messenger, audit, insurance, appraisal, valuation and consultant costs and expenses, and all search, filing and recording fees, incurred or sustained by the Administrative Agent and its counsel and professional advisors in connection with the Term DIP Facility, the Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated thereby, the administration of the Term DIP Facility and any amendment or waiver of any provision of the Loan Documents, (whether or not the transactions hereby or thereby contemplated shall be consummated) or (ii) incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with the Loans made, in each case, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of NRF and K&S, and, in connection with any such enforcement or protection, the fees, charges and disbursements of one firm of local counsel for the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender and other professional advisors.

(b) The Loan Parties agree, jointly and severally, to indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, each Lender and each Related Party of any of the foregoing Persons (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all actual losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including reasonable counsel fees, charges and disbursements, incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including fundings under the Term DIP Facility), (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans, or (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto (and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by the Borrowers, any other Loan Party or any of their respective Affiliates), or (iv) any Release or actual or alleged presence of Materials of Environmental Concern on, at or under any property currently or formerly owned, leased or operated by the Borrowers or any of the Subsidiaries, or any Environmental Claims related in any way to the Borrowers or the Subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses (A) are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted primarily from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee, or (B) resulted solely from a dispute solely among Indemnitees other than any claims against any Indemnitee in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent. No Indemnitee shall have any liability (whether direct or indirect, in contract, tort or otherwise) to any Loan Party or any of its Related Parties for or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except, with respect to any Indemnitee, to the extent such liability is found in a final non appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party.

(c) To the extent that the Loan Parties fail to pay any amount required to be paid by them to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 12.1, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, such Lender's pro rata share (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount; provided that the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent in its capacity as such. For purposes hereof, a Lender's "pro rata share" shall be determined based upon its outstanding Term Loans and unused Term DIP Commitments at the time.

(d) To the extent permitted by applicable law, no party hereto shall assert, and each hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

(e) The provisions of this Section 12.1 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Term DIP Commitments, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 12.1 shall be payable on written demand therefor.

12.2 Right of Setoff. In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law or otherwise, and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent and each Lender is hereby authorized at any time or from time to time, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind to any Loan Party or to any other Person, any such notice being hereby expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, in whatever currency, but excluding any deposits in Excluded Accounts) and any other Indebtedness at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent or such Lender (including, without limitation, by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent or such Lender wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries against and on account of the Obligations and liabilities of the Loan Parties to the Administrative Agent or such Lender under this Agreement or under any of the other Loan Documents, including, without limitation, all interests in Obligations purchased by such Lender pursuant to Section 12.4, and all other claims of any nature or description arising out of or connected with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent or such Lender shall have made any demand hereunder and although said Obligations, liabilities or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of this Section 12.2 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 12.6(b) as though it were a Lender.

12.3 Notices.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices and other communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing (including telegraphic, telecopier or cable communication or other electronic communication) and mailed, telegraphed, telecopied, cabled or delivered: if to any Loan Party, at the address specified opposite its signature below or in the other relevant Loan Documents; if to any Lender, at its address specified on Schedule II; and if to the Administrative Agent, at the Notice Office; or, as to any Loan Party or the Administrative Agent, at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto and, as to each Lender, at such other address as shall be designated by such Lender in a written notice to the Borrowing Agent and the Administrative Agent. All such notices and communications shall, when mailed, telegraphed, telecopied, or cabled or sent by overnight courier, be effective when deposited in the mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Administrative Agent and the Borrowing Agent shall not be effective until received by the Administrative Agent or such Borrower, as the case may be.

(b) Notices and other communications to the Lenders and the other Secured Parties hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices pursuant to Section 2 unless otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lender. Each of the Administrative Agent, Holdings and the Borrowing Agent may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

12.4 Benefit of Agreement; Assignments; Participations.

(a) (i) Assignments. The provisions of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents, and all Liens and DIP Liens and other rights and privileges created hereby or pursuant hereto or to any other Loan Document shall be binding upon each Debtor, the estate of each Debtor, and any trustee, other estate representative or any successor in interest of any Debtor in any Chapter 11 Case or any subsequent case commenced under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall not be subject to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and their respective assigns, transferees and endorsees. The Liens and DIP Liens created by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall be and remain valid and perfected in the event of the substantive consolidation or conversion of any Chapter 11 Case or any other bankruptcy case of any Debtor to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in the event of dismissal of any Chapter 11 Case or the release of any Collateral from the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for any reason, without the necessity that the Administrative Agent file financing statements or otherwise perfect its Liens or DIP Liens under applicable law. No Loan Party may assign, transfer, hypothecate or otherwise convey its rights, benefits, obligations or duties hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents without the prior express written consent of the Lenders. Any such purported assignment, transfer, hypothecation or other conveyance by any Loan Party without the prior express written consent of the Lenders shall be void. The terms and provisions of this Agreement are for the purpose of defining the relative rights and obligations of each Loan Party, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and no Person shall be a third party beneficiary of any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.4, nothing in this Section 12.4 is intended to or should be construed to limit the Borrower's right to prepay the Obligations as provided hereunder, including under Sections 2.4 and 4.2.

Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraphs (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more Eligible Assignees (each, an "Assignee") all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Term DIP Commitments and the Term Loans at the time owing to it and the Term DIP Note or Term DIP Notes (if any) held by it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of the Required Lenders, except, in the case of any Lender, with respect to an assignment of any Term Loan or any Term DIP Commitment to a Lender or an Affiliate of a Lender; and

(i) Assignment Conditions. Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Term DIP Commitments or Term Loans under any Facility, the amount of the Term DIP Commitments or Term Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 (provided that simultaneous assignments to or by two or more Approved Funds shall be aggregated for purposes of determining such amount) unless the Required Lenders otherwise consent;

(B) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent (i) an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually); and (ii) a joinder to the RSA simultaneously with such Assignment and Assumption; and

(C) the Assignee, if it is not already a Lender hereunder, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an administrative questionnaire and the Internal Revenue Service forms described in Section 4.4(b) (including the Non-Bank Certificate, as applicable) and any forms described in Section 4.4(c) (if applicable).

This Section 12.4(b) shall not prohibit any Lender from assigning all or any portion of its rights and obligations among separate facilities on a non-pro rata basis.

For the purposes of this Section 12.4, “Approved Fund” means any Person (other than a natural person) that is engaged in making, purchasing, holding or investing in bank loans and similar extensions of credit in the ordinary course and that is administered or managed by (a) a Lender, (b) an Affiliate of a Lender or (c) an entity or an Affiliate of an entity that administers or manages a Lender.

(ii) [Reserved].

(iii) [Reserved].

(iv) Novation. Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to Section 12.4(a)(vi) below, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption the Assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.11, 2.12, 4.4 and 12.1).

(v) Acceptance and Register. Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Assumption executed by an assigning Lender and an Assignee, the Assignee’s completed administrative questionnaire (unless the Assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder) and all documentation and other information required by regulatory authorities under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the Patriot Act, together with (x) any processing and recordation fee (y) any written consents to such assignment required by Section 12.4, the Administrative Agent at the direction of the Required Lenders shall promptly accept such Assignment and Assumption and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this paragraph.

(c) (i) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowing Agent or the Administrative Agent, sell participations in respect of Term Loans to one or more banks or other entities (other than any Sponsor, the Borrowers or any of Holdings or any Sponsor’s or the Borrowers’ Affiliates, or a natural person) (a “Participant”) in all or a portion of such Lender’s rights and obligations with respect thereto; provided that (A) such Lender’s obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (C) the Borrowing Agent, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver that (1) requires the consent of each Lender directly affected thereby pursuant to the second proviso of Section 12.12(a) and (2) directly affects such Participant. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowing Agent, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the commitment of, and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of, each Participant's interest in the Term Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents, including, in particular, the principal amounts and stated interest of each Participant's interest in any Loan or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register to any Person (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any Term DIP Commitments, Term Loans or its other obligations under any Loan Document) except to the extent that the relevant parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, determine that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Term DIP Commitment, Term Loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. Unless otherwise required by the IRS, any disclosure required by the foregoing sentence shall be made by the relevant Lender directly and solely to the IRS. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

(ii) The Borrowing Agent agrees that (x) each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.11 and 2.12 (subject to the requirements of those sections) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 12.4(b) and (y) each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 4.4 (subject to the requirements and limitations therein, including the requirements under Section 4.4(b) (it being understood that the documentation required under Section 4.4(b) shall be delivered to the participating Lender)) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 12.4(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Participant shall be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.11 or 4.4 than the applicable participating Lender would have been entitled to receive in respect of the amount of the participation transferred by such participating Lender to such Participant had no such participation occurred, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Tax Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 12.2.

(d) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (but not to any Sponsor, the Borrowing Agent or any of Holdings' or any Sponsor's or the Borrowing Agent's Affiliates) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, and this Section shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or Assignee for such Lender as a party hereto or provide the respective pledgee or assignee any voting rights with respect to the pledged or assigned obligations.

(e) The Borrowing Agent, upon receipt of written notice from the relevant Lender, agrees to issue Term DIP Notes to any Lender requiring Term DIP Notes to facilitate transactions of the type described in Section 12.4.

(f) Each Lender, upon succeeding to an interest in Term DIP Commitments or Term Loans, as the case may be, represents and warrants as of the effective date of the applicable Assignment and Assumption that it is an Eligible Assignee.

(g) [Reserved].

12.5 No Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Loan Document and no course of dealing between the Borrowing Agent or any other Loan Party and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Loan Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies herein or in any other Loan Document expressly provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand.

12.6 Payments Pro Rata.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Administrative Agent agrees that promptly after its receipt of each payment from or on behalf of the Borrowing Agent in respect of any Obligations hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall distribute such payment to the Lenders entitled thereto (other than any Lender that has consented in writing to waive its pro rata share of any such payment) pro rata (or in accordance with the Term DIP Security Documents, as applicable) based upon their respective shares, if any, of the Obligations with respect to which such payment was received.

(b) Each of the Lenders agrees that, if it should receive any amount hereunder (whether by voluntary payment, by realization upon security, by the exercise of the right of setoff or banker's lien, by counterclaim or cross action, by the enforcement of any right under the Loan Documents, or otherwise), which is applicable to the payment of the principal of, or interest on, the Term Loans or Fees, of a sum which with respect to the related sum or sums received by other Lenders is in a greater proportion than the total of such Obligation then owed and due to such Lender bears to the total of such Obligation then owed and due to all of the Lenders immediately prior to such receipt, then such Lender receiving such excess payment shall purchase for cash without recourse or warranty from the other Lenders an interest in the Obligations of the respective Loan Party to such Lenders in such amount as shall result in a proportional participation by all the Lenders in such amount; provided that if all or any portion of such excess amount is thereafter recovered from such Lenders, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the provisions of the preceding Sections 12.6(a) and (b) shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement which (i) require or permit, differing payments to be made to Non-Defaulting Lenders as opposed to Defaulting Lenders and (ii) permit disproportionate payments with respect to the Term Loans as, and to the extent provided herein.

12.7 Calculations; Computations.

(a) All accounting terms not specifically or completely defined herein shall be construed in conformity with, and all financial data (including financial ratios and other financial calculations) required to be submitted pursuant to this Agreement shall be prepared in conformity with, GAAP, except as otherwise specifically prescribed herein.

(b) If at any time any change in GAAP or in the application of GAAP would affect the computation of any financial ratio or financial term or definition set forth in any Loan Document and either the Borrowing Agent or the Required Lenders shall so request, the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and the Borrowing Agent shall negotiate in good faith to amend (subject to the approval of the Required Lenders) such ratio or covenant to preserve the original intent thereof in light of such change in (or in the application of) GAAP; provided that, until so amended, the Borrowing Agent shall provide to the Administrative Agent financial statements and other documents required under this Agreement or as reasonably requested hereunder setting forth a reconciliation between such ratio or financial covenant made before and after giving effect to such change in (or in the application of) GAAP as is reasonably necessary to demonstrate the compliance (or non-compliance) with such ratio.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (i) all financial statements shall be prepared without giving effect to any election under FASB ASC 825 (or any similar accounting principle) permitting a Person to value its financial liabilities at the fair value thereof or the application of FAS 133, FAS 150 or FAS 123r (to the extent that the pronouncements in FAS 123r result in recording an equity award as a liability on the consolidated balance sheet of Holdings and its Subsidiaries in the circumstance where, but for the application of the pronouncements, such award would have been classified as equity) and (ii) to the extent expressly provided herein, certain calculations shall be made on a pro forma basis. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding any changes in GAAP after the Closing Date that would require lease obligations that would be treated as operating leases as of the Closing Date to be classified and accounted for as Capital Lease Obligations or otherwise reflected on the consolidated balance sheet of Holdings and its Subsidiaries, such obligations shall continue to be excluded from the definition of Indebtedness.

(d) All computations of interest and other Fees hereunder shall be made on the basis of a year of 360 days (except for interest calculated by reference to the Prime Lending Rate, which shall be based on a year of 365 or 366 days, as applicable) for the actual number of days (including the first day but excluding the last day) occurring in the period for which such interest or Fees are payable.

12.8 GOVERNING LAW; SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; VENUE; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND BE GOVERNED BY THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES) EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT GOVERNED BY THE BANKRUPTCY CODE. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT AND THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, IN EACH CASE WHICH ARE LOCATED IN THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE PROVISIONS OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE ARE APPLICABLE AND SPECIFICALLY CONFLICT WITH THE FOREGOING, AND, BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT, EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY ACCEPTS FOR ITSELF AND IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY, THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE AFORESAID COURTS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH COURTS LACK PERSONAL JURISDICTION OVER SUCH PERSON, AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM, IN ANY LEGAL ACTION PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT BROUGHT IN ANY OF THE AFOREMENTIONED COURTS, THAT SUCH COURTS LACK PERSONAL JURISDICTION OVER SUCH PERSON. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO FURTHER IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS OUT OF ANY OF THE AFOREMENTIONED COURTS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO SUCH PERSON AT ITS ADDRESS SET FORTH OPPOSITE ITS SIGNATURE BELOW, SUCH SERVICE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE 30 DAYS AFTER SUCH MAILING. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS AND FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING COMMENCED HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS WAS IN ANY WAY INVALID OR INEFFECTIVE. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, ANY LENDER OR THE HOLDER OF ANY TERM DIP NOTE TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST HOLDINGS, THE BORROWING AGENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

(b) EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY OF THE AFORESAID ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT BROUGHT IN THE COURTS REFERRED TO IN CLAUSE (a) ABOVE AND HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY SUCH COURT THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

(c) EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 12.8, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any action or dispute involving, relating to or arising out of this agreement or the other Loan Documents.

12.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. A set of counterparts executed by all the parties hereto shall be lodged with the Borrowing Agent and the Administrative Agent. Delivery of an executed counterpart by facsimile or electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart. Delivery of an executed counterpart by facsimile or electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart.

12.10 Effectiveness. This Agreement shall become effective on the date (the "Closing Date") on which (a) Holdings, the Borrowing Agent, each Subsidiary Guarantor, the Administrative Agent and each of the Lenders shall have signed a counterpart hereof (whether the same or different counterparts) and shall have delivered the same to the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office or, in the case of the Lenders, shall have given to the Administrative Agent telephonic (confirmed in writing), written or telex notice (actually received) at such office that the same has been signed and mailed to it and (b) the conditions precedent set forth in Section 6.1 have been waived or satisfied. The Administrative Agent will give Holdings, the Borrowing Agent and each Lender prompt written notice of the occurrence of the Closing Date.

12.11 Headings Descriptive. The headings of the several sections and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

12.12 Amendment or Waiver; etc.

(a) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any terms hereof or thereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated unless such change, waiver, discharge or termination is in writing signed by the respective Loan Parties party hereto or thereto (or in the case of this Agreement, Holdings and the Borrowing Agent and, to the extent relating to Section 9 that directly and adversely affects any other Loan Party, each such directly and adversely affected Loan Party), the Administrative Agent, and the Required Lenders (although additional parties may be added to (and annexes may be modified to reflect such additions), and Subsidiaries of the Borrowing Agent may be released from, the Guarantee and the Term DIP Security Documents in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof without the consent of the other Loan Parties party thereto or the Required Lenders), provided that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall, without the consent of each Lender (other than, except with respect to following clause (i), a Defaulting Lender) (with Obligations being directly and adversely affected in the case of following clause (i)(y)) or whose Obligations are being extended in the case of following clause (i)(x)), (i)(x) extend the final scheduled maturity of any Term Loan or Term DIP Note, (y) or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest or fees thereon (except in connection with the waiver of applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates), or reduce (or forgive) the principal amount thereof, (ii) release all or substantially all of the Collateral or Guarantors (except as expressly provided in the Loan Documents) under all the Term DIP Security Documents or this Agreement, respectively, (iii) amend, modify or waive any provision of this Section 12.12(a) (except for technical amendments with respect to additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement which afford the protections to such additional extensions of credit of the type provided to the Term Loans on the Closing Date), (iv) pursue any action seeking to invalidate, modify, set aside, avoid or subordinate, in whole or in part, the Liens or the Prepetition First Lien Obligations (v) amend, modify, or permit the amendment or modification of the RSA in a manner that is adverse to the interests of the Lenders or the Loan Parties in any material respect, except as permitted under the terms thereof, or (vi) reduce the “majority” voting threshold specified in the definition of Required Lenders; provided further that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall (1) increase the Term DIP Commitments of any Lender over the amount thereof then in effect without the consent of such Lender (it being understood that waivers or modifications of conditions precedent, covenants, Defaults or Events of Default or of a mandatory reduction in the Total Term DIP Commitment or a mandatory repayment of Term Loans shall not constitute an increase of the Term DIP Commitment of any Lender, and that an increase in the available portion of any Term DIP Commitment of any Lender shall not constitute an increase of the Term DIP Commitment of such Lender), (2) without the consent of the Required Lenders and the Administrative Agent, amend, modify or waive any provision of Section 11 or any other provision as same relates to the rights or obligations of the Administrative Agent, (3) without the consent of the Collateral Agent at the direction of the Required Lenders, amend, modify or waive any provision relating to the rights or obligations of the Collateral Agent, (4) except to the extent otherwise provided in this Agreement or in cases where additional extensions of term loans are being afforded substantially the same treatment afforded to the Term Loans pursuant to this Agreement on the Closing Date, without the consent of the Majority Lenders of each Tranche which is being allocated a lesser prepayment, repayment or commitment reduction as a result of the actions described below, alter the required application of any prepayments or repayments (or commitment reduction), as between the various Tranches, pursuant to Section 4.1(a) or 4.2 (it being understood, however, that (x) the Required Lenders may waive, in whole or in part, any such prepayment, repayment or commitment reduction, so long as the application, as amongst the various Tranches, of any such prepayment, repayment or commitment reduction which is still required to be made is not altered and (y) any conversion of any Tranche of Term Loans into another Tranche of Term Loans hereunder in like principal amount shall not be considered a “prepayment” or “repayment” for purposes of this clause (4) or (5) without the consent of the Majority Lenders of the respective Tranche affected thereby, amend the definition of Majority Lenders (it being understood that, with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Majority Lenders on substantially the same basis as the extensions of Term Loans and Term DIP Commitments are included on the Closing Date).

(b) This Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrowing Agent (i) to add one or more additional credit facilities to this Agreement or to increase the amount of the existing facilities under this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Term Loans and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof, (ii) to permit any such additional credit facility which is a term loan facility or any such increase in the Term DIP Facility to share ratably in prepayments with the Term Loans and (iii) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 12.12, (x) Term DIP Security Documents (including any Additional Term DIP Security Documents) and related documents executed by Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and may be amended, supplemented and waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent at the direction of the Required Lenders and the Borrowing Agent without the need to obtain the consent of any other Person if such amendment, supplement or waiver is delivered in order (i) to comply with local law, the Bankruptcy Code, or advice of local counsel, (ii) to cure ambiguities, omissions, mistakes or defects or (iii) to cause such Term DIP Security Document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrative Agent may amend an Intercreditor Agreement (or enter into a replacement thereof), Additional Term DIP Security Documents and/or replacement Term DIP Security Documents (including a collateral trust agreement) in connection with the incurrence of (a) any Indebtedness permitted under Section 8.1 to provide that a Representative acting on behalf of the holders of such Indebtedness shall become a party thereto and shall have rights to share in the Collateral on a pari passu basis (but without regard to the control of remedies) with the Obligations and (b) any Indebtedness permitted under Section 8.1 to provide that a Representative acting on behalf of the holders of such Indebtedness shall become a party thereto and shall have rights to share in the Collateral on a junior lien, subordinated basis to the Obligations and the obligations in respect of any Indebtedness described in clause (a) above.

12.13 Survival. All indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Sections 2.11, 2.12, 4.4, 11.6, 11.12 and 12.1 and the representations and warranties set forth in Section 5 of this Agreement shall survive the execution, delivery and termination of this Agreement and the Term DIP Notes, or the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, and the making, repayment, satisfaction, or discharge of the Obligations.

12.14 Domicile of Term Loans. Each Lender may transfer and carry its Term Loans at, to or for the account of any office, Subsidiary or Affiliate of such Lender. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, to the extent that a transfer of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 12.14 would, at the time of such transfer, result in increased costs under Section 2.11, 2.12 or 4.4 from those being charged by the respective Lender prior to such transfer, then the Borrowing Agent shall not be obligated to pay such increased costs (although the Borrowing Agent shall be obligated to pay any other increased costs of the type described above resulting from changes in any applicable law, treaty, government rule, regulation, guideline or order, or in the official interpretation thereof, after the date of the respective transfer).

12.15 Register. The Borrowing Agent hereby designates the Administrative Agent to serve as its non-fiduciary agent, solely for purposes of this Section 12.15 (and such agency being solely for tax purposes), to maintain a register (the “Register”) on which it will record from time to time the name and address of each Lender, the Term DIP Commitments, the principal amounts of the Term Loans and any other obligations under the Loan Documents, and the amounts of stated interest due thereon, owing to each Lender pursuant the terms hereof and any Term DIP Note. Failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation, shall not affect the Borrowing Agent’s obligations in respect of such Term Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents. With respect to any Lender, the transfer of the Term DIP Commitments of such Lender and the rights to the principal of, and interest on, any Term Loans and any other obligations under the Loan Documents owing to such Lender shall not be effective until such transfer is recorded on the Register maintained by the Administrative Agent and prior to such recordation all amounts owing to the transferor with respect to such Term DIP Commitments and Term Loans and other obligations under the Loan Documents shall remain owing to the transferor. The registration of assignment or transfer of all or part of any Term DIP Commitments, Term Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents shall be recorded by the Administrative Agent on the Register upon and only upon the acceptance by the Administrative Agent of a properly executed and delivered Assignment and Assumption pursuant to Section 12.4. Upon such acceptance and recordation, the assignee specified therein shall be treated as a Lender for all purposes of this Agreement. Coincident with the delivery of such an Assignment and Assumption to the Administrative Agent for acceptance and registration of assignment or transfer of all or part of a Term Loan, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the assigning or transferor Lender shall surrender the Term DIP Note (if any) evidencing such Term Loan, and thereupon one or more new Term DIP Notes in the same aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the assignee or transferee Lender at the request of any such Lender. The Borrowing Agent agrees to indemnify the Administrative Agent from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities of whatsoever nature which may be imposed on, asserted against or incurred by the Administrative Agent in performing its duties under this Section 12.15 to the same extent that the Administrative Agent is otherwise indemnified pursuant to Section 11.6. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowing Agent and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice, provided that the information contained in the Register which is shared with each Lender (other than the Administrative Agent and its affiliates) shall be limited to the entries with respect to such Lender including the Term DIP Commitment of, or principal amount of and stated interest on the Term Loans owing to such Lender. This Section shall be construed so that the Term DIP Loans and Term DIP Commitments are at all times maintained in “registered form” within the meanings of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and any related regulations (and any successor provisions).

12.16 Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b) of this Section 12.16, each Lender agrees that it will use its reasonable efforts not to disclose without the prior consent of Holdings (other than to its employees, auditors, advisors, agents, representatives or counsel or to another Lender if such Lender or such Lender’s holding or parent company in its reasonable discretion determines that any such party should have access to such information, provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 12.16 to the same extent as such Lender) any information with respect to Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries which is now or in the future furnished pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, provided that any Lender may disclose any such information (i) as has become generally available to the public other than by virtue of a breach of this Section 12.16(a) by the respective Lender, (ii) upon the request or demand of any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such Lender or any of their affiliates (in which case the Lenders agree, to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, to inform you promptly thereof prior to disclosure (except with respect to any audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any governmental bank regulatory authority exercising examination or regulatory authority or in cases where any governmental and/or regulatory authority had requested otherwise)), (iii) as may be required or appropriate in respect to any summons or subpoena or in connection with any litigation, (iv) in order to comply with any law, order, regulation or ruling applicable to such Lender, (v) to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, (vi) to any direct or indirect contractual counterparty in any swap, hedge or similar agreement (or to any such contractual counterparty’s professional advisor), so long as such contractual counterparty (or such professional advisor) agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 12.16, (vii) to any prospective or actual transferee or Participant in connection with any contemplated transfer or participation of any of the Term DIP Notes or Term DIP Commitments or any interest therein by such Lender, provided that such prospective transferee agrees to be bound by the confidentiality provisions contained in this Section 12.16, (viii) on a confidential basis to any rating agency in connection with any rating of the Loan Parties or the Term DIP Facility, (ix) in connection with the exercise of remedies under this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any action or proceeding relating to the enforcement of rights under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents and (x) as required or necessary in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

(b) Each of Holdings and the Borrowing Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that each Lender may share with any of its affiliates, and such affiliates may share with such Lender, any information related to Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, any non-public customer information regarding the creditworthiness of Holdings and its Subsidiaries), provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 12.16 to the same extent as such Lender.

12.17 Patriot Act. Each Lender subject to the Patriot Act hereby notifies Holdings and the Borrowing Agent that pursuant to the requirements of the Patriot Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies Holdings, the Borrowing Agent and the other Loan Parties and other information that will allow such Lender to identify Holdings, the Borrowing Agent and the other Loan Parties in accordance with the Patriot Act.

12.18 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable law (the "Maximum Rate"). If the Administrative Agent or any Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Term Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrowing Agent. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by the Administrative Agent or a Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest, (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof, and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate, and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

12.19 [Reserved].

12.20 Lender Action. Each Lender agrees that it shall not take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party or any other obligor under any of the Credit Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help), or institute any actions or proceedings, or otherwise commence any remedial procedures, with respect to any Collateral or any other property of any such Loan Party, unless expressly provided for herein or in any other Loan Document, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent at the direction of the Required Lenders. The provisions of this Section 12.20 are for the sole benefit of the Lenders and shall not afford any right to, or constitute a defense available to, any Loan Party.

12.21 Other Liens on Collateral; Terms of Intercreditor Agreements; etc.

(i) EACH LENDER HERETO UNDERSTANDS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT LIENS SHALL BE CREATED ON THE COLLATERAL PURSUANT TO THE ABL DIP CREDIT AGREEMENT DOCUMENTS, WHICH LIENS (X) TO THE EXTENT CREATED WITH RESPECT TO ABL PRIORITY COLLATERAL, SHALL BE SENIOR TO THE LIENS CREATED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AND THE LOAN DOCUMENTS (WITH THE LIENS SO CREATED HEREUNDER AND UNDER THE LOAN DOCUMENTS ON ABL PRIORITY COLLATERAL BEING SUBORDINATED TO SUCH LIENS PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT) AND (Y) TO THE EXTENT CREATED WITH RESPECT TO TERM PRIORITY COLLATERAL, SHALL

BE REQUIRED TO BE SUBJECT TO THE SUBORDINATION PROVISIONS (TO THE EXTENT APPLICABLE) OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT. THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT ALSO HAS OTHER PROVISIONS WHICH ARE BINDING UPON THE LENDERS AND THE OTHER SECURED PARTIES PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT. PURSUANT TO THE EXPRESS TERMS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE TERMS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY OF THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT SHALL GOVERN AND CONTROL.

(ii) EACH LENDER HERETO UNDERSTANDS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT LIENS SHALL BE CREATED ON THE COLLATERAL PURSUANT TO THE PREPETITION SECOND LIEN LOAN DOCUMENTS, WHICH LIENS TO THE EXTENT CREATED WITH RESPECT TO TERM PRIORITY COLLATERAL, SHALL BE JUNIOR TO THE LIENS CREATED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AND THE LOAN DOCUMENTS (PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT). THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT ALSO HAS OTHER PROVISIONS WHICH ARE BINDING UPON THE LENDERS AND THE OTHER SECURED PARTIES PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT. PURSUANT TO THE EXPRESS TERMS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE TERMS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND ANY OF THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT SHALL GOVERN AND CONTROL.

(iii) THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 12.21 ARE NOT INTENDED TO SUMMARIZE ALL RELEVANT PROVISIONS OF (A) THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, THE FORM OF WHICH IS ATTACHED AS AN EXHIBIT TO THIS AGREEMENT, (B) THE TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR (C) ANY OTHER INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, WHICH WILL BE IN THE FORM APPROVED BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AS PERMITTED BY THIS AGREEMENT. REFERENCE MUST BE MADE TO THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR SUCH OTHER INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT ITSELF TO UNDERSTAND ALL TERMS AND CONDITIONS THEREOF. EACH LENDER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING ITS OWN ANALYSIS AND REVIEW OF EACH OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, THE TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND EACH OTHER INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS THEREOF, AND NONE OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND COLLATERAL AGENT (AND NONE OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES) MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION TO ANY LENDER AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OR ADVISABILITY OF THE PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, THE TERM LOAN

INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT.

(iv) EACH SECURED PARTY, BY ITS EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE ACCEPTING THE BENEFIT OF THE GUARANTEE AND SECURITY DOCUMENTS, HEREBY (I) CONFIRMS ITS AGREEMENT TO THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 12.21, (II) PURSUANT TO THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THE ABL/TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AS A “TERM SECURED PARTY”, (III) PURSUANT TO THE TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THE TERM LOAN INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AS A “TERM SECURED PARTY” AND (IV) PURSUANT TO THE APPLICABLE SECTION OF EACH OTHER INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF SUCH OTHER INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AS A “TERM SECURED PARTY” (OR EQUIVALENT TERM THEREIN).

12.22 Press Releases.

(a) Each Secured Party agrees that neither it nor its Affiliates will in the future issue any press releases or other public disclosure using the name of the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates or referring to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents without at least two (2) Business Days’ prior notice to the Administrative Agent and without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent at the direction of the Required Lenders (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) unless (and only to the extent that) such Secured Party or Affiliate is required to do so under applicable law and then, in any event, to the extent reasonably possible under applicable law, such Secured Party or Affiliate will consult with the Administrative Agent before issuing such press release or other public disclosure.

(b) Each Loan Party consents to the publication by the Administrative Agent or any Lender of advertising material, including any “tombstone” or comparable advertising, on its website or in other marketing materials of Administrative Agent, relating to the financing transactions contemplated by this Agreement using any Loan Party’s name, product photographs, logo, trademark or other insignia; provided that the Administrative Agent or such Lender shall provide a draft reasonably in advance (and in no event, less than two (2) Business Days’ prior written notice, with copies thereof attached to such written notice) of any advertising material to the Borrowing Agent for review and comment prior to the publication thereof and the Administrative Agent and the Lenders agree not to release or publicize any such material or other information until it receives the Borrowing Agent’s written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

12.23 Borrowing Agent. Each member of the Borrower Group hereby irrevocably and unconditionally appoints the Company as Borrowing Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents to act as agent for each other member of the Borrower Group for all purposes of the Loan Documents. The Borrowing Agent agrees to act upon the express conditions contained in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. No fees shall be payable to the Borrowing Agent for acting as the Borrowing Agent. In performing its functions and duties under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Borrowing Agent shall act solely as an agent of the members of the Borrower Group. The Administrative Agent and each Lender shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the Borrowing Agent. The Administrative Agent and each Lender also may rely upon any statement made to them orally or by telephone and believed by them to have been made by the Borrowing Agent, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. Any oral or written statement, certificate, representation or commitment made, given or delivered by the Borrowing Agent under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents shall be deemed to have been approved by, made, given and delivered on behalf of, and shall bind the members of the Borrower Group, jointly and severally, as fully as if any member of the Borrower Group had made, given or delivered such statement, certificate, representation or commitment. The provisions of this Section 12.23 are solely for the benefit of the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and Lenders, and no other Person shall have any rights as a third party beneficiary of any of such provisions. Any reference herein to “the Borrower” (unless otherwise noted to the contrary) shall be deemed to apply to the Borrowing Agent.

12.24 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of EEA Financial Institutions.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any EEA Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the write-down and conversion powers of an EEA Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by an EEA Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an EEA Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-in Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such EEA Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of any EEA Resolution Authority.

12.25 Exit Financing. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders agree that on the date of consummation of the Bankruptcy Plan, together with such modifications as may be agreed by the Administrative Agent and Required Lenders in their sole discretion, which plan shall have been solicited and approved by Prepetition First Lien Lenders holding at least 66 2/3% in funded amount outstanding under the Prepetition First Lien Loan Documents, the Term DIP Facility shall be converted into a first-out senior secured exit term loan, in accordance with the terms of the RSA.

Except as otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein and defined in the Credit Agreement shall be used herein as therein defined.

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, WBG – PSS Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Holdings”), Payless Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Borrowing Agent”), the other Borrowers party thereto, the Subsidiary Guarantors from time to time party thereto, in each case a debtor and debtor-in-possession under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, the lenders from time to time party thereto (the “Lenders”), Cortland Products Corp., as Administrative Agent (together with any successor Administrative Agent, the “Administrative Agent”) and the other parties thereto, have entered into a Superpriority Secured Debtor-In-Possession Term Loan and Guarantee Agreement, dated as of April 5, 2017 (as amended, modified, restated and/or supplemented from time to time, the “Credit Agreement”), providing for the making of Term Loans to the Borrowers, all as contemplated therein;

WHEREAS, the Joining Party is a direct or indirect Domestic Subsidiary of Holdings and desires, or is required pursuant to Section 7.8 of the Credit Agreement, to become a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Credit Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Joining Party will obtain benefits from the incurrence of Term Loans by the Borrowers pursuant to the Credit Agreement and, accordingly, desires to execute this Joinder in order to (i) satisfy the requirements described in the preceding recital and (ii) induce (x) the Lenders to continue to make Term Loans (if any) to the Borrowers pursuant to the Credit Agreement and (y) the Qualified Counterparties to continue to enter into Secured Swap Agreements and Lenders (or their Affiliates) to continue to enter into Secured Cash Management Agreements with the Borrowers and/or one or more other Loan Parties;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the other benefits accruing to the Joining Party, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Joining Party hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties and hereby covenants and agrees with the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties as follows:

1. By this Joinder, the Joining Party becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor for all purposes under the Credit Agreement.

2. The Joining Party agrees that, upon its execution hereof, it will become a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Credit Agreement with respect to all Guaranteed Obligations, and will be bound by all terms, conditions and duties applicable to a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Without limitation of the foregoing, and in furtherance thereof, the Joining Party jointly and severally guarantees, as a primary obligor and not as a surety, to each Secured Party and their respective successors and permitted assigns, consistent with the terms of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents to which a Subsidiary Guarantor is or becomes a party, the prompt payment in full when due and payable (whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, demand, by acceleration or otherwise) of all Guaranteed Obligations (on the same basis as the other Subsidiary Guarantors under the Credit Agreement).

3. Without limiting the foregoing, the Joining Party hereby makes and undertakes, as the case may be, each covenant, representation and warranty made by each Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to Section 9 of the Credit Agreement and agrees to be bound by each of the covenants, agreements and obligations of a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to the Credit Agreement and all other Loan Documents to which it is or becomes a party.

4. This Joinder shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, provided, however, the Joining Party may not assign any of its rights, obligations or interest hereunder or under any other Loan Document, except as otherwise permitted by the Loan Documents. THIS JOINDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES), EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE PROVISIONS OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE ARE APPLICABLE AND SPECIFICALLY CONFLICT WITH THE FOREGOING. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 4, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any action or dispute involving, relating to or arising out of this Joinder or the other Loan Documents. This Joinder may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute one instrument. In the event that any provision of this Joinder shall prove to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed to be severable from the other provisions of this Joinder which shall remain binding on all parties hereto.

6. The effective date of this Joinder is [_____], 20__.

Preliminary Statement

1. The Debtors' supply chain is the key to their business. As the second-largest shoe retailer by volume in the under-$30 category, the Debtors must be able to sell significant volumes—approximately 110 million pairs—of made-to-order shoes annually while keeping costs low enough to enable them to pass along those savings to their budget-conscious customers. To this end, the Debtors have developed important relationships with a relatively-small vendor group (consisting largely of factories in China and Vietnam), with some of these relationships having lasted for multiple decades. Because the Debtors have, for many years, ordered a substantial volume of products from a small number of vendors, many of these vendors do most of their business with the Debtors such that they are effectively vertically integrated into the Debtors' supply chain. For example, at four of the Debtors' foreign factories, the Debtors represent at least 75% of the factories' business, and the Debtors' top ten foreign factories produce 60% of the Debtors' shoes. Accordingly, the financial viability of many of these vendors (and the Debtors) depends on the Debtors' ability to remain current on their obligations.

2. Because of the Debtors' decades-long working relationship and near-vertical integration with their vendors, many have accepted extensions of the Debtors' payment terms from 60-75 days to as many as 100 days from the date of delivery. The vendors have invested heavily in manufacturing the Debtors' made-to-order products, including by procuring raw materials and incurring manufacturing and shipping costs. Therefore, the vendors tried to ride out the Debtors' financial woes in the months before the Petition Date.

3. However, in the weeks leading up to these chapter 11 cases, unpaid vendors began holding the Debtors' completed products in their warehouses, and vendors have also put the Debtors on notice that they can no longer accept new product orders unless the Debtors pay their outstanding invoices.

4. For some of these vendors, their refusal to accept new orders without payment on account of past due invoices is not an empty threat to exert negotiating leverage. Instead, reliance on the Debtors' business has led these vendors to the verge of insolvency. The Debtors generally believe that these vendors will not accept new orders—to the detriment of the Debtors' business and stakeholders—because the vendors no longer have the liquidity to order the raw materials necessary to produce the Debtors' made-to-order products, and are thus relying on payment from the Debtors to then, in turn, pay their suppliers.

5. If the Debtors do not receive the completed products being withheld by the vendors soon, and if the vendors do not begin to accept new orders, the products will be out of season, and, upon receipt, the Debtors likely will have to mark the products down and sell them at a loss. The vendors are the only manufacturers able to build the specific shoes that the Company needs at the right volume, the right price, and at the right time. These made-to-order shoes take twelve weeks to manufacture and another eight weeks to ship from the Debtors' vendors to the Debtors' distribution centers, and eventually, to their stores in North America. In other words, the Debtors' products cannot be purchased off-the-shelf or from a stockpile of pre-manufactured goods in a warehouse; the products are manufactured according to detailed specifications which are provided by the Debtors to their vendors months in advance of the time when the Debtors ultimately need to receive the products to meet the relevant selling season. Also, because of the volume of made-to-order product these vendors provide, it would be impossible for the Debtors to replace them within six (6) months and difficult for the Debtors to do so even over the course of a longer timeframe.

6. Any delay in inventory delivery will put the returns from one of the Debtors' most profitable sales season (the "back-to-school" period in late summer) at significant risk.

Accordingly, to maintain stability during the opening days of these chapter 11 cases and to avoid jeopardizing the Debtors' ability to service their customers and reorganize their business, the Debtors seek the relief requested herein.

Relief Requested³

7. By this Motion, and pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, 503(b), 1107(a), and 1108 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), the Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders (the "Proposed Interim Order"⁴ and the "Proposed Final Order"⁵) respectively): (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to pay prepetition claims held by (i) Critical Vendors; (ii) Carriers and Warehousemen; and (iii) 503(b)(9) Claimants (collectively, the "Vendor Claims") in an aggregate amount not to exceed $52 million on an interim basis, and up to $113 million on a final basis; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing within approximately 21 days of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this Motion on a final basis.

Jurisdiction and Venue

8. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Rule 81.901(B)(1) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

⁴ A copy of the Proposed Interim Order will be provided to the Notice Parties (as defined below) and made available on the Debtors' case information website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/payless>.

9. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

10. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the “Company”) comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

11. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases, and no committees have been appointed or designated.

I. The Critical Vendors and their Claims

A. The Critical Vendor Products

12. By this motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay those critical vendors (collectively, the “Critical Vendors”) that supply products (collectively, the “Critical Vendor Products”) that are vital to the Debtors’ operations and without which the Debtors would not be able to operate their business. As discussed above and in the Campagna Declaration, the Critical Vendor Products are available only from a limited number of vendors that are able to meet the Debtors' substantial volume requirements and demands for made-to-order products. These vendors create shoes that are made-to-order, and, as a result, the Critical Vendors are the only vendors able to build the specific shoe that the Company needs, at the price it needs, and in the volume it requires. Even if it were possible to locate alternate vendors, the costs associated with switching from one vendor to another are significant and would be detrimental to the Debtors' estates. Specifically, any new vendor would require at least six months to create the shoes that the Debtors require. Six months without inventory would cause the Debtors to lose even more revenue and customers, and would eventually jeopardize the Debtors' restructuring. Even a temporary halt in production would cause inventory to miss the relevant selling season, with the result that merchandise would no longer be in demand when it reached stores and would likely need to be sold at a loss. Furthermore, as discussed above, for some of the Critical Vendors, the Debtors are one of their most significant customers, and the Critical Vendors' financial viability is jeopardized by the Debtors' nonpayment of prepetition obligations.

13. Importantly, due to the nature of the Debtors' global operations, the Debtors procure nearly all of their products from vendors located in Asia. These Critical Vendors will likely have confused and guarded reactions to a chapter 11 filing. For example, many of these entities are unfamiliar (or uncomfortable) with the unique debtor-in-possession mechanism of chapter 11. Nonpayment of prepetition obligations may cause these Critical Vendors to use extreme caution and adopt a wait-and-see attitude towards the Debtors, resulting in costly delays in the shipment of additional goods.

14. If the Critical Vendor Claims are not paid, the Critical Vendors, nearly all of whom are located outside of the United States, may take precipitous action against the Debtors based upon an erroneous belief that they are not subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, and thus, not subject to the automatic stay provisions of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. This threat is not speculative; as a result of the Debtors' repeated failure to pay invoices when due, before the filing of these chapter 11 cases, local factory and supplier groups in Asia had already attempted to plan a protest at one of the product consolidation and shipping centers used by the Debtors, which caused employees to take off work to avoid a potential confrontation with the protestors. See also Campagna Decl. at ¶ 22. These events threaten to not only disrupt the Debtors' relations with local suppliers and workers' groups, but foreign governments as well, which may hold the Debtors responsible for any resulting civil unrest. Although the automatic stay applies to protect the Debtors' assets wherever they are located, attempting to enforce the Bankruptcy Code in foreign countries is often challenging.

15. Moreover, even if the Critical Vendors were solely located in the United States, the relief requested herein would still be necessary because the suppliers have no obligation to continue providing goods under the relevant contracts, and, as a result, the Debtors would be unable to force those vendors to continue to perform under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.⁶ Specifically, the Debtors obtain products from their suppliers through Master Purchase Agreements (each a "Master Purchase Agreement"), Master Sourcing Agreements (each a "Master Sourcing Agreement"), and Purchase Orders (each a "Purchase Order") issued under each of the foregoing. The Master Purchase Agreements and Master Sourcing Agreements set out the general terms of the parties' relationships and anticipate that the parties will enter into future Purchase Orders for specific products. The Master Purchase Agreements and Master Sourcing Agreements do not obligate the suppliers to provide any products to the Debtors, nor do they obligate the supplier to agree to future Purchase Orders. As a result, the suppliers have no obligation to continue producing the Debtors' products.

B. Tailored Relief

16. With the assistance of their advisors, the Debtors have spent significant time: (1) reviewing and analyzing their books and records, (2) consulting operations managers and purchasing personnel, (3) reviewing contracts and supply agreements, and (4) analyzing applicable law, regulations, and historical practice to understand the Company's critical business relationships and suppliers of goods and services—the loss of which would immediately and irreparably harm their business, by, inter alia, shrinking their market share, reducing enterprise value, and ultimately impairing the Debtors' ability to reorganize to the detriment of the Debtors, their stakeholders, and all of the Debtors' vendors. In this process, the Debtors considered a variety of factors, including:

- whether certain specifications or contract requirements prevent, directly or indirectly, the Debtors from obtaining goods or services from alternative sources;
- whether a vendor is a sole-source, limited-source, or high-volume supplier of goods or services critical to the Debtors' business operations;
- whether an agreement exists by which the Debtors could compel a vendor to continue performing on prepetition terms;
- whether alternative vendors are available that can provide requisite volumes of similar goods or services on equal (or better) terms and, if so, whether the Debtors would be able to continue operating while transitioning business thereto;

- the degree to which replacement costs (including, pricing, transition expenses, professional fees, and lost sales or future revenue) exceed the amount of a vendor's prepetition claim;
- whether the Debtors' inability to pay all or part of the vendor's prepetition claim could trigger financial distress for the applicable vendor;
- the likelihood that a temporary break in the vendor's relationship with the Debtors could be remedied through use of the tools available in these chapter 11 cases;
- whether failure to pay all or part of a particular vendor's claim could cause the vendor to hold goods owned by the Debtors, or to refuse to ship inventory or to provide critical services on a postpetition basis;
- the location and nationality of the vendor;
- whether failure to pay a particular vendor could result in contraction of trade terms as a matter of applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation; and
- whether there was sufficient time to transition to a new vendor given the design and production timeline.

17. Following this analysis, the Debtors have identified Critical Vendor Products that are vital to the Debtors' operations and without which the Debtors would not be able to operate their business. By this Motion, the Debtors request authorization, but not direction, to pay their outstanding prepetition obligations on account of Critical Vendor Claims out of the relief sought upon entry of the Interim Order and Final Order. While the Debtors seek authority to allocate that relief among the Vendor Claims as they see fit based on their business judgment, the resulting payments on account of Critical Vendor Claims will be in an amount significantly less than the total amount outstanding as of the Petition Date. The size of these Critical Vendor Claims reflects the Debtors' significant extension of credit with various creditors of up to seven (7) months. It also reflects an assumption that these vendors will not be paid in full for claims outstanding during that time. Instead, the Critical Vendor Claims are an estimate of the minimum amount that the Debtors believe they would need to pay to keep their vendors afloat and thus, enable their vendors to provide products to the Debtors.⁷ Finally, to the extent a Critical Vendor also has a 503(b)(9) Claim (as defined herein), the Debtors will pay undisputed 503(b)(9) Claims before paying any amounts on account of the same party's Critical Vendor Claims.

II. The Carriers, Warehousemen, and 503(b)(9) Claimants and their Claims

A. The Carriers and Warehousemen and the Debtors' Analysis of the Potential Carriers and Warehousemen Claims

18. The Debtors' ability to deliver their products in a timely manner is critically important to their financial performance and depends on a seamless interaction with various third-party service providers. Thus, the Debtors depend on certain vendors to transport and store products (collectively, the "Carrier and Warehouse Products"). After leaving source factories in Asia, the Debtors' products go to consolidated freight stations in the applicable sourcing country before sailing on freight vessels to ports on the West Coast of the United States, Panama, Peru, or one of many countries where the Debtors' franchisees are located. From there, the products are sent to local distribution centers before being delivered to the Debtors' stores.

19. The Debtors engage certain vendors (the "Carriers") to transport and deliver the Carrier and Warehouse Products throughout their supply chain. The Carriers regularly possess the Carrier and Warehouse Products belonging to the Debtors and certain of the Debtors' partners in the course of transporting and delivering the Carrier and Warehouse Products. In any given week, approximately $29 million worth of the Debtors' inventory is being shipped on water and $18 million is being shipped on land.⁸

⁸ These figures reflect an estimate of the Debtors' cost to produce the shipped goods. The retail value of the shipped goods is substantially higher.

20. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors also use a number of warehouses to store various products when not being used or at various points during transit from vendors to the stores (collectively, the “Warehousemen”). The Debtors pay the Warehousemen in arrears; therefore, many Warehousemen are owed certain amounts on account of prepetition storage fees. The average monthly amount paid by the Debtors to the Carriers and Warehousemen on behalf of the Debtors and their partners is approximately $10 million. As of the Petition Date, certain Carriers and Warehousemen will have outstanding invoices for services provided to the Debtors before the Petition Date (the “Carriers and Warehousemen Claims”).

21. Under certain states,’ provinces,’ and countries’ laws, a Carrier or Warehouseman may have a lien on the goods in its possession securing the charges or expenses incurred in connection with the transportation or storage of those goods. If the Debtors do not pay the Carriers and Warehousemen Claims on a timely basis, the Carriers and Warehousemen may assert possessory liens on the goods currently in their possession (which the Debtors estimate have in aggregate a value far in excess of any amounts owed) and refuse to deliver or release such goods until their invoices are paid. In addition, pursuant to section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Carriers and Warehousemen, as bailees, may be entitled to adequate protection for any valid possessory lien.

22. The refusal of Carriers or Warehousemen to deliver or return the Debtors’ goods as a result of not being paid would severely disrupt the Debtors’ operations and potentially cost the Debtors a substantial amount of revenue and future business. Accordingly, by this Motion, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to pay outstanding prepetition obligations on account of the Carriers and Warehousemen upon entry of the Interim Order and Final Order, and to continue to pay the Carriers and Warehousemen in the ordinary course of business.

B. Section 503(b)(9) Claimants and the Debtors' Analysis of the Potential 503(b)(9) Claims

23. The Debtors have received certain goods from certain of their Critical Vendors within the twenty (20) days before the Petition Date (such vendors, the "503(b)(9) Claimants").⁹ Although the 503(b)(9) Claimants are in most cases the same as the Critical Vendors, the Debtors seek separate relief for the 503(b)(9) Claimants because the undisputed claims arising from the value of such goods received by the Debtors within twenty (20) days before the Petition Date that have been sold to the Debtors in the ordinary course of business (each, a "503(b)(9) Claim") are also entitled to administrative priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.¹⁰ To the extent a 503(b)(9) Claimant is the same as a Critical Vendor, the Debtors will pay undisputed 503(b)(9) Claims before paying any amounts on account of the same party's Critical Vendor Claims. Accordingly, by this Motion, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to pay outstanding prepetition obligations on account of the 503(b)(9) Claims out of the relief sought upon entry of the Interim Order and Final Order.

III. Trade Terms Condition

24. Subject to the Court's approval, the Debtors intend to pay the Vendor Claims only to the extent necessary to preserve the value of their estates. To that end, in return for paying the Vendors Claims either in full or in part, the Debtors propose that they be authorized to require that the Vendors provide favorable trade terms for the postpetition procurement of goods from the Vendors. Specifically, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to condition payment of Vendor Claims upon each Vendor's agreement to continue—or recommence—supplying products to the Debtors for the next twelve months in accordance with trade terms (including credit limits, pricing, payment terms, availability, and other terms) at least as favorable to the Debtors as those in place during the twelve months prior to the Petition Date, or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors in their reasonable business judgment (the “Trade Terms”).

25. In addition, the Debtors request that if any party accepts payment pursuant to the relief requested by this Motion and thereafter ceases to provide products or services in accordance with the Trade Terms: (a) the Debtors may take any and all appropriate steps to recover from such Vendor any payments made to that Vendor on account of its prepetition claim to the extent that such payments exceed the postpetition amounts then owing to such party; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment on account thereof had not been made; and (c) if an outstanding postpetition balance is due from the Debtors to such party, (i) the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by this Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance, and (ii) such party will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of any claims, or otherwise.

IV. Outstanding Orders

26. Prior to the Petition Date, and in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors may have ordered goods that will not be delivered until after the Petition Date (the “Outstanding Orders”). To avoid becoming general unsecured creditors of the Debtors’ estates with respect to such goods, certain suppliers may refuse to ship or transport such goods (or may recall such shipments) with respect to such Outstanding Orders unless the Debtors issue substitute purchase orders postpetition. To prevent any disruption to the Debtors’ business operations, and given that goods delivered after the Petition Date are afforded administrative expense priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek an order: (a) granting administrative expense priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to all undisputed obligations of the Debtors arising from the postpetition acceptance of goods subject to Outstanding Orders; and (b) authorizing the Debtors to satisfy such obligations in the ordinary course of business.

Basis for Relief

I. The Court Should Authorize the Payment of the Critical Vendor Claims

27. Courts in this district and others generally acknowledge that it is appropriate to authorize the payment of prepetition obligations where necessary to protect and preserve the estate and an operating business's going-concern value. See, e.g., In re Wehrenberg, Inc., 260 B.R. 468, 469 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2001) (authority to pay prepetition claims of vendors); Armstrong World Indus., Inc. v. James A. Phillips, Inc. (In re James A. Phillips, Inc.), 29 B.R. 391, 398 (S.D.N.Y. 1983) (authority to pay prepetition claims of suppliers); see also In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002) (authority to pay prepetition claims of servicers). In so doing, courts rely on several legal theories rooted in sections 105(a), 363(b), 1107(a), and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

28. Courts recognize that payments to prepetition creditors are appropriate pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code under the "doctrine of necessity" or the "necessity of payment" rule where such payments are necessary to the continued operation of the debtor's business. See Bird v. Crown Convenience (In re NWFEX, Inc.), 864 F.2d 588, 590 (8th Cir. 1988) ("The overriding consideration in bankruptcy, however, is that equitable principles govern."); In re Wehrenberg, Inc., 260 B.R. at 469 ("Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) the Court may authorize the payment of prepetition claims when such payments are necessary to the continued operation of the Debtor.") (citation omitted); In re Payless Cashways, Inc., 268 B.R. 543, 546

(Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2001) (authorizing payment of critical prepetition suppliers' claims when such suppliers agree to provide postpetition trade credit); In re United Am., Inc., 327 B.R. 776, 782 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2005) (acknowledging the doctrine of necessity "because otherwise there will be no reorganization and no creditor will have an opportunity to recoup any part of its prepetition claim"); In re Boston & Me. Corp., 634 F.2d 1359, 1382 (1st Cir. 1980) (recognizing the existence of a judicial power to authorize trustees to pay claims for goods and services that are indispensably necessary to the debtors' continued operation). Several courts apply the doctrine of necessity where payment of a prepetition claim (a) is "necessary for the successful reorganization of the debtor," (b) falls within "the sound business judgment of the debtor," and (c) will not "prejudice other unsecured creditors." United Am., 327 B.R. at 782; see also In re Universal Fin., Inc., 493 B.R. 735, 739-40 (Bankr. M.D. N.C. 2013) (applying the United American three-part test); In re Corner Home Care, Inc., 438 B.R. 122, 126 (Bankr. W.D. Ky. 2010) (same). A bankruptcy court's use of its equitable powers to "authorize the payment of pre-petition debt when such payment is needed to facilitate the rehabilitation of the debtor is not a novel concept." In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989). "Under 11 U.S.C. § 105 the court can permit pre-plan payment of a pre-petition obligation when essential to the continued operation of the debtor." In re NVR L.P., 147 B.R. 126, 127 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 1992) (citing In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 177). The rationale for the necessity of payment rule—the rehabilitation of a debtor in reorganization cases—is "the paramount policy and goal of Chapter 11." In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175-76; see also Mich. Bureau of Workers' Disability Comp. v. Chateaugay Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 80 B.R. 279, 287 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (authorizing payment of prepetition worker's compensation claims on grounds that the fundamental purpose of reorganization and equity powers of bankruptcy courts "is to create a flexible mechanism that will permit the greatest likelihood of survival of the debtor and payment of creditors in full or at least proportionately”); In re Just For Feet, 242 B.R. 821, 826 (Bankr. D. Del 1999) (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was “essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization”); In re Quality Interiors, Inc., 127 B.R. 391, 396 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1991) (“[P]ayment by a debtor in possession of pre-petition claims outside of a confirmed plan of reorganization is generally prohibited by the Bankruptcy Code,” but “[a] general practice has developed . . . where bankruptcy courts permit the payment of certain pre-petition claims, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105, where the debtor will be unable to reorganize without such payment”); In re Eagle-Picher Indus., Inc., 124 B.R. 1021, 1023 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1991) (approving payment of prepetition unsecured claims of tool makers as “necessary to avert a serious threat to the Chapter 11 process”); Burchinal v. Cent. Wash. Bank (In re Adams Apple, Inc.), 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir. 1987) (recognizing that allowance of “unequal treatment of pre-petition debts when necessary for rehabilitation . . .” is appropriate).

29. Courts have also authorized payment of prepetition obligations under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code where a sound business purpose exists for doing so. See In re Kmart Corp., 359 F.3d 866, 872 (7th Cir. 2004) (recognizing that payment of prepetition claims may be permitted under section 363, but holding that the debtor’s evidentiary record did not support paying the prepetition claims of vendors); In re Trilogy Development Co., LLC, 2010 WL 6972664 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2010) (“The court should approve a use, sale or lease of property under Bankruptcy Code Section 363(b) if the debtor has established some articulated business justification for the proposed transaction.”); In re Channel One Commc’ns, Inc., 117 B.R. 493, 496 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1990) (citing In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir.

1983)); In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175 (finding that a sound business justification existed to justify payment of prepetition wages); Armstrong, 29 B.R. at 397–98 (relying on section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code to allow contractor to pay prepetition claims of suppliers who were potential lien claimants because the payments were necessary for general contractors to release funds owed to debtors).

30. Moreover, pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, debtors in possession are fiduciaries “holding the bankruptcy estate[s] and operating the business[es] for the benefit of [their] creditors and (if the value justifies) equity owners.” In re CoServ, 273 B.R. at 497. Implicit in the fiduciary duties of any debtor in possession is the obligation to “protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business’s going-concern value.” Id. Some courts have noted that there are instances in which a debtor can fulfill this fiduciary duty “only . . . by the preplan satisfaction of a prepetition claim.” Id. The court in CoServ specifically noted the pre-plan satisfaction of prepetition claims would be a valid exercise of the debtor’s fiduciary duty when the payment “is the only means to effect a substantial enhancement of the estate . . .” Id.

31. Allowing the Debtors to pay Critical Vendor Claims, pursuant to all or some of the above-referenced Bankruptcy Code provisions, is especially appropriate where, as here, doing so is consistent with the “two recognized policies” of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code—preserving going concern value and maximizing the value of property available to satisfy creditors. See Bank of Am. Nat’l Trust & Savs. Ass’n v. 203 N. LaSalle St. P’Ship., 526 U.S. 434, 453 (1999). Indeed, reflecting the recognition that payment of prepetition claims of certain critical suppliers and vendors, as well as international vendors, in fact, both critical to a debtor’s ability to preserve going-concerns and maximize creditor recovery—thereby increasing prospects for a successful reorganization—courts in this district routinely grant relief consistent to that which the Debtors are seeking herein. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo April 15, 2016) (approving the payment of prepetition claims of shippers and warehousemen and service providers); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 10, 2016) (approving payment of the prepetition claims of shippers and warehousemen, mechanics and materialmen); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (approving payment of prepetition claims related to shipping, warehousing, and servicing); see also In re AMR Corp., Case No. 11-15463 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 2011) (authorizing payment of all claims to critical international creditors up to an estimated $355 million); In re US Airways Group, Inc., Case No. 04-13819 (SMM) (Bankr. E.D. Va. Sept. 12, 2004) (authorizing payment of approximately $25 million per month of prepetition obligations to international creditors); In re UAL Corp., Case No. 02-48191 (ERW) (Bankr. N.D. Ill. Dec. 9, 2002) (authorizing payment of $35 million of prepetition obligations to international creditors); In re US Airways Group, Inc., Case No. 02-83984 (SSM) (Bankr. E.D. Va. Aug. 11, 2002) (authorizing payment of approximately $15 million per month of prepetition obligations to international creditors).

32. In In re Kmart Corp., 359 F.3d 866 (7th Cir. 2004), the Seventh Circuit stated that a debtor may be able to use section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code to pay prepetition claims “in order to keep ‘critical’ supplies flowing.” Id. at 872. The Seventh Circuit also held, however, that in the case before it, such prepetition payments were not proper because the debtor had not shown that “but for immediate full payment, vendors would cease dealing; and that the business will gain enough from continued transactions with the favored vendors to provide some residual benefit to the remaining disfavored creditors, or at least leave them no worse off.” Id. at

868. To illustrate the point, the Seventh Circuit pointed to Kmart's grocery supplier, which was obligated under a long-term contract with Kmart, and thus, "[n]o matter how much [the grocery supplier] would have liked to dump Kmart, it had no right to do so." Id. at 873 (citing 11 U.S.C. § 362). The Court further reasoned that, even if a vendor could stop dealing with the Debtors because it was not obligated under a contract, "[t]o abjure new profits because of old debts would be to commit the sunk-cost fallacy; well-managed business are unlikely to do this." Id. Therefore, the Court held that there was no evidence that any vendors would cease doing business with Kmart, as a result, the critical vendor payments did not offer any prospective benefit to other creditors. Id.

33. Here, none of the Debtors' Critical Vendors are obligated under long-term contracts¹¹ nor do they have the option of choosing whether or not to forgo future profits; these Critical Vendors currently lack the liquidity to take new orders, even if they wanted to accept post-petition orders.

34. As described above, and as discussed in the Campagna Declaration, certain Critical Vendors have already begun refusing future orders until outstanding balances are paid. These Vendors are not committing "the sunk-cost fallacy" described in In re Kmart. In re Kmart Corp., 359 F.3d at 873. Rather, because the Debtors are often the largest, and in some cases the only, customer to certain of their Critical Vendors, the Debtors' nonpayment or delayed payment has put the Critical Vendors in such a strained liquidity position that many of the Critical Vendors have hit their credit limits with their own lenders or suppliers. Without payments from the Debtors, certain of the Critical Vendors are no longer able, regardless of their willingness, to obtain the raw materials necessary to make the Debtors' products. If the Critical Vendors do not accept future orders, or do not produce or deliver existing orders, the Debtors may not be able to capitalize on the important back-to-school selling season.

35. The Debtors submit that the requested relief represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and is justified under sections 105(a), 363(b), 1107, and 1008 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' failure to pay the Critical Vendor Claims could prolong the Debtors' inability to obtain necessary supplies or services, prevent the Debtors from preserving favorable trade terms, and increase the likelihood for significant disruptions to the Debtors' operations. This failure could, in turn, jeopardize customer relationships and could significantly impair the value of the Debtors' business. The resulting harm to the Debtors' estates far outweighs the cost associated with paying a portion of the Debtors' prepetition obligations to the Vendors. Thus, the Debtors' other creditors, including their non-critical vendors, will be no worse off, and in fact will fare far better, if the Debtors are empowered to negotiate such payments to achieve a smooth transition into bankruptcy with minimal disruption to their operations. Moreover, the amount that the Debtors are seeking on account of the Critical Vendor Claims on an interim basis is limited to approximately 8% percent of the Debtors' outstanding accounts payable. As such, the Debtors believe the relief sought in this Motion is vitally necessary to preserve the value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders in these chapter 11 cases and should be granted.

A. Payment of Certain of the Debtors' Obligations to Carriers and Warehouseman Is Necessary to Prevent Perfection of Liens Against the Debtors' Assets

36. In addition, certain of the Debtors' assets may be subject to perfection of liens by third parties, including the Carriers and Warehousemen. As discussed above, a Carrier or Warehouseman may have a lien on goods in its possession that secures the charges or expenses incurred in connection with the transportation of the goods. The Carrier or Warehouseman may be unwilling to release goods in their possession to which they may be entitled to liens, because releasing possession of goods may convert the status of their claims against the Debtors from secured to unsecured. Therefore, unless the Court authorizes the Debtors to pay the Carrier and Warehousemen Claims, it is unlikely the Debtors will be able to obtain goods currently in transit. If the Carriers or Warehousemen possess lien rights or have the ability to exercise “self-help” remedies to secure payment of their claims, failure to satisfy the obligations owed to the Carriers and Warehousemen could have a material adverse effect that ultimately may devastate the Debtors’ operations to the detriment of the Debtors’ creditors.

37. In addition, pursuant to section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Carriers or the Warehousemen, as bailees, may be entitled to adequate protection of a valid possessory lien. Given that the value of the Carrier and Warehouse Products generally will far exceed the value of their respective claims, the satisfaction of prepetition claims of such parties will not harm creditors—and, in fact, will benefit them—because such payments will help preserve the going-concern value of the Debtors’ business.¹²

38. Indeed, where debtors have shown that the payment of prepetition claims is critical to maximize the value of their estates, courts in this district and other jurisdictions have routinely authorized payments to carriers and warehousemen under similar circumstances. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2016) (approving the payment of prepetition claims of shippers and warehousemen and service providers); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 10, 2016)

¹² Additionally, to the extent that a portion of the Carriers’ claims are related to the payment of custom duties, such claims may be entitled to priority under section 507(a)(8)(F) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(approving payment of the prepetition claims of shippers and warehousemen, mechanics and materialmen); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (approving payment of prepetition claims related to shipping, warehousing, and servicing); In re Sabine Oil & Gas Corp., No. 15-11835 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 2015) (approving the payment of prepetition claims of shippers and warehousemen claimants on the basis that shippers and warehousemen could refuse to deliver or return the debtors' goods if prepetition claims were not satisfied).

B. The Court Should Authorize the Payment of Claims Entitled to Priority Pursuant to Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code

39. Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code provides administrative priority for the “value of any goods received by the debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement of a case under this title in which goods have been sold to the debtor in the ordinary course of such debtor’s business.” These claims must be paid in full for the Debtors to confirm a chapter 11 plan. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(A). Consequently, payment of such claims now only provides such parties with what they would be entitled to receive under a chapter 11 plan. Conversely, the Debtors’ failure to pay these claims could cause significant concerns among the Debtors’ vendors regarding the Debtors’ prospects for continuing to operate as a going-concern during these chapter 11 cases. Indeed, all creditors will benefit from the seamless transition of the Debtors’ operations into bankruptcy.

40. The Bankruptcy Code does not prohibit a debtor from paying such claims prior to confirmation. As administrative claims incurred in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors believe they may pay such claims in accordance with their business judgment pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Dura Auto. Sys. Inc., No. 06-11202 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 31, 2006) Hr’g Tr. 49:21-23 (“I think arguably the [D]ebtor could pay its 503(b)(9) claimants without court approval.”). The timing of such payments also lies squarely within the Court’s discretion. See Matter of Isis Foods, Inc., 27 B.R. 156, 157 (W.D. Mo. 1982) (“The time of payment [of administrative claims] is wholly within the discretion of the Bankruptcy Court.”); In re Global Home Prods., LLC, No. 06-10340 (KG), 2006 WL 3791955, at *3 (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 21, 2006) (agreeing with parties that “the timing of the payment of that administrative expense claim is left to the discretion of the Court”).

41. The Debtors’ ongoing ability to obtain goods as provided herein is key to their survival and necessary to preserve the value of their estates. Absent payment of the 503(b)(9) Claims at the outset of these chapter 11 cases—which merely accelerates the timing of payment and not the ultimate treatment of such claims—the Debtors could be denied access to the goods necessary to maintain the Debtors’ business operations. Failure to honor these claims in the ordinary course of business may also cause the Debtors’ vendor base to withhold support for the Debtors during the chapter 11 process. Such vendors could accelerate or eliminate favorable trade terms. Needless to say, such costs and distractions could impair the Debtors’ ability to stabilize their operations at this critical juncture to the detriment of all stakeholders. In addition, courts in this district and others have regularly authorized the payment of claims arising under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code in the ordinary course of business. See, e.g., In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 13, 2016); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc., No. 16-10083 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 10, 2016); In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May, 17, 2016); In re Sabine Oil & Gas Corp., No. 15-11835 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 2015); In re Chassix Holdings, Inc., No. 15-10578 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 14, 2015); In re Horsehead Holding Corp., No. 16-10287 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 8, 2016).

C. The Court Should Confirm that Outstanding Orders Are Administrative Expense Priority Claims and that Payment of Such Claims Is Authorized

42. Pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, most obligations that arise in connection with the postpetition delivery of goods and services, including goods ordered prepetition, are administrative expense priority claims because they benefit the estate postpetition. Thus, the granting of the relief sought herein with respect to the Outstanding Orders will not provide the suppliers with any greater priority than they would otherwise have if the relief requested herein were not granted, and will not prejudice any other party in interest.

43. Absent such relief, however, the Debtors may be required to expend substantial time and effort reissuing the Outstanding Orders to provide the suppliers with assurance of such administrative priority. Any disruption to the continuous and timely flow of goods to the Debtors could result in substantial delays in the Debtors' operations, which could lead to dissatisfied customers and reduced sales. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Court should confirm the administrative expense priority status of the Outstanding Orders and should authorize the Debtors to pay the Outstanding Orders in the ordinary course of business.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should be Authorized

44. Under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors have made arrangements to readily identify checks or wire transfer requests relating to the Vendor Claims. The Debtors believe there is minimal risk that checks or wire transfer requests that the Court has not authorized will be inadvertently made. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court authorize, but not direct, all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the Vendor Claims; provided that sufficient funds are on deposit and standing in the Debtors' credit in the applicable bank accounts to cover such payments.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are Satisfied

45. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant relief within the first 21 days after the Petition Date “to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.” For the reasons discussed above, authorizing the Debtors to pay these claims and granting the other relief requested herein is integral to the Debtors’ ability to transition their operations into these chapter 11 cases. Failure to receive such authorization and other relief during the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors’ operations at this critical juncture. The relief requested is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course and preserve the ongoing value of the Debtors’ operations and maximize the value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the “immediate and irreparable harm” standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support granting the relief requested herein.

Waiver of Stay under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)

46. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), “[a]n order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h). As set forth throughout this Motion, failure to grant the relief requested herein would be detrimental to the Debtors, their estates and all stakeholders. For this reason and those set forth above, the Debtors submit that ample cause exists to justify a waiver of the fourteen day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable.

Reservation of Rights

47. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other party-in-interest’s rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

48. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn. Mark V. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

49. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Interim Order and Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Relief Requested³

1. By this Motion, and pursuant sections 105(a), 363(b), 507(a)(8), and 541 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the Debtors seek entry of an interim order (the “Proposed Interim Order”)⁴ and a final order (the “Proposed Final Order”):⁵ (a) authorizing the Debtors to remit and pay Taxes and Fees accrued prior to the Petition Date and that will become payable during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, including those obligations subsequently determined upon audit or otherwise to be owed for periods prior to the Petition Date; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing within approximately 21 days of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this Motion on a final basis.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Rule 81-9.01(B)(1) of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

⁵ A copy of the Proposed Final Order will be provided to the Notice Parties (as defined below) and made available on the Debtors’ case information website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/payless>.

Background

4. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the “Company”), comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no committees have been appointed.

The Debtors’ Tax and Fee Obligations

6. In the ordinary course of their business, the Debtors collect, withhold, and incur income, sales, use, excise, import, franchise, foreign, and property taxes, as well as business fees (collectively, the “Taxes and Fees”).⁶ The Debtors remit the Taxes and Fees to various federal, state, local, and foreign governments, including taxing and licensing authorities (collectively, the “Authorities”). A schedule identifying the Authorities is attached hereto as

⁶ By this Motion, the Debtors do not seek the authority to collect and remit state and federal employee-related taxes and withholdings. Such relief is instead requested in the Debtors’ Motion Seeking Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Other Compensation, and Reimbursable Expenses and (B) Continue Employee Benefits Programs, and (II) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith.

Exhibit A.⁷ Taxes and Fees are remitted and paid by the Debtors through checks and electronic transfers that are processed through their banks and other financial institutions. The Debtors estimate that approximately $11,385,000 in Taxes and Fees related to the prepetition period will become due and payable to the Authorities within 21 days after the Petition Date.

7. The Debtors pay the Taxes and Fees to the Authorities on a periodic basis, remitting them monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually depending on the nature and incurrence of a particular Tax or Fee. Although the Debtors believe that they are substantially current with respect to their payment of Taxes and Fees, the Debtors seek to make such payments where: (a) Taxes and Fees are accrued or incurred postpetition; (b) Taxes and Fees accrued or were incurred prepetition but were not paid prepetition, or were paid in an amount less than actually owed; (c) Taxes and Fees paid prepetition by the Debtors were lost or otherwise not received in full by any of the Authorities; or (d) Taxes and Fees incurred for prepetition periods that become due after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases.

8. The Taxes and Fees are summarized as follows:

Category	Description	Approximate Amount Due as of Petition Date	Approximate Interim Relief
Sales and Use Taxes	Taxes imposed on the manufacture, sale, or use of certain types of goods and services.	$7,050,000	$7,050,000
Income and Withholding Taxes	Taxes imposed on the Debtors' income and required to conduct business in the ordinary course.	$0	$0
Franchise Taxes	Taxes required to conduct business in the ordinary course.	$650,000	$250,000
Foreign Taxes ⁸	Foreign Corporate Taxes and Foreign Value Added Taxes imposed on the Debtors' non-domestic business.	$925,000	$910,000
Property Taxes	Taxes and obligations related to real and personal property holdings.	$1,750,000	$100,000
Import Taxes	Duty and excise taxes related to purchases and sales of goods from/in other jurisdictions.	$3,000,000	$3,000,000
Business License Fees	Fees related to compliance with state licensing, permits, reporting, and other related fees paid to state agencies.	$75,000	$75,000
Total:		$13,450,000	$11,385,000

9. The Debtors believe that failing to pay the Taxes and Fees could materially disrupt the Debtors' business operations in several ways. First, failing to pay certain of the Taxes and Fees, particularly franchise taxes, likely would cause the Debtors to lose their ability to conduct business in certain jurisdictions. Second, the Authorities could initiate audits, suspend operations, file liens, or seek to lift the automatic stay, which would unnecessarily divert the Debtors' attention from the reorganization process. Third, failing to pay Taxes and Fees could potentially subject certain of the Debtors' directors and officers to claims of personal liability, which likely would distract those key persons from their duties related to the Debtors' restructuring. Fourth, unpaid Taxes and Fees may result in penalties, the accrual of interest, or both, which could negatively impact the Debtors' business or the reorganization process.

Moreover, the Debtors collect and hold certain outstanding tax liabilities in trust for the benefit of the applicable Authorities, and these funds may not constitute property of the Debtors' estates. In addition, certain unpaid Taxes and Fees will need to be paid as part of a plan of reorganization in these cases.

I. Sales and Use Taxes

10. The Debtors incur, collect, and remit sales taxes to the Authorities in connection with the sale and distribution of their products (collectively, the "Sales Taxes"). Additionally, the Debtors purchase a variety of equipment, materials, and supplies necessary for the operation of their business from vendors who may not have operations in the state where the property is to be delivered, and therefore, do not charge the Debtors sales tax in connection with such purchases. In these cases, applicable law generally requires the Debtors to subsequently pay use taxes on such purchases to the applicable Authorities (the "Use Taxes," and together with the Sales Taxes, the "Sales and Use Taxes"). The Debtors generally remit Sales and Use Taxes on a weekly, monthly, or quarterly basis depending on the requirements of each Authority.

11. In their 2016 fiscal year ("Fiscal 2016"), which ran from January 30, 2016 to January 28, 2017, the Debtors paid approximately $105,000,000 in the aggregate in Sales and Use Taxes to the Authorities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate they have incurred or collected approximately $7,050,000 in Sales and Use Taxes that have yet to be remitted to the relevant Authorities, all of which will become due within 21 days after the Petition Date. Thus, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $7,050,000 in Sales and Use Taxes upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue remitting Sales and Use Taxes in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

II. Income and Withholding Taxes

12. In the ordinary course of their business, the Debtors incur local, state, and federal income taxes (collectively, the “Income Taxes”). The Debtors pay Income Taxes on a quarterly or annual basis, depending on the jurisdiction. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe there are no amounts due on account of Income Taxes and that no amounts will come due within 21 days after the Petition Date.

13. Out of an abundance of caution, to the extent that the Debtors have: (a) miscalculated the amounts due for Income Taxes; (b) paid an amount that was less than is actually owed; or (c) made any payments prepetition that were rejected, lost, or otherwise not received in full by any applicable Authority, the Debtors request authority to pay any accrued prepetition Income Taxes that may come due in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

III. Franchise Taxes

14. The Debtors are required to pay various state franchise taxes in order to continue conducting their business pursuant to state laws (the “Franchise Taxes”). The Debtors typically pay the Franchise Taxes on an annual or semi-annual basis, depending on when the relevant Authority charges the Franchise Tax. In Fiscal 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $1,700,000 in Franchise Taxes.

15. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate they owe approximately $650,000 to the relevant Authorities on account of prepetition Franchise Taxes, approximately $250,000 of which is expected to be due within 21 days after the Petition Date. Failure to pay Franchise Taxes as they become due in the ordinary course likely would cause the Debtors to lose their ability to conduct business in the applicable jurisdictions. As such, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $250,000 in Franchise Taxes upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue remitting Franchise Taxes in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

IV. Foreign Taxes

16. Because part of the Debtors' business is conducted overseas, the Debtors incur various taxes from foreign jurisdictions, including foreign corporate income taxes, value added taxes, withholding taxes, and other foreign taxes (collectively, the "Foreign Taxes").⁹ The Debtors typically pay Foreign Taxes on an annual, quarterly, or periodic basis. In Fiscal 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $10,000,000 in Foreign Taxes, of which approximately $9,500,000 consisted of Canadian value added taxes related to the Debtors' retail operations in Canada.

17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $925,000 in connection with Foreign Taxes are owed to government Authorities, approximately $910,000 of which is expected to be due within 21 days after the Petition Date. As such, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $910,000 in accrued prepetition Foreign Taxes upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue to pay Foreign Taxes to the extent any amounts become due in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

V. Property Taxes

18. State and local laws in the jurisdictions where the Debtors operate generally grant Authorities the power to levy property taxes against the Debtors' real property (the "Real Property Taxes") and personal property (the "Personal Property Taxes," and together with the Real Property Taxes, the “Property Taxes”). To avoid the imposition of statutory liens on their real and personal property, the Debtors typically pay the Property Taxes in the ordinary course of business on an annual or periodic basis, in accordance with the requirements of each jurisdiction. In addition, the Debtors pay taxes on rent for their New York City lease in the amount of $250,000 per annum, payable on a quarterly basis.

19. In Fiscal 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $2,600,000 in Real Property Taxes and approximately $2,700,000 in Personal Property Taxes. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have accrued approximately $650,000 in Personal Property Taxes and $1,100,000 in Real Property Taxes. The Debtors estimate that approximately $100,000 of Property Taxes is expected to be due within 21 days after the Petition Date. As such, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $100,000 in Property Taxes upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue remitting Property Taxes in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

VI. Import Taxes

20. The Debtors pay import duties to the United States on a monthly basis with respect to their purchases of goods primarily from China and Vietnam, as well as excise taxes on goods imported primarily from China and Vietnam (collectively, the “Import Taxes”). In Fiscal 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $46,600,000 in Import Taxes. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have accrued approximately $3,000,000 in Import Taxes, all of which will become due within 21 days of the Petition Date. As such, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $3,000,000 in Import Taxes upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue remitting Import Taxes in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

VII. Business License Fees

21. State and local laws in the jurisdictions where the Debtors operate require the Debtors to obtain and pay fees for a wide range of business licenses, permits, and annual reporting fees (the “Business License Fees”) to remain in good standing with the applicable Authorities. The methods for calculating Business License Fees and the deadlines for paying such amounts due thereunder vary by jurisdiction. In Fiscal 2016, the Debtors paid approximately $750,000 in Business License Fees.

22. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have accrued approximately $75,000 in Business License Fees, all of which will become due within 21 days after the Petition Date. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $75,000 in Business License Fees upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue remitting Business License Fees in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, pending entry of the Final Order granting the relief requested herein.

Basis for Relief

I. Certain of the Taxes and Fees May Not be Property of the Debtors’ Estates

23. Many of the Taxes and Fees are collected or withheld by the Debtors on behalf of the applicable Authorities and are held in trust by the Debtors. See, e.g., I.R.C. § 7501 (stating that certain Taxes and Fees are held in trust). As such, these Taxes and Fees are not property of the Debtors’ estates under section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 541(d); see also Begier v. IRS, 496 U.S. 53, 57–60 (1990) (holding that any prepetition payment of trust fund taxes is not an avoidable preference since funds are not the debtor’s property); In re Shank, 792 F.2d 829, 833 (9th Cir. 1986) (finding that sales tax required by state law to be collected by sellers from their customers is a “trust fund” tax and not released by bankruptcy discharge); DeChiaro v. N.Y. State Tax Comm’n, 760 F.2d 432, 435–36 (2d Cir. 1985) (same). To the extent these “trust fund” taxes are collected, they are not property of the Debtors’ estates under section 541(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Am. Int’l Airways, Inc., 70 B.R. 102, 104–05 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987). Because the Debtors may not have an equitable interest in funds held on account of such “trust fund” taxes, the Debtors should be permitted to pay those funds to the Authorities as they become due.¹⁰

II. Certain of the Taxes and Fees May Be Secured or Priority Claims Entitled to Special Treatment Under the Bankruptcy Code

24. Claims for certain Taxes and Fees are or may be priority claims entitled to payment before general unsecured claims. See 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(8) (describing taxes entitled to priority treatment). Moreover, to the extent that such amounts are entitled to priority treatment under the Bankruptcy Code, the respective Authorities may attempt to assess interest and penalties if such amounts are not paid. See 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(8)(G) (granting priority status to “a penalty related to a claim of a kind specified in this paragraph and in compensation for actual pecuniary loss”). Claims entitled to priority status pursuant to section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code must be paid in full under a confirmable plan pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, payment of certain Taxes and Fees at this time only affects the timing of the payment for the amounts at issue and will not unduly prejudice the rights and recoveries of junior creditors.

III. Payment of the Taxes and Fees As Provided Herein Is a Sound Exercise of the Debtors’ Business Judgment

25. The Court may also authorize the Debtors to pay the Taxes and Fees under section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that “[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Under this section, a court may authorize a debtor to pay certain prepetition obligations. See, e.g., In re Total Hockey, Inc., No. 16-44815 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. July 8, 2016) (authorizing debtor to pay certain prepetition taxes); In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2016) (same); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (same); In re Apex Oil Co., 92 B.R. 847 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1988) (same); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (affirming lower court order authorizing payment of prepetition wages pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code). To do so, courts require that the debtor “show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions.” In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (citations omitted); see also In re Channel One Commc’ns, Inc., 117 B.R. 493, 496 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1990) (citing Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 107 (2d Cir. 1983)); TLP Servs., LLC v. Stoebner (In re Polaroid Corp.), 460 B.R. 740, 741–42 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2011). Moreover, “[w]here the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor’s conduct.” See In re Johns-Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (citation omitted); see also In re Tower Air, Inc., 416 F.3d 229, 238 (3d Cir. 2005) (stating that “[o]vercoming the presumptions of the business judgment rule on the merits is a near-Herculean task”).

26. The Debtors’ ability to pay the Taxes and Fees is critical to their continued and uninterrupted operations. If certain Taxes and Fees remain unpaid, the Authorities may seek to recover such amounts directly from the Debtors’ directors, officers, or employees, thereby distracting such key personnel from the administration of these chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., Schmehl v. Helton, 662 S.E.2d 697, 707 (W. Va. 2008) (noting that corporate officers may be held responsible for payment of certain corporate taxes). Any collection action on account of such claims, and any potential ensuing liability, would distract the Debtors and their personnel to the detriment of all parties-in-interest. The dedicated and active participation of the Debtors' officers and employees is integral to the Debtors' continued operations and essential to the orderly administration and, ultimately, the success of these chapter 11 cases.

27. Furthermore, the Debtors' liability to pay the Taxes and Fees may ultimately result in increased tax liability for the Debtors if interest and penalties accrue on the Taxes and Fees, which amounts also may be entitled to priority treatment. Such a result would be contrary to the best interests of the Debtors' estates and all stakeholders. As noted above, many of the Taxes and Fees may be entitled to priority status pursuant to section 507(a)(8)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. As priority claims, these obligations must be paid in full before any general unsecured obligations of the Debtors may be satisfied. To the extent that the Debtors are not able to timely pay the prepetition Taxes and Fees, they may ultimately be required to pay those amounts with additional interest and penalties. The Debtors' failure to pay the prepetition Taxes and Fees as they come due may ultimately increase the amount of priority claims held by the Authorities against the Debtors' estates to the detriment of the Debtors' general unsecured creditors and other stakeholders. See 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(8)(C), (G). Accordingly, the Court should grant the Debtors authority to pay the prepetition Taxes and Fees as provided herein.

28. Courts in this district and other jurisdictions have often granted relief similar to that requested herein. See, e.g., In re Total Hockey, Inc., No. 16-44815 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. July 8, 2016) (authorizing debtors to pay prepetition taxes); In re Peabody Energy Corp., No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2016) (same); In re Noranda Aluminum, Inc.,

No. 16-10083 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Feb. 10, 2016) (same); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (same); In re Bakers Footwear Grp. Inc., No. 12-49658 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Oct. 9, 2012); see also In re Breitburn Energy Partners LP, No. 16-11390 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 15, 2016) (same); In re Aeropostale, Inc., No. 16-11275 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 3, 2016) (same).¹¹

29. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay any amounts related to the Taxes and Fees in the ordinary course of business. Under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors have made arrangements to readily identify checks or wire transfer requests relating to the Taxes and Fees, as applicable. The Debtors believe there is minimal risk that checks or wire transfer requests that the Court has not authorized will be inadvertently made. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court authorize, but not direct, all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the Taxes and Fees, provided that sufficient funds are on deposit and standing in the Debtors' credit in the applicable bank accounts to cover such payments.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 Are Satisfied

30. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant relief within 21 days after the Petition Date "to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Immediate and irreparable harm exists where the absence of relief would impair a debtor's ability to reorganize or threaten the debtor's future as a going concern. For the reasons discussed above, authorizing the Debtors to pay the Taxes and Fees accrued prior to the Petition Date as provided herein is integral to the Debtors' ability to transition their operations into these chapter 11 cases and the failure to pay said Taxes and Fees could severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at a critical juncture. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the "immediate and irreparable harm" standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support granting the relief requested herein.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

31. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

32. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors' or any other parties-in-interests rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other parties-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

33. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan

Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn: Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (j) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (k) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; (p) the Authorities; and (q) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Interim Order and the Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein, and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

Relief Requested³

1. By this Motion, and pursuant to sections 105 and 363 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the Debtors seek entry of an interim order (the “Proposed Interim Order”) ⁴ and a final order (the “Proposed Final Order”).⁵ (a) authorizing the Debtors to continue and renew the Surety Bond Program (as defined herein) on an uninterrupted basis; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing within approximately 21 days of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider approval of this Motion on a final basis.

The Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

Background

4. The Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates (together, the “Company”), comprise the largest specialty family footwear retailer in the Western Hemisphere, offering a wide range of shoes and accessory items at affordable prices. The Company has more than 4,000 stores in more than 30 countries. The Debtors are headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, but their operations are extensive and span across Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no committees have been appointed or designated.

The Debtors’ Surety Bond Program

6. In the ordinary course of business, certain third parties, including governmental units or other public agencies, require the Debtors to post surety bonds to secure their payment or performance of certain obligations (the “Surety Bond Program”). These obligations relate to, among other things: (a) customs and excise tax obligations; (b) utilities; (c) sales and use tax obligations; and (d) workers’ compensation claims. Failure to provide, maintain, or timely replace the Debtors’ surety bonds may prevent the Debtors from undertaking essential functions related to their operations.

7. The purpose of a surety bond is to shift the risk of the Debtors’ nonperformance or nonpayment from the Debtors to a surety. Unlike an insurance policy, if a surety incurs a loss on a surety bond, it is entitled to recover the full amount of that loss from the principal. To that end, the Debtors are party to or may become party to certain indemnity agreements that set forth the surety's rights to recover from the Debtors (the "Surety Indemnity Agreements").⁶ Pursuant to the Surety Indemnity Agreements, the Debtors agree to indemnify the sureties from any loss, cost, or expense which the surety may incur on account of the issuance of any bonds on behalf of the Debtors. Additionally, the Surety Indemnity Agreements allow the sureties to request collateral security from the Debtors from time to time.

8. Currently, the Debtors have outstanding surety bonds issued by three separate sureties: (a) Westchester Fire Insurance Company (two surety bonds totaling $20 million in bond principal); (b) Liberty Mutual Insurance Company (and its affiliates) (81 surety bonds totaling approximately $4.8 million in bond principal); and (c) Travelers Casualty and Surety Company of America (five surety bonds totaling $37,500 in bond principal) ((a) through (c), collectively, the "Sureties").

9. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have approximately 88 surety bonds totaling approximately $25 million outstanding.⁷ A schedule of surety bonds currently maintained by the Debtors is attached hereto as Exhibit A⁸ and incorporated herein by reference. The Debtors' outstanding surety bonds secure their performance and obligations in the following general categories and for the following approximate amounts:

Nature of Bond	Approximate Aggregate Bond Amount	Approximate Aggregate Premiums	Number of Bonds
Utility	$1,900,000	$13,000	68
Customs and Excise Tax	$21,700,000	$245,000	4
Workers' Compensation	$765,000	$6,000	1
Sales and Use Tax	$331,000	$1,500	3
Notary	$83,000	$500	11
Other	$50,000	$250	1
Total	$24,829,000	$266,250	88

10. The premiums for the surety bonds are generally determined on an annual basis and are paid by the Debtors as premiums come due throughout the year (the “Premiums”). For the 2016 fiscal year, the Premiums totaled approximately $275,000. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $6,000 in prepetition Premiums on account of the Surety Bond Program, all of which will become due within 21 days after the Petition Date. As such, the Debtors request authority to remit up to $6,000 in prepetition Premiums that become due within 21 days after the Petition Date under the Surety Bond Program upon entry of the Interim and Final Orders, and to continue paying these Premiums in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis to ensure uninterrupted coverage under the Surety Bond Program.

11. The Debtors obtain their surety bonds through two brokers, Marsh Risk & Insurance Services, and its various affiliates (collectively, “Marsh”), and Lockton Companies, Inc., and its various affiliates (collectively, “Lockton”, and together with Marsh, the “Surety Brokers”). The Surety Brokers assist the Debtors in, among other things, obtaining the surety bonds and evaluating bond offerings. The Surety Brokers also help the Debtors with the procurement and negotiation of the surety bonds, enabling the Debtors to obtain the bonds on advantageous terms and at competitive rates. The Debtors do not pay Marsh a fee for its services; instead Marsh is compensated for its services to the Debtors through commissions paid by the Sureties. As discussed more fully in the Debtors' Motion Seeking Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Continue Insurance Coverage Entered into Prepetition and Satisfy Prepetition Obligations Related Thereto and (B) Renew, Supplement, or Purchase Insurance Policies, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Insurance Motion") filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors pay Lockton a flat annual fee for its services related to the procurement of insurance policies as well as surety bonds (the "Brokerage Fees").

12. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts on account of Brokerage Fees other than what is described in the Insurance Motion. However, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors seek authority to honor any prepetition amounts owed on account of Brokerage Fees and to pay any Brokerage Fees that may arise on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business to ensure uninterrupted coverage under the Surety Bond Program.

13. The Debtors must be able to provide financial assurances to governmental units, public agencies, and other third parties in order to continue their business operations during the reorganization process. This, in turn, requires the Debtors to maintain the existing Surety Bond Program, including: (a) paying Premiums as they come due; (b) providing the Sureties with collateral; (c) renewing or potentially acquiring additional bonding capacity as needed in the ordinary course of their businesses; (d) requesting releases from duplicate bonding obligations; (e) canceling, revising, and/or supplementing surety bonds; and (f) executing other agreements in the ordinary course of business, as needed, in connection with the Surety Bond Program.

Basis for Relief

I. The Surety Bond Program Is Maintained in the Ordinary Course of the Debtors' Business

14. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a chapter 11 debtor in possession “may enter into transactions . . . [or] may use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). The Bankruptcy Code does not define the “ordinary course of business.” In re Roth Am., Inc., 975 F.2d 949, 952 (3rd Cir. 1992). In determining whether a transaction is in the ordinary course of business, courts in this Circuit and elsewhere have held that a transaction qualifies as in the “ordinary course” if it “is of a type that is commonly undertaken within the debtor’s industry,” Peltz v. Gulfcoast Workstation Grp. (In re Bridge Info. Sys., Inc.), 293 B.R. 479, 486 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2013), and is consistent with the reasonable expectations of creditors. See Johnston v. First St. Cos. (In re Waterfront Cos.), 56 B.R. 31, 35 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1985); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 157 B.R. 532, 537 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (“the touchstone of ordinariness is thus the interested parties’ reasonable expectations of what transactions the debtor in possession is likely to enter in the course of its business”).

15. Here, the Debtors’ Surety Bond Program covers obligations that are required by law or regulation, or requested from third parties such as utility providers. As such, the Debtors intend to honor their obligations and perform under the surety bonds and Surety Indemnity Agreements entered into in the ordinary course of their prepetition business on a postpetition basis. Such obligations include, among other things, maintaining existing surety bonds, renewing bonds as they expire, obtaining new bonds as needed, paying applicable premiums to the extent they arise, maintaining collateral deposits, and posting additional collateral as required from time to time under the Surety Indemnity Agreements.

16. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that continuation of the Surety Bond Program on a postpetition basis is in the ordinary course of business and, pursuant to section 363(c)(1), does not require notice and a hearing.

II. The Debtors Should Be Authorized To Continue the Surety Bond Program in Accordance with Prepetition Practice Under Sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

17. The Debtors believe it is within their authority to continue the Surety Bond Program in the ordinary course of business. Nonetheless, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors are seeking Court approval to continue the Surety Bond Program under sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The use of estate property should be authorized under section 363(b) so long as a sound business purpose exists for the transaction. See, e.g., In re Chanel One Commc'ns, Inc., 117 B.R. 493, 496 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1990) (citing Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d. Cir. 1983)); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989). “In evaluating whether a sound business purpose justifies the use, sale or lease of property under section 363(b) [of the bankruptcy code], courts consider a variety of factors, which essentially represent a ‘business judgment test.’” In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999). Once the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions, “courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor’s conduct.” Comm. of Asbestos-Related Litigants v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re Johns-Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986). There is a presumption that “in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company.” In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)).

18. Thus, if a debtor's actions satisfy the business judgment rule, the transaction in question should be approved under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, when applying the "business judgment" standard, courts show great deference to a debtor's business decisions. See In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 881 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (citation omitted); Crystalin, L.L.C. v. Selma Props., Inc. (In re Crystalin, L.L.C.), 293 B.R. 455, 463–64 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003); Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 656 ("Courts are loath to interfere with corporate decisions absent a showing of bad faith, self-interest, or gross negligence."); In re First Wellington Canyon Assocs., No. 89-593, 1989 WL 106838, at *3 (N.D. Ill. Sept. 8, 1989) (stating that "the debtor's business judgment . . . must be accorded deference unless shown that the bankrupt's decision was taken in bad faith or in gross abuse of the bankrupt's retained discretion."). In addition, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code codifies the Court's inherent equitable powers to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

19. To the extent that the Debtors' participation in the Surety Bond Program is deemed to fall outside the ordinary course of business, the Court should authorize the Debtors to continue the Surety Bond Program pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. As noted above, certain surety bonds are required by statute, and in other instances, surety bonds may be required by contract or regulation, or requested by third parties or other entities. The Debtors' failure to provide, maintain, or timely replace the surety bonds, therefore, may jeopardize the Debtors' ability to conduct their operations. The Debtors' inability to post collateral may also cause their Sureties to refuse to post bonds on contractually favorable terms or at all.

20. Continuing the Surety Bond Program is therefore necessary in order to maintain the Debtors' current business operations, as well as existing relationships with the Sureties. Based on the Debtors' current circumstances, it is not likely that the Debtors will be able to renew, or obtain replacement of, existing bonds on terms more favorable than those offered by the Sureties. Moreover, the process of establishing a new Surety Bond Program would be burdensome to the Debtors, and it is doubtful that the Debtors could replace all of their surety bonds in time to avoid defaults or other consequences of the applicable obligations.

21. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors respectfully submit that maintaining the Surety Bond Program, including making additional Premium and Brokerage Fee payments and posting additional collateral as required from time to time, as well as their continued performance under the Surety Indemnity Agreements, is in the best interest of the Debtors and should be authorized under sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to the extent such participation is deemed outside the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. Courts in this district and other districts have routinely granted relief similar to that requested herein. See, e.g., In re Peabody Energy Corporation, Case No. 16-42529 (BSS) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. May 18, 2016) (authorizing the debtors to maintain and renew their surety program); In re Arch Coal, Inc., No. 16-40120 (CER) (Bankr. E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2016) (same); see also In re Avaya Inc., Case No. 17-10089 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 10, 2017); In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc., Case No. 16-10429 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. July 22, 2016); In re Breitburn Energy Partners LP, Case No. 16-11390 (SMB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 15, 2016); In re Sabine Oil & Gas Corporation, Case No. 15-11835 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 2015); In re Inversiones Alsacia S.A., Case No. 14-12896 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 5, 2014).⁹

III. Continuing the Surety Bond Program May Be Authorized Under Section 364(c)

22. To the extent the Surety Bond Program and the provision of collateral thereunder are deemed an extension of secured credit, the Debtors request authority to continue the Surety Bond Program pursuant to section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, including with respect to posting collateral as determined in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment. To satisfy the requirements of section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor need only demonstrate "by a good faith effort that credit was not available" to the debtor on an unsecured or administrative expense basis. Bray v. Shenandoah Fed. Savs. & Loan Ass'n (In re Snowshoe Co.), 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986). Given the Debtors' current financial circumstances, the Debtors do not believe that they can obtain financial accommodations comparable to those offered by the Sureties on an unsecured basis or administrative expense basis. Accordingly, to the extent the Surety Bond Program and the provision of cash collateral thereunder are deemed an extension of secured credit, the Debtors respectfully submit that continuance of the Surety Bond Program should be authorized pursuant to section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should be Authorized

23. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay any amounts related to the Surety Bond Program in the ordinary course of business. Under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors have made arrangements to readily identify checks or wire transfer requests relating to the Surety Bond Program, as applicable. The Debtors believe there is minimal risk that checks or wire transfer requests that the Court has not authorized will be inadvertently made. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court authorize, but not direct, all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the Surety Bond Program; provided that sufficient funds are on deposit and standing in the Debtors' credit in the applicable bank accounts to cover such payments.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 Are Satisfied

24. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 empowers a court to grant relief within 21 days after the Petition Date “to the extent that relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.” Immediate and irreparable harm exists where the absence of relief would impair a debtor’s ability to reorganize or threaten the debtor’s future as a going concern. For the reasons discussed above, authorizing the Debtors to continue to honor obligations arising under the Surety Bond Program and, if necessary, renew, supplement, or purchase new surety bonds on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business is vital to the Debtors’ operations and the failure to permit such relief can potentially severely disrupt the Debtors’ operations at a critical juncture. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the “immediate and irreparable harm” standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support granting the relief requested herein.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

25. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

26. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other parties in interests’ rights to dispute any claim, or an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors expressly reserve their right to contest any claim related to the relief sought herein. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to an order of the Court is not intended to be nor should it be construed as an admission as to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other parties in interests' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Notice

27. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (b) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent, Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP (Attn: H. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; (p) the Sureties; (q) the Surety Brokers; and (r) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

28. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Interim Order and the Proposed Final Order (a) granting the relief requested herein, and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the “Hearing”); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is

HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The final hearing (the “Final Hearing”) on the Motion shall be held on May 9, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Central Time. Any objections or responses to entry of a final order on the Motion shall be filed on or before 4:00 p.m., prevailing Central Time, on May 2, 2017, and shall be served on: (a) proposed counsel to the Debtors; (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Missouri; (c) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (d) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (e) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (g) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (h) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (i) the DIP ABL Agent; (j) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn: Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (k) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (l) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (m) the United States Attorney’s Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (n) the Internal Revenue Service; (o) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (p) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; and (q) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In the event no objections to entry of the Final Order on the Motion are timely received, this Court may enter such Final Order without need for the Final Hearing.

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay the prepetition Vendor Claims in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices; provided that such payments shall not exceed $52 million in the aggregate unless otherwise ordered by the Court after notice and a hearing.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay Vendor Claims, in whole or in part, upon such terms and in the manner provided in this Interim Order, and upon such terms as agreed to between the Debtor and the Vendor in the Debtors' sole reasonable business judgment; provided that if any party accepts payment hereunder and does not continue supplying goods or services to the Debtors in accordance with the Trade Terms, (a) the Debtors may take any and all appropriate steps to recover from such Vendor any payments made to it on account of its prepetition claim to the extent that such payments exceed the postpetition amounts then owing to such party; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party may be reinstated as if the payment on account thereof had not been made; and (c) if an outstanding postpetition balance is due from the Debtors to such party, (i) the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by this Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance and (ii) such party will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of any claims, or otherwise.

5. If any Vendor is paid with respect to its Vendor Claim and thereafter does not continue to provide goods or services to the Debtors in accordance with the Trade Terms, any payments made to the Vendor shall be subject to avoidance under section 549 of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be recoverable by the Debtors in cash upon written request. Upon recovery by the Debtors, the Vendor Claim shall be reinstated as a prepetition claim in the amount recovered.

6. Nothing herein shall impair or prejudice the Debtors' ability to contest, in their sole discretion, the extent, perfection, priority, validity, or amounts of any claims held by any Vendor. The Debtors do not concede that any claims satisfied pursuant to this Interim Order are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve all rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek the avoidance of all such liens or the priority of such claims.

7. All undisputed obligations related to the Outstanding Orders are granted administrative expense priority in accordance with section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay all undisputed amounts related to the Outstanding Orders in the ordinary course of business consistent with the parties' customary practices in effect prior to the Petition Date.

9. Nothing herein or in the Motion shall be construed to limit, or in any way affect, the Debtors' ability to dispute or contest the amount of, or basis for, any claims against the Debtors arising in connection with the Outstanding Orders.

10. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order or any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order shall constitute, nor is it intended to constitute, an admission as to the validity or priority of any claim or lien against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim or lien, or the assumption or adoption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized, but not directed, to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, provided that sufficient funds are on deposit and standing in the Debtors' credit in the applicable bank accounts to cover such payments, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

12. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with any Vendor Claims.

13. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any payment made or to be made under this Interim Order, any authorization contained in this Interim Order, or any claim for which payment is authorized hereunder, shall be subject to any orders of this Court approving any debtor in possession financing for, or any use of cash collateral by, the Debtors, and any documents providing for such debtor in possession financing and the budget governing such debtor in possession financing and use of cash collateral.

14. Any party who accepts payment in full from the Debtors of a Vendor Claim shall take all actions necessary to remove any mechanics' liens, possessory liens, or similar state law trade liens on the Debtors' assets such party may have based upon such Vendor Claim at such party's sole expense.

15. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003.

16. Notice of the Motion satisfies the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a).

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

18. No later than two (2) business days after the date of this order, the Debtors shall serve a copy of the Interim Order on the Notice Parties and shall file a certificate of service no later than 24 hours after service.

HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The final hearing (the "Final Hearing") on the Motion shall be held on May 9, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Central Time. In the event no objections to entry of the Final Order on the Motion are timely received, this Court may enter such Final Order without need for the Final Hearing.

3. The Debtors are authorized to continue the Insurance Policies, including the Insurance Policies identified on Exhibit A to the Motion, and, in their sole discretion, pay any prepetition or postpetition obligations related to the Insurance Policies, including any Brokerage Fees or Insurance Administrator Fees due prior to entry of a Final Order.

4. The Debtors are authorized to renew, amend, supplement, extend, or purchase insurance policies to the extent that the Debtors determine, in their sole discretion, that such action is in the best interest of their estates.

5. Pursuant to this Interim Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay or remit any Premiums that (a) are due and owing as of the Petition Date and (b) become due and owing within 21 days after the Petition Date, in each case, in the ordinary course of business; provided, however, the Debtors are not authorized to pay or remit any Deductible Fees in excess of $10,000 in the aggregate without further order of this Court.

6. Pursuant to this Interim Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay or remit (a) any prepetition Deductible Fees that are due and owing as of the Petition Date, up to $315,000 and (b) any postpetition Deductible Fees that become due and owing within 21 days after the Petition Date, in each case, in the ordinary course of business.

7. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due prior to the date of the Final Hearing.

8. To the extent that the Debtors have: (a) miscalculated the prepetition amounts due for Premiums, Deductible Fees, and Brokerage Fees; (b) paid an amount that was less than is actually owed; or (c) made any prepetition payments on account of the Insurance Policies that were rejected, lost, or otherwise not received in full by any applicable party, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay any Premiums, Deductible Fees, and Brokerage Fees that may come due in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

9. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to honor any amounts owed on account of any Insurance Policy Audits in the ordinary course of business.

10. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized, but not directed, to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

11. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with any Premiums, Deductible Fees, and Brokerage Fees.

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any payment made or to be made under this Order, any authorization contained in this Order, or any claim for which payment is authorized hereunder, shall be subject to any orders of this Court approving any debtor in possession financing for, or any use of cash collateral by, the Debtors, and any documents providing for such debtor in possession financing and the budget governing such debtor in possession financing and use of cash collateral.

13. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order or any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order shall constitute, nor is it intended to constitute, an admission as to the validity or priority of any claim or lien against the Debtors, a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim or lien, or the assumption or adoption of any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein or any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in this Interim Order shall create any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party in interest.

15. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003.

16. Notice of the Motion satisfies the requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Bankruptcy Rules are satisfied by such notice.

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

18. No later than two (2) business days after the date of this Order, the Debtors shall serve a copy of the Order on the Notice Parties and shall file a certificate of service no later than 24 hours after service.

HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The final hearing (the "Final Hearing") on the Motion shall be held on May 9, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Central Time. Any objections or responses to entry of a final order on the Motion shall be filed on or before 4:00 p.m., prevailing Central Time, on May 2, 2017, and shall be served on: (a) proposed counsel to the Debtors; (b) the United States Trustee of the Eastern District of Missouri; (c) counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) counsel to certain Prepetition ABL Lenders; (e) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent; (f) counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Term Loan Steering Committee; (g) counsel to the Prepetition Second Lien Term Loan Agent; (h) the DIP ABL Agent; (i) co-counsel to the DIP ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP (Attn: Kevin J. Simard, Esq. and Douglas R. Gooding, Esq.) and Thompson Coburn LLP (Attn: Mark V. Bossi, Esq.); (j) the Tranche A-1 Agent; (k) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, Schulte, Roth & Zabel, LLP (Attn: Adam C. Harris, Esq.); (l) the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri; (m) the Internal Revenue Service; (n) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (o) the state attorneys general for all states in which the Debtors conduct business; (p) counsel to any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases; and (q) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In the event no objections to entry of the Final Order on the Motion are timely received, this Court may enter such Final Order without need for the Final Hearing.

3. The Debtors are authorized but not directed to, on an interim basis and in their sole discretion: (a) continue using the Cash Management System and honor any prepetition obligations related to the use thereof; (b) designate, maintain, close, and continue to use on an interim basis any or all of their existing Bank Accounts, including, but not limited to, the Bank Accounts identified on Exhibit B attached to the Motion, in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately before the Petition Date; (c) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from the Bank Accounts by all means, including checks, wire transfers, ACH transfers, and other debits; (d) treat their prepetition Bank Accounts for all purposes as debtor in possession accounts; and (e) open new debtor in possession Bank Accounts; provided that, in the case of each of (a) through (e), such action is taken in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices.

4. For banks at which the Debtors hold Bank Accounts that are not party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, the Debtors shall use their good-faith effort to cause the banks to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee within 30 days of the Petition Date. The U.S. Trustee's rights to seek further relief from this Court on notice in the event that the aforementioned banks are unwilling to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee are fully reserved.

5. The Debtors are authorized to deposit their cash in the Bank Accounts consistent with their prepetition practices and the Cash Management System. The Debtors are relieved from the obligations under section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the requirements of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines to obtain a bond from any entity with which money is deposited or maintained in the Bank Accounts.

6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis and in their sole discretion, to continue using, in their present form, the Business Forms, as well as checks and other documents related to the Bank Accounts existing immediately before the Petition Date, including electronic versions of the Debtors' Business Forms, checks, and other documents related to the Bank Accounts.

7. Except as otherwise provided in this Interim Order and only to the extent sufficient funds standing in the Debtors' credit are available in each applicable Bank Account, all Cash Management Banks at which the Bank Accounts are maintained are authorized, but not directed, to continue to service and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course of business, consistent with prepetition practices, and to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks, drafts, wire transfers, and ACH and other transfers issued, whether before or after the Petition Date, and drawn on the Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by the holders or makers thereof, as the case may be; provided that the Debtors will instruct the Cash Management Banks as to which checks, drafts, wire transfers (excluding any wire transfers or ACH Transactions that the Cash Management Banks are obligated to settle), or other items presented, issued, or drawn, shall not be honored. Each of the Debtors' existing depository and disbursement Cash Management Banks is authorized to debit the Debtors' accounts in the ordinary course of business without the need for further order of this Court for: (a) all checks drawn on the Debtors' Bank Accounts which are cashed at such Cash Management Bank's counters or exchanged for cashier's checks by the payees thereof prior to the Petition Date; (b) all checks or other items deposited in one of the Debtors' Bank Accounts with such Cash Management Bank prior to the Petition Date which have been dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, together with any fees and costs in connection therewith, to the same extent the Debtors were responsible for such items prior to the Petition Date; and (c) all undisputed prepetition amounts outstanding as of the date hereof, if any, owed to any Cash Management Bank as service charges for the maintenance of the Cash Management System.

8. Except for those checks, drafts, wires or other ACH transfers that are authorized or required to be honored under an order of the Court, no Debtor shall instruct or request any Cash Management Bank to pay or honor any check, draft, or other payment item issued on a Bank Account prior to the Petition Date but presented to such Cash Management Bank for payment after the Petition Date.

9. Except as otherwise provided in this Interim Order, the Cash Management Banks are authorized to charge, and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay, honor, or allow, prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, and charge back returned items, whether such items were deposited prepetition or postpetition, to the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices. Any such postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, or charge-backs that are not so paid shall be entitled to priority as administrative expenses pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. The Debtors' credit card processors are authorized to process payments in the ordinary course of business, including the netting out of any fees and/or chargebacks whether arising before or after the Petition Date.

11. Any payment that is authorized by the Debtors and paid from a Bank Account by a Cash Management Bank before the Petition Date (including any ACH payment such Cash Management Bank is or becomes obligated to settle), any instruments issued by such Cash Management Bank on behalf of any Debtor pursuant to a "midnight deadline" or otherwise, or any reimbursement or charge back for any coin and currency orders provided by the Cash Management Banks prior to the Petition Date shall be deemed to be paid prepetition, whether or not actually debited from the Bank Account prepetition.

12. As soon as practicable after entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall cause a copy of this Interim Order to be served on the Cash Management Banks.

13. The U.S. Trustee Guidelines' requirement to establish separate accounts for tax payments is hereby waived.

14. With respect to Postpetition Intercompany Transactions occurring in the ordinary course of business (including with respect to netting or setoffs), the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue such practices in the ordinary course of business.

15. Pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) and 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, all valid postpetition payments on account of a Postpetition Intercompany Transaction made in the ordinary course by (a) a Debtor to another Debtor or (b) a non-Debtor affiliate to a Debtor, shall in each case be accorded administrative expense status, subject and junior to the claims, including adequate protection claims, granted in connection with any debtor in possession financing in accordance with any order(s) of this Court approving any postpetition secured debtor in possession financing and/or the use of cash collateral, except to the extent such Postpetition Intercompany Transactions are on account of antecedent debts.

16. Unless prohibited by applicable law, transfers made by a Debtor to a non-Debtor affiliate pursuant to a Postpetition Intercompany Transaction shall be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such non-Debtor affiliate (and not a contribution of capital), except to the extent such Postpetition Intercompany Transactions are on account of antecedent debts.

17. Except as otherwise set forth herein, those certain existing deposit agreements between the Debtors' Cash Management Banks shall continue to govern the postpetition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks, and all provisions of such agreements, including without limitation, the termination and fee provisions, shall remain in full force and effect. Either the Debtors or the Cash Management Banks may, subject to the entry of the Final Order, implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures in the ordinary course of business pursuant to the terms of those certain existing deposit agreements, including, without limitation, the opening and closing of Bank Accounts.

18. The Debtors are authorized to open new bank accounts, so long as any such new account is: (a) with one of the Debtors' existing Cash Management Banks or with a bank that is (i) insured with the FDIC and (ii) designated as an authorized depository by the U.S. Trustee pursuant to the U.S. Trustee Guidelines; and (b) the Debtors provide notice to the U.S. Trustee and the Notice Parties of the opening of such account; provided that each account opened by any of the Debtors on or after the Petition Date at any bank shall, for purposes of this Interim Order, be deemed a Bank Account as if it had been listed on Exhibit B attached to the Motion, and the bank at which such new account is maintained shall, for purposes of this Interim Order, be deemed a Cash Management Bank.

19. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Debtors from closing any Bank Accounts as they may deem necessary and appropriate, to the extent consistent with any orders of this Court relating thereto, and any relevant Cash Management Bank is instructed to honor the Debtors' requests to close such Bank Accounts, and the Debtors shall give notice of the closure of any Bank Account to the U.S. Trustee and the notice parties.

20. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order, should any Cash Management Bank honor a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Interim Order: (a) at the direction of the Debtors to honor such prepetition check or item, (b) in a good faith belief that the Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored, or (c) as the result of an innocent mistake made despite implementation of customary item handling procedures, such Cash Management Bank shall not be deemed to be nor shall be liable to the Debtors, their estates or any other person or entity, or otherwise be in violation of this Interim Order. Any of the Debtors' Cash Management Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check or other payment order drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this or any other order of the Court, and such Cash Management Bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors as provided for herein.

21. (viii) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Revolver Liens and Prepetition Revolver Obligations. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date: (a) the Prepetition Revolver Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Revolver Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Revolver Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to (1) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens on the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, and (2) certain liens otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Revolver Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Revolver Liens as of the Petition Date, the “Prepetition Revolver Permitted Prior Liens”); (c) the Prepetition Revolver Obligations constitute legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Revolver Loan Parties enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Revolver Documents; (d) no offsets, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Revolver Liens or Prepetition Revolver Obligations exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Revolver Liens or Prepetition Revolver Obligations is subject to any challenge or defense including, without limitation, avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non- bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including without limitation, avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Revolver Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Revolver Facility; (f) the Debtors have waived, discharged, and released any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations, the priority of the Prepetition Revolver Loan Parties obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the liens securing the Prepetition Revolver Obligations; and (g) the Prepetition Revolver Obligations constitute allowed, secured claims within the meaning of sections 502 and 506 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ix) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Term Loan Liens and Prepetition Term Loan Obligations. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date: (a) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to (1) the Prepetition Revolver Liens on the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral and (2) certain liens otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Term Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens as of the Petition Date, the “Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Prior Liens,” and together with the Prepetition Revolver Permitted Prior Liens, the “Permitted Prior Liens”);⁴ (b) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Term Loan Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (c) the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations constitute legal, valid, binding, and non- avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Parties enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Term Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Term Loan Liens or Prepetition Term Loan Obligations exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Term Loan Liens or Prepetition Term Loan Obligations is subject to any challenge or defense including, without limitation, avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including without limitation, avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Term Loan Parties, or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Term Loan Facilities; (f) the Debtors have waived, discharged, and released any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations, the priority of the Debtors’ obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the liens securing the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations; and (g) the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations constitute allowed, secured claims within the meaning of sections 502 and 506 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(x) Default by the Debtors. The Debtors acknowledge and stipulate that the Prepetition Revolver Loan Parties are in default of their obligations under the Prepetition Revolver Documents and Prepetition Term Loan Credit Parties are in default of their obligations under the Prepetition Term Loan Documents.

G. Cash Collateral. All of the Prepetition Revolver Loan Parties' and Prepetition Term Loan Credit Parties' cash, including any cash in deposit accounts, wherever located, constitutes Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties.

H. Intercreditor Agreements. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, except as expressly provided by the terms of this Interim Order, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other intercreditor agreement or subordination agreement between and/or among any Prepetition Revolver Party, any Prepetition Term Loan Party, any Debtor or affiliate thereof, and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the replacement liens and administrative expense claims and superpriority administrative expense claims granted, or amounts payable, by the Debtors under this Interim Order or otherwise and the modification of the automatic stay), and (iii) shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, unless expressly set forth herein. The DIP ABL Credit Facilities are an ABL Credit Agreement as that term is used in the Intercreditor Agreement, and any repayment of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations pursuant to this Interim Order shall not be deemed to constitute a “Discharge of the ABL Obligations” as such term is defined in the Intercreditor Agreement. The DIP Term Loan Facility is a First Lien Term Credit Agreement as that term is used in the Intercreditor Agreement, and any repayment of the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations pursuant to this Interim Order shall not be deemed to constitute a “discharge” of Prepetition Term Loan Obligations.

I. Findings Regarding Postpetition Financing

(i) Request for Postpetition Financing. The Debtors seek authority to (a) enter into the DIP Facilities on the terms described herein and in the DIP Documents, and (b) use Cash Collateral on the terms described herein to administer their Cases and fund their operations. At the Final Hearing, the Debtors will seek final approval of the proposed postpetition financing and use of Cash Collateral arrangements pursuant to a proposed final order (the “Final Order”), which shall be in form and substance acceptable to each of the DIP Agents, DIP Term Lenders holding in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the outstanding loans and commitments under the DIP Term Loan Facility (the “Required DIP Term Lenders”), and the requisite DIP ABL Lenders pursuant to the terms and conditions of the DIP ABL Agreement (the “Required DIP ABL Lenders” together with the Required DIP Term Lenders, collectively, the “Required DIP Lenders”). Notice of the Final Hearing and Final Order will be provided in accordance with this Interim Order.

(ii) Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Revolver Liens of the Prepetition Revolver Parties on the Prepetition Collateral and the priming of the Prepetition Term Loan Liens of the Prepetition Term Loan Parties on the Prepetition Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Facilities and as further described below, will enable the Debtors to obtain the DIP Facilities and to continue to operate their businesses to the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Interim Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in value (“Diminution in Value”) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral).

(iii) Need for Postpetition Financing and Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors have an immediate and critical need to use Cash Collateral on an interim basis and to obtain credit on an interim basis pursuant to the DIP Facilities in order to, among other things, enable the orderly continuation of their operations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to maintain business relationships with their vendors, suppliers and customers, to pay their employees and otherwise finance their operations requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Facilities and the use of Cash Collateral, the absence of either of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates, and parties-in-interest. The Debtors do not have sufficient available sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses or maintain their properties in the ordinary course of business without the DIP Facilities and authorized use of Cash Collateral and the DIP ABL Lenders are unwilling to make the DIP ABL Credit Facility available to the Debtors unless the Canadian Loan Parties (as defined in the DIP ABL Agreement) provide a secured guarantee of all amounts made available in respect of such DIP ABL Credit Facilities..

(iv) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The DIP Facilities are the best source of debtor in possession financing available to the Debtors. Given their current financial condition, financing arrangements, and capital structure, the Debtors have been and continue to be unable to obtain financing from sources other than the DIP Lenders on terms more favorable than the DIP Facilities. The Debtors are unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under Bankruptcy Code section 503(b)(1) as an administrative expense. The Debtors have also been unable to obtain: (a) unsecured credit having priority over that of administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) credit secured solely by a lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or (c) credit secured solely by a junior lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is subject to a lien. Financing on a postpetition basis is not otherwise available without granting the DIP Agents, for the benefit of themselves and the DIP Lenders: (1) perfected security interests in and liens on (each as provided herein) all of the Debtors' existing and after-acquired assets with the priorities set forth in paragraph 6 hereof, (2) superpriority claims and liens, and (3) the other protections set forth in this Interim Order.

(v) Use of proceeds of the DIP Facilities. As a condition to entry into the DIP Documents, the extension of credit under the DIP Facilities and the authorization to use Cash Collateral, the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties require, and the Debtors have agreed, that proceeds of the DIP Facilities shall be used, in each case in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents and in accordance with the budget (as the same may be modified from time to time consistent with the terms of the DIP Documents and subject to such variances as permitted in the DIP Agreements, the "Budget"),⁵ solely for: (a) working capital and letters of credit; (b) other general corporate purposes of the Debtors; (c) permitted payment of costs of administration of the Cases; (d) payment of such prepetition expenses as consented to by the DIP Agents and the Required DIP Lenders, each in its sole discretion, and as approved by the Court; (e) payment of interest, fees and expenses (including without limitation, legal and other professionals' fees and expenses of the DIP Agents) owed under the DIP Documents; (f) payment of certain adequate protection amounts to the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties, as set forth in paragraph 16 hereof; (g) the reduction of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations and payment in full of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations upon entry of a Final Order, subject to the rights preserved in paragraph 42 of this Interim Order; and (h) payment of the Carve Out shall be in accordance with paragraph 39 of this Interim Order. The reduction of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations from the net proceeds of DIP ABL Collateral in accordance with this Interim Order is necessary as the Prepetition Revolver Parties have not otherwise consented to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens, and the DIP ABL Agent and the DIP ABL Lenders will not otherwise consent to providing the DIP ABL Credit Facilities and extending credit to the Debtors thereunder.

(vi) Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to entry into the DIP Agreements, the extension of credit under the DIP Facilities and authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors, the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders have agreed that, as of and commencing on the date of the Interim Hearing, the Debtors shall apply the proceeds of DIP Collateral in accordance with this Interim Order and the Intercreditor Agreements.

(vii) Canadian Recognition Proceeding. Following the issuance of this Interim Order and certain related interim orders being sought in connection with the filing of the Cases, Payless Holdings LLC as the foreign representative of the Debtors intends to commence recognition proceedings in Canada under Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada), R.S.C. 1985, c C-36, as amended (the "Canadian Case") in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Canadian Court").

J. Adequate Protection. The Prepetition Revolver Agent, for the benefit of itself and the Prepetition Revolver Parties, and the Prepetition Term Loan Agents, for the benefit of themselves and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties, are each entitled to receive adequate protection to the extent of any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral. Pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, as adequate protection: (i) the Prepetition Revolver Parties will receive (a) adequate protection liens and superpriority claims, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 11-14 herein, (b) current payment of interest at the default rate, fees and expenses (including without limitation, legal and other professionals' fees and expenses of the Prepetition Revolver Agent, Tranche A-1 Agent and Prepetition Revolver Lenders, whether arising before or after the Petition Date), and (c) payments in the amount of principal due under the Prepetition Revolver Agreement, consistent with paragraph 15, herein; (ii) the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties will receive (a) adequate protection liens and superpriority claims, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 11-14 herein, and (b) current payment of expenses (including without limitation, legal and other professionals' fees and expenses of the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent and the Prepetition TL First Lien Lenders whether arising before or after the Petition Date); and (iii) Prepetition TL Second Lien Parties will receive adequate protection liens and superpriority claims, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 11-14 herein.

K. Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of (i) the DIP Agents' and DIP Lenders' agreement that their liens and superpriority claims shall be subject to the Carve Out; (ii) the Prepetition Revolver Parties' agreement that their liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP ABL Liens and, in the case of the Prepetition Term Priority Collateral, subordinate to the DIP Term Loan Liens; and (iii) the Prepetition Term Loan Parties' agreement that their liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Term Loan Liens and, in the case of the ABL Priority Collateral, subordinate to the DIP ABL Liens, (a) subject to entry of a Final Order, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (b) subject to entry of a Final Order, the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties are each entitled to a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

L. Good Faith of the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders.

(i) Willingness to Provide Financing. The DIP Lenders have indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors subject to: (a) entry of this Interim Order and the Final Order; (b) approval of the terms and conditions of the DIP Facilities and the DIP Documents; (c) satisfaction of the closing conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; (d) entry of an initial recognition order and a related supplemental order by the Canadian Court, in a form satisfactory to the DIP ABL Agent, commencing the Canadian Case and recognizing the Cases as foreign main proceedings and providing for a super-priority charge over the property of the Canadian Loan Parties to secure all obligations under the DIP ABL Facilities as set forth herein and in the DIP ABL Documents, and (d) findings by this Court that the DIP Financing is essential to the Debtors' estates, that the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders are extending credit to the Debtors pursuant to the DIP Documents in good faith, and that the DIP Agents' and DIP Lenders' claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents will have the protections provided by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ii) Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e). The terms and conditions of the DIP Facilities and the DIP Documents, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder, are fair, reasonable, and the best available to the Debtors under the circumstances, are ordinary and appropriate for secured financing to debtors in possession, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration. The terms and conditions of the DIP Facilities and the use of Cash Collateral were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length among the Debtors, DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties, with the assistance and counsel of their respective advisors. Use of Cash Collateral and credit to be extended under the DIP Facilities shall be deemed to have been allowed, advanced, made, or extended in good faith by the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties, and Prepetition Term Loan Parties within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Immediate Entry. Sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2).

N. Interim Hearing. Notice of the Interim Hearing and the relief requested in the DIP Motion has been provided by the Debtors, whether by facsimile, electronic mail, overnight courier or hand delivery, to certain parties-in-interest, including, among others: (i) the U.S. Trustee, (ii) those entities or individuals included on the Debtors' list of 50 largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis, (iii) counsel to the Prepetition Revolver Agent, (iv) counsel to the Tranche A-1 Agent, (v) counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agents; (vi) counsel to certain of the Prepetition TL First Lien Lenders (the “Prepetition TL First Lien Ad Hoc Group”); and (vii) all other parties entitled to notice under the Local Rules. The Debtors have made reasonable efforts to afford the best notice possible under the circumstances and no other notice is required in connection with the relief set forth in this Interim Order.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Interim Financing Approved. The DIP Motion is granted, the Interim Financing (as defined herein) is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis is authorized, in each case, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order. All objections to this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled or resolved are hereby denied and overruled.

DIP Facilities Authorization

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing. The Interim Financing is hereby approved. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to pay, in accordance with this Interim Order, the principal, interest, fees, expenses and other amounts described in the DIP Documents and all other documents comprising the DIP Facilities as such become due and without need to obtain further Court approval, including, without limitation, closing fees, letter of credit fees (including issuance, fronting, and other related charges), unused facility fees, continuing commitment fees, backstop fees, exit fees, servicing fees, Yield Maintenance Premium (as defined in the Prepetition Revolver Documents), audit fees, appraisal fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's fees, the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agents' attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. Upon execution and delivery, the DIP Documents shall represent valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with their terms.

3. Authorization to Borrow. In order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, from the entry of this Interim Order through and including the earliest to occur of (i) entry of the Final Order or (ii) the Termination Declaration, and subject to the terms, conditions, limitations on availability and reserves set forth in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, the Debtors are hereby authorized to request extensions of credit (in the form of loans and letters of credit) up to an aggregate outstanding principal amount of not greater than $245,000,000 at any one time outstanding under the DIP ABL Credit Facilities (the “Interim Financing”).

4. DIP Obligations. The DIP Documents and this Interim Order shall constitute and evidence the validity and binding effect of the Debtors’ DIP Obligations, which DIP Obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto, including without limitation, any trustee appointed in the Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the “Successor Cases”). Upon entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Obligations will include all loans, letter of credit reimbursement obligations, and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the Debtors to the DIP Agents or any of the DIP Lenders, under the DIP Documents or this Interim Order, including, without limitation, all principal, accrued interest, costs, fees, expenses and other amounts under the DIP Documents. Upon entry of this Interim Order, all (i) Bank Products, (ii) Cash Management Services, and (iii) Letters of Credit (each as defined in the Prepetition Revolver Agreement) shall continue in place and all obligations under or in connection therewith shall be subject to the DIP ABL Agreement and shall constitute DIP ABL Obligations. The DIP ABL Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP ABL Obligations. The DIP Term Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Term Obligations. The DIP Obligations shall be due and payable, without notice or demand, and the use of Cash Collateral shall automatically cease on the DIP Termination Date (as defined herein), except as provided in paragraph 30 herein. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of collateral security hereunder or under the DIP Documents (including any DIP Obligation or DIP Liens (as defined below), and including in connection with any adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Secured Parties hereunder) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), counterclaim, cross-claim, defense, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

5. DIP Liens. In order to secure the DIP Obligations, effective immediately upon entry of this Interim Order, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 364(c)(2), 364(c)(3), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the applicable DIP Agents, for the benefit of themselves and the DIP Lenders, are hereby granted, continuing, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and properly perfected postpetition security interests in and liens on (collectively, the “DIP Liens”) all real and personal property, whether now existing or hereafter arising and wherever located, tangible and intangible, of, with respect to the DIP ABL Obligations, each of the DIP ABL Loan Parties (the “DIP ABL Collateral”) or, with respect to the DIP Term Loan Obligations, each of the DIP Term Loan Parties (the “DIP Term Collateral”, together with the DIP ABL Collateral, the “DIP Collateral”), including without limitation: (a) all cash, cash equivalents, deposit accounts, securities accounts, accounts, other receivables (including credit card receivables), chattel paper, contract rights, inventory (wherever located), instruments, documents, securities (whether or not marketable) and investment property (including, without limitation, all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of each of its subsidiaries), furniture, fixtures, equipment, goods, franchise rights, trade names, trademarks, servicemarks, copyrights, patents, intellectual property, general intangibles, rights to the payment of money (including, without limitation, tax refunds and any other extraordinary payments), supporting obligations, guarantees, letter of credit rights, commercial tort claims, causes of action and all substitutions, books and records related to the foregoing, accessions and proceeds of the foregoing, wherever located, including insurance or other proceeds, (b) all owned real property interests and all proceeds of leased real property, (c) the proceeds of any avoidance actions brought pursuant to section 549 of the Bankruptcy Code to recover any post-petition transfer of DIP Collateral and, upon entry of a Final Order, proceeds of any other avoidance actions brought pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and (d) subject to entry of a Final Order, the Debtors' rights under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and the proceeds thereof and including all DIP Collateral that was not otherwise subject to valid, perfected, enforceable and unavoidable liens on the Petition Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, DIP Collateral shall not include the Debtors' real property leases but shall include all proceeds of such leases. DIP Collateral that is of a type that would be ABL Priority Collateral (as defined the Intercreditor Agreement) and the proceeds and products thereof shall in each case, constitute "DIP ABL Primary Collateral", and DIP Collateral that is of a type that would be Term Priority Collateral (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) and the proceeds and products thereof and shall, in each case, constitute "DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral."

6. DIP Lien Priority. The DIP Liens securing the DIP ABL Obligations (the "DIP ABL Liens") are valid, automatically perfected, non-avoidable, senior in priority and superior to any security, mortgage, collateral interest, lien or claim to any of the DIP Collateral, except that the DIP ABL Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out, a Lien in a maximum amount of $500,000 granted by the Canadian Court on DIP Collateral of the Canadian Loan Parties to secure professional fees and expenses of Alvarez & Marsal Canada Inc. as information officer (the “Information Officer”) and counsel to the Information Officer (the “Administration Charge”), a Lien in a maximum amount of $1,400,000 granted by the Canadian Court on DIP Collateral of the Canadian Loan Parties to secure the repayment of prepetition claims of arms’-length unsecured creditors of the Canadian Loan Parties existing as of the date of the issuance of the Canadian Recognition Order (the “Canadian Unsecured Creditors Charge”), and shall otherwise be junior only to: (i) as to the DIP ABL Primary Collateral, Permitted Prior Liens; and (ii) as to the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral, (A) Permitted Prior Liens; (B) the DIP Term Loan Liens (as defined herein); (C) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens; and (D) the Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens. The DIP Liens securing the DIP Term Loan Obligations (the “DIP Term Loan Liens”) are valid, automatically perfected, non-avoidable, senior in priority and superior to any security, mortgage, collateral interest, lien or claim to any of the DIP Term Loan Collateral, except that the DIP Term Loan Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and shall otherwise be junior only to: (i) as to the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral, Permitted Prior Liens; and (ii) as to the DIP ABL Primary Collateral, (A) Permitted Prior Liens; (B) the DIP ABL Liens; (C) the Prepetition Revolver Liens; and (D) the Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens. Other than as set forth herein or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Cases or any Successor Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (or in any other Successor Case), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Cases or Successor Cases. The DIP Liens shall not be subject to section 510, 549 or 550 of the Bankruptcy Code. No lien or interest avoided and preserved for the benefit of the estate pursuant to section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be pari passu with or senior to the DIP Liens. For greater certainty and notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order, the assets of the Canadian Loan Parties shall not be subject to the DIP Term Loan Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein), and the Canadian Loan Parties shall not be subject to the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims (as defined herein).

7. Superpriority Claims. Upon entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders are hereby granted, pursuant to Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, allowed superpriority administrative expense claims in each of the Cases and any Successor Cases (collectively, the “DIP Superpriority Claims”) for all DIP Obligations: (a) except as set forth herein, with priority over any and all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates in any of the Cases and any Successor Cases, at any time existing or arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 364, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 726, 1113 and 1114, and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code, as provided under Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) which shall at all times be senior to the rights of the Debtors and their estates, and any successor trustee or other estate representative to the extent permitted by law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu with each other, without otherwise impairing the lien priorities as set forth herein, and subject to the Carve Out, the Administration Charge, and the Canadian Unsecured Creditors Charge.

8. No Obligation to Extend Credit. Except as required to fund the Carve Out as set forth in paragraph 39, the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders shall have no obligation to make any loan or advance, or to issue, amend, renew or extend any letters of credit or bankers' acceptance under the DIP Documents, unless all of the conditions precedent to the making of such extension of credit or the issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of such letter of credit or bankers' acceptance under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP ABL Agent (in its sole discretion), DIP Term Loan Agent (acting at the direction of the Required DIP Term Lenders), as applicable, and in accordance with the terms of the DIP ABL Agreement and the DIP Term Loan Agreement.

9. Use of Proceeds of DIP Facilities. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use advances of credit under the DIP Facilities, in accordance with the Budget, only for the purposes specifically set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, and in compliance with the terms and conditions in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents.

Authorization to Use Cash Collateral

10. Authorization to Use Cash Collateral. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the DIP Facilities and the DIP Documents and in accordance with the Budget, the Debtors are authorized to use Cash Collateral until the DIP Termination Date (as defined herein); provided, however, that during the Remedies Notice Period (as defined herein) the Debtors may use Cash Collateral in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Budget solely to meet payroll obligations and pay expenses critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates in accordance with the Budget, as agreed by the DIP Agents and the Required DIP Lenders in reasonable discretion. Nothing in this Interim Order shall authorize the disposition of any assets of the Debtors or their estates outside the ordinary course of business, or any Debtor's use of any Cash Collateral or other proceeds resulting therefrom, except as permitted in this Interim Order, the DIP Facilities, the DIP Documents, and in accordance with the Budget.

11. Adequate Protection Liens.

(i) Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens. Pursuant to Sections 361, 363(e) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Revolver Parties in the Prepetition Collateral against any Diminution in Value of such interests in the Prepetition Collateral, the DIP ABL Loan Parties hereby grant to the Prepetition Revolver Agent, for the benefit of itself and the Prepetition Revolver Parties, continuing valid, binding, enforceable and perfected postpetition security interests in and liens on the DIP ABL Collateral (the “Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens”).

(ii) Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens. Pursuant to Sections 361, 363(e) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Term Loan Parties in the Prepetition Collateral against any Diminution in Value of such interests in the Prepetition Collateral, the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Parties hereby grant to (x) the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent, on behalf of itself and the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties and (y) the Prepetition TL Second Lien Agent, on behalf of itself and the Prepetition TL Second Lien Parties, continuing valid, binding, enforceable and perfected postpetition security interests in and liens on the DIP Term Collateral (the “Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens,” and together with the Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens, the “Adequate Protection Liens”).

12. Priority of Adequate Protection Liens.

(i) The Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and shall otherwise be junior only to: (a) with respect to the DIP ABL Primary Collateral (1) Permitted Prior Liens; (2) the DIP ABL Liens; and (3) the Prepetition Revolver Liens; and (b) with respect to the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral (1) Permitted Prior Liens; (2) the DIP Term Loan Liens; (3) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens; (4) the Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens; (5) the DIP ABL Liens; and (6) the Prepetition Revolver Liens. The Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens shall be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP ABL Loan Parties' assets.

(ii) The Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and shall otherwise be junior only to: (a) with respect to the DIP ABL Primary Collateral (1) Permitted Prior Liens; (2) the DIP ABL Liens; (3) the Prepetition Revolver Liens; (4) the Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Liens; (5) the DIP Term Loan Liens; and (6) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens; and (b) with respect to the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral (1) Permitted Prior Liens; (2) the DIP Term Loan Liens; and (3) the Prepetition Term Loan Liens. The Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens shall be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP Term Loan Parties' assets. For the avoidance of doubt, as among the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties and the Prepetition TL Second Lien Parties, the Prepetition Term Loan Adequate Protection Liens shall be subject to the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement.

(iii) Except as provided herein, the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in any of the Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of the Cases or Successor Cases. The Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, or 550 of the Bankruptcy Code. No lien or interest avoided and preserved for the benefit of the estate pursuant to section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be pari passu with or senior to the Prepetition Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens.

13. Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims.

(i) Prepetition Revolver Superpriority Claim. As further adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Revolver Parties in the Prepetition Collateral against any Diminution in Value of such interests in the Prepetition Collateral, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, on behalf of itself and the Prepetition Revolver Parties, is hereby granted as and to the extent provided by section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim in each of the Cases and any Successor Cases (the “Prepetition Revolver Superpriority Claim”).

(ii) Prepetition Term Loan Superpriority Claim. As further adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Term Loan Parties in the Prepetition Collateral against any Diminution in Value of such interests in the Prepetition Collateral, (x) the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent, on behalf of itself and the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties and (y) the Prepetition TL Second Lien Agent, on behalf of itself and the Prepetition TL Second Lien Parties, are hereby granted as and to the extent provided by section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code allowed superpriority administrative expense claims in each of the Cases and any Successor Cases (the “Prepetition Term Loan Superpriority Claim,” and together with the Prepetition Revolver Superpriority Claim, the “Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims”).

14. Priority of the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. Except as set forth herein, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims shall have priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to Sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 506(c) (subject to entry of the Final Order), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu with each other, without otherwise impairing the lien priorities as set forth herein, and subject to the Carve Out and junior to the DIP Superpriority Claims.

15. Adequate Protection Payments and Protections for Prepetition Revolver Parties. As further adequate protection (the “Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Payments”), the Debtors are authorized and directed to provide adequate protection to the Prepetition Revolver Parties in the form of payment in cash (and as to fees and expenses, without the need for the filing of a formal fee application) of (i) interest, at the default rate, (ii) principal due under the Prepetition Revolver Documents, subject to the rights preserved in paragraph 42 below including payments pursuant to paragraph 23 hereof, (iii) immediately upon entry of this Interim Order, payment of the reasonable fees, expenses, and disbursements (including without limitation, the fees, expenses, and disbursements of counsel and third-party consultants and other vendors, including without limitation, financial advisors and auditors) incurred by the Prepetition Revolver Agent arising prior to the Petition Date, (iv) the reasonable fees, expenses, and disbursements (including without limitation, the fees, expenses, and disbursements of counsel and third-party consultants and other vendors, including without limitation, financial advisors and auditors) incurred by the Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Revolver Lenders arising subsequent to the Petition Date; provided, however, following an Event of Default, any such payments to the Prepetition Revolver Parties shall be made solely from DIP ABL Primary Collateral, and (v) establishment of a segregated account in the control of the Prepetition Revolver Agent (the “Prepetition Revolver Indemnity Account”), into which the sum of $500,000 of Cash Collateral shall be deposited as security for any reimbursement, indemnification, or similar continuing obligations of the Debtors in favor of the Prepetition Revolver Lenders under the Prepetition Revolver Documents (the “Prepetition Indemnity Obligations”).

(i) The funds in the Prepetition Revolver Indemnity Account shall secure all costs, expenses, and other amounts (including reasonable and documented attorneys’ fees) incurred by the Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Revolver Lenders in connection with or responding to (x) formal or informal inquiries and/or discovery requests, any adversary proceeding, cause of action, objection, claim, defense, or other challenge as contemplated in paragraph 42 hereof, or (y) any Challenge (as defined below) against the Prepetition Revolver Agent, or the Prepetition Revolver Lenders related to the Prepetition Revolver Documents, the Prepetition Liens, or the Prepetition Revolver Obligations, whether in the Chapter 11 Cases or independently in another forum, court, or venue.

(ii) The Prepetition Indemnity Obligations shall be secured by a first priority lien on the Prepetition Indemnity Account and the funds therein and by a lien on the Prepetition Collateral.

(iii) The Prepetition Revolver Lenders may apply amounts in the Prepetition Indemnity Account against the Prepetition Indemnity Obligations as and when they arise, without further notice to or consent from the Debtors, any Committee, or any other parties in interest and without further order of this Court.

(iv) In addition to the establishment and maintenance of the Prepetition Indemnity Account, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, shall retain and maintain the Prepetition ABL Liens as security for the amount of any Prepetition Indemnity Obligations not capable of being satisfied from application of the funds on deposit in the Prepetition Indemnity Account.

16. Adequate Protection Payments and Protections for Prepetition TL First Lien Parties. As further adequate protection (the “Prepetition TL First Lien Adequate Protection Payments,” and together with the Prepetition Revolver Adequate Protection Payments, the “Adequate Protection Payments”), the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay in cash, without the need for the filing of formal fee applications: (i) immediately upon entry of this Interim Order, the reasonable and documented (in summary form) fees, expenses, and disbursements (including without limitation, the fees, expenses, and disbursements of counsel and third-party consultants and other vendors, including without limitation, financial advisors and auditors) incurred by each of the (a) Prepetition TL First Lien Agent, (b) the Consenting First Lien Lenders party to the Restructuring Support Agreement as of the Petition Date represented by King & Spalding LLP (the “Prepetition First Lien TL Ad Hoc Group”), and (c) counsel retained by any Initial Consenting Lender (as such term is defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) prior to the Petition Date subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 5(v) of the Restructuring Support Agreement arising prior to the Petition Date; and (ii) the reasonable fees, expenses, and disbursements (including without limitation, the fees, expenses, and disbursements of counsel and third-party consultants and other vendors, including without limitation, financial advisors and auditors) incurred by the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent, the Prepetition First Lien TL Ad Hoc Group, and any Initial Consenting Lender arising subsequent to the Petition Date; provided that following an Event of Default, any such payments to the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties, Prepetition First Lien TL Ad Hoc Group, or any Initial Consenting Lender shall be made solely from the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral; and provided further, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any such payments are made to the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties or the Prepetition First Lien TL Ad Hoc Group from advances under the DIP ABL Credit Facilities or from the proceeds of Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral or the DIP ABL Primary Collateral, the DIP ABL Lenders shall be reimbursed dollar for dollar from the proceeds of Prepetition Term Priority Collateral and DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral.

17. Adequate Protection Reservation. Nothing herein shall impair or modify the application of section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties hereunder is insufficient to compensate for any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral during the Cases or any Successor Cases. The receipt by the Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties of the adequate protection provided herein shall not be deemed an admission that the interests of the Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties are adequately protected. Further, this Interim Order shall not prejudice or limit the rights of the Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties to seek additional relief with respect to the use of Cash Collateral or for additional adequate protection.

Provisions Common to DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral

18. Amendment of the DIP Documents. The DIP Documents may from time to time be amended, modified or supplemented by the parties thereto without further order of the Court if: (a) the amendment, modification, or supplement (i) is in accordance with the DIP Documents, and (ii) does not prejudice the rights of the Debtors in any material respect; (b) a copy (which may be provided through electronic mail or facsimile) of the amendment, modification or supplement is provided to counsel to each of the other DIP Agents, a Creditors'

Committee (if appointed), and the U.S. Trustee (collectively, the “Notice Parties”); and (c) the amendment, modification or supplement is filed with the Court; provided, however, that neither consent of the Notice Parties nor approval of the Court will be necessary to effectuate any such amendment, modification or supplement and provided further that such amendment, modification or supplement shall be without prejudice to the right of any party in interest to be heard.

19. Budget Maintenance. The use of borrowings and letters of credit under the DIP Facilities shall be in accordance with the Budget and the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents. The Budget and any modification to, or amendment or update of, the Budget shall be subject to the approval of, and in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the DIP Agents and the Required DIP Lenders in their sole discretion.

20. Budget Compliance. The use of borrowings and letters of credit under the DIP Facilities shall be in accordance with the Budget and the DIP Documents; provided, however, that, in the case of the fees, costs and expenses of the DIP Agents, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent, and the Prepetition First Lien TL Ad Hoc Group, the Debtors shall pay such fees, costs and expenses in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order without being limited by the Budget.

21. Modification of Automatic Stay. The automatic stay imposed under section 362(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby modified as necessary to effectuate all of the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, to: (a) permit the Debtors to grant the DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (b) permit the Debtors to perform such acts as the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agents each may reasonably request to assure the perfection and priority of the liens granted herein; (c) permit the Debtors to incur all liabilities and obligations to the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties under the DIP Documents, the DIP Facilities and this Interim Order; and (d) authorize the Debtors to pay, and the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties to retain and apply, payments made in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order.

22. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens. This Interim Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the creation, validity, perfection, and priority of all liens granted herein, including the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, mortgage, notice, or other instrument or document which may otherwise be required under the law or regulation of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement) to validate or perfect (in accordance with applicable non-bankruptcy law) the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, or to entitle the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties to the priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the DIP Agents, the Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent each are authorized to file, as it in its sole discretion deems necessary or advisable, such financing statements, security agreements, mortgages, notices of liens and other similar documents to perfect in accordance with applicable non-bankruptcy law or to otherwise evidence the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens, and all such financing statements, mortgages, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded as of the Petition Date; provided, however, that no such filing or recordation shall be necessary or required in order to create or perfect the DIP Liens, or the Adequate Protection Liens. The Debtors are authorized and directed to execute and deliver promptly upon demand to the DIP Agents, Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agents all such financing statements, mortgages, notices and other documents as the DIP Agents, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, or the Prepetition Term Loan Agents may reasonably request. The DIP Agents, the Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agents, each in its discretion, may file a photocopy of this Interim Order as a financing statement with any filing or recording office or with any registry of deeds or similar office, in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, notices of lien or similar instrument. To the extent that the Prepetition Revolver Agent or any Prepetition Term Loan Agent is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, each DIP Agent (as applicable) shall also be deemed to be the secured party or mortgagee, as applicable, under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable. The Prepetition Agents shall serve as agents for the DIP Agents for purposes of perfecting the DIP Agents' liens on all DIP Collateral that, without giving effect to the Bankruptcy Code and this Interim Order, is of a type such that perfection of a lien therein may be accomplished only by possession or control by a secured party.

23. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the entry of the DIP Documents, the extension of credit under the DIP Facilities and the authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the date of the Interim Hearing, the Debtors shall apply all net proceeds of DIP Collateral that is sold in the ordinary course or liquidated as follows: (a) with respect to DIP ABL Primary Collateral (i) first, following the occurrence of an Event of Default (as defined herein), to costs and expenses of the DIP ABL Agent; (ii) second, to permanently reduce the Prepetition Revolver Obligations; (iii) third, to reduce the DIP ABL Obligations, and (iv) after indefeasible repayment in full in cash of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations and the DIP ABL Obligations (including, in each case, provision for contingent obligations) and the termination of the DIP ABL Credit Facilities and all commitments thereunder, (x) to costs and expenses of the DIP Term Loan Agent, (y) to reduce the DIP Term Loan Obligations, and (z) to reduce the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations in accordance with the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement; and (b) with respect to DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral, (i) first, to costs and expenses of the DIP Term Loan Agent; (ii) second, to reduce the DIP Term Loan Obligations; (iii) third, to reduce the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations in accordance with the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement, and (iv) after indefeasible repayment in full in cash of the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations and the DIP Term Loan Obligations (including, in each case, provision for contingent obligations), (x) to costs and expenses of the DIP ABL Agent, (y) to permanently reduce the Prepetition Revolver Obligations, and (z) to reduce the DIP ABL Obligations. The reduction of the Prepetition Secured Obligations is subject to the preservation of rights provided in paragraph 42 herein.

24. Protections of Rights of DIP Agents, DIP Lenders and Prepetition Secured Parties.

(i) Unless the DIP Agents, the Required DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Agents shall have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations and all Prepetition Secured Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash and all commitments thereunder are terminated, there shall not be entered in any of these Cases, any Successor Cases or the Canadian Cases any order (including any order confirming any plan of reorganization or liquidation) that authorizes any of the following: (i) the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other Lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and/or that is entitled to administrative priority status, in each case that is superior to or pari passu with the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Prepetition Liens, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens, and/or the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (ii) the use of Cash Collateral for any purpose other than as permitted in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, the return of goods pursuant to section 546(h) of the Bankruptcy Code (or other return of goods on account of any prepetition indebtedness) to any creditor of any Debtor or any creditor's taking any setoff against any of its prepetition indebtedness based upon any such return of goods pursuant to section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, or (iii) any modification of any of the DIP Agents', DIP Lenders', or the Prepetition Secured Parties' rights under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Documents with respect any DIP Obligations or Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(ii) The Debtors (and/or their legal and financial advisors in the case of clauses (ii) through (iv) below) will, whether or not the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, (i) maintain books, records, and accounts to the extent and as required by the DIP Documents, (ii) reasonably cooperate with, consult with, and provide to the DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders all such information and documents that any or all of the Debtors are obligated (including upon reasonable request by any of the DIP Agents or the DIP Lenders) to provide under the DIP Documents or the provisions of this Interim Order, (iii) upon reasonable advance notice, permit consultants, advisors and other representatives (including third party representatives) of each of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Agents to visit and inspect any of the Debtors' respective properties, to examine and make abstracts or copies from any of their respective books and records, to tour the Debtors' business premises and other properties, and to discuss, and provide advice with respect to, their respective affairs, finances, properties, business operations, and accounts with their respective officers, employees, independent public accountants and other professional advisors (other than legal counsel) as and to the extent required by the DIP Documents and/or the Prepetition Documents, (iv) permit the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agents, and their respective consultants, advisors and other representatives to consult with the Debtors' management and advisors on matters concerning the Debtors' businesses, financial condition, operations and assets, and (v) upon reasonable advance notice, permit the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Agents to conduct, at their discretion and at the Debtors' cost and expense, field audits, collateral examinations, liquidation valuations and inventory appraisals at reasonable times in respect of any or all of the DIP Collateral and Prepetition Collateral.

(iii) No Debtor shall object to any DIP Lenders or any Prepetition Secured Parties credit bidding up to the full amount of the applicable outstanding DIP Obligations, Prepetition Revolver Obligations (as applicable), and Prepetition Term Loan Obligations (as applicable), in each case, including any accrued interest and expenses, in any sale of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, as applicable, and whether such sale is effectuated through Section 363 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, by a Chapter 7 trustee under Section 725 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, subject, in each case, to the rights and duties of the parties under the Intercreditor Agreements and to the provision of consideration sufficient to pay in full in cash any senior liens on the collateral that is subject to the credit bid.

25. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c) or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Documents at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agents' and DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facilities, including subsequent to the confirmation of any plan with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facilities are secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debt shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agents to be applied in accordance with this Interim Order, the DIP Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements.

26. Cash Collection. From and after the date of the entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall maintain cash management in accordance with the DIP ABL Agreement, including, without limitation, Section 6.13 thereof. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agents and Prepetition Agents, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the Cash Management Order (the "Cash Management Order"). The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' maintain deposit accounts (as identified in any Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such deposit accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP ABL Agent.

27. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facilities, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facilities or the Prepetition Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by any order that may be entered by the Court which has first been agreed to by the DIP Agents or as otherwise required by the DIP Documents.

28. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP ABL Primary Collateral or Prepetition Revolver Primary Collateral other than in the ordinary course of business without the prior written consent of the DIP ABL Agent and Prepetition Revolver Agent (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP ABL Agent, DIP ABL Lenders, or Prepetition Revolver Parties), except as otherwise provided for in the DIP ABL Documents, and subject to the Intercreditor Agreement. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral or Prepetition Term Priority Collateral other than in the ordinary course of business without the prior written consent of the DIP Term Loan Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Term DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Term Loan Agents (acting at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined in the applicable Prepetition Term Loan Agreement) (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Term Loan Agent, DIP Term Loan Lenders, or Prepetition Term Loan Parties), except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Term Loan Documents, and subject to the Intercreditor Agreement.

29. Reserved.

30. DIP Termination Date. On the applicable DIP Termination Date (as defined herein), (a) all applicable DIP Obligations shall be immediately due and payable, all commitments to extend credit under the applicable DIP Facilities will terminate, other than as required in paragraph 39 with respect to the Carve Out, all treasury management and bank product obligations shall be cash collateralized, and all letters of credit and bankers' acceptances outstanding shall be cash collateralized in an amount equal to 105% of the face amount thereof, and such cash collateral shall not be subject to or subordinate to the Carve Out, and (b) all authority to use Cash Collateral shall cease, provided, however, that during the Remedies Notice Period (as defined herein), the Debtors may use Cash Collateral to pay payroll and other expenses critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates in accordance with the Budget and approved by the DIP Agents and the Required DIP Lenders. For the purposes of this Interim Order, the "DIP Termination Date" shall mean the "Termination Date" as defined in each of the DIP ABL Agreement and the DIP Term Loan Agreement, as applicable.

31. Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events, unless waived by the DIP Agents in writing and in accordance with the terms of the DIP ABL Agreement and the DIP Term Loan Agreement, shall constitute an event of default (collectively, the "Events of Default"): (a) the failure of the Debtors to perform, in any respect, any of the terms, provisions, conditions, covenants, or obligations under this Interim Order or any orders of the Canadian Court, or (b) the occurrence of an "Event of Default" under, and as defined in, the DIP ABL Agreement or the DIP Term Loan Agreement.

32. Reserved.

33. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default. Immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default under either the DIP ABL Documents or the DIP Term Loan Documents, notwithstanding the provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, without any application, motion or notice to, hearing before, or order from the Court, but subject to the terms of this Interim Order (and to any notice or other requirements of the Canadian Court in the case of the Canadian Loan Parties) (a) each DIP Agent may declare (any such declaration shall be referred to herein as a “Termination Declaration”) (1) all DIP Obligations owing under the respective DIP Documents to be immediately due and payable, (2) the termination, reduction or restriction of any further commitment to extend credit to the Debtors to the extent any such commitment remains under the respective DIP Facilities, (3) termination of the respective DIP Credit Facilities and the respective DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the applicable DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders, but without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations, and (4) that the application of the Carve Out has occurred through the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice to the Borrower; and (b) either the DIP ABL Agent (in the case of Cash Collateral of proceeds of the DIP ABL Primary Collateral) or the DIP Term Loan Agent (in the case of Cash Collateral of proceeds of the DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral) may declare a termination, reduction or restriction on the ability of the Debtors to use Cash Collateral (the date which is the earliest to occur of any such date a Termination Declaration is delivered and the DIP Termination Date shall be referred to herein as the “Termination Date”). The Termination Declaration shall be given by electronic mail (or other electronic means) to counsel to the Debtors and the Canadian Loan Parties, counsel to the DIP ABL Agent and Tranche A-1 Agent (if delivered by the DIP Term Loan Agent), counsel to the DIP Term Loan Agent (if delivered by the DIP ABL Agent), counsel to a Creditors’ Committee (if appointed), and the U.S. Trustee. The automatic stay in the Cases otherwise applicable to the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties is hereby modified so that five (5) business days after the date a Termination Declaration is delivered (the “Remedies Notice Period”): (A) the applicable DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders shall be entitled to exercise their rights and remedies in accordance with the respective DIP Documents and this Interim Order and shall be permitted to satisfy the relevant DIP Obligations, DIP Superpriority Claim and DIP Liens, subject to the Carve Out, (B) the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to exercise their rights and remedies to satisfy the relevant Prepetition Secured Obligations, Adequate Prepetition Superpriority Claims and Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens, subject to and consistent with (i) the Carve Out, (ii) this Interim Order, (iii) the Intercreditor Agreements, and (iv) in the case of the Canadian Loan Parties, any notice or other requirements of the Canadian Court. During the Remedies Notice Period, the only basis on which the Debtors and/or a Creditors' Committee (if appointed) shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing within the Remedies Notice Period with the Court shall be to contest whether an Event of Default has occurred and/or is continuing and the DIP Lenders shall consent to such emergency hearing, and the Debtors hereby waive their right to and shall not be entitled to seek relief, including, without limitation, under Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent that such relief would in any way impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the automatic stay, as to all of the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall automatically be terminated at the end of the Remedies Notice Period without further notice or order. Upon expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties shall be permitted to exercise all remedies set forth herein, in the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Documents, and as otherwise available at law without further order of or application or motion to the Court consistent with the Intercreditor Agreements (but in the case of the Canadian Loan Parties, subject to any notice or other requirements of the Canadian Court).

34. Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code; No Modification or Stay of this Interim Order. The DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties have acted in good faith in connection with this Interim Order and are entitled to rely upon the protections granted herein and by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the findings set forth in this Interim Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter modified, amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this Court or any other court, the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances previously made or made hereunder, or lien, claim or priority authorized or created hereby.

35. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of (x) the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facilities, as provided in the DIP Documents, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and (y) the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent and the Prepetition TL First Lien Ad Hoc Group, as set forth herein, in each case, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Payment of all such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent and the Prepetition TL First Lien Lenders shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtors, each professional shall provide copies of its fee and expense statements or invoices in summary form (which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of such invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the U.S. Trustee and counsel for a Creditors' Committee (if appointed) contemporaneously with the delivery of such fee and expense statements to the Debtors. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Agent, the Prepetition TL First Lien Agent or the Prepetition TL First Lien Lenders shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to (x) the DIP Agents or DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facilities, or (y) the Prepetition Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the Prepetition Secured Facilities, are, in each case, hereby approved in full.

36. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Agreements.

37. Proofs of Claim. The DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties will not be required to file proofs of claim in any of the Cases or Successor Cases for any claim allowed herein. Notwithstanding any order entered by the Court in relation to the establishment of a bar date in any of the Cases or Successor Cases to the contrary, each of (a) the Prepetition Revolver Agent on behalf of itself and the Prepetition Revolver Parties, (b) the Prepetition TL First Lien Loan Agent on behalf of itself and the Prepetition TL First Lien Parties and (c) the Prepetition TL Second Lien Agent on behalf of itself and the Prepetition TL Second Lien Parties is hereby authorized and entitled, in its sole discretion, but not required, to file (and amend and/or supplement, as it sees fit) a proof of claim and/or aggregate proofs of claim in each of the Cases or Successor Cases for any claim allowed herein. Any proof of claim filed by the Prepetition Revolver Agent or any Prepetition Term Loan Agent shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties, respectively. Any order entered by the Court in relation to the establishment of a bar date in any of the Cases or Successor Cases shall not apply to any claim of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and the Prepetition Term Loan Parties.

38. Reserved.

39. Carve Out.

(a) Carve Out. As used in this Final Order, the “Carve Out” means the sum of (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee under section 1930(a) of title 28 of the United States Code plus interest at the statutory rate; (ii) all reasonable fees and expenses up to $50,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Chapter 7 Trustee Carve-Out”); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, procedural order, or otherwise (and, in the case of the Committee Professionals (as defined below), subject to the Budget), all unpaid fees and expenses (the “Allowed Professional Fees”) incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to section 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Debtor Professionals”) and (subject to the Budget) the Creditors’ Committee pursuant to section 328 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Committee Professionals” and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the “Professional Persons”) at any time before or on the first business day following delivery by the DIP ABL Agent or DIP Term Loan Agent of a Carve Out Trigger Notice (as defined below), whether allowed by the Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees of Professional Persons in an aggregate amount not to exceed $2,000,000 incurred after the first business day following delivery by the DIP ABL Agent or the DIP Term Loan Agent of the Carve Out Trigger Notice, to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, procedural order, or otherwise (the amounts set forth in this clause (iv) being the “Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap”).⁶ For purposes of the foregoing, “Carve Out Trigger Notice” shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP ABL Agent or DIP Term Loan Agent to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Creditors’ Committee, which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the DIP ABL Obligations or the DIP Term Loan Obligations under the DIP ABL Facility or DIP Term Loan Facility, respectively, stating that the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(b) Delivery of Weekly Fee Statements. Not later than 5:00 p.m. New York time on Tuesday of each week starting with the second week following the Petition Date, each Professional shall deliver to the Debtors, the DIP ABL Agent, the Prepetition ABL Agent and the DIP Term Loan Agent a statement setting forth the amount and a description of the fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such professional Person (each such statement, a “Weekly Statement”). Solely as it relates to the DIP ABL Agent, the DIP ABL Lenders, the Prepetition ABL Agent and the Prepetition ABL Lenders, the Carve Out under paragraph (a)(iii) above shall be limited to the greater of (x) the aggregate unpaid amount of Professional Fees included in such Weekly Statements timely received by the DIP ABL Agent and Prepetition ABL Agent prior to the Termination Declaration Date (as defined below), and (y) the aggregate unpaid amount of Professional Fees included in the Budget for the period prior to the Termination Declaration Date (such amount, the “ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap”). For the avoidance of doubt, the DIP ABL Agent shall at all times maintain, as part of the Availability Reserve (as defined in the DIP ABL Agreement), a reserve in an amount not less than the sum of (i) the then outstanding amount of the ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap, plus (ii) the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap, plus (iii) the amounts contemplated under paragraph (a)(i) and (a)(ii) above;

(c) Carve Out Reserves. On the day on which a Carve Out Trigger Notice is given by either the DIP ABL Agent or the DIP Term Loan Agent to the Debtors with a copy to counsel to the Creditors’ Committee (the “Termination Declaration Date”), the Carve Out Trigger Notice shall be deemed (i) a draw request and notice of borrowing by the Debtors for DIP ABL Loans under the DIP ABL Agreement in an amount equal to the sum of (x) the amounts set forth in paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii), above, and (y) the then unpaid amounts of the Allowed Professional Fees up to the ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP ABL Loans) and (ii) a draw request and notice of borrowing by the Debtors for DIP Term Loans under the DIP Term Loan Facility in an amount equal to the unpaid amounts of the Allowed Professional Fees in excess of the ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP Term Loans), and shall also constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand as of such date and any available cash thereafter held by any Debtor to fund a reserve in an amount equal to the then unpaid amounts of the Allowed Professional Fees (which cash amounts shall reduce, on a dollar for dollar basis, the draw requests and applicable DIP ABL Loans and DIP Term Loans pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) of this paragraph (c)). The Debtors shall deposit and hold such amounts in a segregated account at the DIP ABL Agent in trust exclusively to pay such unpaid Allowed Professional Fees (the “Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve”). On the Termination Declaration Date, the Carve Out Trigger Notice shall also be deemed a request by the Debtors for (x) DIP ABL Loans under the DIP ABL Agreement in an amount equal to the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute Revolving Credit Loans) and, (y) to the extent not funded by the DIP ABL Lenders, for DIP Term Loans in an amount equal to any unfunded portion of the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP Term Loans). The Debtors shall deposit and hold such amounts in a segregated account at the DIP ABL Agent in trust exclusively to pay such Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (the “Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve” and, together with the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve, the “Carve Out Reserves”). On the third business day following the Termination Declaration Date and the deemed requests for the making of DIP ABL Loans and DIP Term Loans as provided in this paragraph (c), notwithstanding anything in the DIP ABL Agreement or the DIP Term Loan Agreement to the contrary, including with respect to (1) the existence of a Default (as defined in the DIP ABL Agreement or the DIP Term Loan Agreement) or Event of Default, (2) the failure of the Debtors to satisfy any or all of the conditions precedent for the making of any DIP ABL Loan under the DIP ABL Agreement or DIP Term Loans under the DIP Term Loan Agreement (other than with respect to the DIP Term Loan Agreement, the entry of a Final Order by the Court permitting the Debtors to borrow funds under the DIP Term Loan Agreement), respectively, (3) any termination of the DIP ABL Loan Commitments or DIP Term Loan Commitments following an Event of Default, or (4) the occurrence of the Maturity Date, each DIP ABL Lender and DIP Term Loan Lender with an outstanding Commitment shall make available to the DIP ABL Agent or DIP Term Loan Agent, as applicable, such DIP ABL Lender's or such DIP Term Loan Lender's pro rata share of such DIP ABL Loans or DIP Term Loans, as applicable; provided, however, that nothing herein shall require the DIP Term Loan Lenders to make DIP Term Loans in excess of $30 million in the aggregate. For the avoidance of doubt, the Carve Out Reserves shall constitute the primary source for payment of Allowed Professional Fees entitled to benefit from the Carve Out, and any lien priorities or superpriority claims granted pursuant to this Interim Order to secure payment of the Carve Out shall be limited to any shortfall in funding as provided below.

(d) Application of Carve Out Reserves. (i) All funds in the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve shall be used first to pay the obligations set forth in subparagraphs (a)(i) through (a)(iii) of the definition of Carve Out set forth above (the "Pre-Carve Out Amounts"), but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (other than amounts up to $500,000 to the extent the Pre-Carve Out Amounts exceed the ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap), until paid in full. If the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve has not been reduced to zero, subject to clause (iii), below, all remaining funds shall be distributed first to the DIP ABL Agent on account of the DIP ABL Obligations (excluding the Secured Hedge Obligations, the Secured Cash Management Obligations, and Contingent Obligations) until indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, all Commitments have been terminated, and all Letters of Credit have been cancelled (or all such Letters of Credit have been fully cash collateralized or otherwise back-stopped, in each case to the satisfaction of the applicable DIP ABL L/C Issuers), and thereafter to the Prepetition ABL Lenders in accordance with their rights and priorities as of the Petition Date.

(ii) All funds in the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve (other than up to $500,000, which may be used to pay Pre-Carve Out Amounts to the extent they exceed the ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap) shall be used first to pay the obligations set forth in clause (iv) of the definition of Carve Out set forth above (the “Post-Carve Out Amounts”). If the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve has not been reduced to zero, subject to clause (iii), below, all remaining funds shall be distributed first to the DIP ABL Agent on account of the DIP ABL Obligations (excluding the Secured Hedge Obligations, the Secured Cash Management Obligations, and Contingent Obligations) until indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, all Commitments have been terminated, and all Letters of Credit have been cancelled (or all such Letters of Credit have been fully cash collateralized or otherwise back-stopped, in each case to the satisfaction of the applicable DIP ABL L/C Issuers), and thereafter to the Prepetition ABL Lenders in accordance with their rights and priorities as of the Petition Date.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP ABL Documents, the DIP Term Loan Documents or this Interim Order, if either of the Carve Out Reserves is not funded in full in the amounts set forth in this paragraph (c), then, any excess funds in one of the Carve Out Reserves following the payment of the Pre-Carve Out Amounts and Post-Carve Out Amounts, respectively, shall be used to fund the other Carve Out Reserve to the extent of any shortfall in funding prior to making any payments to the DIP ABL Agent or the Prepetition ABL Lenders, as applicable.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP ABL Documents, the DIP Term Loan Documents or the Interim Order, following delivery of a Carve Out Trigger

Notice, the DIP ABL Agent, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the DIP Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Carve Out Reserves have been fully funded, but shall have a security interest in any residual interest in the Carve Out Reserves, with any excess paid as provided in paragraphs (ii) and (iii) above.

(v) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, (i) the failure of the Carve Out Reserves to satisfy in full the Allowed Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve Out with respect to any shortfall (as described below), and (ii) subject to the limitations with respect to the DIP ABL Agent, DIP ABL Lenders, Prepetition ABL Agent and Prepetition ABL Lenders set forth in paragraph (b), above, in no way shall the Initial Budget, any Approved Budget, Annual Operating Forecast, Carve Out, Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap or Carve Out Reserves be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Facilities, or in any Prepetition Secured Facilities, to the extent of any shortfall in the Carve Out Reserves, the Carve Out shall be senior to all liens and claims securing the DIP Facilities, the Adequate Protection Liens, and the Diminution in Value claims, and any and all other forms of adequate protection, liens, or claims securing the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Secured Obligations; provided that in all cases, the Carve Out priority with regard to the DIP ABL Collateral will always be subject to the ABL Professional Fee Carve Out Cap.

(d) No Direct Obligation To Pay Allowed Professional Fees. The DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders shall not be responsible for the payment or reimbursement of any fees or disbursements of any Professional Person incurred in connection with the Cases or any Successor Cases under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in this Final Order or otherwise shall be construed to obligate the DIP Agents or the DIP Lenders, or the DIP L/C Issuers, in any way, to pay compensation to, or to reimburse expenses of, any Professional Person or to guarantee that the Debtors have sufficient funds to pay such compensation or reimbursement.

(e) Payment of Allowed Professional Fees Prior to the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made prior to the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall not reduce the Carve Out.

(f) Payment of Carve Out On or After the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall permanently reduce the Carve Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Any funding of the Carve Out shall be added to, and made a part of, the DIP Obligations secured by the DIP Collateral and shall be otherwise entitled to the protections granted under this Final Order, the DIP Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable law.

40. Limitations on Use of DIP Proceeds, Cash Collateral and Carve Out. The DIP Facilities, the DIP Collateral, the Prepetition Collateral, the Cash Collateral and the Carve Out may not be used in connection with: (a) preventing, hindering, or delaying any of the DIP Agents', the DIP Lenders', the Prepetition Revolver Parties' or the Prepetition Term Loan Parties' enforcement or realization upon any of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral; (b) using or seeking to use Cash Collateral or selling or otherwise disposing of DIP Collateral without the consent of the applicable DIP Agents and the applicable Required DIP Lenders; (c) using or seeking to use any insurance proceeds constituting DIP Collateral without the consent of the applicable DIP Agents and the applicable Required DIP Lenders; (d) incurring Indebtedness

(as defined in the DIP ABL Agreement or the DIP Term Loan Agreement) without the prior consent of the applicable DIP Agents and the applicable Required DIP Lenders, except to the extent permitted under the applicable DIP Agreements; (e) seeking to amend or modify any of the rights granted to the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, or the Prepetition Documents, including seeking to use Cash Collateral and/or DIP Collateral on a contested basis; (f) objecting to or challenging in any way the DIP Liens, DIP Obligations, Prepetition Liens, Prepetition Secured Obligations, DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or, as the case may be, Prepetition Collateral, or any other claims or liens, held by or on behalf of any of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively; (g) asserting, commencing or prosecuting any claims or causes of action whatsoever, including, without limitation, any actions under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions to recover or disgorge payments, against any of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Secured Parties, or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees; (h) litigating, objecting to, challenging, or contesting in any manner, or raising any defenses to, the validity, extent, amount, perfection, priority, or enforceability of any of the DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Liens, Prepetition Secured Obligations or any other rights or interests of any of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (i) seeking to subordinate, recharacterize, disallow or avoid the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Secured Obligations; provided, however, that the Carve Out and such collateral proceeds and loans under the DIP Documents may be used for allowed fees and expenses, in an amount not to exceed $50,000 in the aggregate, incurred solely by a Creditors' Committee (if appointed), in investigating (but not prosecuting or challenging) the validity, enforceability, perfection, priority or extent of the Prepetition Liens (the “Limited Amount”); and provided, further, that during the Remedies Notice Period the Debtors and a Creditors’ Committee (if appointed) shall be entitled to an emergency hearing before the Court to contest solely whether an Event of Default has occurred and/or is continuing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any fees, expenses or costs incurred by Committee Professionals in excess of the Limited Amount or in excess of the amount budgeted for Committee Professionals set forth in the Budget shall not constitute an allowable administrative expense claim, including for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

41. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as a consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any Professional Person or shall affect the right of the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties, or the Prepetition Term Loan Parties to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses. So long as an unwaived Event of Default has not occurred, the Debtors shall be permitted to pay fees and expenses allowed and payable by final order (that has not been vacated or stayed, unless the stay has been vacated) under sections 328, 330, 331, and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, as the same may be due and payable, as reflected in the most recent Budget provided by the Debtors to the DIP Agents.

42. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties.

(i) Generally. The admissions, stipulations, agreements, releases, and waivers set forth in this Interim Order (collectively, the “Prepetition Lien and Claim Matters”) are and shall be binding on the Debtors, any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including, without limitation, any official committee that may be appointed in these cases, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with standing and requisite authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) (i) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including, without limitation, as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in paragraph of this Interim Order) challenging the Prepetition Lien and Claim Matters (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a “Challenge”) by no later than the earliest of: (a) 60 calendar days from the date of entry of the appointment of the Creditors’ Committee and (b) 75 calendar days from the Petition Date (the “Challenge Deadline”), as such applicable date may be extended in writing from time to time in the sole discretion of the Prepetition Revolver Agent (with respect to the Prepetition Revolver Documents) and the Prepetition Term Loan Agents (acting at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined in the applicable Prepetition Term Loan Agreement) (with respect to the applicable Prepetition Term Loan Documents), or by this Court for good cause shown pursuant to an application filed by a party in interest prior to the expiration of the Challenge Deadline, and (ii) this Court enters judgment in favor of the plaintiff or movant in any such timely and properly commenced Challenge proceeding and any such judgment has become a final judgment that is not subject to any further review or appeal.

(ii) Binding Effect. To the extent no Challenge is timely and properly commenced by the Challenge Deadline, then, without further notice, motion, or application to, order of, or hearing before, this Court and without the need or requirement to file any proof of claim, the Prepetition Lien and Claim Matters shall, pursuant to this Interim Order, become binding, conclusive, and final on any person, entity, or party in interest in the Cases, and their successors and assigns, and in any Successor Case for all purposes and shall not be subject to challenge or objection by any party in interest, including, without limitation, a trustee, responsible individual, examiner with expanded powers, or other representative of the Debtors' estates. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if any such proceeding is properly and timely commenced, the Prepetition Lien and Claim Matters shall nonetheless remain binding on all other parties in interest and preclusive as provided in subparagraph (a) above except to the extent that any of such Prepetition Lien and Claim Matters is expressly the subject of a timely and properly filed Challenge, which Challenge is successful as set forth in a final judgment, and only as to plaintiffs or movants that have complied with the terms hereof. To the extent any such Challenge proceeding is timely and properly commenced, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to payment of the related costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred under the Prepetition Documents in defending themselves in any such proceeding as adequate protection.

43. No Third Party Rights/No Superior Rights of Reclamation. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary. Based on the findings and rulings herein concerning the integrated nature of the DIP Agreements and the Prepetition Secured Facilities and the relation back of the DIP Liens, in no event shall any alleged right of reclamation or return (whether asserted under Section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise) be deemed to have priority over the DIP Liens.

44. Section 506(c) Claims. Subject to entry of a Final Order, no costs or expenses of administration which have been or may be incurred in the Cases at any time shall be charged against the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Revolver Parties or the Prepetition Term Loan Parties, or any of their respective claims, the DIP Collateral, or the Prepetition Collateral pursuant to sections 105 or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, without the prior written consent, as applicable, of the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties, as applicable, and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence by any such agents or lenders.

45. No Marshaling/Applications of Proceeds. Subject to entry of a Final Order, the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of “marshaling” or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral, as the case may be, and proceeds shall be received and applied pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents notwithstanding any other agreement or provision to the contrary.

46. Section 552(b). Subject to entry of a Final Order, the Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties shall each be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(h) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the “equities of the case” exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties, with respect to proceeds, product, offspring or profits of any of the Prepetition Collateral.

47. Access to DIP Collateral. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary and without limiting any other rights or remedies of the DIP Agents, exercisable on behalf of the DIP ABL Lenders and DIP Term Loan Lenders, respectively, contained in this Interim Order, the DIP ABL Documents, the DIP Term Loan Documents, or otherwise available at law or in equity, and subject to the terms of the DIP ABL Documents and DIP Term Loan Documents, upon written notice to the landlord of any leased premises that an Event of Default or the Termination Date has occurred and is continuing, the DIP ABL Agent or DIP Term Loan Agent, as applicable, may, subject to the applicable notice provisions, if any, in this Interim Order and any separate applicable agreement by and between such landlord and the DIP ABL Agent or DIP Term Loan Agent (and in the case of the Canadian Loan Parties, subject to any notice or other requirements of the Canadian Court), enter upon any leased premises of the Debtors or any other party for the purpose of exercising any remedy with respect to DIP Collateral located thereon and shall be entitled to all of the Debtors' rights and privileges as lessee under such lease without interference from the landlords thereunder, provided that the DIP ABL Agent and/or DIP Term Loan Agent, as applicable, shall be obligated only to pay rent of the Debtors that first accrues after the written notice referenced above and that is payable during the period of such occupancy by the DIP ABL Agent and/or DIP Term Loan Agent, as applicable, calculated on a daily per diem basis. Nothing herein shall require the DIP ABL Agent or DIP Term Loan Agent to assume any lease as a condition to the rights afforded in this paragraph. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to (and without waiver of) the rights of the DIP Agents and/or DIP Lenders under applicable nonbankruptcy law, the DIP Agents and/or DIP Lenders can only enter upon a leased premises after an Event of Default or the Termination Date in accordance with (i) a separate agreement with the landlord at the applicable leased premises, or (ii) upon entry of an order of this Court obtained by motion of the DIP Agents and/or DIP Lenders on such notice to the landlord as shall be required by this Court.

48. Limits on Lender Liability. Subject to entry of a Final Order, nothing in this Interim Order or in any of the DIP ABL Documents, DIP Term Loan Documents, Prepetition Documents, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a “responsible person” or “owner or operator” with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Interim Order, the DIP ABL Documents, or the DIP Term Loan Documents, shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agents, the DIP Lenders, the DIP Term Loan Secured Parties, or any of the Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

49. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. Upon entry of this Interim Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP ABL Agent (on behalf of the DIP ABL Lenders), the DIP Term Loan Agent (on behalf of the DIP Term Loan Lenders), the Prepetition Revolver Agent (on behalf of the Prepetition Revolver Lenders), and the Prepetition Term Loan Agents (on behalf of the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders), shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and loss payee on each insurance policy maintained by the Debtors that in any way relates to the DIP Collateral.

50. Joint and Several Liability. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be construed to constitute a substantive consolidation of any of the Debtors’ estates, it being understood, however, that the Lead Borrower, Borrowers and Guarantors shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations hereunder and all DIP Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof and of the DIP Facilities and the DIP Documents.

51. Unwinding of Pay Down of Prepetition Secured Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything in this Interim Order to the contrary, the Court may unwind, after notice and hearing, any pay down of Prepetition Secured Obligations in the event that there is a timely and successful challenge to the validity, enforceability, extent, perfection, or priority of the applicable Prepetition Secured Party's claims or liens, or a determination that the applicable Prepetition Secured Obligations are under-secured as of the Petition Date, and the pay down of such Prepetition Secured Obligations unduly advantaged the applicable Prepetition Secured Party. Any amount realized from unwinding a paydown of Prepetition Secured Obligations shall be used to prepay DIP ABL Obligations if a paydown of Prepetition Revolver Obligations is unwound and to prepay DIP Term Loan Obligations if a paydown of Prepetition Term Loan Obligations is unwound.

52. Rights Preserved. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly: (a) the DIP Agents', DIP Lenders', Prepetition Revolver Parties', and Prepetition Term Loan Parties' right to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors; (b) any of the rights of any of the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and/or the Prepetition Term Loan Parties under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Cases or Successor Cases, conversion of any of the Cases to cases under Chapter 7, or appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers, or (iii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a Chapter 11 plan or plans; or (c) subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, any other rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) of any of the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, the Debtors', a Creditors' Committee's (if appointed) or any party in interest's right to oppose any of the relief requested in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence except as expressly set forth in this Interim Order. Entry of this Order is without prejudice to any and all rights of any party in interest with respect to the terms and approval of the Final Order and any other position which any party in interest deems appropriate to raise in the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases.

53. No Waiver by Failure to Seek Relief. The failure of the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties or Prepetition Term Loan Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise their rights and remedies under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Documents, or applicable law, as the case may be, shall not constitute a waiver of any of the rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise of the DIP Agent, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties, Prepetition Term Loan Parties, Creditors' Committee (if appointed) or any party in interest.

54. Binding Effect of Interim Order. Immediately upon execution by this Court, the terms and provisions of this Interim Order shall become valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Debtors, DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties, Prepetition Term Loan Parties, all other creditors of any of the Debtors, any Creditors' Committee (or any other court appointed committee) appointed in the Cases, and all other parties-in-interest and their respective successors and assigns, including any trustee or other fiduciary hereafter appointed in any of the Cases, any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any Case or Successor Case.

55. No Modification of Interim Order. Until and unless the DIP Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, and all letters of credit under the DIP Facilities shall have been cancelled, backed, or cash collateralized in accordance with the terms thereof (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Facilities which survive such discharge by their terms), and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facilities have been terminated, the Debtors irrevocably waive the right to seek and shall not seek or consent to, directly or indirectly: (a) without the prior written consent of the DIP Agents and the DIP Lenders (or the Prepetition Agents (acting, in the case of the Prepetition Term Loan Agreements, at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined therein)), (i) any modification, stay, vacatur or amendment to this Interim Order; or (ii) a priority claim for any administrative expense or unsecured claim against the Debtors (now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation any administrative expense of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 506(c), 507(a) or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) in any of the Cases or Successor Cases, equal or superior to the DIP Superpriority Claims or Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, other than the Carve Out, the Administration Charge, and the Canadian Unsecured Creditors Charge; (b) without the prior written consent of the DIP Agents (or the Prepetition Agents (acting, in the case of the Prepetition Term Loan Agreements, at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined therein))) for any order allowing use of Cash Collateral (other than as permitted during the Remedies Notice Period) resulting from DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral; (c) without the prior written consent of the applicable DIP Agents, any lien on any of the DIP Collateral with priority equal or superior to the DIP Liens, except as specifically provided in the DIP Documents; or (d) without the prior written consent of the Prepetition Agents (acting, in the case of the Prepetition Term Loan Agreements, at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined therein)), any lien on any of the DIP Collateral with priority equal or superior to the Prepetition Liens or Adequate Protection Liens. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any amendment, modification or extension of this Interim Order without the prior written consent, as provided in the foregoing, of the DIP Agents (or the Prepetition Agents (acting, in the case of the Prepetition Term Loan Agreements, at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined therein))), and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Agents or the Prepetition Agents (acting, in the case of the Prepetition Term Loan Agreements, at the direction of the “Required Lenders” (as defined therein)).

56. Continuing Effect of Intercreditor Agreements. The Debtors, DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties each shall be bound by, and in all respects of the DIP Facilities shall be governed by, and be subject to all the terms, provisions and restrictions of the Intercreditor Agreements, except as may be expressly modified by this Interim Order. Notwithstanding Section 2.5 of the Intercreditor Agreement, Payless ShoeSource of Puerto Rico, Inc., Payless ShoeSource Canada Inc., Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc., and Payless ShoeSource Canada LP shall not constitute First Lien Term Credit Parties or Second Lien Term Credit Parties (as each term is defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) and any Property (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) of Payless ShoeSource of Puerto Rico, Inc., Payless ShoeSource Canada Inc., Payless ShoeSource Canada GP Inc., and Payless ShoeSource Canada LP will constitute DIP ABL Collateral.

57. Interim Order Controls. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents and of this Interim Order, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern and control.

58. Discharge. The DIP ABL Obligations, the DIP Term Loan Obligations, and the obligations of the Debtors with respect to the adequate protection provided herein shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming any plan of reorganization in any of the Cases, notwithstanding the provisions of section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, on or before the effective date of such confirmed plan of reorganization, or each of the DIP ABL Agent, DIP Term Loan Agent, DIP ABL Lenders, and DIP Term Loan Lenders, and each of the Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, as applicable, has otherwise agreed in writing. None of the Debtors shall propose or support any plan of reorganization or sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets, or order confirming such plan or approving such sale, that is not conditioned upon the indefeasible payment of the DIP ABL Obligations (in the case of the sale of DIP ABL Primary Collateral) and DIP Term Loan Obligations (in the case of the sale of DIP Term Loan Primary Collateral), and the payment of the Debtors' obligations with respect to the adequate protection provided for herein, in full in cash within a commercially reasonable period of time (and in no event later than the effective date of such plan of reorganization or sale) (a "Prohibited Plan or Sale") without the written consent of each of the DIP ABL Agent, DIP Term Loan Agent, DIP ABL Lenders, and DIP Term Loan Lenders, and each of the Prepetition Revolver Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors' proposal or support of a Prohibited Plan or Sale, or the entry of an order with respect thereto, shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder and under the DIP ABL Documents and DIP Term Loan Documents.

59. Survival. The provisions of this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered: (a) confirming any plan of reorganization in any of the Cases; (b) converting any of the Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) dismissing any of the Cases or any Successor Cases; or (d) pursuant to which this Court abstains from hearing any of the Cases or Successor Cases. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including the claims, liens, security interests and other protections granted to the DIP Agents, DIP Lenders, Prepetition Revolver Parties and Prepetition Term Loan Parties granted pursuant to this Interim Order and/or the DIP Documents, shall continue in the Cases, in any Successor Cases, or following dismissal of the Cases or any Successor Cases, and shall maintain their priority as provided by this Interim Order until: (i) in respect of the DIP ABL Credit Facilities, all the DIP ABL Obligations, pursuant to the DIP ABL Documents and this Interim Order, have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash and all letters of credit under the DIP ABL Credit Facilities shall have been cancelled or cash collateralized in accordance with the terms thereof (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP ABL Credit Facilities which survive such discharge by their terms), and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP ABL Credit Facilities are terminated; (ii) in respect of the Prepetition Revolver Facility, all of the Prepetition Revolver Obligations pursuant to the Prepetition Revolver Documents and this Interim Order, have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash; (iii) in respect of the DIP Term Loan Credit Facility, all the DIP Term Loan Obligations, pursuant to the DIP Term Loan Documents and this Interim Order, have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash; and (iv) in respect of the Prepetition Term Loan Agreement, all of the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations pursuant to the Prepetition Term Loan Documents and this Interim Order have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash. The terms and provisions concerning the indemnification of the DIP Agents and DIP Lenders shall continue in the Cases, in any Successor Cases, following dismissal of the Cases or any Successor Cases, following termination of the DIP Documents and/or the indefeasible repayment of the DIP Obligations.

In addition, the terms and provisions of this Interim Order shall continue in full force and effect for the benefit of the Prepetition Term Loan Parties notwithstanding the repayment in full or termination of the DIP ABL Obligations or the Prepetition Revolver Obligations.
